MINISTERS OF PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS RESTING AFTER DISCUSSING RELIEF PROBLEM

OTTAWA, Aug. 1: (CP)—Provincial government ministers were resting today after two days of intensive study of relief problems which from now until March 31, when the 1934 Relief Act expires, will be based on payment of a lump sum which in the case of British Columbia is approximately $150,000 monthly to cover direct relief costs. Pending definite reply by the Dominion to a plan for a nation-wide building program involving expenditure of $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 a year which he laid before the Dominion-provincial conference this afternoon, Premier Pattullo has not yet signed the lump sum agreement.

Premier T. D. Pattullo of British Columbia accepted the new plan philosophically although he felt that the federal government's policy toward unemployment relief and what he considered equally important, the rehabilitation of those who had grown accustomed to depending upon relief, was inadequate. Premier Pattullo and his ministers will remain here until Thursday to discuss better terms for the province and seek relief from the Pacific Great Eastern burden.

Bob Fornasa and Steve Cernek Lose Lives in Accident in Interior

No Details of Tragedy Available in Brief Message Other Than it Was Caused by Cave-in—Both Were Young Married Men With Families

Bob Fornasa and Steve Cernak, Prince Rupert miners, both of whom were in their thirties, were killed in an accident in a placer mine on Vital Creek north of Vanderhoof in the Cmineca district, according to word received here this morning by wire from Royal Shepard, Juneau mining engineer, who is operating the property on lease from a syndicate of Prince Rupert men headed by D. Zarelli. No details of the tragedy were conveyed in the message except that it was due to a cave-in on the workings.

Fornasa and Cernek were members of a party which was taken in this spring by Shepard to operate the property. The former was an Italian and is survived by a widow and little daughter in Prince Rupert. They came here from Australia three years ago.

Cernek was a Hungarian and had lived in Prince Rupert for three years having formerly been employed by the Billmor Spruce Mills. He was married and is survived by a widow and two children in Hungary.

It is expected the bodies will be brought out to Prince Rupert. Dr. W. Ross Stone, coroner at Vanderhoof, and Provincial Constable Jennings of Vanderhoof will go into Vital Creek by airplane to investigate the tragedy, divisional headquarters of the provincial police here have been advised.

LAKE STORM AT KATHLYN

Lightning Almost Continuous Illuminating Country—Hanson Visiting Riding

There was a wonderful illumination from lightning on Lake Kathlyn Saturday evening, according to Olof Hanson, M. P. for Skeena, who has just returned from a visit to the interior including his summer home at the lake. At first there was lightning without thunder, the flashes following each other so closely that the lake was illuminated all the time. Then followed thunder and lightning, one of the worst storms in years. It was a great pyrotechnic display.

Mr. Hanson said the grain crops were good throughout his constituency. Hay was light in some places but everything else looked well.

Mr. Hanson states that, since his recent return from attending the session of Parliament at Ottawa, he has been able to visit a number of the interior points of his riding and, as soon as time and opportunity permit, will be getting into other localities. After being away for six months out of the year attending the session, Mr. Hanson finds it extremely difficult to visit all points in a hurry in such a vast and scattered riding.

Ontario Police Foil Plan to Seize J. S. McLean and Hold Him For Ransom

TORONTO, Aug. 1: (CP)—Alleged to have planned to kidnap James S. McLean, president of the Canada Packers Limited, and hold him for $100,000 ransom, five men were arrested last night and the provincial police are continuing their investigation. The police had been watching the men for more than a week since they learned of the alleged conspiracy to strong-arm and seize McLean by slugging and drugging him into unconsciousness and carry him off to a carefully prepared underground tunnel prison beneath cabins of a tourist camp on the Humber River, there to keep him prisoner.

McLean is a son-in-law of Sir Joseph Flavelle.

FUNCTIONS OF GOVERNMENT

The old idea was that the least governed country was the best governed. Those were the old days when production and trading were carried on under old conditions. The development of machinery has brought about a need of change in governmental functions.

"The poor ye have always with you," was spoken many years ago and the people without food and clothing were fed from the charitable offerings of the rich. With certain religious sects it was meritorious to be poor and to be kept by the free will offerings of others.

Today we have arrived at an age when poverty is accounted a shame. It is a shame to the state that conditions could be such that there are poor in the land. There is plenty of wealth, which is another way of saying there is plenty of food and clothes for all if it can become available for them.

Discussing this G. G. McGeer in a recent speech in Alberta said:

"The government must establish the machinery to keep prices, wages, working conditions, competition, production, distribution, public works, social services, international commerce and credit within the bounds of reason."

That is a big order. Feeble attempts to do it have in the past not met with much success. It is part of the "New Deal" which is being attempted in the United States by President Roosevelt and which is meeting the determined opposition of the monied power. It is, in the opinion of many, the only way of heading off the efforts of socialists and the consequent rise of fascism.

It is foolish to look backward and point to what our fathers did and how people in those days were willing to endure hardships. Today we are in a new age with new ideas and ideals. The aim of most of the modern movements is to so improve conditions that there will be no poor and none inordinately rich. Yet every man should work for a living else he should not get it. Every woman too should do her share of the work of the world and should not be dependent on her husband for a dole. There are a great many things to be rectified before we can feel that conditions of life are satisfactory and possibly when we have them improved, the cussedness of human nature will set to work undoing them, for once we become static and contented, we cease to improve and commence to degenerate.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Crowded with 210 Alaska tourist passengers, 190 of whom were round-trippers, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port on time at 10 o'clock this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and sailed at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Skagway and other northern points whence she will return here next Monday southbound.

Skipper M. M. Stephens returned to port yesterday afternoon with his power cruiser Vera S. Frye following a five-day trip to Anyox and Alice Arm. Accompanying Mr. Stephens on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris. Favored by good weather, the cruise proved very enjoyable.

Reports are current here that the big C. N. R. steamer Prince Robert, which has been tied up at Vancouver for the past year or so, is to be brought to the local dry dock for a general overhaul prior to being commissioned this fall and winter on a new run from Vancouver to California and Mexican waters. There is no official confirmation locally of the report. The job, if carried out, would of necessity be quite an extensive one, it is said.

C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Edward Mabbs, is expected to arrive in port early tomorrow morning on a regular voyage from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel left Queen Charlotte City at 9 o'clock last evening for Massett Inlet where she is making her calls today.

Forest Ranger J. B. Scott, who was in port the first of this week with the Forest Branch cruiser Lillian D., has been making extensive cruises on Moresby Island recently. The Lillian D. is now stationed on the Queen Charlotte Islands while the Alpine Fir has been posted at Prince Rupert.

Mr. Webster and two sons and two daughters of Los Angeles were recent visitors in Skidegate Inlet, Queen Charlotte Islands, in the course of a cruise to Alaska by outside waters in their thirty-five foot raised deck power cruiser. They had made the trip along the California coast and via the West Coast of Vancouver Island. It is not often that such a small boat essays a cruise in such open waters as those.

Capt. Charlie Haan of Queen Charlotte City left Queen Charlotte with his sloopboat Beatrice H. for the Massett Inlet seining grounds on Thursday night of last week, being under charter to the Nootka Packing Co.'s cannery. The crew consists entirely of Skidegate Inlet men including Fred Atkins, Edmund Stevens, Red Morrison and Gust Skog. The launch Skidegate, Capt. G. Newberry, is taking the place of the Beatrice H. as tender for the Halda Gold Mines Ltd. at Kootenay Harbor.

Olof Hanson, M. P. for Skeena, arrived in the city on last night's train from Smithers.

TWO FILMS ON SCREEN

Another Double Bill Being Presented at Capitol Theatre at First of This Week

The Capitol Theatre is presenting another interesting double bill on its screen this mid-week in "Four Frightened People," a thrilling jungle romance with Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall, William Gargan, Mary Boland and Leo Carrillo in the leading roles, and "Kiss and Make Up," a bright and frivolous romantic comedy featuring Cary Grant, Genevieve Tobin, Helen Mack and Edward Everett Horton. Against a background of amazing jungle scenery, "Four Frightened People" details the adventures of four highly cultured people, two men and two women, who escape to the Malays from a steamer on which plague has broken out. Lost for months they turn to primitive manners and habits as a result of which some highly novel situations arise.

"Kiss and Make Up" deals with a doctor's disillusionment as to the value of beauty treatments, the story being piquant and breezy. Cary Grant is the beauty surgeon, Miss Tobin an artificial Venus and Helen Mack an unadorned little secretary. Edward Everett Horton is, as usual, cast in a droll and amusing part.

R. G. Johnson, manager of Inverness cannery, sailed yesterday afternoon on the Catala for a brief trip to Klemtu cannery on business.

Gyro Club Hears About Convention

Calgary Delegate Presents Report—Softball Game Deferred

At a business luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club in the Boston Cafe yesterday, Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth presented his official report as delegate to the recent Gyro International convention at Calgary, an interesting and inspiring account of the gathering and what transpired thereat being given.

It was decided that the Gyro-Rotary novelty softball game, originally set for this Wednesday should be held instead on August 23 during the Fair Carnival.

President W. H. Tobey was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members.

James Ryan, Indian, for drunkenness, has been fined $15, with option of ten days' imprisonment, in city police court.
