BROADCAST OF WEATHER

Forecasts Will Be Carried For This District on Air—Junior Chamber in Session

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, at its regular monthly meeting last night, was advised by R. Napier Denison, Dominion meteorologist at Victoria, that, in compliance with the Chamber's request, arrangements were being made to have western broadcasting stations of the Canadian Radio Commission carry weather forecasts for Prince Rupert and the north coast each evening. Assistance of W. L. Stamford, agent for the Marine Department here, will be sought in the same connection. Foster Willan was appointed delegate of the Junior Chamber to a meeting of the public library campaign committee which will be held tomorrow night to make arrangements for the canvass for funds to purchase new books for the library.

The constitution was finally approved by the Junior Chamber following its endorsement in amended form by the senior body. President Sam Jabour presided over the meeting and there was a good attendance.

FLOWN SAFELY FROM ECHO LAKE BY PLANE TO TELEGRAPH CREEK

William Scott, trapper, who had been alone in a cabin at Echo Lake midway between Telegraph Creek and Stewart suffering from a severed leg artery following an accident, was safely flown to Telegraph Creek last night in an airplane piloted by L. F. Barr, provincial police headquarters here were advised today. While Scott has a severe wound in the leg which is slightly infected, there is no cause for anxiety as to his condition, it is stated. He is receiving medical treatment at Telegraph Creek.

The bill also provides for a new minimum basis for provincial grants to elementary and high school teaching salaries. Minimum grants for elementary teachers are raised from the former $250 to $305 and the minimum high school grants per teacher to $75 above the elementary rate in each area. Grants in respect to junior high school teachers' salaries would be $25 below the high school rating for the same area.

Other powers in the bill deal with clarification of the right of school districts to levy taxes on joint owners' property, also on non-property owners, minimum and maximum rates being put on special levies.

Teachers, on dismissal, are given fifteen days to file notice of appeal to the board and the Council of Public Instruction.

Provisions of the bill will become effective April 1 assuming it is passed.

PR. GEORGE IS AFLOAT

C. N. R. Vessel Taken Off Pontoons Following Repairs—Prince Rupert on Next Week

Hull repairs on the vessel having been completed following her stranding near Anyox last December, the steamer Prince George was taken off the pontoons at the local dry dock yesterday afternoon and is now moored alongside the pier where the annual overhaul job is being completed.

On Thursday evening of next week the Prince George will go back into service, replacing the Prince Rupert which will immediately move up to dry dock for her annual overhaul which will occupy several weeks' time and will also include docking. The change of steamers will be made on the return of the Prince Rupert from her regular voyage to Anyox and Stewart, the Prince George taking the run to Vancouver Thursday evening.

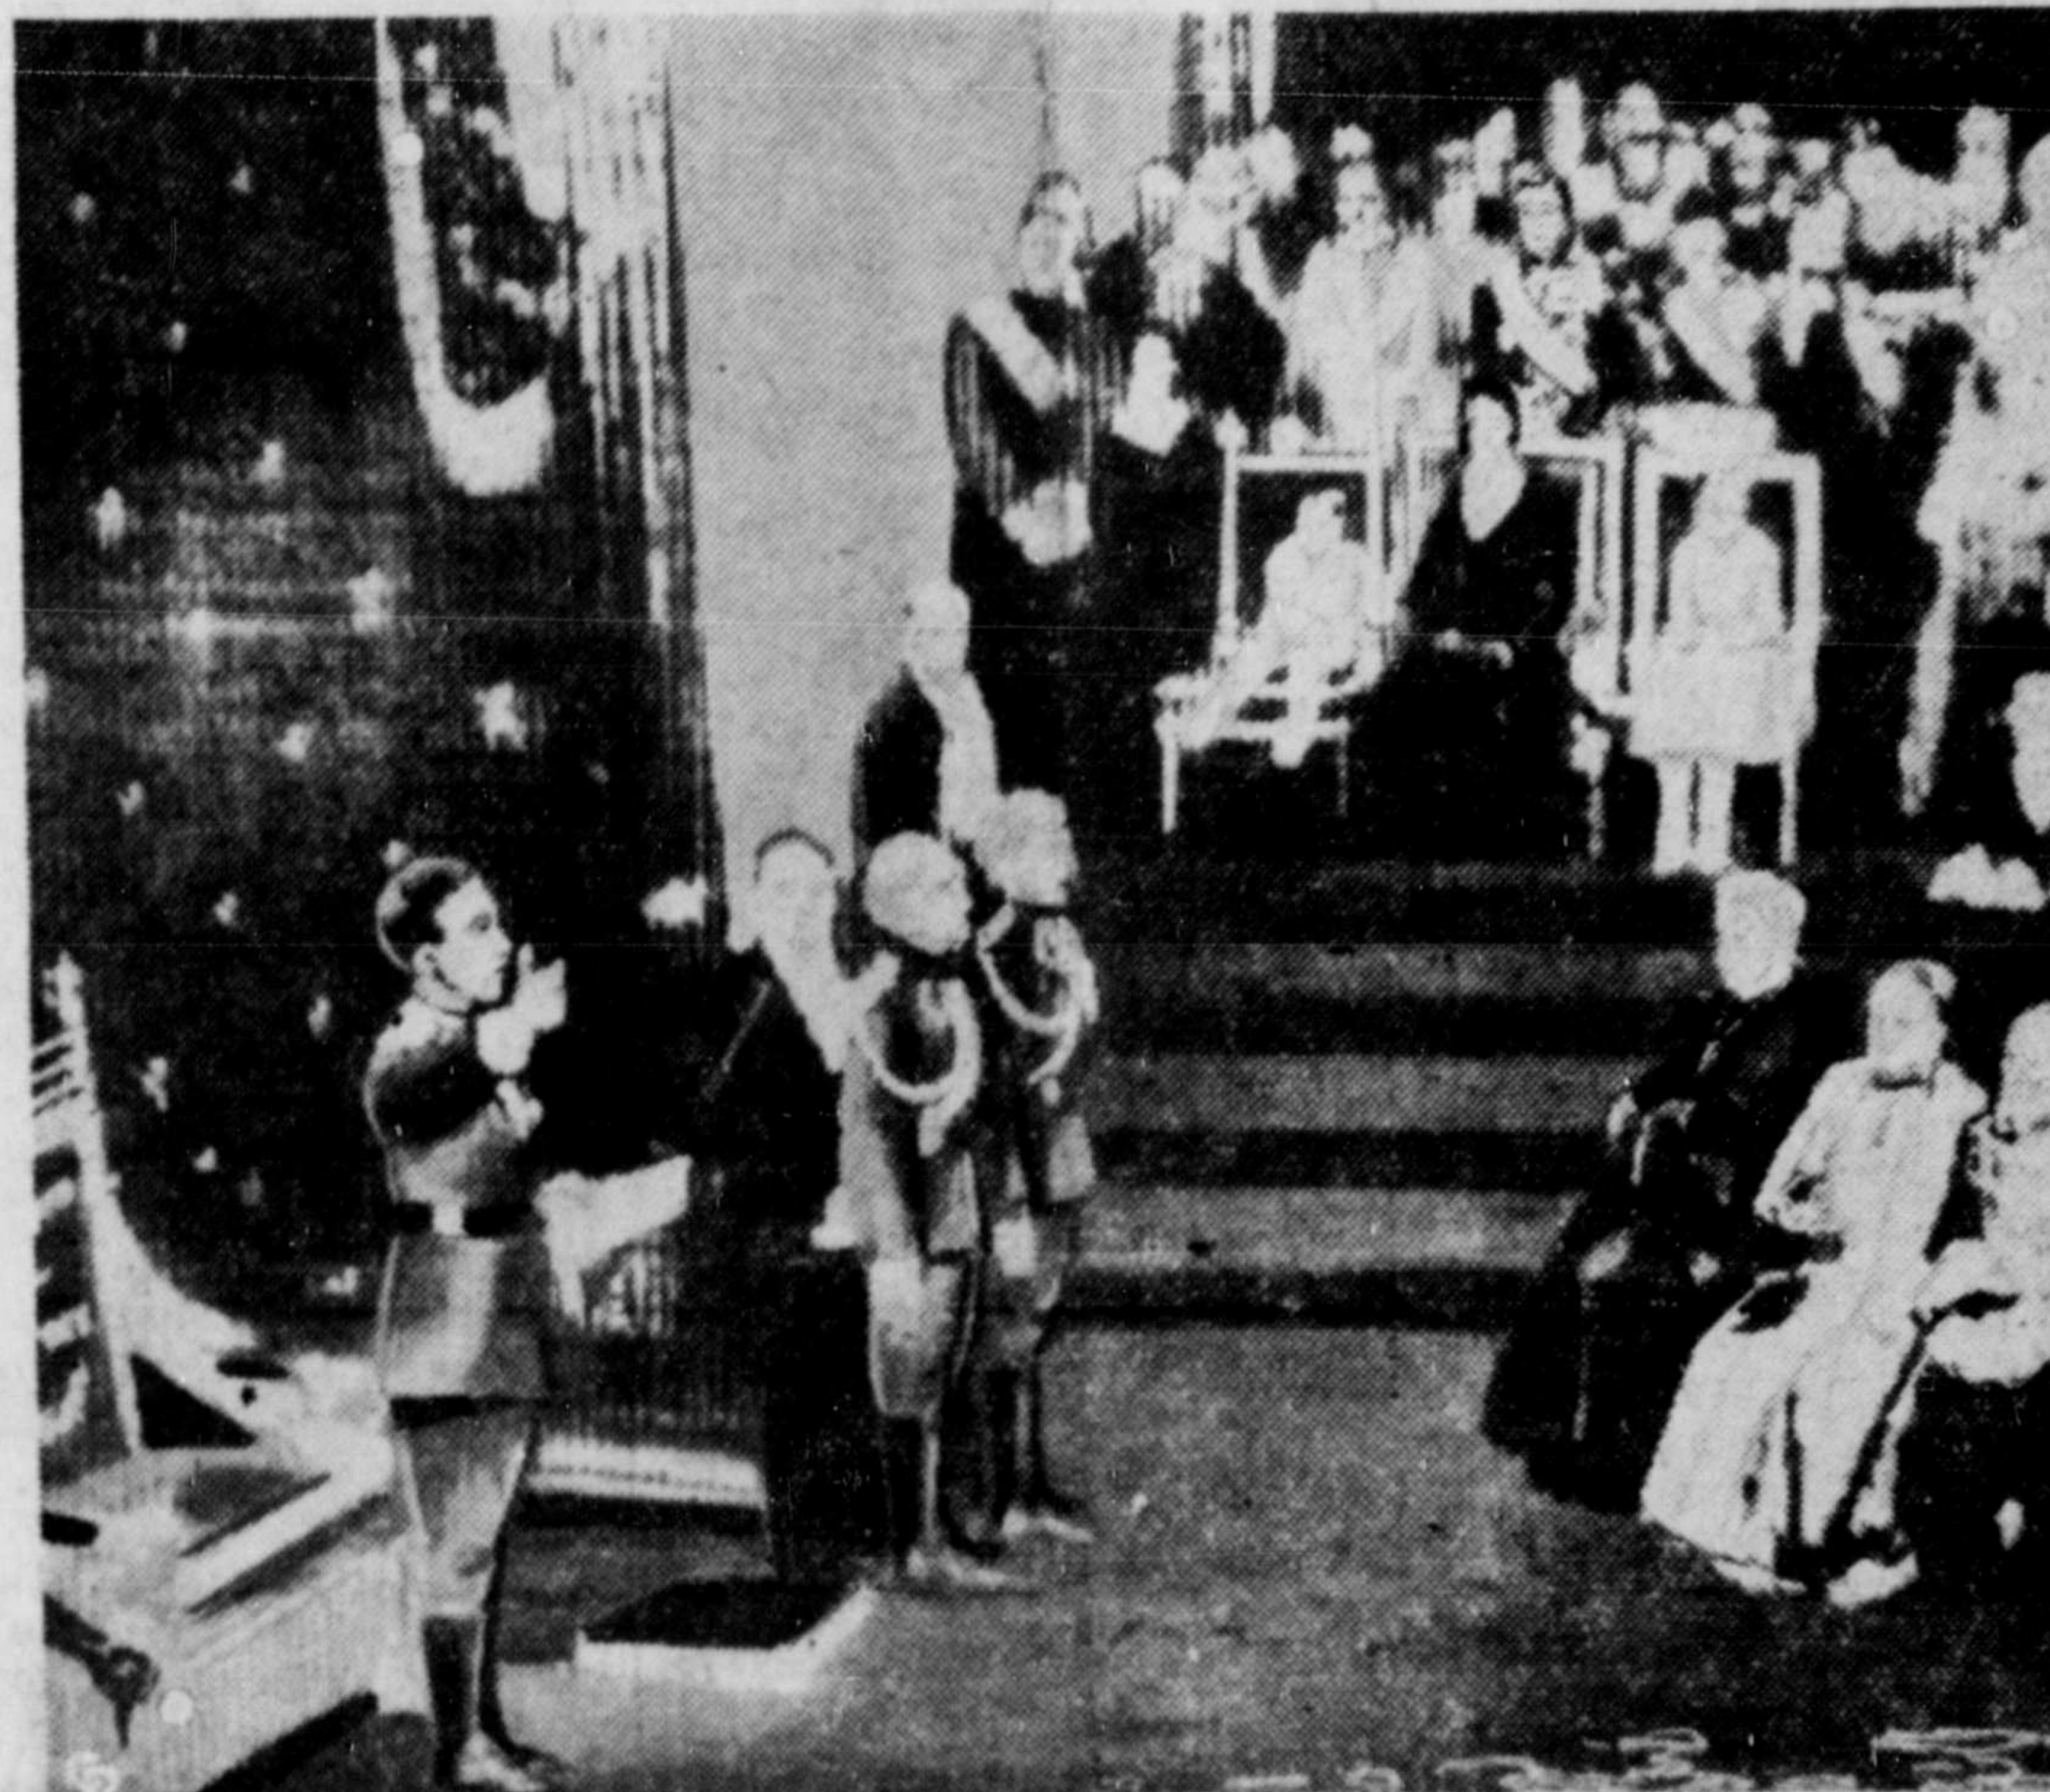

Capt. H. E. Nodden and crew came north as passengers from Vancouver aboard the Prince Rupert today to join the Prince George.

Capt. Neil McLean has resumed command of the steamer Prince Rupert on the present voyage north after having been off for two or three months and is being given a hearty welcome back by many local friends.

C. P. R. May Ship Export Grain To Prince Rupert From Peace River At Same Rate As Canadian National

OTTAWA, March 7:—The Supreme Court has allowed the appeal of the Canadian Pacific Railway versus the Canadian National which will allow the former company to ship export grain via Victoria or Prince Rupert at a rate agreed upon between the two companies for shipments from competitive points on the Northern Alberta Railways.

The C. N. R. claimed that the two cities were not competitive points because they were served only by their system. The railway board ruled in favor of the Canadian National lines but the Supreme Court decided in favor of the Canadian Pacific.

VANCOUVER, March 7: (CP)—One hundred and nine men were arrested early this morning and charged with 'malicious damage to property' following a disturbance in the Shinglemen's Hostelry on Hamilton Street. Locking themselves in two upper floors, the men threw everything moveable out of the windows, littering the streets with beds, bedding, cooking utensils and other effects.

CONVENTION PLAN OFF

District Teachers' Gathering Impracticable—Inspector is Speaker

At the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association last evening, resolutions for the annual convention at Vancouver during the Easter vacation were discussed. Replies from teachers throughout the district told of their desire to have a district convention but the prohibitive cost of traveling and accommodation while in attendance was an insurmountable obstacle. The question was, therefore, laid over until some other time when conditions may be more favorable.

Delegates to the annual convention in Vancouver will include Miss E. A. Mercer and Miss M. Hartin in addition to J. S. Wison, who attends in his capacity as northern geographical representative.

T. W. Hall, school inspector, addressed the teachers after the business session concluded. Mr. Hall spoke on the importance of physical health and the beneficial effect of the teaching of the fundamental rules. Some aspects of composition were discussed. A consideration of the layman's attitude towards modern education and of the need of continual emphasis on the fundamentals of education with their far reaching effects on the lives of the pupils concluded a very interesting and valuable talk.

IS KILLED BY HORSE

Carl Easley of Peace River District Kicked to Death—Trapper Found Dead

Carl Melvin Easley is dead at Briar River in the Peace River country from fracture of the skull as a result of being kicked in the temple by a vicious saddle horse which threw him while he was riding. The horse came home riderless and a search was made. The same horse last year threw Easley and he sustained injuries which necessitated him receiving hospital treatment for some time. Deceased is survived by a widow and young daughter.

Divisional police headquarters here are also advised of the bringing into Dawson Creek of the body of Euzebe Cloteau, trapper, who was found dead in his cabin 153 miles west of Dawson Creek. The body was brought in by Constable Devlin and Coroner Fred Chase who found that death had been due to natural causes. Two brothers of deceased from Vermilion, Alta., were at Dawson Creek for the funeral.

FRESHNESS OF YOUTH

A newspaper recently started in a prairie town and on New Year's day last it published a resolution which read as follows. "We are resolved:

- "To boom business.
- "To work for our town, our people, our country.
- "To pay our debts if our subscribers will pay us.
- "To work—since we see no way out of it.
- "To be on time and give you the newsiest sheet going.
- "To give the businessmen the best advertising medium in the country.

"To make everyone that takes the paper so glad they'll recommend it to their neighbors and send it to their friends."

The resolution smacks of the freshness of youth. It indicates a lack of experience and yet we like it and seem inclined to say "Amen." The only drawback is that we have had experience and know that the newspaper is a semi-public institution and therefore the butt of every person who has a grouch. People grumble at the climate, at the government, Dominion, provincial or municipal and at the newspaper. What else is there to grumble at? Everyone must grumble sometimes. Even in the big cities we have heard people railing at the paucity of news in the papers and at the dumbness of the editor and lack of appreciation of the reporters as to the kind of news they gather.

In spite of all that we are glad to feel that there is a good deal of appreciation even in Prince Rupert. We are still optimistic and ready to work for the benefit of the people of the community. We know by our large list of subscribers that our efforts are appreciated. Let us all pray that we may retain some of the freshness of youth even though experience tells us that the youthful outlook is not always the true outlook.

LOOKING FOR REFUNDING

Many people are looking to Ottawa and Victoria and wondering what steps Premier Bennett and Pattullo will take in regard to refunding the federal and provincial debts. Action has been promised and doubtless something will be done.

The British Government led the way in refunding their debt two years ago, reducing the rate from five to three and one-half percent. France followed last year by reducing its rate from five and six to four and one-half percent. Italy has just fallen in line reducing its rate from five percent to three and one-half percent. It is possible that the Canadian rate may be set at four percent or for the federal government even less.

No intimation has been given as to whether the Bennett and Pattullo administrations will collaborate in refunding. At any rate the fact that the federal government is moving in the same direction will be a great help to the province.

REPLY TO TAXPAYER

Editor, Daily News:—
Please allow me a few lines in your most valuable newspaper to explain to Mr. Taxpayer of Monday and oblige:

Mr. Taxpayer, are you one of the three wise men who followed the Star of Bethlehem? If so your name is Melchior Gaspar Balthazar, and you belong to the Okapi or Giraffe family.

If I were a cartoonist instead of being unemployed I would draw you a good sketch. Mr. Giraffe with his long whip in his hand and poor me with my 14-lb. hammer, pick and shovel, the job starts. Hungry am I. One hour past dinner time I will say: "Fe foe fum, I smell the blood of a Giraffe man. Be him alive or be him dead I will grind his bones to make my bread."

Mr. Giraffe-Taxpayer don't forget that many of the unemployed are heavy taxpayers. I for one suffered over four years fighting for you in France and a great many others share the same fate as me right here in Prince Rupert. You are only paying taxes on your material wealth which you should share with me. It's one of the corporal works of mercy.

I would advise you to attend Sunday School and sing that beautiful hymn, "There is Honey in the Rock For Me."

WORK AND WAGES

Editor, Daily News:—

Please allow me space in your paper. Now as spring approaches it is timely to forward a matter as many men have been idle so long I noticed in your paper that some golf politician was taught too soon for the good information to the working class in the city of Prince Rupert. The lost art and habit has been practised by the political class to never mention such a word "Get ready for work." Some of these silver-tongued orators were taught too soon with a silver spoon that the miner put on their ancestors' table. If the political class took any action in their own affairs they may get more of the working class trade. We as a working class built the railroads and the steamships and developed the mines. We never lost the art of work. But allow me to tell you that we lost the art of work and wages.

THOMAS CARR.

ANSWER TO LUNDMARK

Editor, Daily News:—

The world is confronted on the one hand with the old utopian equalitarian idea which conceives a standardized humanity like the pieces of a machine and can only see a solution of the world's economic problems through the socialization of the means of production and exchange which implies confiscation of private property and the establishment of huge bureaucracies and endless controls which will breed irresponsibility of command.

On the other hand, there is an entirely new conception, namely, the one of controlling all the economic factors and exploiting for the benefit of society the resources of private initiative which are, after all, the greatest asset of organized society. Private property is no obstacle to human progress. There can be no true freedom without it.

Today's production is the combined effort of technology, labor and capital. Corporatism entrusts the control of the operation of industry to capital, labor and technology. Corporatism means industry, commerce, transportation, agriculture, arts and professions, organized separately, with equal rights and duties in their respective unions of employers and employed as the official organs of the state to regulate production, distribution and exchange in the best interests of the nation.

One can readily see that the dualism of exploiters and exploited ceases to exist. The national economy becomes a huge co-operative. The just price of commodities, the wages of capital and labor, the adjustment of production to consumption are regulated by the council of the corporatives which has legislative power to do so.

Can any one conceive one man dictating to 10,500,000 organized laborers with legislative power? In reality, Italy is a great popular state.

Moose Wins Championship by Defeating Legion—Team and Individual Records

Defeating the Canadian Legion, winners of the first half of the season, by a score of 15 to 12, Moose Lodge, winners of the second half, captured the cup emblematic of Cribbage League honors for the 1933-34 season.

Oddly enough, although tied for the season's aggregate scoring honors with 198 points each, neither Musketeers or Oddfellows figured in the finals for the city title this winter. The Moose finished third in the aggregate while the Legion was sixth despite the fact that it led the first half in total scoring.

Team scoring figures for the season were as follows:

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

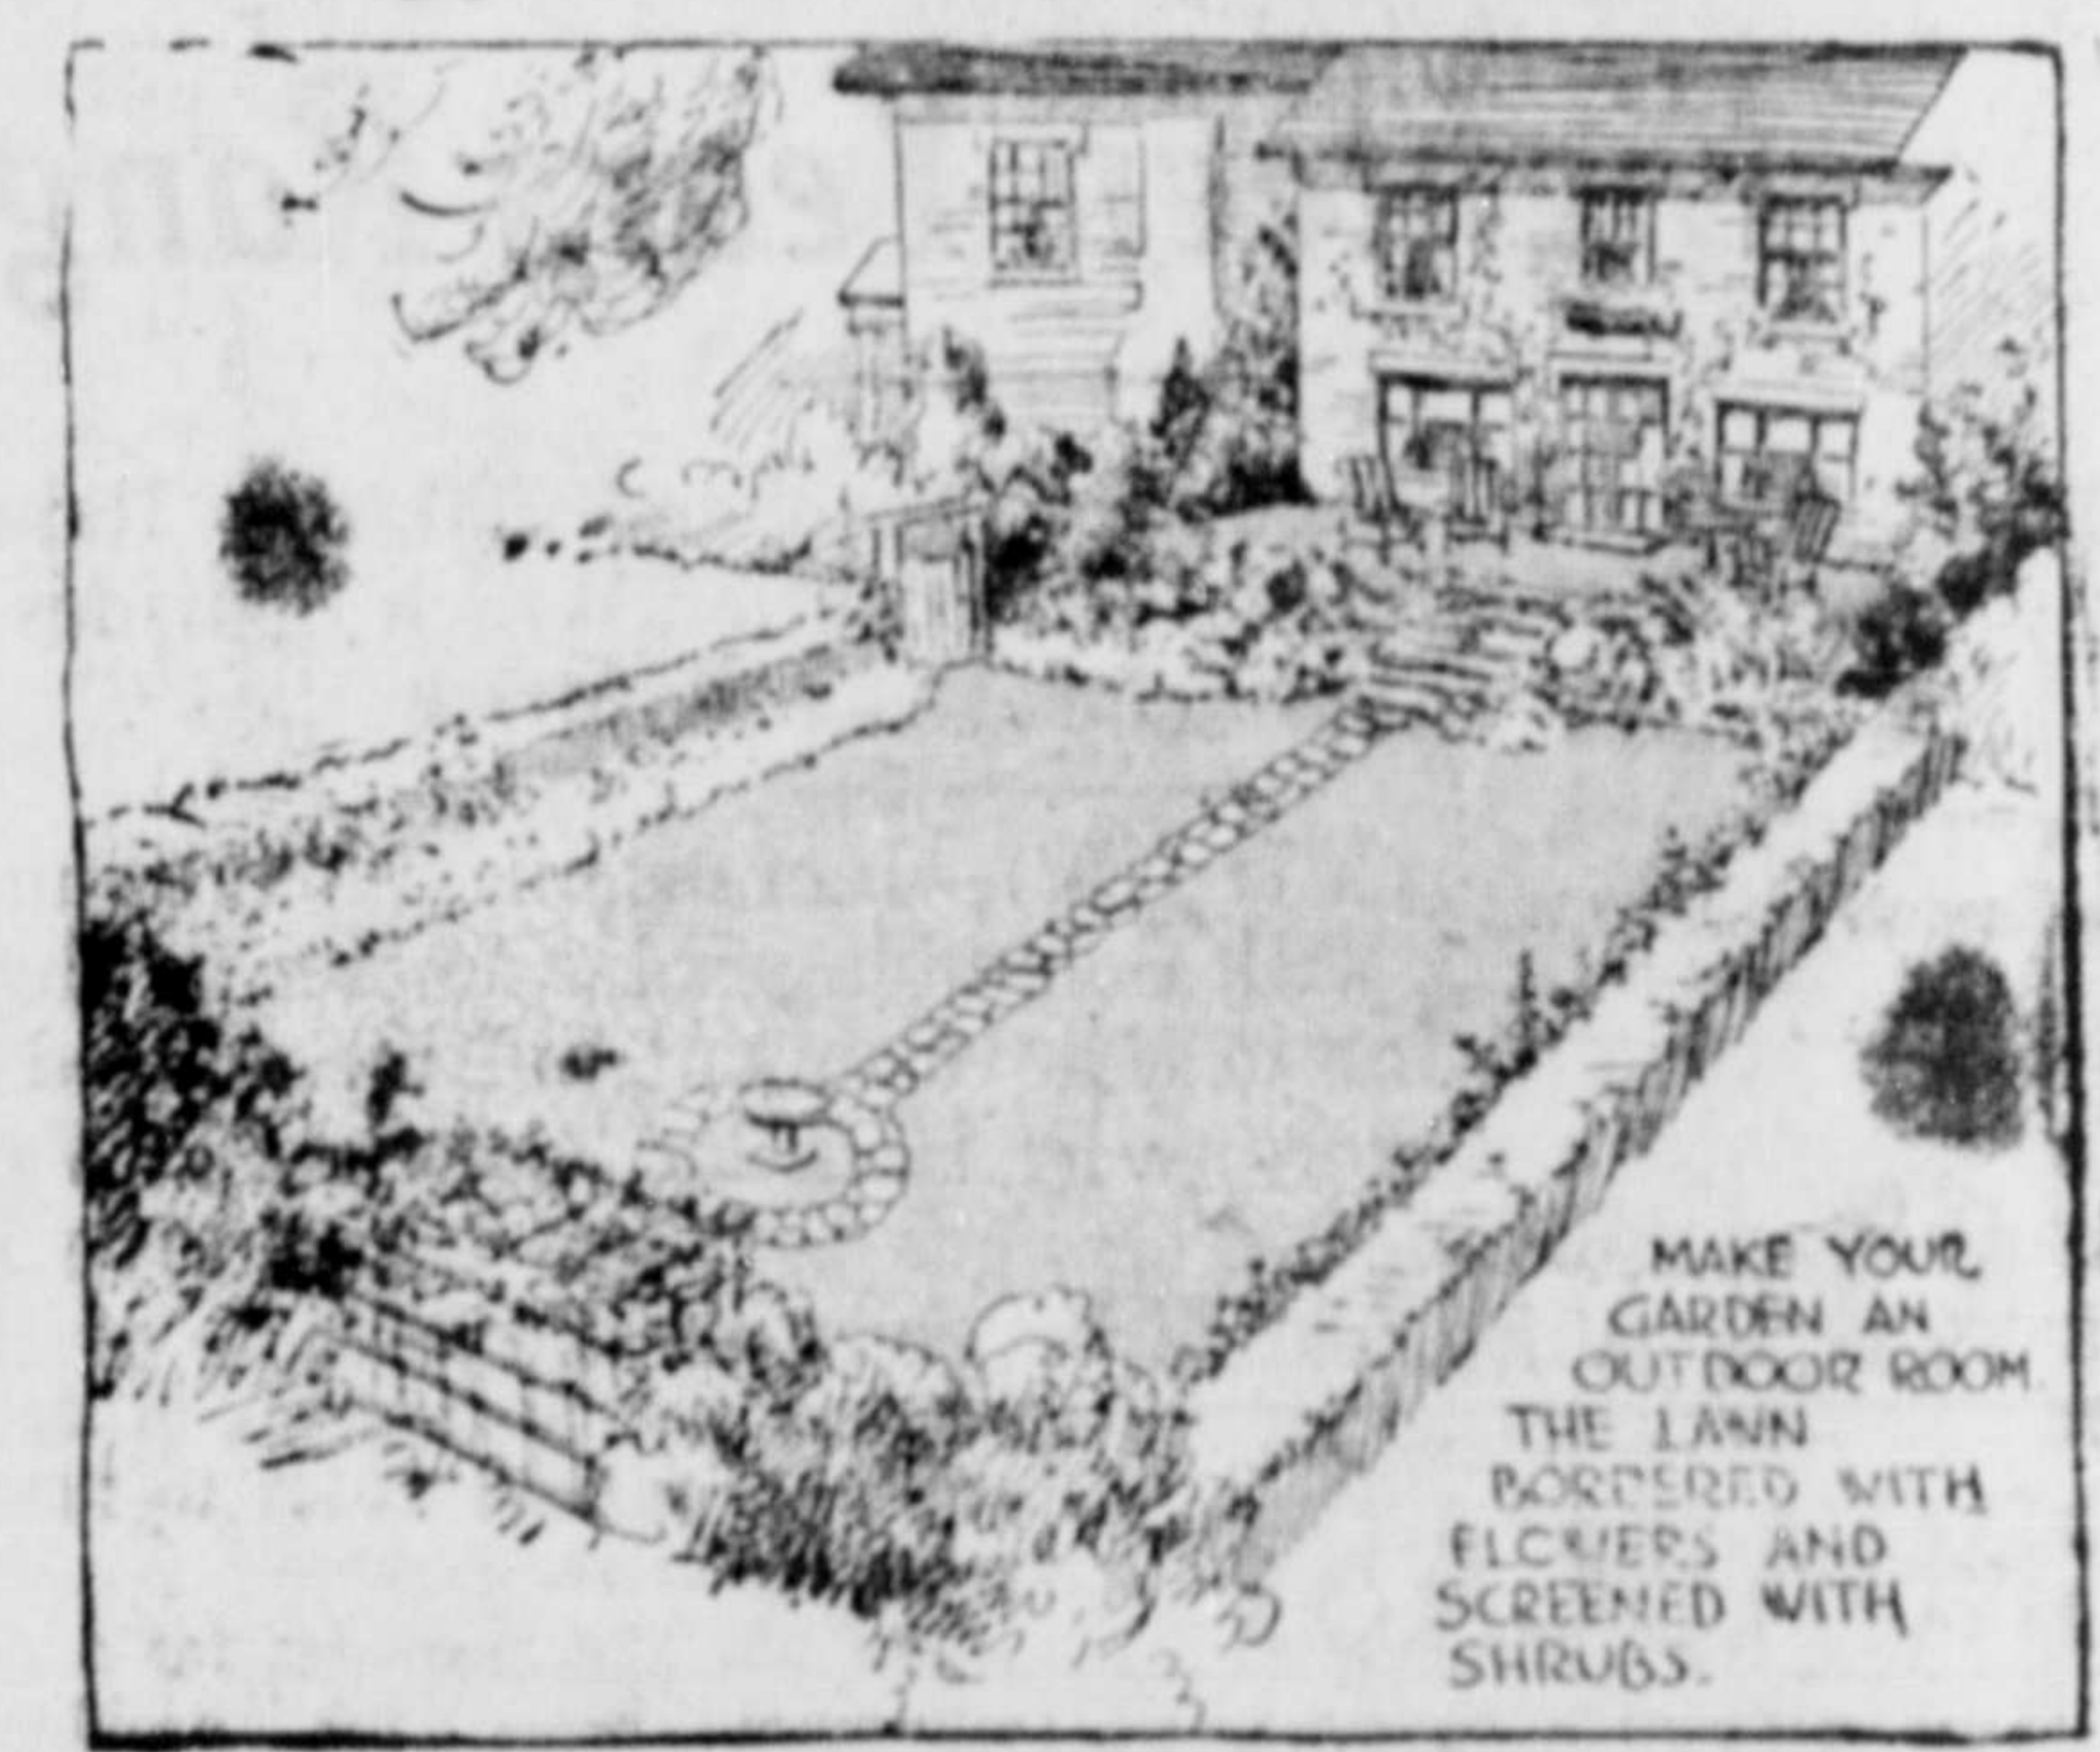

Growing Beneath the Snow
The early yellow daisy, the leopardbane, is still growing even though covered with snow. In most locations the flowers are already forming and in a few favored local gardens they are already showing yellow.

This leopardbane is one of the best flowers that the Prince Rupert gardens produce. It comes along with the crocuses and is so easily grown that all a person has to do is to plant it. If the weeds are kept away it increases in size every succeeding season and if the flowers are cut more will take their place. Its official name is Doronicum.

How Shall We Do It?

One of the problems at this time of year is to decide how the garden is to be laid out. Possibly it is already done but even so improvements can usually be made. A bit of rockery here, a small bed there, a shrub at some other place, it tends to lack of interest if the layout is exactly the same each season. Try a change. It will do you good to make the garden a little different and it may be a great improvement.

Suggestion For Laying Out 50-Foot Lot

MAKE YOUR GARDEN AN OUT DOOR ROOM. THE LAWN BORDERED WITH FLOWERS AND SCREENED WITH SHRUBS.

EGG PRICE ADVANCES

But Is Expected To Go Down This Week—Cold Weather in East The Reason

Due to the recent cold snap in the East which caused a large movement of British Columbia eggs to Ontario, Quebec and other parts, there has been a sharp advance in retail egg prices here the last few days but, with milder weather in the East now, they are expected to come down again this week.

The price of butter is showing its seasonal stiffness and will probably be firm for another month.

First new potatoes of the season have made their appearance at the luxurious price of 15c. per pound. New California asparagus is also in. Brussels sprouts are off.

Jamaica citrus fruits are also off the local retail market now.

Retail prices current here are as follows:

Wheeler and Woolsey and Lionel Barrymore in Double Bill

A wild musical comedy "Diplomaniacs," featuring Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey with Marjorie White, Phyllis Barry and Louis Calhern included in the supporting cast, and an appealing drama, "One Man's Journey," starring Lionel Barrymore with May Robson, Dorothy Jordan, Joel McCrea and Frances Dee in important supporting roles, comprise an excellent double picture bill which is being offered at the Capitol Theatre here this mid-week.

In "Diplomaniacs," Wheeler and Woolsey are commissioner to represent a tribe of American Indians at the Peace Conference. When the boys, a pair of voluptuous vamps, and 24 assorted blondes and brunettes, invade the conference hall seeking peace and war, the resultant melee is a riotously funny spectacle.

In "One Man's Journey" Lionel Barrymore is seen as a doctor who returns to practice in the rural community where he was born. The climax shows the obscure "failure" winning a spectacular battle with death after the greatest modern surgeons and physicians have failed, and receiving besides, the recognition which comes with outstanding achievement. Romantic interest figures importantly in the story.

Father J. Hammond O.M.I., parish priest for the Roman Catholic Church at Anxox, arrived in the city on the Catala yesterday from the smelter town and will proceed from here to Prince George to which point he has been transferred. Father Murie O.M.I., who recently arrived from Stewart Lake, will be Father Hammond's successor at Anxox.
