The Merriest Christmas

There's a gay and jolly spirit in the very air itself. Listen! And you can almost hear the tuneful jingle of Santa's sleighbells and the merry laugh of Old Saint Nick as his annual caravan prances lightly o'er treetops and roofs proclaiming this, the brightest season of all the year.

Let us all forget our difficulties and doubts, the worries of business, the drudgery of our labor, the annoyances of friends and relatives, everything which is unpleasant and make the present season the banner Christmas of our lives.

Most of us can do this if we set out to try to make others happy.

CHRISTMAS IS CHILLY

Nippy Weather For Santa Claus Visit Not Only in Prince Rupert But All Over West

With wind in the north, skies clear and cold and the barometer high and steady, Santa Claus is going to have nippy weather for his visit to Prince Rupert tonight. There is just enough snow on the ground to make it a White Christmas. Weather prevailing here today is typical of that throughout Western Canada and the United States.

According to Canadian Press dispatches received by the Daily News today Alberta and Saskatchewan are shivering with blizzard conditions in some parts while Manitoba is having sub-zero weather with light snow falling. With a blizzard sweeping Southern Saskatchewan, temperatures ranged to 25 below zero. In Edmonton it is 24 below.

In Southern California skies are fair and weather mild. Following are some of today's temperature readings:

PREMIER PATTULLO'S CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

It is a great pleasure to again extend Christmas greetings and good wishes to all, notwithstanding that it means that another milestone on an all too short road has been passed. Life is good even although there is much hardship in the world. The duty rests upon each of us to do what we can in our own sphere to cheer and help the lot of others not so fortunate as ourselves.

XMAS AT CHURCHES

Large Congregations Hear Special Music and Sermons

There was a large congregation at First United Church last evening for the special Christmas services. Rev. G. D. Clarke was in the pulpit and the order of service included well known Christmas hymns and connecting readings entitled "The Significance of the Annunciation," "The Message of the Shepherd Story" and "The Message of the Wise Men."

President Roosevelt Thinks Naval Race May be Obviated by Time Washington Treaty Expires

Japan Tractable

French Minister Urges Abrogation of Pact—Soviet Building Up Pacific Fleet

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The Japanese delegation to the preliminary disarmament conference conversations yesterday received instructions from Tokyo to discuss further with Great Britain the possibilities of a compromise agreement upon naval disarmament. Any further discussions at this time will be of a bilateral nature as members of the United States delegation are leaving for home this week.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 24.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt expresses the hope that it will be possible for Great Britain, United and Japan to reach a new disarmament agreement before the expiry of the Washington Naval Treaty in 1936 and thus obviate the threatened naval building race.

The president deprecates war talk which is being indulged in by the "insolent press" following the breaking down of the preliminary conversations at London last week and suggested that judgment should be withheld until after further conferences.

Attitude of France PARIS, Dec. 24.—Despite the recent refusal of France to join with Japan in denouncing the Washington Naval Treaty, the French Minister of Marine yesterday proposed that this country should abrogate the pact as being "intolerable" to France.

Japan Alarmed TOKIO, Dec. 24.—Official Japan is somewhat aghast at the report that two of eight new destroyers being built at Italian shipyards for Russia have been completed and are being delivered to Vladivostok where it is said the Soviet has assembled already a large flotilla of submarines.

A Holy Night

Amid the stillness of one holy night The Star of the East shed its guiding light. In a manger bed, so dim and lowly The three wise men found the King of Glory.

Two Splendid Features For Christmas Season at Capitol Theatre

Two splendid feature pictures have been engaged for showing at the Capitol Theatre here during the Christmas holiday season. For Christmas Eve and Christmas Day the feature will be the fine new musical picture "Happiness Ahead," starring Dick Powell, making his first showing in British Columbia. On Boxing Day "Baby Take a Bow," with little Shirley Temple, James Dunn and Claire Trevor in the featured roles.

Although the story of "Happiness Ahead" is straight comedy drama, there are four special songs. "Pop Goes My Heart," "Beauty Must Be Love," "Massaging Window Panes" and "All on Account of a Strawberry Sundae." Dorothy Dare, famous Broadway musical comedy star, makes her screen debut. Josephine Hutchinson, noted New York and London stage star, is also seen on the screen for the first time playing opposite Powell. Allen Jenkins, Ruth Donnelly and Frank McHugh are also in the cast.

The diminutive star Shirley Temple is always popular here and local picture fans will be pleased to

Christmas Greetings and Most Cordial Good Wishes

from the Staff of the Capitol Theatre

If Santa Claus should come and say,
"What'll I give you this Christmas day?"

And I'd ask another town like this:

Other friends as good and true,
As worthy patrons to cater to,
As great a pleasure as serving you—

He'd wag his head and say "My lad,
"That's the biggest order I ever had!"

DAVE BORLAND,
Manager Capitol Theatre.
