Italian Aerial Armada Was Scheduled to Hop Off Today

Shediac Reception

State, City and Church Combine to Welcome Great Italian Squadron

REJKAVIK, Iceland, July 11:-The take-off, which was to have taken place Saturday night and again Sunday and yesterday, of the Italian trans-Atlantic air squadron led by General Italo Balbo, having been postponed on account of heavy gales prevailing on the Western Atlantic Ocean, the 23 big planes were to have left here today for Cartwright, Labrador, in continuation of their trip to Chicago,

From here to Cartwright Bay house as far as the Pool is conthe distance is 1500 miles and it cerned. part of the trip.

SHEDIAC, N.B., July 11: (Ca- so, nadian Press)-Federal, provincial and civic authorities have co-operated in assuring a warm welcome for Italy's great air armada now nearing here on its way to the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago.

The elaborate program has been prepared under direction of a distinguished Canadian, Dr. J. Clarence Webster, D.Sc., Lld., F.R.S.C. and it includes an official banquet to be tendered by the federal government.

Shediae is a riot of color for the occasion, with a profusion of flags and bunting not only within the town but along Shediac Bay. where the armada will alight to Dignitaries of the church and state will be on hand to welcome the Italian air fleet and the official dinner of the Dominion government to General Italo Balbo, Italy's air minister, and his officers will be an event in the history of New Brunswick. A member of the federal cabinet will extend the official welcome from Ottawa, while Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, premier of the province, will extend New Brunswick's welcome. Major General the Hon. Hugh H. McLean, lieutenant-governor, will attend.

After the loyal toasts to King George and the King of Italy the toast of welcome to General Balbe and his men will be proposed by the lieutenant-governor, ministers of the federal and provincial governments and the mayor of Shediac, General Balbo will respond.

The dinner will be followed by a reception and ball.

It is not necessary to recount here and now the reasons why Prince Rupert is destined for great things. They have been said so often that it is futile to repeat. Local residents all know them. What is needed is a greater confidence expressed in speaking with strangers. Let it be granted that the reason we are all here is because we have faith in the town. If we had not we should be elsewhere. Let us then adopt a confident attitude. Let us tell the world that we stewart People Decide to Continue believe in Prince Rupert, that we are in Prince Rupert because we like to be here and because we believe it is the best place in the world for us.

USEFUL BUT NOT VITAL

The London conference can prove very useful but its deliberations are not vital to the recovery of the world from the depression which is already passing as rapidly as it safely may. Great things were expected of it and great things may yet be achieved although it is doubtful if 33 were adopted and funds voted it will have any very material permanent effect on the for the ensuing year. The trustees progress of the world. Possibly the foundation may be laid for future deliberations which may deal with the same questions from a different angle.

Imes Are Better

Times are already better. Our business is increasing. We are selling shoes to everybody and that makes us happy. Nothing succeeds like success and we are succeeding in the shoe business because we are giving such values that the buyers cannot help coming back next time they need footwear.

Join the happy throng by calling in at our store and looking over our shoes and be comfortable and look well at a very small cost. We have shoes to suit every purse except the empty one.

Fishermen, loggers, cannerymen and laborers find what they want at our store. Clerks, clergymen and capitalists all come to us because we treat them right and sell them the goods they want at the right prices.

Farewell Party Is Held at Usk

Mr. and Mrs. J. Tennant Henored Ir Leaving For East

The home of Miss K. Durham. Usk, was the scene of a jolly party given by the Usketeers in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Tennant who are leaving their midst.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Tennant were presented with a parting gift, accompanied by a cleverly and appropriately composed poem, as a token of the esteem in which the young couple were held. The party then journeyed to the depot where they sung "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," and bid Mr. and Mrs. Tennant farewell as they boarded the train for eastern points.
