(Canadian Press Despatch)
Ottawa, Aug. 5.—The Liberal leaders received the news that Hon. Richard McBride will not be a candidate for the Federal House, with a good deal of satisfaction. They take it as an indication of Mr. McBride's belief that there is no possible chance for the Opposition to defeat Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Government on the question of reciprocity.

To Oppose Templeman
It had been understood that if Mr. McBride would run, he was to

FINED HUNDRED DOLLARS OVER POWDER EXPLOSION

Magistrate Carss Fined Contractor Angus McInnes for Storing Powder in a Place That Was Not Fire-proof—Warning to Contractors

Indignation is vigorously aroused in the city over the explosion on Seventh street yesterday morning as a result Angus McInnes, contractor for First avenue graded near Seventh street, was fined a maximum $100 and costs for storing kept powder in a place which was not fireproof. The charge was laid under Section 57 of the city-by-law governing the storing of explosives.

Mr. McInnes stated that the powder was partly some taken from a boring which had been abandoned and then drawn because the shot had been tampered with during the strike. Caps or detonators were mixed with it. These caused the explosion. There was some other powder there but three cases in all but two were burned slowly. It was the powder with the caps that

FIRE CHIEF CRITICISED BY WATERWORKS STAFF

Annoyed at the Remarks of Chief McInnes About the Water Pressure--They Say the Water Pressure for Fire Purposes is Always a Good One---Ample Reserve Left for Fire Fighting---Complain that Fire Bell is Not Rung to Give Warning

Those recent outbreaks of fire in the heart of the congested section of the city though promptly extinguished, have set people asking anxiously about the city fire protection system, and more particularly about the water supply and pressure. On the occasion of the Fraser street fire the report published from the Fire Chief himself stated that the water pressure was bad, and that this hindered his efforts to control the outbreak. The citizens have heard the same story in connection with many other fires in the city, though at one of the recent shack fires the Fire Chief told of an abundant water pressure. Lots of people knew that in this particular case they for saw the "Red Devil" Chaffeur knocked over by the jet from the hose as he ran around the burning building.

Water Officials' View
Frequent repetition of the low water pressure story at fires has put the city water department men on their mettle. They maintain most emphatically that there has been all the time during this dry spell a head of water maintained for fire protection, equal to the head in the rainiest weather. By the use of the Hays Creek pumped water, the mountain dams have been held at the wet weather level all summer, and the water officials working under the City Engineer have had the full pressure of the first mountain dam turned on at every fire that has occurred.

Special Man Employed
A few weeks ago on the request of the City Engineer, a special man was engaged to stay at the fire hall and take control of the water gates in the mains from the mountain dams. The instant an alarm is rung in this official is on the spot right beside the fire hall on Fulton street to turn on the full mountain pressure. This is done in a moment, in fact, the water men maintain that long before the fire brigade have reached the scene of any of the recent fires the full pressure has been available at the hydrants. About 140,000 gallons of water are available for fire protection at any instant, and three times that if need be, at call.

Hundred Pounds Pressure
One hundred pounds nozzle pressure is what the water officials declare they have maintained consistently at fires. They can give still more pressure, up to about 180 lbs. but this only as a last resort in a very serious business section outbreak. The pressure given is sufficient for all ordinary fires as has been proved declare the officials, by the fact that the fires were easily controlled. One thing beyond the control of the water officials affects the pressure. That is the length of the hose laid out. The longer the hose the less is the nozzle pressure, and if the hose is allowed to lie in curly curves or taken round many corners the pressure is still farther affected. The water men maintain that it is up to the firemen and the Fire Chief to attend better

MAJOR SNYDER GOES SOUTH

After Eleven Years in the Yukon, Officer of the R.N.W.M.P. to Get Promotion.

Eleven years in the Yukon. Eleven years of a kind of life that needs a strong man to face. Eleven winters in its blinding snows; eleven years in the cause of humanity; in the cause of law and order. Major Snyder, of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, in charge of the Whitehorse station during the period mentioned, went south on the Princess May yesterday afternoon. He has finished his term in the Yukon and is now going to a life with probably less hardships than he has been up against north of the 60th parallel. He has not left the service, but he has been called out to receive promotion. When he arrives at Vancouver he will receive his instructions where his new station will be. Probably he will be attached to the Commissioners' quarters at Regina, possibly he will join the staff at Ottawa.

Like all the members of the R.N.W.M.P. he wished little to say about himself when approached by the News yesterday.

All of the uninteresting stores are unadvertised stores.

FOUR MEN HAD HARD STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

Harry Edenshaw and His Son, Matthew Youmans and Austin Brown Had Exciting Experience in Gale off West Coast of Graham Island

After fighting for life with a capsized row boat off the west coast of Graham Island, Austin Brown returned to the city last night from a land staking expedition, grateful after the narrow escape from death. In the desperate adventure Harry Edenshaw and his son, and Matthew Youmans of Masset shared.

The party had risked the mountainous waves of the west coast in an expedition on Edenshaw's launch to stake some oil fields for a syndicate of local business men. After being in the woods for five days they camped on Frederick Island. Before leaving they decided to go back and stake four more claims on Big River.

When in a row boat four hundred yards from the shore they saw an immense wave coming to them and curling over. When it struck the boat it threw the four men clean out some distance away in the water. There was about forty feet of water there, and only Edenshaw could swim, while all were clad in gum boots and slickers. Fortunately the next wave threw the boat towards them, and the men clutched her, trying by climbing on her to get her righted.

Six times the boat rolled over and over, and the men exhausted with the cold and their struggles were about to give up the fight when Edenshaw and Brown being washed under the boat managed to clasp her, one at each side, keeping her balanced until she floated ashore. Had it not been that the tide was coming in they would have been lost.

The men lost all their effects, and were much bruised with being knocked against the rocks on the shore. Their watches are all stopped at the time of the accident at ten minutes to four.

Owing to their exhausted state they decided to leave the last four claims for someone else to find.

DOMINION GOVERNMENT TO PREPARE THE VOTERS LISTS

Strategic Move Made by the Government—Will Not Accept Provincial Lists in Manitoba and British Columbia Where Registrations Have Not Been Made for a Year

Winnipeg, Aug. 5.—The Laurier Government secured a strategic victory over the Conservatives yesterday afternoon, by issuing a proclamation calling for new voters' lists in Winnipeg and Brandon, in the seven seats of British Columbia and in two seats in Northern Ontario.

New Lists Wanted
The Provincial lists have always been accepted by the Dominion Government in the Federal elections, except in cases where registrations have not been made within the previous year. This is understood to have been the case in the districts mentioned.

The Fight Centre
The real fight centres of the coming campaign are expected to be in British Columbia and in Brandon. With new lists prepared on the eve of the campaign it is expected that a strong vote will be provided for in the constituencies, and the fullest expression of the people of the districts obtained.

Sifton Goes Over
Mr. Clifford Sifton, former Minister of the Interior, and member for Brandon will render aid to the Opposition in the present campaign in the West. Both sides have made preparations for a big campaign to open next week.

CHING CHING BORDEN'S CHINESE CRY

Five thousand years ago, the Chinese were the leading people of the world. They led in civilization, in art, in laws, in ethics, and in wealth. When our own ancestors were wild barbarians living in caves, the Chinese were enjoying a high civilization. The reason they lost their place in the conflict for supremacy was owing to a wrong economic theory. They were believers in "protection."

The Chinese carried the protection theory to perfection. That is why it killed them so effectually as a national power. They did not stop with a mere tariff wall. They built an actual wall of solid masonry in order to keep trade out. They were great believers in the idea of "China for the Chinese."

Within the last ten years their eyes have been opened. They have discarded the old idea of "China for the Chinese." They are encouraging trade today. They realise that if they are to become wealthy again it can only be by selling their coal, iron, silks, camphor, tea, ginger and other products to those nations who need them.

But the false idea of trade which the Chinese have thrown away has not been lost. It has been picked up by some of the disconsolate and haphazard politicians of Canada. They polished it up to look like new, and put it out as their own idea. But the only change in it is that they have made it read "Canada for the Canadians" instead of "China for the Chinese." The theory is the same.

Mr. Borden is among those who raised the cry. Little men among his desperate bunch of followers take it up occasionally. Not that they are all fools. Some of them may be knaves.

The fact is that when "Canada for the Canadians" was practised—when Canada was exclusively held by the Canadian aborigines—it was not an important or desirable country at all. It was only when the French and English settlers came that the country started to become wealthy or desirable. The increasing wealth and strength of the Dominion comes directly as a consequence of the welcoming of settlers, and the extension of our markets.

Its future growth in wealth and strength depends entirely on our continuing to welcome the stranger and to extend our markets. A nation cannot live to itself.

Because British Columbia is the least developed of all the provinces of Canada, she can least of all afford to tolerate the fool philosophy of "Canada for the Canadians."

We have enormous lumber areas for which we desire markets. Are we only to be permitted to sell to the local market?

We have fisheries at the doors of Prince Rupert big enough to feed a continent. Are we to be permitted to sell our fish only to the local buyers in the city?

The reciprocity proposals will perform a great service for the people of Canada by removing the taxes from the food they eat. But they will perform an even greater service by opening up a market of ninety million people for our timber, our fish, and our mineral wealth. Laurier and larger markets have brought prosperity to Canada. Laurier and larger markets will continue to ensure a continued prosperity.

Our anti-reciprocity freaks should go and learn something from the statesmen of China. They know better now.

Two young screaming eagles at the back of the Exchange Grill flapped their clipped wings and hopped around in the sunshine yesterday afternoon when Mr. W. H. This morning Mr. Harbeck went to the Balmoral Cannery up the Skeena River and took views of how they can salmon as well as how the fish are caught. Before he leaves for Seattle tomorrow he claims he will have several hundred feet of very interesting film of this city and district.

One picture on the film will show the front page of the Daily News "Wedding Extra" which was got out in honor of the marriage of Mr. Norman Mackintosh of the editorial staff of the News.

LAKELSE IS A RICH COUNTRY

In Proof of It Mr. S. Corley Shows a Crate of Luscious Strawberries He Brought Down.

It is absolutely impossible to estimate the great agricultural possibilities, the unexcelled qualities of the fruit lands, and the several great assets of the Lakelse Valley.

Good Roads There

It's going to be a great country, said Mr. Corley enthusiastically. "Already there are some excellent roads constructed over which it is possible to drive an automobile.

"Another road running from Copper City to Breckenridge's Landing fifteen miles long is nearing completion. And the trails through the country are good.

"Then there are the Hot Springs, which I understand are equal to any in the country for medicinal purposes."

"What about fishing?" asked the interviewer. "Greatest trout fishing you could find anywhere," was the answer.

"It was the first time I was ever there, and I confess I was surprised at the richness of the country."

ITEMS OF SPORT

According to Alfred Shrubbs, the British long distance runner, who is touring in England this summer, the professional Marathon game is deadlier than the proverbial door-nail in this country.

By defeating the Prince Albert Thistles by a score of four goals to one, Saskatoon made certain of the championship of this division in the Saskatchewan Provincial Football league, the home players have not dropped a point an any of their games and will now have to play off against the winners of the other divisions for the Provincial shield, emblematic of the championship of the province

Swimming experts expect to see most of Champion Daniels' open water records improved upon before the close of the present season. The retirement of Daniels from competition leaves the field open to a number of speedy fishermen, and Frizell and Reilly are both credited with sufficient speed to lower every standing mark. If favorable conditions prevail during the coming title races, there may be an entire new set of records by October.

According to recent advices Champion Ad Wolgast and his manager, Tom Jones, will split after the next contest, that Jones will get his commission on the next bout and then be thorough. Wolgast is making his own matches with McFarland and it looks like a Milwaukee club will get the match. The reason for the split between Wolgast and Jones is not known.

The secret Holway learned from runners in both England and Australia is to keep the legs as straight as possible, rest and balance the weight evenly on the two legs and bring both into full play at the very start. Today Holway, who has always been an American professional runner, is getting faster than he ever ran in his life.

George Stovall played baseball at school with Jesse James' sons and the name of the team was the Outlaws. George says it was the best boys' team that ever played. In four years' time they lost but three games.

When Ad Wolgast and Packey McFarland signed articles for a ten round bout at Milwaukee, September 18 it was agreed they should meet in a contest of 20 rounds or more in California some time before the first of the year. The weight in the Pacific coast conflict, while not settled, is expected to be 133 pounds five hours before entering the ring. McFarland is obligated to post $5,000 in support of the second match whenever Wolgast comes to Chicago or Milwaukee to close the affair.

Over the lace skirt was a tunic of black and white striped chiffon voile edged with a band of plain violet silk, which in turn was bordered with a band of jet embroidery. G.T.P. MAKING PROGRESS ALL ALONG THE MAIN LINE

Steel to be Near Hazelton This Fall — Line is Laid to Arthabasca Landing—Spur Line to Brazeau Coal Fields Being Laid

That steel on the coast section of the Grand Trunk Pacific main line will reach a point near Hazelton, B. C., by the end of the year is the latest statement made by the G. T. P. officials. The contractors are busy now at work on the three tunnels in the Canyon on the Skeena River, which is about 106 miles east of Prince Rupert. The length of the three tunnels are said to be 1,300 feet, 1,100 feet and the third 800 feet. The work on these have been in progress for quite a long time now, with the result that all three of them are nearly completed. The road is in operation to within a few miles of the canyon and as soon as the tunnels are completed the laying of the steels will be completed.

Steel at Athabasca
Steel was also recently put down as far as Athabasca river, which is a distance of about 1,017 miles west of Winnipeg and right at the entrance of the Rocky mountains. The bridge across the Athabasca river is being constructed and as soon as the piling work is finished track-laying will be proceeded with, as far as Fitzhugh, the first divisional point west of Edson. At this point large yards will be constructed as well as a station, and other buildings including a round house which is already on towards completion.

Coal Branch
The Grand Trunk Pacific railway have also started track-laying this week on the coal branch line running from the main line west of Edson to the Pacific Pass and the Brazeau coal fields. Already about eight miles have been laid of this steel. The company have also been making rapid progress with track-laying on its branch line into Regina. The contractors are laying as much as two and three miles of track every day and at this rate of progress the line is expected to be finished into Regina by the latter part of next week. Track was also recently completed on the Prince Albert branch for about 60 miles and will be continued on to the Athabasca river early in August.

THE FIRE CHIEF IS CRITICISED

to this before complaining of the water pressure.

How About Firemen?
So exigent a matter as this arouses the enquiry: How about the fire department itself? As is known Alderman Clayton has already agitated for an special enquiry into the conditions of the department. The citizens are aware that recently there were signs of dissatisfaction amongst the men, but the arrival of a new assistant fire chief seems to have had the effect of restoring the morale of the group of call men to some extent. Now some little points have come to light which have a bearing on Alderman Clayton's enquiry.

Was Phone off Hook?
While the old schoolhouse was burning after the explosion yesterday a citizen coming down Fulton street and knowing that a fire was on, stepped into the fire hall to ask where the blaze was. He found the fire hall deserted. The whole department had turned out to the fire. The citizen turned to the telephone to ring up down town to ask his question. He found the receiver off the hook and swinging by the side of the instrument. A Station Duty man might easily have gone on duty without noticing this, and had a fire broken out elsewhere in the city at that time the fire hall would have been less useful than the City Hall to help matters.

The Fire Bell?
Another point: The water department men complain that the bell is rarely rung to let them know that a fire is in progress. There is a specially purchased steam whistle of ear penetrating power on the electric light plant boilers, which is supposed to give the fire alarm. The last time this whistle blew there was nothing doing, though half the city rushed out with flashlights looking for the fire, and the "Red Devil" full of firemen nearly fell over itself in a dash for the light plant. That a man should remain on station duty at the fire hall even during a fire, and the fire-bell should be rung and the whistle sounded at every alarm and not for fun or fancy drill purposes, and that such details as the hanging up of the telephone receiver after a call, and the proper laying out of the hose to economise water pressure on the scene should be attended to, are points worthy of the attention of the fire and water committee in their fire department enquiry.

JUDGE LAMPMAN HERE Will Open County Court. Judge Young Goes to Atlin

Judge Lampman arrived by the Prince George this morning from Victoria and is staying at the G. T. P. Inn. He will open the County Court on Monday. Judge Young leaves for Atlin to hold court there and return late to Rupert.

To Attend Synod
Several Anglican clergymen reached the city this morning to attend the meeting of the Syrod which opens on Monday. Among those who arrived was Rev. Thos. Marsh of Kitsumkalum. Rev. Mr. Price of Kitwanger is on the way. Rev. Mr. Field of Hazelton was unable a few days ago to state if he could be in attendance. Special synod sermons will be preached in the morning by Archdeacon Collison of Kincolith and in the evening by Rev. R. H. O'Malley formerly of Winnipeg, now of Denver, Colorado.

LOCAL LAWYERS ARE PRETTY MAD

Legal Business of the Town is Tied up Owing to the Absence of the Myriad jobbed Arthur.

Since Thursday when Court Registrar Arthur Cuthbert went away somewhere in his capacity of Provincial Assessor, the legal business of the town has been tied up, and the lawyers with cases on their hands are very wrathly in consequence.

Some very unkind remarks are being passed—not at Mr. Cuthbert, who cannot be at two places at the one time, but at the policy of the Provincial Government which heaps up party favors on the head of one man. At present Mr. Cuthbert has about fifty-seven different jobs from the Government, most of which should be divided around.

There is a court in the city and a judge. There are lawyers with cases and witnesses, but it is impossible to proceed with the trials until Mr. Cuthbert comes back. And nobody knows when that will be.

Until the Provincial Assessor, etc., comes back it is impossible for a writ to be issued, a title to be registered or a bill of costs to be taxed.

A telegram was despatched by the Bar Association this morning to the Attorney General asking him to appoint a deputy registrar until the Provincial Land Assessor, etc., comes back.

TWENTY MUSICAL NUMBERS

In "Honeymoon Trail" at the Empress Theatre Tonight

"The Honeymoon Trail" which is to appear at the Empress Theatre for six performances starting tonight, is a musical comedy of rare and happy possibilities. The plot is far above the average, and its lyric investiture is rich in melody, harmony, snap and ginger. In all the twenty musical numbers, not one drags or proves uninteresting. The book fairly scintillates with wholesome, clean wit, while the story is sane and enjoyable.

The owner, Mr. Harry Cleveland, has provided a most complete stage production, an able cast of well known artists, and an exceptionally well drilled and comely chorus. The electrical effects are many and novel; in fact, the entire production is of a high order, each department being in the hands of skilled, competent artists, who have spent years perfecting themselves in their art.

What is the subject of a good deal of talk in the city is the surprising and honest bargains being offered by G. D. Tite in furniture and home furnishings. Every August Mr. Tite makes a sacrifice of his goods to assure the public he has got the right things for the home.
