The Premier took pains to point out that no one in the province will be allowed to suffer for want of the ecessities of life. There is no doubt. he said, that the present position of affairs is breaking down the morale

So far as possible within the resources of the province. Mr. Patpullo stated, necessary works will be carried out and it is understood also that Ottawa will have a program of its own.

It was reiterated that those absolutely in want and requiring assistance will have to re-register after August 1 under rules and regulations to be formulated and which will be administered by the minister of labor. The government will then decide who are to be carried

It is expected that, as a result of the change, thousands of persons will be taken off the relief lists with a heavy saving to the country.

prising to him as it was undeserved. He wished to sincerely thank his friends for the honor they had done him and for the tributes which had been expressed. In leaving Prince Rupert, Col. McMordie remarked, it was true he was going to a distinct promotion. At that however, this had been his home for more than twenty-five years and it was here that he was leaving his real friends. It was, therefore, matter of deep regret for him to be departing.

After outlining in a reminiscent vein his association with this community since its very early days when he had come here from Ontario, a young contractor full of youthful exuberance and enthusiasm, Col. McMordie declared that he still had unbounded confidence in the future of this city. True the community had had its vicissitude: possibly it had had more misfortunes and disappointments than any other growing city in Western Canada. Yet it had great resources and potentialities and it was reasonable to expect that some day, possibly in the not far distant 14ture, there would be a city here of from 25,000 to 75,000 people. "Blood Money" and "Letting in the Sunshine" at Capitol Theatre This Mid-Week

"Blood Money," a strong drama depicting some of the intrigues of business and politics with George Bancroft, Francis Dee, Chick Chandler, Judith Anderson and Blossom Seeley in leading roles, and "Letting in the Sunshine," a bright British musical comedy with Albert Burdon and Renee Gadd in the leading roles, comprise an entertaining double picture bill which is being offered the middle of this week on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

"Blood Money" reveals the inside of the bail bond racket, being highly dramatic expose of underworld workings. The story deals with the hook-up between crimemade millionaires and the political

In "Letting in the Sunshine" Burdon is a window cleaner, and Miss Gadd a maid of all work. From their humble stations in life, they are able to frustrate a robbery from a society girl, planned by a ang of crooks. But the crooks have a good innings with Albert and Renee before they are captured.

"NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS"

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited

"Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the good it has done me that I feel must write and tell you of it.

"For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated now for seven weeks."-Mrs. Louise Johnson (address furnished upon request).

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further promote regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the wastes.

Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines - often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

MEDICINE DISCUSSED

Dr. Large went on to describe developments as time progressed in the fields of antiseptis, anaesthesia, surgery, etc. While methods of medical practice used in various ages might seem numerous and dissimilar, yet there were in reality but three methods of treating disease excluding surgery—faith healing. hygienic therapy and drug cures. Dr. Large enumerated in an interesting manner developments since the early times under these heads. The doctor illustrated his remarks with many interesting incidents and examples of medical practice.

W. H. Tobey, president of the club, was in the chair. Guests were William Dann of Stewart and F. A. MacCallum of Prince Rupert. Th luncheon raffle was won by C. E.

It was announced that next week's Gyro gathering would take the form of a dinner at the Knox
