REPORT OF FIRE DEPT

Activities of important Branch of Civic Service During Year Reviewed by Chief

Damage $24,000

Practically All Covered by Insurance—Need of Maintaining Efficiency Stressed

Interesting particulars as to the activities of the city fire department during the year 1933 are given in the annual report of Fire Chief J. R. Morrison which has just been presented to City Commissioner W. J. Alder. Total damage to property by fire and water during the year was $23,915.45 of which $19,685.45 was loss on building and $4,230 on contents. The total amount of insurance paid was $23,410.45, leaving a net loss uncovered by insurance of $505. The value of property involved was $257,000.

These were 104 alarms in all during the year, 49 of which were to chimney fires. Cigarette stubs and bush fires caused six alarms each, sparks from chimneys five alarms and automobile backfires four alarms. There were five false alarms.

During the year 11,000 feet of hose was laid. Two hundred gallons of chemicals and 500 feet of ladders were used.

The members of the department made 650 inspections of business houses, hotels, schools, hospital and moving picture theatre during the year. Two hundred notices to correct unsafe conditions were given and, as a result, there had been marked effect in reducing the fire hazard during the year. During the year several old buildings which had been a fire hazard were removed.

"The frame construction that is evident throughout the city makes it absolutely necessary that the fire department be kept up to the greatest efficiency," the report observes. During the past year the efficiency of the department had been greatly increased through the acquisition of a new truck. Fifty feet of master hose which had been purchased had also proven most useful.

Expenditure of the department for the year amounted to $11,240.13 of which $9,555 was in salaries.

In conclusion, the fire chief thanks the commissioner for co-operation and assistance, members of the department for faithful attention to duty and successful work, the water and police departments for assistance rendered and the public and press for courtesy.

It is understood that Consolidated engineers, who are engrossed in the problem of making a commercial operation of the Big Missouri mill, lower in the Salmon River Valley, are considering the possibility of transporting ore from the Salmon Gold mine to the Big Missouri mill, eight miles distant. Those details of operation, however, remain to be worked out.

IN HONOR OF BURNS

Splendid Banquet Held Thursday Night by Local Eagles' Lodge

Happy hours were spent at the Eagles' Hall on Thursday night when, following a business and initiation session, members of the lodge to the number of some fifty sat down to do honor with a banquet to the 175th anniversary of the birth of Robbie Burns. There was an excellent toast list and musical program and it was well along in the "wee sma' hours o' the mornin'" before one of the best entertainments ever staged by the lodge was brought to conclusion.

One of the features of the proceedings was the piping in of The Haggis by Piper Neil Macdonald, James Brown carrying the steaming national delicacy aloft while members of the lodge fell in behind and marched twice around the tables. "The Address to a Haggis" was recited by William Robb who also said the Burns Grace.

Henry Smith was chairman and toastmaster and kept the proceedings moving with vim and enthusiasm. There were toasts to "The King and the Royal Family," "The Town We Live In," responded to by Peter Gamula; "The Immortal Memory," responded to by George Lawson; "The Lassies," responded to by W. P. Hall; "The Imperial Forces," responded to by Fletcher Hemmons; "The Chairman, Piper and Pianist," responded to by Frank Fitzgerald. Votes of thanks were proposed by Henry Smith and William Robb and remarks about Burns by Angelo Astori proved of interest.

The musical program included vocal solo, "Sea Chentys," John Gibson; vocal solo, "The Star o' Robbie Burns," Alex McLean; recitation, "Man Was Made to Mourn," Joe Davidson; vocal solo, "Scotland Yet," Alex McLeod; comic songs, J. Melville; Burns' stories, J. Gibson; comic songs, J. J. Willington; vocal solo, "Mary of Argyll," Alex McLean; vocal solo, "Annie Laurie," Angus Macdonald, and comic songs by A. McCann. Community singing was also enjoyed. W. P. Hall was pianist for the evening.

BREMER IS BEING HELD

All Efforts to Secure Release of St. Paul Banker Have So Far Met Failure

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 27.—Following failure of all contact plans which have been made to date, relatives of Edward G. Bremer, kidnapped St. Paul banker, are making renewed efforts to secure release of the brewing capitalist by payment of $200,000 ransom money. Federal and local police officers, it is stated, have agreed to stay out of the case until after Bremer has been safely returned. Meantime, both Adolph Bremer, the kidnapped man's father, and Emily, his wife, are ill and on the verge of complete breakdown. Both are fearful that he may have been killed by his kidnapers.

There is said to be reason to believe that Bremer is being held safely in a small town north of Minneapolis although there is no official confirmation of this. There is another report that the ransom money has been paid over but that Bremer will not be released for three days, the abductors being fearful of capture should they act too soon after receiving the money.

Legislation Proposed WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 27.—Legislation has been presented to Congress for its consideration by which anyone attempting to pay over ransom money to kidnapers would be liable to minimum punishment of two years' imprisonment and $5000 fine.

Opportunity Will be Given to Hear Local Lads, 32 in Number, Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow evening friends of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band will have an opportunity to note the improvement that the lads have made in recent months. There will be 32 instruments, eight of which are reed and the others brass. These are chosen from a total membership of 40.

Twice a week regularly the members of the band meet in the Armory to receive instruction from Bob Greenfield, an experienced instructor, who is leading them gradually to appreciate and play good music. They learn all the fundamentals of music and Mr. Greenfield is ambitious to make this one of the leading musical organizations of the province.

VESTRY OF CATHEDRAL

Annual Meeting Held—Church in Good Condition—Officers For Year Elected

Gratifying reports on the various phases of church work during the past year were presented last night at the annual vestry meeting of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral. The rector, Dean Gibson, was in the chair and R. H. W. Bartlett acted as secretary.

The rector's report showed the condition of the parish. H. T. Cross, treasurer, presented a statement which showed a satisfactory state of affairs financially, all immediate obligations having been met while the Restoration Fund allotment had been oversubscribed both in cash and promises. The report of the people's warden was read by H. T. Cross in the unavoidable absence of R. L. McIntosh. Other reports were tendered by the following: Senior Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. G. H. Arnold; Girls' Branch, Mrs. A. H. Waddington; Juniors, Mrs. C. V. Ewert; Little Helpers, Mrs. E. W. Tucker; Choir, Judge W. E. Votes of thanks were passed to officers and members of various church organizations.

Congratulations were extended by vote to Miss R. M. Davies O. B. E. in view of the honor recently conferred upon her by His Majesty the King in recognition of her long labors in the cause of education.

COMEDY IN NORWEGIAN

Delightful Entertainment Staged By Varden Singers in Metropole Hall Last Night

Considering the extremely adverse weather conditions, there was a very satisfactory crowd in attendance at the Metropole Hall last night for the presentation by the Varden Singers of the three-act comedy "Lars Anders and Jan Anderson" which was very creditably done in the Norwegian tongue by an excellent cast which consisted of Mrs. L. Husoy, Mrs. A. Dybhavn, Mrs. Sig Anderson, Mrs. P. Wikdal, N. Gunderson, B. Pedersen, A. Lindseth and I. Ingibritsen assisted by Mrs. Nels Luth, Mrs. C. Giske, O. Giske, William Husoy and J. Jorgensen.

Between acts there were piano selections by Peter Lien and comic songs by Nels Gunderson.

Following the play there were a number of selections by the Varden Singers and the male choir all of which were much appreciated.

Refreshments were served and dancing followed with music by Mrs. J. S. Black's orchestra. Nels Gunderson was master of ceremonies. A Dybhavn presided at the door. During the evening delicious refreshments were served by the ladies.

Daily Payroll at Dry Dock Now $750—Fisheries Commission Schooner Eagle Calls Here—Thieving Along Waterfront Reported

There are now 155 men on the payroll at the local dry dock and it is estimated that about $750 daily is being paid out in wages which is just about ten times the normal payroll of late. The beneficial effect of same, as might be expected, is being felt by the whole community. The repair job of the steamer Prince George, the main source of employment, will last for at least another month, then the Prince Rupert will have annual overhaul and there will be considerable work on fishing vessels, thus nicely bridging over the gap between now and the opening of the season's fishing activities. It was a great depression while it lasted!

The big Petersburg halibut schooner Mitkof, Capt. Sverre Johansen, is at Seattle where a new 175 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse diesel engine is being installed. The Mitkof, well known at Prince Rupert, has been in Seattle ever since the close of the 1933 season and will be ready for sea by the time 1934 operations commence.

Capt. Egil Erickson and Isak Laksvog have a new 77.3-foot halibut schooner under construction in Seattle, the launching having taken place recently at the Sunde & Olsen yard. She is to be named Sunde as was her predecessor. With beam of 18 feet, 10 inches and depth of nine feet, two inches, the vessel will be equipped with a 130 h.p. Atlas diesel engine. Capt. Erickson is well known at Prince Rupert.

The Hoover, Capt. Nick Alvare, sharing $1875 per man, was high boat of the Seattle halibut fleet for the 1933 season. The Sentinel, Capt. C. P. Sunderland, topped the Ketchikan fleet with shares of $1255.

Where man failed, nature has stepped in and halted a plague of giant crabs that was threatening the fishing industry on the Victorian coast of Australia. Some months ago, crabs three feet wide were found lying on the sea bed for 22 miles round the coast at Corner Inlet, not far from Melbourne. Pear-shaped, spiky-backed and light strawberry in color, these huge crabs have now been found by scientists to be dying of a bacterial infection. The infection, it is thought, gained access to the tissues through holes in the shells. Owing to shortage of food and their subsequent poor condition, the crabs were attacked by boring algae, and through the weak spots in the armour the bacteria entered and is completing the work.

Thieving from a number of boats along the local waterfront is reported of late. One of the latest boats to be pilfered is the "Islay" which was visited by intruders last week-end at the east end of the elevator wharf and a number of articles removed.

After having spent over three weeks engaged in scientific research operations on the halibut grounds in the neighborhood of Queen Charlotte Islands, the big Seattle halibut schooner Eagle, Capt. Jacob Engdal, arrived in Prince Rupert on Wednesday afternoon and, after outfitting, sailed at midnight Friday for Seward enroute to Gulf of Alaska waters where it is expected she will spend three weeks before proceeding to Seattle. The Eagle has been under charter to the International Commission for use in scientific work since last fall. Richard Van Cleeve was at first in charge of the scientific party on board but has been recently ashore at Seward engaged in special halibut hatchery, John L. Kask having been in charge for the past month of scientific operations from the Eagle.

Having not left Vancouver until 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, 12 hours behind schedule, and losing further time during the voyage up the coast, Union steamer Venture, Capt. E. Georgeson, reached port this afternoon from the south and will sail soon thereafter on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The Venture is relieving on the Vancouver - Bella Coola - Ocean Falls-Skeena River-Prince Rupert route for the steamer Cardena which has been out of service for annual overhaul. The steamer Catala, due here tomorrow afternoon from the south, will be withdrawn from service on the Vancouver-Prince Rupert - Anyox - Stewart route after this voyage and will be relieved by the Cardena for two weeks after which the Cardena will return to her own run.

At Dodge Cove Jack Pedersen is making good progress with the construction of a new 34-foot trolling boat. A 14 h.p. B. diesel engine will be installed.

ELKS' DANCE SUCCESSFUL

Fifty Couples Attended Delightful Affair in Lodge Home Last Night

The most successful dance the Elks' Lodge has put on for a considerable time was held in the Home last evening. More than fifty couples danced to the music of Balagno's Orchestra from past nine until half past two in the morning. The music was greatly enlivened by the addition to the orchestra of a marimba which was expertly played by George Rorie. Splendid refreshments were served to all at midnight after which the whole gathering took part in rousing community singing. Shortly after, the main dance of the evening was held. The enthusiasm of the whole night was reached when the balloons were let down and the "Hidden Treasure" search began. Five lucky persons were the winners of the money prizes.

The dance was organized by the Elks' house committee consisting of T. J. Williams, chairman; Sam Joy, master of ceremonies, and Geo. Peters, Sam Jurmain, Ross

Ingram, Ted Smith and Mike Buchenich. The master of ceremonies announced that a radio dance would be held in the near future which would include a number of interesting innovations.
