One Out of Twelve in Canada Working Now, Prime Minister Says

At Rate Revenues are Increasing Now, Budget Should be Balanced by End of Year, Government Head Declares

MONTREAL, June 9: (CP)—Expressing the belief that Canada was standing on the threshold of a prosperity greater than she had ever known, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett told the annual banquet of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association here last night that at least one out of every twelve Canadian men, women and children were on a payroll on May 1 and that, at the rate revenues were increasing in the last two months, the budget Program of Public would be balanced at the end of the year.

Miss Sarah Jane De-Vine of Vancouver Becomes Bride of William Rogers

The marriage was quietly solemnized last evening at the home of Miss Jessie Rothwell, Fifth Avenu East, of Miss Sarah Jane De-Vine R.N. and William Wesley Rogers, both of whom recently arrived from Vancouver. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe pastor of First Baptist Church, and only intimate friends of the contracting couple were present. Mr. Rogers, who lived here in the early days as a boy but has for many years made his home in Vancouver, returned recently to take a position with the Northern Fishermen's Co-operative cold storage plant. He and Mrs. Rogers will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their friends. They will reside in the home of Miss Rothwell until she returns to the
