Two local merchants reported yesterday that their busi- ence in rates it was claimed was McRae, president of the league, thy with labor, they could best ness was 100 percent better than it was a year ago and fully justified. several others mentioned substantial gains. That looks like real progress, due to some extent to the fact that the local shipyard has been kept busy. For that we have to thank the Canadian National Railways.

There have been other industrial improvements in the said they planned to take the matdistrict such as that in mining, logging and fishing. There ter up direct with Montreal. BRIDGING THE GAP

Evidently Great Britain is about to make an attempt to bridge the gap between poverty and plenty by substituting a parliamentary inquiry. No less an old Conservative newspaper than The Times is the medium used for issuing the call to the legislators of the country to make the effort. Looked at from the point of industry what the country lacks is purchasing power. Looked at from the city in aid of the library fund to- of today. point of labor, the country needs the right for every man to earn a living in an honest manner at reasonable rates of pay with plenty of leisure for recreation and enjoyment Chenoski. of life. There happens to be practical unanimity between industrialists and laborites although not for the same reason. The industrialist needs customers and the laborite needs work and wages with the power to enjoy.

We have pointed out scores of times that there is plenty of food and clothes on one side and men willing and able CHURCH NOTICES to work on the other yet, with their families living on the dole because there is no one to employ them, on the other. There does not seem to be brains enough in the world to evolve systems which will bring these together without destroying our initiative and scrapping all that we have inherited from the past. However, in all countries efforts are being made toward this end and there is much experimentation going on.. Out of all this we shall surely find a way to remedy the condition which exists in Canada and in all other countries.

Halibut Landings Heavier This March-Johnny Clausen Buys New Boat-Sockeye Price Gratifying

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the month of March this year totalled 1,707,000 pounds as compared with 1,247,000 pounds in the same month last year, according to figures compiled on the local waterfront. The division was almost equal between United States and Canadian vessels, the former having brought in 853.000 pounds and the latter 854,000 pounds. American landings bers of his crew as well as the crew in March last year were 785,000 for North Pacific cannery. pounds and Canadian 462,000 pounds.

Canadian landings for the who has been spending the winter week were again heavy with an aggregate of 312,800 pounds from 29 boats, making the total Canadian production for the season to date 1,123,065 pounds. Eleven American boats landed 146,000 pounds during the week to make the season's American total to date 984.900

Prices held up well during the USK. April 6-A dance was held week, averaging somewhat better | days Bethurem's Hall, as a farewell than the week previous. The high to Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon L. Glover price of the week for Canadian fish who have resided here for some was 6.6c and 4c which the Embla years and who left this week for received for 19,000 pounds and the Seattle. They have made many low 5c and 4c which the Brothers friends and their departure will was paid for 3,500 pounds. For cause a gap in the social life of American fish the high price was 8.8c and 6c which the Sherman was paid for 20,000 pounds while the low was 6.7c and 5c which the Discovery was paid for 7,000 pounds.

Fish Price Satisfactory

There was considerable gratification in fishing circles at Prince Rupert with the announcement this week that salmon canners would be paying 50c per fish for sockeye in the district this year. This is 10c per fish higher than at the opening of the 1933 season and 20c higher than two years ago. It is not certain yet as to fust how many canneries will be operating in the district this year, one or two of the larger packing concerns having not finally perfected their plans for the season but it is at least known that more plants will be in operation this year than last and that a Trelarger pack is anticipated. The outlook is for a more prosperous season all around in every department of the industry.
