Never in Canadian history was the chance greater or the cause worthier of public service and personal sacrifice from the greatest Canadians.

If the Liberal cause wins in this appeal to the people there will Rupert, laborer, intend to apply for permission to purchase the following described lands: come enormously enlarged opportunities for trade in Canada's national products. It means the chance to sell and the chance to buy in the best markets. That will be a great thing for the people of Canada. But a still greater thing will also be secured; a firm forward setp in Canada's nationhood alike within the British Empire and among the nations of the world. To have a share in the triumph of such a cause or permission to purchase the following described is the chance now offered to the strong men in the constituencies of Canada.

Were the campaign of the Opposition to succeed, that success Pub. July 25. would delay the day of better trade relations for Canada. That day | Skeena Land District - District of Coast Range has been too long delayed. Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues Towner, North Dakota, occupation attorney sought to hasten it. In his turn Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberals at-law, intend to apply for permission to purchase the following described lands: took up the cause. Now the chance has come. Events which were not on the program of either Sir John or Sir Wilfrid have forced the issue from the other side, and the better trade arrangements which Canada has always sought are now formally offered by the President and Congress of the United States. This offer was long and bitterly fought by the organized beneficiaries of high protection in all the States and on the floor of Congress. But the cause of the people won against the blinded and selfish arrogance of the privileged interests.
