Special Treatment May be Accorded Such Provinces as Require it—Provinces May be Empowered to Issue Long Term Debentures to Finance Relief

OTTAWA, Jan. 20: (CP)—Launching of an elaborate program of public works in the early spring with continuation of the system of direct relief under existing arrangements until such time as the unemployed throughout Canada have been substantially absorbed in industry was the final agreement of the Dominion-provincial conference which closed yesterday.

In the matter of provincial financing a brief official report of the proceedings stated that none of the provinces would offer any objection to the federal government giving special consideration to certain of them if conditions warranted.

The government of Canada has agreed to co-operate with those provinces desiring to set up commissions to administer relief funds. This was the suggestion of Premier Taschereau of Quebec and involves giving power to such commissions to issue long term four percent debentures guaranteed by the two governments to defray relief costs.

Pattullo Gratified

Gratification with the spirit displayed at the conference is expressed by Premier T. D. Pattullo of British Columbia. "There was no east against west or west against east attitude but all stand united in the common cause," he said in a brief statement following the conference.

Premier Pattullo will remain in Eastern Canada for some days in connection with governmental matters and will visit Toronto, Montreal and New York.

President Roosevelt's Plans For Slashing Gold Content and Nationalizing Metal Expected to Pass

People of United States Rushing to Exchange Pieces For Paper Currency Before Deadline

Roosevelt for the cutting of the gold content of the dollar and the nationalization of all gold in the United States and legislation along these lines is expected to be passed by comfortable margins in both houses of Congress. Undoubtedly, there will be opposition from the conservative Republicans but this is not expected to be very menacing.

The monetary and commerce committee of the Senate has started consideration of the President's recommendations. The House of Representatives is expected to vote within a day or so, administration leaders, concerned by developments which have brought the British pound sterling below the $5 mark in New York for the first time in five months, deciding to push the dollar revaluation bill through as speedily as possible.

The Treasury Department has extended indefinitely the time within which the people of the country may turn in some $500,000,000 of gold without being penalized for holding same. Holders of gold pieces throughout the nation were eager to exchange gold coins for paper currency before the deadline when gold coins become illegal tender.

Mr. Leduke, who passed this way in 1897 enroute to the Yukon long before Prince Rupert was even thought of, arrived in town last evening on the Venture from Bella Coola where he has been on relief duty for the past six weeks. In all he has been away from Endako for six months, having been relieving for three months at Smithers after which he went to Kleena-Kleene in the Chilcoot district where he spent six weeks, proceeding from there overland to Bella Coola.

OTTAWA CONFERENCE

Premier Pattullo seems to have secured most of what he went to Ottawa to get. He has obtained a promise that there will be a big program of public works commenced in the early spring and there seems to have been a tacit agreement that help will be given the province in connection with its proposed refunding scheme. These were the big features of the requests coming from British Columbia.

Premier Bennett is to be congratulated on having adopted the recommendations of the provincial premiers and Premier Pattullo is even more to be congratulated on the success of the mission which he initiated. Evidently he is pleased and he would not be pleased if he had not been successful.

LIFE AMONG THE INDIANS

"Potlatch to Pulpit," the book written by Rev. William Henry Pierce of Port Essington, and published in Vancouver, is meeting with much favor in this district. The first part of the volume deals with the struggle for education of the author, of his conversion to Christianity through Rev. Thomas Crosby and of his finally becoming a minister in the Methodist Church. The spread of the gospel among the natives is depicted and in the second part of the book many of the old customs and habits of the natives are dealt with.

The work was edited by J. P. Hicks, editor of the Western Recorder. As the edition was only a small one and it may not be reprinted, it is likely to be quickly sold out and the volumes will become quite valuable.

IS FROZEN TO DEATH

Another Tragedy of Trail Reported From Prince George District

Divisional headquarters of the provincial police here have been advised of the finding of the body on the Hixon Creek trail in the Prince George district of John W. Irvine, 59-year old prospector and mining man, who it was found by investigation, had come to his death as a result of being frozen to death following exhaustion while carrying a heavy pack. Deceased was a native of Glasgow, Scotland, and had been employed as a street railway operator in the Scottish metropolis for upwards of twenty years before coming to Canada in 1930. He had not been long in the Hixon Creek area but was well known around Takla Landing, Hazelton and Smithers.

On January 9 and the last time deceased had been seen alive was on December 29 when he purchased supplies at Hixon Creek store, leaving for his cabin with a heavy pack. He is believed to have been dead about a week when the body was found.

The remains were found lying face down with hands clasped tightly under the chin. The forehead, nose and chin had been severely frost-bitten before death. There were only the footprints of deceased in the vicinity. About fifty feet back from the point where the body was found two seven-pound sacks of flour were hanging on the limb of a tree. It was evident that deceased had endeavored to lighten his load on finding that he was tiring. His left foot is believed to have been sprained before he fell. His right heel had also been blistered. He wore high rubber boots which would soon exhaust his strength on the trail.

Review Favourable Year For Royal Bank of Canada

STRONG POSITION MAINTAINED

Sir Herbert Holt, President, Takes Strong View That Canada is Now Definitely on the Upgrade.

Morris W. Wilson, Vice-President and General Manager, Reviews Strong Statement.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Royal Bank of Canada marked the close of a most successful year.

Sir Herbert Holt, President, in his address struck an optimistic note when he stated that he considered that Canada was now definitely on the upgrade. His progress however, was being retarded by too heavy taxation and the cost of maintaining so many Governments in the country was rapidly becoming unbearable.

Morris W. Wilson, Vice-President and General Manager, in his address reviewed the outstanding features of the strong statement of the Bank. The feature of paramount importance in connection with the possible formation of a Central Bank, added Mr. Wilson, would be the quality of its management.

President's Address.
 Sir Herbert S. Holt, President, in moving the adoption of the Directors' report, said in part:
 The 64th Annual Report and Balance Sheet submitted to you to-day disclose the strong position that we are now definitely on the up-grade. If we deal intelligently with the main problems that confront us we can expect within measurable time a return of general prosperity.

General Manager's Address.
 Mr. M. W. Wilson, Vice-President and General Manager, in referring to the position of the bank pointed out that liquid assets totalled $362,471,000, and were equal to 55.76% of public liabilities, compared with 52.96% of the previous year. A notable feature is that 24.26% of such liabilities is represented by cash and cash balances aggregating $157,699,000. He mentioned the further interesting fact that in Canada current deposits increased about $17,000,000 during the year and savings deposits were higher by $2,000,000.

In discussing the proposed central bank he recalled the hope which he expressed at the last Annual Meeting that the Government would see fit to have the project examined by a body of experts and Banking and Currency which was constituted last summer could not have been better chosen. Under the Chairmanship of Lord Macmillan their sittings in all parts of the country were notable for the freedom with which all possible evidence was received and for the patience and tact displayed in dealing with the material submitted. While I do not agree with the Report in its entirety I believe that a properly constituted Central Bank can be developed as a useful adjunct to our banking system.

Note Issue
 Mr. Wilson expressed the strong opinion that the recommendations in the Report with respect to the gradual withdrawal of the note-issuing privileges of the Chartered Banks did not appear to be in the public interest. Retention of these privileges would not hamper the Central Bank in its efforts to control credit. In this connection he quoted an editorial which appeared in the London Economist to the effect that the Central Bank would not be in the least weakened by allowing Chartered Banks to retain their present issues under the present restrictions. Mr. Wilson went on to say: "I think, therefore, that we should view the elimination of bank note issues now as a step which must inevitably accompany the creation of a central bank but as a separate matter entirely. The real question is whether the Government desires to have banking service maintained at many small points throughout the country or to appropriate the revenue of note issues for themselves. I believe that the gain to the Government would not offset the loss to the public through curtailment of banking facilities. Unquestionably there are many places which could no longer support a branch bank if note issuing privileges were to be withdrawn. The operation of a number of small branches at a bare margin of profit is characteristic of banking in this country. We have a system which in many of its aspects is native to the Dominion and prudence should prompt us to be very cautious in advocating fundamental changes."

In conclusion Mr. Wilson said: "At our last Annual Meeting I ventured to suggest that the prospect of further improvement in the coming year was very much more hopeful than it was the previous year. That prediction has been borne out by subsequent developments. For the first time in years an attitude of quiet but confident optimism is in evidence almost everywhere. Many problems still have to be solved but I have full confidence in the ability of Canada to share in the continued improvement in economic conditions which I believe lies ahead of us."

The Railway Situation
 Dealing with the situation of the Government railways, Sir Herbert expressed the opinion that the time for half measures had passed and that bold and courageous action was required. He felt that the views expressed at the last Annual Meeting that enforced co-operation between the two railway systems would not be a satisfactory remedy had been confirmed by the experience of the past year and is still of the opinion that the maximum of economy can only be obtained by some form of administrative amalgamation.

The President made a strong demand for a reduction of Governmental debts and pointed out that the cost of maintaining too numerous governments, Federal, Provincial and Municipal, was becoming unbearable. He said: "Greater activity in business will reduce unemployment, produce increased revenues, and a reduction in disbursements for public relief. Advantage should be taken of these developments to reduce debts rather than increase expenditures."

Conditions in Other Countries.
 In referring to conditions in other countries he expressed the view that the low point in the depression for most of the world was reached in the latter part of 1932, and since that time there has been a general increase in international gradual withdrawal of the note-issuing privileges of the Chartered Banks did not appear to be in the public interest. Retention of these privileges would not hamper the Central Bank in its efforts to control credit. In this connection he quoted an editorial which appeared in the London Economist to the effect that the Central Bank would not be in the least weakened by allowing Chartered Banks to retain their present issues under the present restrictions. THOUSAND ARE DEAD

CALCUTTA, Jan. 20: (CP)—No foreigners are believed to have been among the victims of last Monday's disastrous earthquake in India. Conservative but unofficial estimates today place the death list at about one thousand with 50,000 or more injured. Hundreds of bodies are being dumped into the Ganges River while earth tremors continue. It may be weeks before the exact extent of the loss of life and property devastation is definitely known.

In Bisha Province, the hardest hit section, damage is estimated at approximately $40,000,000.

The catastrophe now appears definitely to have centred in Northern India near the base of the Himalaya Mountains where entire native communities were reduced to shambles although all other parts of the country were severely shaken. Suffering is intense and fears are held of plague breaking out owing to lack of sanitation and inadequate water supply.

NOTHING TO COMPARE WITH BUCKLEY'S FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

G. Billings of Colonsay, Sask. ought to know, for he has taken BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE for years. He writes: "There is nothing on the market to equal it. Its flash-like action is sudden death to a cold." No matter how stubborn or long standing your cough or cold may be, try BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE. You will be amazed at the instant relief it affords. The very first sip relieves the cough, and in no time at all clears up the deep-seated congestion soothes and heals the tender, inflamed membranes and fortifies them against future attacks. Buckley's acts like a flash—a single sip proves it.

Rigging of Halibut Gear Now General Occupation—Many Halibut Livers Landed During 1933—Fishing and Canning Outlook Promising

Although the opening of 1934 fishing operations is still six weeks or so removed, rigging of gear is now becoming a general occupation at all places along the Prince Rupert waterfront where fishermen are wont to foregather. Like at the ladies' knitting meetings, it is at the gear-rigging bees where all the gossip of the day may be heard, to say nothing of the observations and opinions in regard to same. One thing that is noticeable is the general feeling of optimism in regard to the outlook for the 1934 season. All concerned seem to be agreed that a bigger and better season is in store and one that, for all, will be a good deal more prosperous than for several years past and there appear to be good and logical grounds for sanguine expectations.

Over 222,000 pounds of halibut livers were marketed by Canadian fishermen last year and were used by pharmaceutical firms in the production of halibut liver oil. Practically all these livers were handled from Prince Rupert. Until a very few years ago halibut livers were of practically no commercial value but Canada's 1932 output was worth about $29,600.

The local halibut boat and troller R. W. Capt. Anaker Wick, left yesterday morning for Lewis Island where she will undergo a program of caulking and hull repairs at the hands of E. Rosang. The R. W. will probably be away for the next two or three weeks.

Having arrived in port Thursday night with the Taplow II Bert Flewin and George Brown of Port Simpson were business visitors in town yesterday. They left yesterday on their return to Simpson.

Extremely high tides in the harbor during the past week or so have been accentuated on some occasions by the heavy winds with the result that some of the local docks have been almost awash. Some more or less minor damage was reported.

The Indian Department's cruiser Naskeena made a run on Wednesday of this week to Metlakatla, having on board Indian Agent W. E. Collison and Dominion Constable A. J. Watkinson whose business was in connection with the conducting of nominations for the village council for 1934. They will make another trip to Metlakatla next Wednesday to conduct the election.

A bearer of optimistic tidings for the fishing industry of this district was John Dybhavn, president of the Royal Fish Co. and Massett Cannery, who returned to Prince Rupert on Wednesday after a trip to Eastern Canada and the United States during which he attended the annual meeting of the Biological Board of Canada as well as visiting New York, Montreal and other centres on company business. Mr. Dybhavn reported that the outlook both for halibut fishing and salmon canning industries on the British Columbia coast this year was very encouraging. It was apparent, he said, that, by the time fresh halibut gets on the market following the opening of the fishing season on March 1, frozen stocks will have been practically all cleaned up. It was also expected that the old pack of all varieties would be pretty well out of the way before this year's salmon canning season commenced. Mr. Dybhavn found that, during his absence, he had been honored by being elected to the presidency of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in succession to another prominent personage on the Prince Rupert waterfront in T. H. Johnson, general manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints, the first of three passenger liners to sail from here within twelve hours for the south. The Venture, Capt. Ernest George-son, in last night from 7:15 to midnight in place of the steamer Cardena, and Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, in this morning from 9 o'clock to 10, southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, being the other two.

Local short wave radio listeners last Sunday were interested to hear Capt. W. L. Dass, well known coast mariner, speaking over the radio from Alert Bay. Capt. Dass was talking to the Queen Charlotte Islands from the T. A. Kelley Logging Co.'s service boat Nora Jane which has been making a trip from Vancouver with equipment for the company's big camp at Athi Inlet on the Islands which is resuming operations.

Capt. Edward Mabbs was in command of the steamer Prince John which was in port this week, leaving last night on her return to Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. Capt. Mabbs is reported to have received a hearty welcome from many old friends on the Queen Charlotte Islands. It was his first trip in command of the Prince John for a couple of years or so.
