The man who is not prepared to discuss the reciprocity proposals in public before a Comox-Atlin audience, is certainly not a proper man to send to Ottawa to take part in the reciprocity debate.

Mr. Ross also prints upon his bills "Questions are Invited."

Apart altogether from the fact that it is a thankless job fighting for a man who won'r fight for himself, the electors of Comox-Atlin of all parties will probably perceive the advantage of sending a man to Ottawa who understands something about reciprocity, and who does not need to turn his platform into a coward's castle.
