WHAT EFFECT HERE

The Canada Steamship Lines has decided to boost its terday, he states. grain rates to six cents a bushel from three and a half cents. It is presumed that the announcement means that all the steamship lines plying on the Great Lakes have agreed to raise their prices.

There have been two reasons for the very low prices given on the lakes. One was the keen competition for business at a time when there has been little doing. The other reason was that there had sprung up keen competition for the business of the prairie farmers from Vancouver, Churchill and possibly Prince Rupert. With the eastern rates up two and a half cents there should be a great deal sentatives of Canada, United States, more grain come west during the coming season and it is Australia and Argentina, the "Big possible that some of the extra business may come to Prince Rupert.

WELCOME VANCOUVER PEOPLE

Prince Rupert people will extend to the Vancouver Board of Trade members a hearty welcome when they arrive here two months from now. It is hoped that arrangements will be made locally to give them a banquet. There no important decisions as yet but is nothing so conducive to cordiality as for men to sit at the same table and to eat and drink together. If a banquet it was hoped, might reach some is found impracticable something else will have to be done that no agreement has yet been to show that Prince Rupert is hospitable. We have much reached in the matter of minimum to learn from the people of Vancouver.

RESULTS EXPECTED

Premier Pattullo and one or two members of his cabinet will meet Premier Bennett and his cabinet at Ottawa next week. They will discuss the financial position of the province and the possibility of the Ottawa government extending a measure of aid to the province.
