Situation Is Clarified Says The Province

The Vancouver Province, dealing with the present political situation in an editorial article says in part. "The political situation in British Columbia has clarified a little over the week-end. The Bowser party is a party no longer. Such of the Bowser candidates as remain in the field will run as independent candidates owing no allegiance to Sightless Doctor leader or platform. AMY AND JIM PLAN TO LEAVE

Expect to Hop Off From Wasaga Beach But Much Depends Upon Weather

NEW YORK, Sept. 13:-Amy Johnson Mollison and Captain Mollison plan to hop off soon from Wasaga Beach, Ont., some sixty miles northwest of Toronto on an attempted non-stop flight for the world's distance record.

"Our plans call for a start at Wasaga Beach, but this is still indefinite," Mrs. Mollison said. "Of course there is still much doubt as to whether we shall be able to start on account of the close approach of winter and the hazards of ice and gales."

Mrs. Mollison leaves for Toronto tonight and will meet Captain Mollison at Quebec Thursday.

MUCH LIKE CANADA

"The men who made the United States the richest country in the world did not go about wringing their hands and quaking in their boots. They worked—whether the going was easy or whether it was hard," says an editorial article in the Atlantic Monthly.

"For nearly three years too many men, who themselves have had plenty to eat and to drink, good beds to sleep in and comfortable homes, have spent hours and hours predicting hard luck and disaster.

"Last spring such men were saying that the United New York States appeared to be headed for bankruptcy. Since then Pittsburg the government has begun to cut its expenses and increase st. Louis its income. It is resolutely facing its difficulties. There is Boston no reason for anyone to fear that the nation may fail in Brooklyn its obligations, or collapse.

"The man who is saturated with gloom spreads it. When he loses his sane, clear-eyed viewpoint he may seek sym- washington pathy, but what he really needs is to be shaken out of an New York unhealthy frame of mind.

"And the man who hoards not only robs his family but Detroit fails to do his share in promoting normal business and em- chicago ployment of workers. He aggravates the condition which Boston he deplores.

"Some men need jobs-need them badly. They must be helped. But more men need to get readjusted to conditions as they exist. These men may need to readjust their mode of living or their way of thinking.

"Worries fester and grow in the dark. They shrivel and vanish in the light. There are times in every man's lifewhether he be strong or weak, brave or cowardly-when him he needs the counsel of someone who is unafraid. And there are many who know that our country has battled through difficult periods and has always emerged stronger than before.

No one with a spattering knowledge of the progress of religious thought would pick out the clergy of one church as being more advanced than another. Restrictions On Peddlers in City of Juneau

Itinerant Merchants Must Post Bond, Pay Licence of $15 a Day And Much Not Knock On Doors

JUNEAU, Sept. 13:-The city council passed a law which goes into immediate effect providing that peddlers and itinerant merwhole armor of self."-Archbishop chants shall post a bond of $500 and pay a licence fee of $15 a day while operating in the city.

Peddlers are prohibited from entering upon private premises without previous appointment and the ordinance declares that such acts as ringing of door bells and knocking upon doors with a view to carrying on trade are a nuisance and shall be prosecuted as such.

Stump Walked Off

And Wondered What He Had Been Drinking

ALICE ARM, Sept. 13:-A Granby official was somewhat surprised the other morning and wondered what he had been drinking.

It was just before daylight-cool, grey dawn on the Alice Arm flats. This official had gone down to the neighboring mining camp for the opening of the shooting season. On the morning in question he stole quietly out to the flats to try to get a shot at the birds in their early morning flight.

Ahead of the hunter was a dark shadow that looked like a stump. He moved toward it intending to take shelter from the sharp eyes of the birds but the stump moved away. The hunter rubbed his eyes and began to wonder if he was seeing things when he discovered that the moving stump was a black bear also out looking for breakfast in the early morning. No need to tell what happened next!

Just the thought It's a live baby alligator seven of one pair of alien eyes observing her preparations for retiring to her downy cot for the night is enough to drive the average woman into a fit of double jitters.

Consider then the feelings of petite little Janet Gaynor-the soul of modesty, the epitome of demureness-performing this intimate rite with no less than 72 persons closely observing her every move-the long journey from the Gulf has a very simple explanation. Miss Coast but was somewhat dazed by Gaynor was at work in a scene of the cool weather prevailing on his "Adorable," on a stage at the Fox arrival here, but in his new home Studio, when her privacy was so Wednesday night he came to life brutally invaded.
