INTERNATIONAL RACE CONGRESS OPENED TO-DAY

LEADERS AT THE INTERNATIONAL RACES CONGRESS

(Colonial Press Despatch)
London, July 27.—For the first time in history, representatives of almost every known racial division will meet in conference to plan a campaign looking toward an amelioration of the hatred and jealousy today prevalent among the three great divisions of the world's inhabitants—the Mongolian, Caucasian and Ethiopian. The first of this sessions will open today in the auditorium of the University of London. The International Races' Congress is the name given to this convention, which will continue its meetings for four days.

Some of the most prominent philanthropists, theologians, statesmen and economists of the world will deliver addresses. Among the writers of the papers are: Sir Sydney Oliver, Sir Charles Bruce, Dr. Felix Adler of New York, chairman of the honorary general committee of the Congress; Sir John Macdonnell, Baron D'Estournelles de Constant and many others equally well known throughout the world. The convention has received the endorsement of the Court of Arbitration and of the delegates of the Second Hague Conference.

besides a great number of churchmen of all denominations. This meeting between the East and the West, and the North and the South marks a new era in suggestion that resulted in the coming together of the Congress. Speaking at Eisenbach in July 1906, he suggested the holding of a congress to ascertain how far it was possible to bring the conscience of the modern world to bear upon the problems presented by racial divisions. At the time of its utterance, Dr. Adler's suggestion was received with great acclaim and still greater doubt. The idea, however, gained favor, and after years spent in preparations a date was set and representatives of the various nations agreed to the convention.

ENGLISH MONEY TO FIGHT RECIPROCITY

Tariff Interests in Great Britain Send Half a Million Dollars to the Opposition for Election Purposes—American Tariff Interests Will Also Make Big Contributions.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Ottawa, July 27.—The Ottawa Free Press, a Liberal paper, states today that "A member of the Canadian Parliament who has just returned from England has brought from a group of British tariff reformers an invitation to the opponents of reciprocity to draw on them to the extent of $500,000 for a campaign to defeat reciprocity."

Dissolve Next Week
It is expected that next week will see the dissolution of Parliament, and that the general elections will all be held between the dates of September 20th and September 25th. The Government is relying for success at the polls on the popularity of reciprocity with the rural constituencies. It is conceded that the cities are less promising than the rural districts.

Imported Money
The Opposition is relying largely on big campaign funds which the British tariff reformers and the American interests which are opposed to reciprocity are expected to contribute. These are expected to come down handsomely in their efforts to prevent the taxes on food products from being removed, and a lot of money will be spent on the campaign by the

TO PRINCE RUPERT BY POWERFUL MOTOR CYCLE

Mr. George Ellis, Special Newspaper Representative is on His Way Here Now from Winnipeg.—In Neighborhood of Edmonton today. Will arrive by C.T.P. Track at Wharf Depot.

George Ellis, special representative of the Winnipeg Free Press, is at present on his way to Prince Rupert from Winnipeg by motor cycle. The route has never yet been traversed either by motor cycle or auto-car. Owing to the arduous nature of the journey it is impossible to say just when the plucky cyclist will reach here. He started about a week ago from the grounds of the Winnipeg exhibition, and travelled at first via Portage la Prairie, Brandon, Virken, Regina, Moosejaw and Edmonton in the neighborhood of which city he is at present. From Edmonton his route will be chosen by means of local advice.

Special Motor Cycle
The trip is being made on a Minneapolis motor cycle, supplied by the T. Eaton company, and is specially adapted for the journey on account of its front spring construction and the two-speed feature which will minimize a lot of the fatigue that the rider is bound to experience.

Plentiful Equipment
Ellis was well provided for the long run with small spare parts, spare inner tubes for the tires, a camera presented by Duffin & Company with which he will take snapshots en route to verify the trip. He also carries a Steven's rifle, a silver medal presented by Henry Birks with an inscription stating the object of the ride, and a gold watch given to him by Porte and Markle. He will also have a railroad attachment for his wheel, which will allow him to take to the rails when the trail is too rough or stony to traverse with his wheel.

Will Arrive at Wharf
Unless anything unforeseen happens to cyclist or machine on the roughest part of the route beyond Edmonton and through the mountains Ellis will arrive in Prince Rupert via the G. T. P. Railway line and will dismount from his machine at the wharf depot. His will not be the first motor cycle to arrive in Rupert as the honor of having first ridden one on Prince Rupert's plankways belongs to Mr. Murton E. Rugg, a former member of the Daily News staff, and also a Winnipeg man. Before setting out on his trip to this city Mr. Ellis heard something from Mr. Rugg of motor cycling "thrills" experienced rounding Prince Rupert corners, and the temptation to come here was too great for him to resist.

IT WAS A MISCOUNT PUT FRENCH GOVERNMENT OUT

Instead of a Minority, French Ministry had a Majority at the time of M. Monis' Resignation—Correct Figures Come to Light Too Late to Affect Situation.

Paris, July 26.—Probably for the first time in history a Ministry has been overthrown owing to votes on a crucial question being counted wrongly.

A crisis arose in the French Chamber over an interpellation regarding the attitude of the Government as to the chief command of the Army in the event of war, and after a division the official showed 238 votes against the Government and 224 in favor.

M. Monis, the Premier, and his colleagues thereupon decided on resignation. The curious fact has now been brought to light, however, that at the moment of the fateful division there was considerable confusion in regard to the votes for and against.

A number of deputies announced that their names had appeared on the wrong division list. An official rectification was made, with the result that so far from having been defeated by fourteen it was discovered that the Government had a majority of five.

Though this discovery may be the source of much personal satisfaction to the ex-Premier, it is of course, too late to affect the fate of his Ministry. M. Caillaux has reconstructed the old Ministry. There are fourteen Cabinet Ministers and four Under Secretaries.

TRIPPED AND PLUNGED TO SAVE BULL TERRIER

King Instance of Kindness to a Dog in Danger of Drowning at Digby Island Marine Station.
—H. M. Lever of Prince Rupert had Chilly Swim to the Rescue.

eriously enough within a day of the establishment of a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in Prince Rupert there comes a fine example of kindness to a dog in distress, kindness in even some risk to human life. It is from Digby Island Marine Station under construction, the story arrives. The incident happened yesterday afternoon. The actors in the little play are Mr. H. M. Lever who employed on plaster work over a favorite bull-terrier belonging to the construction gang. The dog is a high spirited one, ready to plunge after anyone in the water, and yesterday upon the movement of some one above the surface of the water he attracted the bull terrier's attention. After yelping excitedly for a moment or two he plunged into the water and for the spot. Reaching the dog he nosed around looking for any water rats and in about got his hind legs twisted up in the long weeds. He was struggling helplessly, and yelping piteously when Harry Lever from where he was working at the new piles, took in the situation.

Stripped and Plunged

Without an instant's hesitation, seeing that the dog was certainly in distress and would probably drown in a few minutes, Mr. Lever stripped off his clothes, and plunged into the water. As everybody knows who has tried harbor bathing here the plunge is a pretty chilly one. Mr. Lever is a powerful swimmer, however, and swiftly covered the hundred yards or so between him and the drowning doggie. The bull terrier wisely realising that aid was coming hung on, and a few minutes later his rescuer was able to extricate the entangled hind-legs, and swim ashore with the grateful dog. Both dried down briskly, and neither is any the worse of the little adventure, but the boys at the Island are quite pleased with the incident and the way the bull terrier knows his kind hearted rescuer from amongst them.

Mr. A. Gutstein of the Acme Clothing Store, is in town. He says business is good at the branch store in Hazelton.

"THE PATRONAGE COMMITTEE"

The sardonic title bestowed upon the city council in the early days of its efforts to bestow public patronage upon its private friends is likely to stick if certain members of the council can make it.

Nothing is too small to be made the subject of machine politics. In fact the smallness and pettiness of some of the patronage that is eagerly grabbed at, makes it unbecoming even to dispute. One of the most recent cases is over the renewal of the city employees' bonds. The bonds were negotiated through the office of a well-known ex-alderman, who while living at present in Victoria, has large investments, a permanent office and a resident manager in Prince Rupert. More that that, he is doing more than any present member of the council to influence men and capital towards Prince Rupert. Yet when the question of renewing the bonds came up, one of the aldermen objected on the ground that it was going to "a non resident." His objection was upheld. This is Liliputian statesmanship with a vengeance.

An even more glaring piece of maladministration occurred over the renewal of a $1,000 policy on the telephone plant. It was withdrawn from a well-known local insurance firm without reason being given. A member of the firm went to Alderman Newton as a member of the finance committee for an explanation. The editor-alderman is reported to have made no concealment of the fact that he was handing out public patronage to help his private business.

"You could hardly expect me to turn business your way after withdrawing your firm's advertisements from the columns of my paper," was the cool statement attributed to the Incorruptible One.

The fact that the amount at stake was trifling does not rob the incident of its lesson.

A CIVIC DUTY TO PROTECT THE SICK

A Toronto subscriber to the Daily News writes saying "I am pleased with the advanced position you take editorially on the hospital question in demanding that the hospital treatment be made a civic utility." He enclosed the subjoined resolution recently passed by the Riverdale Progressive Citizens' League favoring free dental clinics in the interest of public health.

Since the publication of the editorial article which called forth our reader's comment, the death took place in Prince Rupert of a young girl-mother under sad circumstances, whose life might have been spared to happiness and usefulness had hospital treatment been the right of the citizen instead of the privilege of the moneyed.

A more enlightened age will call such a practice economic foolishness—if it does not choose a more scathing name.

The following is the resolution of the Riverdale (Toronto) Progressive Citizens' League:

"Whereas investigation has shown that, owing to the poverty or neglect of parents, large number of children suffer from an insufficiency of medical care, and, further, that children's teeth are in a deplorable condition; and

"Whereas the preservation of the teeth is essential to good health and good health essential to the enjoyment of life; and

"Whereas governments should do all in their power to protect their citizens against the destitution, the needless suffering, the blasted hopes, the terrible despair and the premature death caused by the appalling amount of sickness in the world, most of which is said to be preventable; and

"Whereas money spent upon the conservation of public health is well invested, the prevention of disease being much cheaper than its cure, and the maintenance of a high standard of industrial efficiency more economical than permitting physical deterioration; therefore be it

"Resolved that the Riverdale Progressive Citizens' League places itself on record as favoring free medical treatment as well as free medical inspection of school children, and that, as a step in this direction, we call upon the Board of Education to establish free dental clinics in connection with the public schools, the children's teeth to be periodically examined and repaired absolutely free of charge, this service to be rendered to all alike without any taint of charity."

POLYGAMY IS NOT THE RULE

Even the Turks Find it Hard to Support More Than One Wife.

Constantinople, July 24.—There exists in Europe a mistaken notion that almost every married Turk has several wives, that he is at liberty to marry as many times as he likes, and that it is for him just as easy to divorce a wife as to change an overcoat. Now polygamy in Turkey is the exception, and not the rule, the majority of the Osmanlis having only one wife. In the metropolis itself polygamy does not amount to five per cent. It is very rarely met with in other big centres of the Ottoman empire, save among the richest and most powerful functionaries, and even then plurality of wives is an exception.

The reason for the rarity of polygamous practices among Moslems is the very expensive character of the wedding ceremony. To begin with a Turk desirous to marry has to hand over to his bride's parents a sum of between $50 and $2,500, or even much more, according to the means and social position of the couple, in order to furnish the nuptial chamber. Besides, the prospective wife demands a large number of presents, very often extremely costly and frequently beyond the means of the bridegroom. These presents consist, as a rule (of bracelets, earrings, brooches, rings, etc.) and are sine qua non of a Turkish wedding.

One hundred and seventy insane persons, several score guards and keepers were passengers on this train which arrived in Ponoka on Monday morning.

KING'S PRIZE MAN HAD THREE TRIES

Private Clifford Has been a Member of the Bisley Team for Three Years—Has Always Been a Good Shot.

Toronto, July 26.—Private W. J. Clifford, who has performed the hitherto unaccomplished feat of winning both the Prince of Wales' prize and the King's prize, is a member of B company of the 10th Royal Grenadiers. He lives at 7 Lippincott street with his wife and child. He was born at Brampton, Ont., in January 1878, and has been a resident of Toronto for about eight years. Six years ago he became a member of the Grenadiers, and is admittedly one of the most popular young men in the regiment.

Mr. Clifford was the best shot in his regiment for two years. He won the president's match twice, and last year at Ottawa he won the National Association's medal for shooting. In 1909 he was waiting man on the Bisley team and was a member last year and this year. Last year, however, he did not make the finals and did not shoot for the King's Prize.

G.T.P. TO HAVE SUPERB LINERS

Transpacific Boats will Surpass the Big Flyers of the C. P. R. and Canadian Northern.

Announcement is made in the Syren and Shipping in an article on the Grand Trunk Pacific system that the railroad company proposes to operate "a service of luxurious steamers from the Pacific terminal to the Orient."

The C. P. R. has ordered two palatial Empress liners of 15,000 tons register, with luxurious passenger accommodation, including suites of rooms for private parties and staterooms de luxe, a feature not heretofore included in Pacific ocean steamers, and when these vessels are ready for service in December of next year it is likely that the Grand Trunk Pacific will have made its plans for the Pacific service in connection with the transcontinental railroad and Canada Northern railroad will have plans out for Royal liners to connect with the third transcontinental line which that system is building.

AT THE THEATRE

May Roberts Company Gave Excellent Performance of "The Marriage of Kitty."

With the Enpress Theatre packed to the doors with an audience ripe for laughter, the May Roberts Company last night responded to the occasion with an excellent performance of the famous comedy, "The Marriage of Kitty." From the rise of the curtain till the drop, they kept the audience in screams of laughter and delight. So complete a success was it that the comedy will be repeated at a special matinee on Saturday.

The story is well known to many theatre-goers. "Kitty" finding her self almost penniless turns to her lawyer god-father Kensal Rise for advice. Kitty is hard to please. Frankly she states it that she wants a husband. But a good-looking, kind, honest and rich husband—the kind favored by Kitty is not easy to find offhand.

Kensal Rise has an idea. His client, young Sir Torrington Parke wants to defeat a clause in his uncle's will designed to prevent him from marrying Madam De Semiano, a designing Peruvian widow. The clause says he must marry within six weeks. Kensal Rise sees the prospect of securing a comfortable allowance for Kitty by proposing that she become the wife of Sir Torrington. They are to part at the altar. Sir Torrington is to qualify for his uncle's fortune. A year afterwards he is to get a divorce from Kitty on the ground of desertion and hand his heart and fortune over to Madam De Semiano.

But after being duly installed in her comfortable villa, a wife without a husband, Kitty decides the game is a rather lonely one. She wants a real husband, and when Sir Torrington at the end of the year turns up to "arrange the divorce, don't cher know," Kitty makes him so comfortable and jolly that they postpone the divorce indefinitely and fall in love with each other to the great discomfiture of Madam De Semiano.

In the presentation there was not a single weak feature. As Kensal Rise the wise old family lawyer, Mr. Ira Robertson divided the honors with Miss Roberts, who gave a charming presentation of the jolly young grass widow who yearned to have a real man around the house.

As Sir Torrington Parke, Mr. Gillard played the part of the ardent care-free young aristocrat to perfection, while special praise is due to Miss Lillian St. John for the excellent work she did in the thankless part of the hysterical, erratic and ill tempered Madam De Semiano. Both Leonard Carey who played the part of Burberry, the wise butler, and Bobbie Williamson who played the part of Hampton, the wise lawyers' wise office boy, showed themselves highly capable in the comedy parts.

Tonight the company will present Eugene Walters well known drama "Paid in Full."

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

PANELS ON SKIRTS

Feminine Fancy Takes to New Fashion after Some Delay

Nearly all the tight skirts now being made have a panel, or panels, down the back. The idea was really brought over from Paris to New York last fall, but it has not been very generally adopted until this season. The French thought the very tight skirt ungainly unless it was relieved by some kind of drapery. So they draped the light skirts of their evening gowns with filmy draperies of tulle and chiffon, while to the back of their walking skirts they added these panels which give a seeming fullness. It was a graceful compromise between hobble and plaits.

One would have fancied that women in this country would have welcomed the idea. Instead, the panel was the one feature they discarded. They have, however, at last taken it up, and as the majority of women seem to prefer uniformity to individuality, we see panels by the dozens. They are widely worn, not only on the new gowns, but on old ones as well; for in order to be just like everyone else and have the necessary panel, women are searching the shops for material to match their partly-worn skirts, out of which panels may be made and added.

HEALTH AND FIGURE BOTH

Greatly Improved Design of Latest Corset

The corset of today is built on hygienic lines. Very short (often only three or four inches) above the waist, it gives the respiratory organs free play. The small waist is no longer a feature of our fashions; in fact, some of the newer corsets are so constructed that they rather enlarge the waist measure. It used to be claimed that corsets rendered the figure unnatural, but this view is losing ground. Very many doctors order special corsets for the purpose of benefiting women patients who have certain muscular or abdominal troubles, and they advise them for growing girls, claiming that in cases where they are not worn girls who indulge in vigorous physical exercise are apt to strain of otherwise seriously injure themselves.

THE VALUE OF FAT

Something About Food that Every Cook Doesn't Know

All foods are mixtures of three elements—namely, fats, sugar, and water. Fats and oils yield about 4,000 calories to the pound. So that if one could eat a whole pound of pure fat (which no human stomach unless that of an Eskimo could stand), one might do a whole day's work on the fat alone. Sugar yields about 2,000 calories to the pound, and is therefore just half as valuable as fat. Four-fifths of our daily food is made up of water, woody fibre and flavoring juices, which are of no value at all, since they yield almost no energy.

NEW KITCHEN DEVICE

Breaks Eggs and Spills Without Hurting Yolk

An ingenious but rather elaborate egg separator has just been invented by an Oregon man. A concave plate, with a lip on one side, has a yolk-receiving socket and a revolving cup mounted on this socket. By bringing the cup down the egg is cracked and the white flows out into the plate, while the yolk has a cleaning arm extended from it, and by turning this arm can be made to clean the plate, the contents of which can be poured through the lip into the cup or other receptacle waiting. Of course, the yolk of the egg is not broken in this operation or it would run into the white. As it is, the yolk and shell are removed from the cup of the separator afterward. The experienced cook, however, would probably regard such an apparatus as more interesting than necessary.

Explaining a Title

(From The Canadian Gazette)
It may be well to notice that there is no foundation for the suggestion that Sir William Max Aitken's knighthood is in any sense a Canadian honor. Neither it nor the C. V. O. conferred upon Mr. Walter Baker, the popular secretary of the Canadian Pacific Railway, formed part of the Canadian honors list. Mr. Baker's distinction, like the K. C. V. O. conferred some time since upon Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, is understood to be personal recognitions by the sovereign of courtesies extended to members of the royal family visiting Canada, while Sir William Aitken's knighthood is a British political honor of the character usual on great national occasions when the services of members of both political parties are recognized.

Miners Hardup

The mining towns along the Pass in the south country and the parts effected by the strike are in a very bad shape and trade is the worst known in many years. The miners are short of money and have been offering themselves for laboring jobs as a dollar a day.—Morning Albertan.

Have you learned that "keeping boarders" is a business matter—and that it involves timely advertising in the classified columns of The News?

ITEMS OF SPORT

By winning the Manchester Cup in 2 min. 27 2-5 secs., Marajax gave F. Wotton, his jockey, the fastest ride over a mile and a half that any horseman has ever had in the history of horse racing.

For six years the record had been held by Finasseur, a French race-horse, but such was the terrific pace at which Marajax travelled that he lopped off no less than 1 1-5 secs from Finasseur's figures.

Marajax was bred from Ajax and Mary Seaton by Lord Clonmell, and at the bloodstock sales in 1908 was bought as a yearling for 1,500 guineas. As a two-year-old he ran very disappointingly, for he was unplaced on each of his five outings.

"Knockout Brown will fight Wolgast, winner take all," declared Daniel Morgan, the New York lightweight's manager, "and I will bet $10,000 with Wolgast's manager, Tom Jones, on the result at ringside odds. I have sent a telegram to this effect to Jones and Wolgast, and Brown will be ready to fight any time, but I hardly expect a bout before next December or January, perhaps later."

Although Bill Lang and his manager gave out that Lang had agreed to fight Bill Squires in Brisbane in August, the promoters in that state declare that they know nothing of the match. Boxing enthusiasts are pleased to hear that poor old Bill Squires is not to be coaxed back to the ring to be made a chopping block of, for he would not have the remotest chance of beating Lang. Bill is better employed on his farm.

Portland, Ore., July 26.—Though he was put out of the running for the state championship before the day was over Allan McCutcheon of Seattle, proved to be the tennis Marathoner today of the Oregon tournament, now in progress here. He played a total of eleven sets, or 118 games, and played great tennis in each match in which he was featured in singles, or with his partner, Richardson also of Seattle, in the doubles. In his doubles match with Richardson against Foley of San Francisco, and Lewis of Portland, McCutcheon was strong and the match went five sets as follows: 1-6, 7-5, 6-3, 3-6, and 7-5.

KING HAS INTERVENED IN PEERS VETO BILL DISPUTE

His Majesty Gives Audience to Government Leaders. He Does Not Wish to See the Historic House of Lords Swamped With New Liberal Peers.

London, July 26.—King George has actively intervened in an attempt to steer the warring political factions to a peaceful goal. None is more anxious than he to avoid swamping the historic house of peers with a battalion of new creations and if his personal influence can effect it he will arrange some plan for overcoming the present deadlock. His Majesty today gave audience to Premier Asquith, A. J. Balfour, leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, and Lord Lansdowne, the Unionist chief in the House of Lords. It was understood that his Majesty would see their leaders later in the day. Meanwhile the political situation is so out of gear that the King postponed his intended departure for Goodwood, where he was going this afternoon to visit the Duke of Richmond and attend a four days' race meeting.

LOOKS RATHER BLIND PIGGISH

Foreign Resident Had Quite a Lot of Bottled Stuff in His Place—More Than Chief Vickers Thinks Good for Him.

R. Mazzi whose premises looked to Chief Vickers suspiciously like a little blind piglet, has been summoned to appear before the Magistrate to give an account of himself.

The case stands adjourned until tomorrow morning. Evidence that Mazzi had a considerable quantity of bottled liquor in his place, and that men were seen drinking there will be produced.

McBRIDE ON WAY TO VICTORIA

Mayor Hopes He will Get Busy on G. T. P. Assessment Matter as Soon as He Arrives. Delay Grows Irksome.

No word has yet been received by the Mayor from Premier McBride in reference to the G. T. P. Assessment which awaits the sanction of the Provincial Government. But the Mayor has reason to believe that the provincial premier is now on his way to Victoria from London, England, and that he will travel there direct. Mayor Manson hopes that he will give attention at once to the matter of the G. T. P. agreement which has now been hung up various ways for so long that everybody concerned grows impatient at the delay.

ROAD ROLLER HERE

Mayor Will Soon Have an Opportunity of Seeing It at Work.

Gleeful tidings for Alderman Hilditch, and good news for the Mayor! The city road roller has arrived by the C. P. R. S.S. Princess Ena today. Already the civic stone crusher is rattling away at a great rate near Seventh street on Third avenue, and already some nice newly crushed stone is spread on the space on Third avenue between Sixth and Seventh streets. It may be a coincidence of course, but the Mayor's windows are amongst those which will command an early view of the operations of the road roller.

WATCHERS AND THEIR WATCHES

Amusing Chronometrical Discrepancies Revealed by Incidents in the Police Court This Morning. Five Tickers Tell Five Different Tales.

At ten by his own watch Magistrate Carss entered the police court room and took his seat on the bench. Five minutes before he appeared P. C. McArthur on office duty had studied his particular chronometer and decided that the Magistrate was just then due. A phenomenally punctual newspaperman had already been on the spot for seven and a half minutes. The Magistrate sat on the bench and scanned the case sheet. After waiting five minutes he looked up and enquired for the Chief of Police. "Expected every moment" was the reply. Moments passed but he came not. The Magistrate arose, put on his hat, and left the court remarking that the case billed for today must be adjourned until tomorrow if the principals in it could not get there on time. Just outside the court room Mr. Carss met Chief Vickers. With an expression of surprise the Chief took out his watch. It read "three minutes to ten." Behind the Chief came the man summoned, with a watch which gave the time as nine forty-five. "Well I'm blessed," remarked Chief Vickers "I wonder if there are two watches in town today that give the same time at the same moment, and what is the right time, anyway?"
