Appropriations For This District From New Fund Announced

Mr. Pattullo to Go Into Highway Situation Again Thoroughly During His Stay Here—Has Busy Two Days in Store

"I am still of the opinion that a road leading to the Skeena River canneries would be the most advantageous to this city at this time," declared Premier T. D. Pattullo this morning in commenting upon the local highway situation. Mr. Pattullo, while he had no definite announcements to make in connection with the matter, stated that he intended to go most thoroughly into this highway matter again during his stay here.

Out of the million dollar fund which has been made available for public works in this province, there would be several appropriations for maintenance and improvements in this riding, the Premier stated.

Mr. Pattullo expressed the belief that it would be beneficial to connect the canneries with their payrolls to the city by highway as soon as possible.

Mr. Pattullo has completely recovered from the trouble which marred his last visit here and necessitated his spending a couple of weeks in hospital. He expects to have a busy two days here as various local organizations have matters to take up with him and he also has two speaking engagements.

The Premier, who will return south tomorrow night, is accompanied by his private secretary, Richard Cartwright.

The trio had neither blankets nor food.

PROBE IS GOING ON

Master of President Cleveland Halted in Launching Lifeboats To Aid Morro Castle

NEW YORK, Sept. 14: (CP)—First and third officers of the liner President Cleveland, one of the vessels which raced to the aid of the stricken Morro Castle last Saturday morning, told the board of inquiry yesterday that they would not serve further under Captain Robert E. Carey because they no longer had "any respect for the master" because of his delay in launching lifeboats to aid in removing passengers from the burning liner. Lifeboats were finally launched but no survivors were picked up. More lives could have been saved if Capt. Carey had not delayed forty-eight minutes in having the boats launched, the officers asserted.

One seaman managing a lifeboat stated that he saw several persons on a deck of the stricken ship but the lifeboat crew made no offer to take them off.

INTERIOR TIE CONTRACTS

Having apparently decided to carry out some much-needed maintenance on the line, the Canadian National Railways is reported to be giving contracts this winter for 1,500,000 hewn ties, the production of which will mean the distribution of upwards of $600,000 in the district between Prince Rupert and Prince George. The volume of the contracts approximates that of former big years and will mean a great deal of welcome employment during the coming fall and winter. The district will also benefit from the work which will be involved in the reconditioning of the railway line which it is commonly known is badly in need of maintenance if satisfactory service is to be continued.

Possibly too the decision to carry out the work may signify expected increased business for the railway.

News of these big tie contracts is very satisfactory all around and the work involved in their production and use will contribute greatly to the general improvement which seems to be commencing for this district as well as the rest of the country.

DEBENTURE INTEREST

The action being taken by the government to enable municipalities to have their interest on bonded indebtedness reduced is under much discussion pro and con. After all, personal interest possibly has a lot to do with the view one may take on the matter. Property owners, naturally, will welcome a reduction in interest on debentures as it will reduce the fixed charges on which taxation is based, making possible either a relief in taxation or application of funds to needed work. On the other hand, the holders of the bonds are not to be expected to accept without a murmur a reduction in the earnings of the securities which they bought on a definite understanding even though conditions may have changed greatly since.

The majority of Prince Rupert people, interested more from the property owners' standpoint rather than that of the bondholders, undoubtedly will welcome the reduction of the interest rate.

FROSTS IN INTERIOR

Have Been Experienced Again in Bulkley Valley This Year

SMITHERS, Sept. 14.—Certain sections of the Bulkley Valley again had summer frosts this year as a result of which quite a number of the potato fields were blackened down. Although this does not kill them off it spoils their growth to some extent.

In speaking to one of the pioneers of this country about the frost at this time of year it recalled to his mind the story of an oldtimer, John Dorsey, whom he thought some of the old timers of Prince Rupert might still remember. John Dorsey was a pioneer in the land-staking game during the time of the early days of Prince Rupert when his territory included Prince Rupert and as far east on the old Grand Trunk Pacific as Fort Fraser. He advocated the country as being suitable for mixed farming and dairying and was very enthusiastic about its value along this line and, to prove his assertions to the City Fathers of the early days of Prince Rupert, he collected many samples of the root crops and all the many vegetables that were grown around and took them with him to Prince Rupert where he met with the city council and asked its support in boosting this territory along the G. T. P. as a dairying and mixed farming country. After showing off his samples and explaining at some length the possibilities of the country one of the City Fathers asked Mr. Dorsey the question: "Isn't it the case, Mr. Dorsey, that you have summer frosts along the line?" Mr. Dorsey at once admitted that it was but he said: "I'm proud that we have something like the summer frosts, gentlemen. I want you to view these different samples of grains and root crops not only in quality but in size. Gentlemen, you can see that the size of these crops are not what they could be but, if it had not been for the summer frosts to stunt their growth, they would have been so large I would not have been able to bring them to you."

The Alaskan cannery tender Slaven, which ran on a reef off Kumeleon Inlet in Grenville Channel on Wednesday morning and sank, is expected to be refloated today and brought to Prince Rupert for docking. Capt. W. P. Armour, manager of the Armour Salvage Co., returned to port yesterday afternoon from the scene of the stranding and went out again early this morning with scows which will be used in refloating the Slaven and to buoy her up while being towed here.

From the Waterfront

The local waterfront is busy today with a virtual procession of coastal passenger liners, no less than five being scheduled to arrive. Starting the parade was the steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Edward Mabbs, which arrived at 2:50 this morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and will sail at 10 o'clock tomorrow night on her return south over the same route. The Prince Rupert, Capt. Nell McLean, followed, arriving at 10:30 a.m. from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls, and will sail at 10 o'clock tonight for Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening and sail at 10 p.m. on her return south. The steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Thomas Cliff, is due at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon from Alaska and will sail an hour or so later for Vancouver. At 5 in the afternoon the Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, is due from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. This evening the steamer Cardena, Capt. Ernest Georgeson, is due from the south and will sail at midnight on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

The Alaskan cannery tender Slaven, which ran on a reef off Kumeleon Inlet in Grenville Channel on Wednesday morning and sank, is expected to be refloated today and brought to Prince Rupert for docking. Capt. W. P. Armour, manager of the Armour Salvage Co., returned to port yesterday afternoon from the scene of the stranding and went out again early this morning with scows which will be used in refloating the Slaven and to buoy her up while being towed here.

C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, returned to port at 6:45 last evening from her regular weekly voyage to Anyox and sailed at 10:30, following arrival of the train, for Vancouver via Ocean Falls and Powell River.

FARMER IS CONVICTED

ning on a charge of doing wilful damage to the farm of a neighboring farmer by sowing noxious weeds thereon. Van Elst's act, the crown submitted, was the outcome of a quarrel of some years' standing originating when James Owens, the neighbor, refused to allow accused to vote at an election at which he (Owens) was acting as returning officer.

Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, the presiding judge, stated that he had never seen or heard of a case of this nature in any court. Indeed the only case paralleling it he could find was in the Bible in a parable in the Thirteenth Chapter of St. Matthew. "Perhaps it will be another 2000 years before there is another such case but, as the Bible also says, there is nothing new under the sun," remarked His Lordship who remanded van Elst to the end of the Assize for sentence.

The jury deliberated for forty minutes before reaching the verdict which was accompanied by a strong recommendation for leniency. His Lordship welcomed this recommendation which he said he would take into consideration in passing sentence.

Witnesses in the case were J. Allan Rutherford B. C. L. S. James Owens, Mrs. Margaret Jane Owens, Axel Peterson, Don Sutherland, Provincial Constable Malcolm Martin and Constable C. F. Oland. The defence offered no evidence.

Addresses to Jury

In his address to the jury L. W. Patmore, crown prosecutor, stressed the admission of defence that the tracks in Owens' newly ploughed field where the stinkweed seed had been thrown were accused's. It could hardly have been anyone else but accused who had dropped the seeds and he had plenty of motive for doing so.

J. T. Harvey, defence counsel, admitted that there was strong circumstantial evidence against his client, so strong, indeed, that it was quite possible that accused was the victim of a "frame-up." It was hardly likely that a guilty person would leave such an obvious trail. Could not the stinkweed seed have been sown by Owens himself in a "plant" against van Elst? In his charge to the jury, Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald stated that it was up to the jury to decide whether there was any reasonable explanation compatible with the presence of the accused. What reason would Owens have for not telling the truth? It seemed, indeed, the defence counsel realized he had a desperate case when he suggested that Owens might have sown the weed himself. Closing, His Lordship commented upon the unusual nature of the case.

I WAS A SLAVE TO HOUSE-CLEANING CHORES UNTIL I USED

It gets rid of dirt easily and quickly, no hard rubbing and scrubbing...

UNPLEASANT cleaning jobs are easy when you use Gillett's Pure Flake Lye. It actually washes the dirt away. Gets right down to ground-in grime! Use a solution of 1 teaspoonful dissolved in a quart of cold water. Off comes the dirt! And you do no hard rubbing!

Keep Gillett's Lye on hand for all your cleaning. Use it for toilet bowls. To clear stopped-up drains. It kills germs, destroys odors—and never harms enamel or plumbing. Your grocer sells Gillett's Lye. Ask him for a tin—today. *Never dissolve lye in hot water. The action of the lye itself heats the water.

SPORT CHAT

W. Lawson Little of San Francisco and David Goldman of England now rule as favorites to win the United States national golf title, play for which is in progress at Brookline, Mass. The fourth round saw the elimination of Canada's hopes, Ross (Sandy) Somerville of London, Ont., United States champion in 1932, and Jack Norton, also of London, who were defeated by Reynolds Smith and Willie Carnetha respectively. Scotty Campbell of Seattle and George F. Dunlap, defending champion, were also eliminated in the fourth round. W. Lawson Little was leading Armstrong of Chicago in the semi-final yesterday. Reynolds Smith and David Goldman will meet in the other semi-final.

Scarcity of ducks and other wild fowl in Saskatchewan this year has at least one consolation according to men training bird dogs at Regina for United States sportsmen. The birds are so few that trainers claim the dogs are for once attending to their "lessons" instead of going off on a "wild goose chase" every time they see a bird.

TERRACE

After weather of the heat wave variety, it is now cloudy and cooler with showers. On two days it reached 94 in the shade. The evenings were cool and the skies clear throughout the warm spell.

A few days ago P. M. Monckton dropped off the westbound train for a short visit with old Terrace friends. Mr. Monckton lived here some years ago.

Recently a children's party was held at the Orange Lodge Hall. The youngsters spent a happy evening at games and dancing.

The resumption of school has caused a general exodus of the holiday makers at Lakelse Lake, many of whom included whole families whose boys and girls must be back in time for school.

Everyone agrees this has been a beautiful summer so far as camping and holidays are concerned but it has been a bit hard on the root crops. Even if rain continues from now on it is doubtful whether the farms would benefit. Probably only the turnips stand some chance of making a fair showing they will have to move

E. R. Webber, grand master of the Oddfellows, spent the day with the local lodge. He listened to an inspiring address from him and then enjoyed a social time. Webber and his bride were the recipients of a useful gift in the form of a comfortable chair, a custom among the local Oddfellows when one of the members is married. United Church Tea and Sale Is Enjoyable

A delightful tea and sale of home cooking was held yesterday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid of First United Church at the home of Mrs. G. F. Davey, 1045 Second Avenue. A goodly number of ladies called during the afternoon to lend their patronage to the affair. The rooms were tastefully decorated with gladioli and sweet peas and the guests were received by Mrs. Davey and Mrs. C. D. Clarke, wife of the pastor.

Mrs. Clavring and Mrs. Thomas were in charge of the tea room, and Mrs. W. H. Kergin and Mrs. G. W. Dunn poured. Serviteurs were Mrs. Merrill Solows, Mrs. Lance Styles and Mrs. W. C. Stevens. With Miss McGregor acting as cashier. Mrs. Hugh Killin and Mrs. D. Santerbane had charge of the home cooking table.

During the afternoon there were guitar solos by Miss Elizabeth Currie.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism. Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

COLMAN IS HERE AGAIN

Thriller at Capitol Theatre This Week-End Depicts "Bulldog Drummond's" Exploits

Ronald Colman brings an old friend back to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this week-end with the showing of "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back." From the earlier tale "Bulldog Drummond" the public retains fond memories of the dashing Captain Hugh Drummond in the creation of which role Colman scored his greatest screen hit.

The story of this latest picture tells the further exploits of the lovable adventurer. The excitement starts when Drummond attempts to unravel a completely baffling mystery for a beautiful young girl whose uncle disappears strangely in the London house of a sinister Oriental prince.

Loretta Young portrays the girl. Warner Oland plays the prince. Charles Butterworth is seen as Drummond's not quite bright friend Algy and Una Merkel appears as the bride Algy deserts on her wedding night to dabble with Drummond in mystery. C. Aubrey Smith plays the part of an inspector of Scotland Yard.

Having been delayed about twenty-four hours by rough weather on the way north, C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Edward Mabbs, arrived in port at 2:30 this morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands with passengers, mail and freight. The vessel will sail at 10 o'clock tomorrow night on her return south over the same route.

WHEN YOU'RE HEALTHY YOU'RE HAPPY!

The blame for "blue" days can be laid often to common constipation. It may bring loss of appetite and energy, sallow and pimply skin, even serious illness. Correct it by eating a delicious cereal.

Research shows Kellogg's All-Bran provides "bulk" and vitamin B to relieve common constipation. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in All-Bran is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this better than taking patent medicines—so often harmful?

Two tablespoonsfuls of All-Bran daily, relieve most types of constipation. With each meal, in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Get the red and green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

SHOT ON STRIKERS

National Guards Had to Use Bullets To Break up Textile Strike Demonstration

SALESVILLE, R.I., Sept. 14: (CP)—Three were shot and scores injured in the third day of rioting in connection with the textile workers' strike here when National Guardsmen fired into 5000 demonstrators after use of tear gas had failed to stop their activities. Twelve were seriously hurt and 150 are said to have sustained minor injuries.

The Governor of Rhode Island declared yesterday, in asking for more National Guards to augment those already here with state troops, that the state was facing a communist challenge in the strike. During the rioting to date, one man has been killed, many have been injured and property damage has been heavy.
