Attorney General Gordon Sloan Urges Drastic Measures To Prevent Sacrifice of Youth on Altars of Money-McGeer is Cheered

VICTORIA, March 22:- Debate continued in the Legislature yesterday on the Special Powers Act and a vote is expected today with every prospect that it will be passed with a large majority. With the probable exception of G. G. McGeer, there will probably be a solid Liberal vote for the measure.

"The time has come to decide! greater than the sanctity of human life and the right to work and make a living," declared Hon. Gordon Sloan, Attorney General, in deyesterday. "I have heard a lot about the sanctity of contracts but I heard not a word when the wage contract with Canadian National Railways employees was broken at Ottawa and cuts made. Yet we have the sanctity of the contract of wages on money. Can we in all good faith pass on all our burdens to generations yet unborn? Do we not need courage to take drastic mensures to prevent our youth from being sacrificed on the altar of 50,000 workers immediately involmoney?"

There was turmoil in the House and Speaker H. G. Perry had to statement was made following the threaten to clear the public section where there was much cheering as G. G. McGeer, insurgent Liberal member for Vancouver-Burrard circle. vigorously attacked the bill.

WHAT THE "SPECIAL POWERS ACT" MEANS

A great many people have been speculating as to what ting out the dead wood. the Special Powers Act, now before the Legislature. means. Norman Senior, writing in the Vancouver Sun, tries to explain. He puts it something like this. The province, according to the budget, will run behind six million Cartage Co. and one by Valentin's dollars this year. Other millions are needed to put the idle Dairy orders for the manure have men to work.

Premier Pattullo believes that an idle and destitute cost is much higher than for cost and manure. The latter is no good for people can never pay the debt. A government cannot eco- hotbeds. nomize the province into prosperity. The national credit must be drawn upon and federal parliament is the only completed a very nice little greenpower that can do it. An appeal has aready been made to house at the back of his place ad-Premier Bennett but no answer has so far been received. joining the kitchen. He is planning to raise tomatoes and cucumbers The provincial government wants to be in a position to in it as well as flowers. It will be deal with the Dominion in regard to the present situation, a great addition to his facilities for

This year the sum of seven million dollars has to be paid supplying the home table from his in interest on outstanding provincial bonds. This seven million is needed to provide work and wages for the unemployed if the federal government refuses to do it. That would mean repudiation of financial obligations but it would be a question then which is the most important-interest payment or the welfare of the people. Pattullo believes the latter. When the Premier is given a free hand by the Legislature he will be in a position to say to the Dominion government: "You put our people to work or advance us the money to do it, otherwise we shall use the money we have to put them to work and defer the interest payments."

Here is the way Senior puts it:

"If Ottawa fails to come through with a reasonably stimulating works program and with sufficient credit to enable British Columbia to get by for the next twelve months the moment of the big 'show-down' will have come.

"The province will have to see what it can do on its own account. Quite clearly its only recourse is to refuse to meet the interest on the debt and to use the money, as far as it will go, to carry on the ordinary functions of government, while setting up an 'internal economy' for British Columbia on lines that will be, to say the least, highly experimen-

Under the law as it is today the claims of the bondholders come ahead of the claims of the unemployed. The passage of the Special Powers Act would put these claims on an equality.

So far no province has ever defaulted on its interest payments and there has been a general understanding that it would not be allowed by the federal government. Possibly a test may be made in the very near future.

PLANTS ARE GROWING

Every time I look at my garden I at the back of his house. This, it is notice that the perennials have understood, will be used for flowgrown since the previous time, that ers. weeds are encroaching or that something new is snowing above ground. The winter was very hard on the pansies. Nearly half of them are gone entirely and others are cut back so hard that they can scarcely recover. However, there are hundreds of little seedlings coming up among the old roots and if they are allowed to grow undisturbed there should be plenty of young plants blooming by about midsummer.

Roses should be pruned soon. Some people have already done this but nothing is lost by a little delay in pruning except that the first blooms may be a few days later if the bushes are cut back hard. Hard pruning is advised for bedding roses but the climbers should not be cut back much. Dr. Van Fleet is

District News SKIDEGATE

E. C. Stevens of Skidegate has received inquiries from London, Engiand regarding gold possibilities on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

It is generally felt on the Islands that the present high prices charged for passengers and freight to the Islands is only greatly retaring the progress of the Islands. In some cases it is said that it costs more to get lumber from Vancouver than the lumber is worth. Also it costs nearly as much to ship lumber from Massett as it does from Vancouver.

The Queen Charlotte Islands have been experiencing some very warm weather. Robins have made a very early visit to the Islands this year. Daisies, dandelions and salmon berries are in bloom and the shrubs are all leafing out.

A. J. Ingraham, manager of the Haida Gold Mines at Kootenay Harbor, came in with Capt. C. Haan recently and brought some splendid specimens of gold. He reported everything looking splendid at the

Sunbeam Brigade Is Inaugurated

New Branch of Salvation Army For Girls Comes Into Being

A very interesting and enjoyable evening was spent last night at the Salvation Army Citadel when sixteen girls were inaugurated into the Sunbeam Brigade. The Sunbeam Brigade is a world-wide organization of the Salvation Army and is for the purpose of building character and instructing young girls between the ages of eight and thirteen years of age in such things as sewing, cooking, first aid, physical drill and healthy indoor and outdoor games.

The opening exercises were conducted by Captain Coxson after which the girls, in their bright new uniforms, marched to the platform for the inauguration ceremony which was conducted by Lieut. Milley. After the ceremony Mrs. Jack Mowat was introduced as the chairlady for the evening.

The program was as follows: Six Little Nurses, by six Sun-

Guide to correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letter should be written on one side of the paper only Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of

F you are discouraged about the way your curtains look, perhaps told me to dve them with Diamond splendid success with these dyes and that they really contained a greater amount of purest anilines. I used them and my curtains positively look like new—so beautifully bright and colorful!" Use Diamond Dyes for permanent dark colors by boiling and Diamond Tints for tinting light daint shades without boiling. Both give superior results. At all drug stores. 15c.
