Sudden release of Tim Buck, Canadian Communist leader, from Kingston penitentiary, failed to surprise friends in Toronto who turned out 4,000 strong to welcome-home the man who was sentenced to five years imprisonment after a sensational trial for leading an illegal organization. Buck had served just over three years of his sentence. The layout shows the happy reunion of the Buck family with son Ted, daughter Olive and Mrs. Alice Buck. Buck is also shown being carried through street on shoulders of friends and in characteristic attitude as he addressed the throng at Toronto station.

Appears Advisable for Prince Rupert to Make Its Own Trade Contact

Governments and Railway Having Done Their Part to Encourage Business, George Nickerson Suggests That Local People Should Help Themselves

"The two governments and the Canadian National Railways have gone a long way in the matter of assisting the export shipment of hemlock logs from Prince Rupert. Are the people of Prince Rupert venturesome enough now to do something for themselves?" Such was the comment this morning of G. W. Nickerson following his return from Vancouver and elsewhere in the south where he conducted negotiations with a view to having export shipments of hemlock timber inau BAD SCARE gurated from here.

The best price he had been able to secure through southern exporters, Mr. Nickerson stated, was $ per thousand at ship's side here. Or. the other hand, a price of $17.50 could be obtained in Tientsin, China, which, deducting freight of $9.50 per thousand, would leave $8] per thousand at the ship's side here.
