Large Payments Will be Made by Berlin For Mines And Private Credits and Equal Rights For Voters And Non-Voters Are to be Guaranteed

ROME, Dec. 3: (CP)-France and Germany today signed "an agreement of peace" over the vexed Saar Basin territory. Germany will pay France $60,000,000 and eleven million tons of coal for France's mines and private credits in the Saar Basin and Germany guarantees equal rights for voters and non-voters among all inhabitants. The settlement, which is expected to re-# move one of the stumbling-blocks to the preservation of peace in Europe, was arrived at by a committee NOT SHARK. s sight. There were no knock- of three representing the League of carnera weighed in at 266 Nations, Germany and France.

visit here for some time.

Grandmother's Tested Remedy

Make a paste of equal parts Colman's Mustard and flour and spread on cotton cloth. Cover with piece of flannel. Apply laster for from 15 to 30 minutes. For children or if skin is especially sensitive, add more flour. Musterd Plasters are a splendid remedy for chest coughs and colds and so easy to make.

For all medicinal uses for which Mustard is recommended, use COLMAN'S

"One Night of Love," With Grace Moore, Makes Highly Delightful Entertainment

Moore, stage, radio and Metropolitan Opera star, constituting the all-pervading feature of a notable production, "One Night of Love," much-heralded musical film, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for the first half of this week, the engagement having been extendd to include Wednesday as well as Monday and Tuesday nights. There was a pre-view of the much anticipated picture last night and those who had the opportunity of seeing it on that occasion agreed that the most glamorous reports in regard to it had been by no means exaggerated. It is surely a delightful entertainment and should be missed by none, especially lovers of music and song, and are there any who

Miss Moore, with her golden fulltoned soprano, is lovely to look at, her manner is gracious and charming and her acting most competent. While it is unquestionably Miss Moore's picture, Tulio Carminati, one of Italy's foremost younger actors who has won great popularity on the New York stage, shares honors in acting although not in singing. The tale is a simple one of an opera singer's trials and tribulations on the way to fame, fortune and love. In addition to the fine singing and interesting story, there s much diverting comedy, making Mrs. E. J. Fitzpatrick, who has it a picture that should appeal to all been away for the past three types of theatregoers. Clever intermonths visiting her home at He- polations of operatic interludes give lena, Montana, and elsewhere in glimpses once of Miss Moore as a seductive Carmen and again as a the end of the week. She was glorious Chio Chio San in "Madame accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Butterfly."

In addition to Miss Moore and E. Grenier of Helena, who will Carminati, other members of the supporting cast include Lyle Talbot, used as a romantic foil who alternates in Miss Moore' affections. Mona Barrie, as a charming inter-

"One Night of Love" has received little, if any, criticism because there appears to be nothing in it but is deserving of praise. It will, un- JELLY POWDERS-Emdoubtedly, prove as popular here as it has everywhere else it has shown. TEA -Fine Bulk, per lb.

SIXTEEN OUNCES Vitamins

It is a strange fact but many people fail to realize that canned milks are not all of equal value. The very basic valuesthe vitamins—are retained in vacuum packing and largely lost in the ordinary processes. Pacific is the only milk in Canada put up under the valuable vacuum method.
