Judge Overrides Jury Verdict In Seduction Case Against Premier

Mr. Justice Ives Finds Against Vivian MacMillan and Her Father in Sensational Civil Action at Edmonton-Resignation of Government Head Stands

EDMONTON, July 4: (CP)-Despite the jury's verdict to the contrary, dismissal of the civil action of Vivian Mac-Millan against Premier J. E. Brownlee was the judgment of Acting Chief Justice W. C. Ives in a written judgment filed at the Edmonton court house today. His Lordship said in part: "In my view of the law the action must be dis-

Farmers all over Canada and the U.S. have been suffering alike from drought which seared most important food producing areas of the world, as shown by map. One farmer is seen here trying to find whether seeds he planted in the spring have had enough moisture to sprout, and others are shown scooping up water from waning streams in desperate effort to save some of the crops. Rain in the west has saved at least a part of the crop in some sections.

there is no break between what spring bulbs, the season of perennials and the season of the annuals. Those who have plenty of peonies and pinks and pansies will not lack color and fragrance in their garden just now. Many gardeners also it will be another week before many of this year's seedlings are showing up well.

The honeysuckles are in bloom and, with the pinks, add to the de-13c ights of the gardens, particularly n the evening. One of the largest nd finest honeysuckles I have ever een is blooming now in G.
