Lawrence's Return Awaited In Arabian Crisis ||

A crisis in Arabian affairs that is endangering interests of British and foreigners, is expected to bring Col. T. E. Lawrence, one-time "uncrowned ruler of Arabia," out of his obscure role as an enlisted man in British air corps, and send him back to the desert as peacemaker. Ibn Saud, king of Saudi, precipitated the crisis by using planes, machine guns and other modern implements of war to overcome Imam of Yemen and capture his territory, including important city of Hodeida, scene from which is shown at top in above layout. Inset is shown heir to Yemen throne, while at extreme right, Lawrence as he is today.

ENJOYED CELEBRATION

Editor, Daily News:-I have attended in my time hundreds, yes thousands, of picnics and celebrations but never a finer one than that of our native friends at Port Simpson last Thursday. The program for the day could not have been better arranged or more ably carried out. The hospitality and reception accorded by the people of Port Simpson to their visitors from Prince Rupert could not have been more kindly or generous. The event was a great credit to the people of the neighboring village and I am sure was as enjoyable to all the Prince Rupert folk who made the trip as it was to myself.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for valuable space.

If you knew that a remedy had been scientifically tested at a hospital on 40 patients, to prove ts value in correcting run-down, always tired, below par conditions, and the results had been so good that they impressed the doctor in charge of the test, wouldn't you, too, be impressed?

Such a test was recently made on that famous preparation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. At a leading Canadian hospital 40 students formed the test patients in a clinic to determine the exact amount these world-known Pills increased the haemoglobin and red blood corpuscles in the blood streams of tired out, nervouslyexhausted people. (These two vital blood elements carry oxygen from the lungs and nutriment from the food to every cell in the body, and a lack of them is the cause of these run-down condi-

In every case where the red corpuscles had been below normal at the start, there was a recorded increase after the treatment on Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and in 95 per cent. of the cases the haemoglobin content had also improved. The patients had lost their tired-out feeling, had regained their pep and energy, and their general health was again normal.* Are you needlessly putting up with that distressing "tired out" feeling that indicates a rundown condition? Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will benefit you as they benefitted these 40 scientificallytested patients. This proven preparation will restore your energy, vigor and buoyant health, because it revitalizes your blood stream. You are taking no chances, as the hospital test shows. You are bound to feel stronger, revitalized and more vigorous as you take the treatment.

Start taking this proven bloodbuilder right away. It is equally IN THE MATTER OF THE "ADMINISgood for children, "teen-age" girls, and adults. Your druggist has these Pills in stock-50c a
