Appalling Conditions Found During Surprise Visit Yesterday—Gangsters in Full Control

NEW YORK, January 25.—"The worst prison in the world" was the way Corruption Commissioner Austin McCormick described the historic New York Penitentiary on Welfare Island following a surprise raid on the penal institution with police officers yesterday. The official declared that conditions in the penitentiary were appalling with graft, corruption, vice, bootlegging, lawlessness and moral degeneracy rampant and "big shot" gangsters in complete control.

Some of the prisoners, McCormick reported, were found to be living in country club style while others, principally narcotic addicts, were found to be existing under conditions of frightful and almost unbelievable squalor and filth. An elaborate system of drug-smuggling by the use of carrier pigeons was disclosed.

All sorts of deadly weapons were found to be in possession of prisoners and in the carpenter shop was discovered a 50-gallon still being operated by prisoners.

Collusion between prison officials and gangsters is alleged and Assistant Warden Daniel Sheen was arrested while the warden was suspended. Thirty so-called "trusties" were placed in solitary confinement.

and profitable marketing of livestock and agricultural products possibly through some form of marketing board.

The Speech also contained reference to several aspects of monetary reform anticipating submission for ratification of agreements designed to mitigate silver fluctuations. The Bank Act will be overhauled on the basis of the report of the Macmillan Royal Commission which, after being formally presented to the House, will go to the banking and currency committee for consideration.

Legislation amending the Excise Act was also foreshadowed possibly to reduce the gallonage liquor tax. There will also be amendments to the Companies' Act, the Judges' Act and the Elections Act.

The estimates, it is understood in circles close to the government, will be brought down next week. If this is done it will be much earlier than usual. However, it is believed that the government is anxious to get all important questions before the House as early as possible with a view to making the session no longer than is necessary.

All the time-honored ceremony attended the formal opening of Parliament today. There was the usual gun firing. Brilliantly gowned women were among many distinguished personages who were present.

THE BARD OF SCOTLAND

(By Neil Lang)

The extraordinary esteem in which Robert Burns is held by his countrymen is well revealed in the following story. A minister, endeavoring to bring spiritual consolation to an old sick Scotswoman, asked for her Bible that he might read to her. "O," she said, "My dochter has it awa' wi' her but just ye reach up by the fireside and ye'll find ane just as guid." The minister reached up and took down a copy of Burns. The secret of the poet's popularity is not hard to discern. It is that he was a man of the people who wrote for them in a manner which they understood. Their common joys and sorrows, their humble aspirations, their heart-felt, articulate yearnings toward the beauty and wonder of Nature, all these Burns experienced in intense degree and he was blessed with the ability to colthe his thoughts in simple and dignified language. His songs and poems are the mirror of Scottish life and character. Burns least of all men need sigh. "O wad some Power the giftie gie us Tae see oursels as ithers see us." He saw himself with his own virtues and failings and the virtues and shortcomings of Scottish national life and character as in a glass very clearly. The social condition of the Scotland of his day is better revealed in such poems as "The Cotter's Saturday Night" or "Tam O' Shanter" than in the tomes of the Historian. Burns' Brotherhood Needed As each 25th of January dawns Scotsmen the world over unite in remembering the Bard. His poems are read and his songs sung. His simply expressed but sound philosophy of the universal brotherhood of man is meditated upon. This latter more particularly in days like the present when it is clearly discernible that an extension of the principles of human brotherhood is the only hope for the continuance of human civilization. "For a' that and a' that 'Tis coming yet for a' that That man to man the world o'er Shall brothers be for a' that." Possibly Burns' greatest gift to posterity are his songs. Many of the beautiful melodies were already in existence but often wedged to words coarse and vulgar. The poet wrote verses worthy of the exquisite melodies and so has preserved for Scotland and the world a wealth of song lacking which we should be poor indeed. The Scots are proud of Burns but not with a selfish pride. They realize that he belongs to the world no less than to Scotland. He is not for an age but for all time and those of an alien race who also admire the poet are bound to the Scots by a mystic tie even although the stranger has not the advantage of being born in Scotland. Burns wrote a song concerning an incident which occurred at his own birth. He pictures the old spae-wife looking down at him when a new-born infant in his cradle and then looking far into the future. "He'll hae misfortunes great an' sma'. "But aye a heart abane them a' "He'll be a credit tae us a' "We'll a' be proud o' Robin." Rolling time has amply justified the prophesy.

Haidas on War Path Editor, Daily News:—We the Haida Nation very much to our regret learn that Rev. James Gillett, Indian Agent for Queen Charlotte Islands, has resigned his position. Rev. James Gillett's reason for resigning is that the work has been too much for him to handle alone, the department refusing to grant him any extra help. We consider this very unfair, as the other agencies, half as large as his agency, are allowed twice as much help and twice the expense. Never in the history of the Haidas have they needed the help and advice of Rev. James Gillett more than right now when the Haidas are endeavoring to secure their franchise, and petitions and telegrams have gone to Victoria and Ottawa from the Islands asking that Rev. James Gillett reconsider his resignation and be given more help until such time as the Haidas secure their franchise. This whole matter of Rev. James Gillett having had to send in his resignation has the odor of the white man's so-called politics. H. E. GREENE, One of the Haida Nation, Skidegate Mission.

Be Sure You Get Genuine Kellogg's ALL-BRAN
Bran has proved so successful in relieving common constipation that some cereal manufacturers, with products having only a fractional quantity of bran, have claimed that this minimum bran content is sufficient to get results.
You may have tried some of these part-bran products—and have been disappointed! The simple truth is that they do not furnish the amount of bran you need.
It's the "bulk" or fiber in bran that helps correct common constipation. This "bulk" is similar to that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture and forms a soft mass, which gently clears out the intestinal wastes.
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" in convenient and concentrated form. It also furnishes vitamin B, as well as iron for the blood. It has won millions of friends because it overcomes common constipation safely and pleasantly.
It is all bran just as the name implies—with nothing added except the flavoring of Salt, Sugar and Salt.
When you buy a bran cereal for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by getting Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—in the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario, Canada.

Revival Campaign Is Being Carried On at S. A. Citadel

The local Salvation Army Corps is continuing its campaign of revival meetings until the end of this week. Good-sized crowds are still being drawn to the meetings. At Monday night's meeting there were three special speakers—Mrs. Jack Mowatt, Lieut. Hazel Milley and Capt. Agnes Coxson. Mrs. Mowatt also gave musical selections. Frank Pierce and Edward Harmon sang vocal solos and there were mandolin selections by Capt. Coxson. Last night there was a special musical meeting.

George Keep, well known officer of the Canadian National Railways investigation department, who was recently transferred from Prince George to Kamloops, will proceed back to his headquarters in the southern interior town on tomorrow afternoon's train via Jasper Park. PORT SIMPSON

Mrs. George P. McColl returned home last week from a short visit to Prince Rupert.

Indian Agent W. E. Collison was in town in connection with the election of the 1934 council. He made the trip on the departmental motor launch Naskeena.

The annual election of the Port Simpson branch of the Native Brotherhood of B.C. was held recently and the following were chosen for the year: President, Joseph Offat; Vice-President, Joshua MacKay; Secretary, Sam Ceill; Treasurer, Guy Wesley.

SKIDEGATE

Frances Richardson of Tiell motored down a few days ago to pay a visit with friends in Skidegate and Queen Charlotte City.

Queen Charlotte Island radio listeners were interested recently in hearing addresses over the air by Premier R. B. Bennett of Canada.

A storm of protest has gone up from the Queen Charlotte Islands at the resignation of Rev. James Gillett as Indian Agent and petitions and telegrams have been sent both to Ottawa and Victoria demanding that the resignation be reconsidered and that Mr. Gillett be given more help with his work. It is even threatened to make the matter a political issue at the next federal election if Mr. Gillett is not reinstated and given more help. Mr. Gillett and A. M. D. Fairbairn, secretary to the Lieutenant Governor, are the only two white men ever to be taken into the Haida tribe and made chiefs.

School Inspector T. W. Hall of Prince Rupert was a recent visitor at the Dufferin Pattullo School here. Mr. Hall was on a tour of various Queen Charlotte Island points on official duties.
