"Cynara," a moving picture in-New Potatoes, Cal. & B.C. 3 lbs. .25 spired by the well known poem Comedy-"MAIDS A LA MODE" 25 "Cynara" by Ernest Dowson and the 2.25 novel "An Imperfect Lover" by 08 Robert Gore-Brown, comes as the 07 feature offering to the screen of 25 the Capitol Theatre here this mid-.07 week. The story is that of a man .11 and wife, devoted, upright and 20 faithful, until the wife goes away; 25 when the husband, casually and 25 meaning to be kind, becomes in-25 volved with a shop girl, the wife 25 coming home to contemplate the .03 wreck of their lives and face with .30 him the task of building anew. It is 22 a quiet, human story that might 35 happen to anyone. It is a humanly 12 romantic drama with no melodra-10 matics, no villains and no theatrics. Ronald Colman, the fine English

.08 actor, plays the part of the hus-25 band. Kay Francis, sleek and finely 03 groomed as ever, is the wife, while Phyllis Barry, a newcomer from the English stage, has the important role of the shopgirl. Henry Stephenson has the part he played in the stage production.

From the Waterfront

With Capt. William Mounce, re-35 gularly pliot of the steamer Catala, 25 in command, Union Steamship Co. has its freighter Chilliwack back in service on the coast on account of the heavy movement of freight to cannery points. The vessel, after having called with cargo at various points in the Skeena River, left Port 15 Essington at 12:45 noon yesterday 12 for the Naas River. Following the taking over of command of the Chilliwack by Capt. Mounce, Alex C. McLennan has taken over duty for 15 the summer as pilot of the Catala. .18 An absentee now from the north-17 ern run of the Union company is .15 Capt.
