Ethiopian Troops Mobilize For Expected Italian Attack

It is possible that Italy may launch her attack on Ethiopia very soon. Haile Selassie, emperor and army head, who will personally lead his soldiers into battle, is mobilizing all his available manpower. The photo shows Ethiopian fighters, regulars and irregulars, flocking to Fil Wuhna (Boiling Water) Plain at Addis Ababa, where military reviews are held. The plain is so named because of the numerous hot springs.

STRIKE IS COMMENCED

Coal Mine Tie-Up in Twenty-Eight States Gets Under Way With 400,000 Men Out

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 25:—Four hundred thousand bituminous coal miners in twenty-eight states, the majority in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, stayed away from work yesterday as the nation-wide strike got under way following continued failure of negotiations to reach a settlement. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared that the miners would not concede another cent from their wage increase demands. It is understood that only 1 1/2c per ton now stands between the operators and miners in reaching a settlement.

NEW SNAG IS STRUCK

Little Accomplished to Settle Dispute at Conference of Mussolini and Drummond

ROME, Sept. 25:—With Premier Benito Mussolini reiterating at his conference with Sir Eric Drummond, British ambassador, yesterday his determination to enforce an armed occupation of Ethiopia, negotiations with a view to reaching a basis of agreement in the Italo-Ethiopian crisis struck another snag yesterday.

A speech by Mussolini to his cabinet yesterday was taken as a threat that he intended to resign from the League of Nations.

Il Duce cancelled a nation-wide demonstration of Fascist strength which was to have been held yesterday.

Better Today

Both Italy and Ethiopia were feverishly rushing preparations for war today but the war situation seemed somewhat improved after Italy announced officially that it would never be the first to transfer the conflict to Europe.

Ethiopia has asked the League of Nations to send a neutral commission to Ethiopia to determine who might be the aggressor in the event of hostilities breaking out.

Foreign Minister Sir Samuel Hoare has sent a communication to Italy in which he says he is particularly anxious to eliminate all useless misunderstanding between Great Britain and Italy.

Billings both broke down on meeting for the first time in years. Billings was also said to have been implicated in the 1916 Preparedness Day bombings here as a result of which Mooney went to prison.

FREIGHTER STRANDED

Northholm, Badly Leaking, Is Beached in Skeena Slough

The Northholm arrived in port at noon today from the Skeena Slough under her own power and was immediately taken on the dry dock. The Northholm was formerly the Robert H. Merrick.

While southbound in fog from Prince Rupert to Vancouver, the Frank Waterhouse freighter Northholm, Capt. A. W. Ogden struck a rock near Stewart Anchorage in Grenville Channel, about thirty miles south of here, at 4:45 Tuesday morning. The vessel later freed herself and turned back to Prince Rupert but started leaking so badly that the skipper decided to head into the Skeena Slough where he beached the ship on a sandy bottom on DeHorsey Island about noon yesterday, later reporting his plight to Prince Rupert by telephone.

Last night Capt. W. P. Armour, manager of the Armour Salvage Co., left with the workboat M. T. 3 for the scene with salvage equipment, accompanied by Hubert Ward, representative of the underwriters. No further word had been received up to this morning but it was expected the vessel would be patched, refloated and brought into the dry dock here. The vessel is reported to have eight feet of water in her hold at high tide. Damage to the bottom is believed considerable. She had a small cargo of salt on board.

NAVAL VISITOR HERE

Commander Grant, R. C. N. R. of Ottawa, director of naval reserves, arrived in the city from Vancouver on the Prince George this morning in the course of a western tour and will inspect the local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve this evening, proceeding east by train Friday evening.

Fiercely Leader of International Longshoremen's Association Makes Prediction

THE POLITICAL CORNER

MR. PANTER "ON THE SPOT"

As reported in the local newspapers Mr. Panter, the C. C. F. candidate, at the meeting recently held in Prince Rupert, made the threat that the writers of the "Political Corner" would be jailed if they were not careful. This was before Mr. Panter's name or the C. C. F. had even been mentioned in any of these articles.

Of course, as Mr. Panter knows the law better than we do and intends "to have it on us," we are terrified.

As we have never transgressed the bounds of free and fair discussion of political issues, it would appear to us as though Mr. Panter does not wish to have the C. C. F. discussed and is looking forward to the time when the OGPU will incarcerate us for such criticism.

And now that this candidate has gone off at halfcock, we shall pay our compliments to him and ask him where he stands on the Oriental question.

We wish to hear from Mr. Panter whether he advocates giving the vote to naturalized Orientals as his leader Mr. Woodsworth does.

This, we may surely assume, is a matter of prime political importance to the electors of Skeena Riding.

Come on Mr. Panter, let us have your statement on this public issue.

Louis Knocks Out Baer in Brief Fistic Battle

Pugilism's Sensational New Find Finishes Ex-Champ in Fourth Round

Many Consider Californian Giant Was Lucky to Last That Long—Dawn of New Era of Prosperity in Cauliflower Industry Seen

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Joe Louis confirmed his position as outstanding claimant of the world's heavyweight boxing crown last night when, running true to sensational form, he disposed of the garrulous former world's champion, Max Baer, with a knock-out in the fourth round. In the minds of the experts, despite all the ballyhoo and all the froth, there was little doubt of the issue even before the fight and it was not long after the opening going that there was also no question in the minds of the multitude of fans assembled as to what the outcome was to be. Just how long it would take to end the Californian giant's agony was the only question although it was evident it would not be long. To the most of those present, it seemed Max did well to stay on his feet as long as he did under the fierce double-fisted onslaught of the panther-like negro. He took a merciless beating. Louis' left, landing repeatedly with wicked six-inch jabs, being particularly devastating.

The fight marked curtains as far as Baer's career as a first-rater is concerned. It also established Louis as the greatest pugilistic drawing card since Jack Dempsey's heyday. For the promoters it bids fair to mark the end of the depression for the cauliflower industry.

The place was the Yankee Stadium—the crowd 90,000—the gate over $1,000,000.

The knock-out came two minutes and six seconds after the start of the fourth of a scheduled fifteen round battle. Baer took the count of ten, helpless on one knee. He had been saved by the bell in the third round and, withal, took a terrific beating.

SPORT CHAT

Titles, titles! That's what Mike Kaplansky and his triple-threat Canadian box-fight stable are going to gun for in England this winter. Mike isn't going to rush his boys along too fast, but he wants titles. The Kaplansky stable is made up of Eddy Wenstob, Edmonton light heavyweight; Tommy Bland, Toronto lightweight; and Jack 'Spider' Armstrong, Toronto bantam. Manager Mike believes he has a stable with less deadwood than almost any in the fight business.

Right off the reel, two of the Canadians will go after British championships next month. The brilliant Armstrong, only a few months out of the amateur ranks, will be brought along more slowly. Kaplansky isn't going to have Jackie over-matched right away. Wenstob, already a favorite in England, having finished his first successful campaign, will take his second crack at the British light heavyweight title against Champion Eddie Phillips. In his first meeting with Phillips last winter, the Alberta youth lost on a foul.

Terrific Punishment

In the less than twelve minutes that Baer faced Louis the former champion took a beating so unmerciful that the crowd gasped at the cruelty of it.

Baer said later that he was through with fighting.

It was announced today that each man had collected $215,000.

Jack Dempsey declared that there was no fighter in sight capable of beating Louis.

The ringside weights were: Baer, 210½ pounds; Louis, 199½.

The dusky Detroit dynamiter was married shortly before entering the ring and last night began a $300,000 honeymoon in Harlem.

CHANCE OF CARDINALS

World Champions Will Have To Beat Chicago Four Straight To Get Into Series

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 25. (CP)—Winning an easy victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates here yesterday, the world champion St. Louis Cardinals still had a mathematical chance to win the National League pennant and get into the World Series to defend their title next week against the Detroit Tigers but, to do so, they will have to win every game of a four-game series with the league leading Chicago Cubs which opens today. The Cubs, idle again yesterday, have a margin of three games.

HAUPTMANN IS ENIGMA

Faithful Wife Soothed by Tale Of Good Fortune While Condemned Man Awaits Result of Appeal

TRENTON, N.J., Sept. 25. (AP)—Twelve months behind bars, seven of them with a death sentence hanging over his head for the kidnap-slaying of the Lindbergh baby, have done little to solve the riddle that is Bruno Richard Hauptmann. He was arrested September 19, 1934.

His year of legal strife has left him outwardly unchanged, save for the minor changes attendant on imprisonment. His hair is closely shorn today and his face has the pallor of the death house. But as he awaits the decision of the court of errors and appeals, expected next month, he is calm and is stoical as he was during his long trial at Flemington.

Anna Hauptmann, his wife, believes she, her husband and their 22-month old son, soon will go on a long ocean voyage. "It's in the cards," she said, showing visible traces of her year of fighting to save her husband.

"I don't believe in fortune telling, but a woman recently found in my cards that Richard will be home soon as a result of an awfully big surprising thing. Then we shall all go on a long ocean trip. I know that will be true."

Sees Husband Often

Mrs. Hauptmann sees her husband in the death house at Trenton once, sometimes twice, a month, as often as prison authorities allow. She receives mail from him about as often. Using her maiden name, Anna Schoeffler, to avoid publicity, she lives with her baby in a Bronx apartment.

Hauptmann's confidence in his destiny may have been shaken that night of February 13 when he heard a jury of eight men and four women utter their conviction of his guilt, followed by the sentence of death. But he quickly recovered.

His jailers say he is an ideal prisoner. He asks no favors and he expects none. One prison official thinks his behavior may be traced to his war-time training in the German army. He talks quietly to

Senator Lewis In Critical Condition

Heart Action Weakened and Physicians Concerned Over Chances of Recovery

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—Weak heart action caused physical last night to announce that United States Senator John Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, who has been taken ill with bronchial pneumonia while on a tour of Soviet Russia, is still in a critical condition. Crisis is due tomorrow and, if pulse and respiration are more normal, there is considerable doubt as to whether he has sufficient nerve strength left to carry through.

nis guards and to Col. Mark Kimberling, the warden. He professed his innocence at times.

Physically Fit

Physically he is probably as fit as he was that September year ago when he was halted, handcuffed on a Bronx street, strong will is accountable for Hauptmann perhaps has never laxed since he was imprisoned. When he was brought to Flemington a month after his arrest, he began losing weight, but his mind occupied with his proaching trial. He read books, improved his English. He also

In the past seven months, has exercised conscientiously, stripping to the waist in his cell. The autobiography he has written has helped him considerably to master his emotions, keep him from despair.

Four men have gone to the gas chamber. Three went on to Hauptmann was unmoved. He them to "pray to God" and shake hands with the condemned, but his face was set. A slight spiritual change is said to have taken place in him. He reads the Bible and religious books, brought him by the Rev. D. G. Werner of New York, his spiritual adviser.

He has gained 10 pounds in the death house (most prisoners do gain weight), and all his visitors invariably say he looks well and is cheerful. Next month he will know if he is to get a new trial. Meanwhile he waits.

WILL CO-OPERATE

It is satisfactory to know that Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, who is expected to be Prime Minister very soon, will co-operate with Premier Aberhart of Alberta in his effort to test out the Douglas Credit system of government in that province. He suggests that, if it works there, the plan will be adopted by the whole world soon, thus putting an end to poverty.

While there is a great deal of dissension in political life, it is good to know that there is also co-operation when co-operation is essential to success.

PREMIER BENNETT'S POSITION

Before the radio speeches of the Prime Minister, which concluded last week, we were led to believe that some startling policies were to be announced. Since the beginning of these addresses we have been treated to a series of speeches containing nothing but apologies for having failed to keep his last election promises. He asks the people of Canada for another five years of life so that he may carry on as he did before. No fundamental changes in policy are proposed. The country is still to be held back by stifling trade policies and by continuation of the dole.

We have a certain amount of sympathy with Mr. Bennett in his struggles during the past few years of depression. Undoubtedly it was a trying time and it was a time when a really big man would have shown some initiative. What do we find instead? We find that Mr. Bennett saddles the country with a new bank which does nothing but reduce the size of the dollar bills. We find that he saddles the country with a tremendous wheat hold-over which cannot now be sold. We find that there is still a huge army of unemployed and no definite steps taken to put them to work except through the policy of attempting again to blast his way into the markets of the world.

Mr. Bennett has had a hard time undoubtedly and the people of Canada looked to him thinking he was the political Moses who would lead them to the promised land but he failed his people in the time of stress and now the people are turning to another leader, believing that he will change Canada from a land of stagnation to a land of opportunity and plenty.

 Dominion Constable and Mrs. E. G. Newnham arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning from Vancouver and will proceed on the Prince John at the end of the week to Massett. Mrs. Newnham has been spending the summer in Manitoba while Constable Newnham was stationed on the Naas River.
 Visiting the city in his official capacity, I. Eisenhardt, director of recreation and physical education for the provincial government, arrived in the city from Victoria on the Prince George this morning and was the speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club today. President S. J. Jabour was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members with a few guests.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
 Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!
 The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.
 Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA POWER COMPANY LIMITED

MARINER RETIRES

Capt. Joe Gosse Was Pilot For Stefansson and Pioneered Over Klondyke Trails

VANCOUVER, Sept. 25: (CP)—The West Coast has lost the services of one of its most distinguished mariners with the retirement of Capt. Joe Gosse, British Columbia's senior pilot. He recently celebrated his seventieth birth—the age limit for pilots.

It was Gosse who piloted Vilhjalms Stefansson's ship, the Karluq, to Alaska when the noted explorer sailed on his Arctic expedition in 1914. He also passed through the Klondyke gold rush as ship's master on coastal boats.

Happiest and most novel years of his life were spent in the north during the Yukon gold rush. He likes to tell of his experiences during those early days and his favorite yarns follow the exploits of Soapy Smith, a gambler of the old school whom he first met in the Pack Train Saloon, at Skagway.

Capt. Gosse was married in Newfoundland in 1889. He received his first sea training in sealing boats out of St. John's, coming west later and taking the position of quartermaster aboard the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company's vessel, the Yosemite.

His first command was the Princess Louise, side-wheeler, then belonging to the same company. In 1903 he entered the pilotage service and eight years later was appointed special pilot of the Blue Funnel-Line.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Edward Mabbs, arrived in port at 11:45 a.m. today from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 10 o'clock tonight for Anyox whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound. The vessel brought north a fair-sized list of passengers.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, returned to port at 2:30 this afternoon from a regularly scheduled voyage to Alaska and will sail at 4 p.m. for Vancouver. The vessel has a large list of passengers on board, the southbound movement of people from Alaska and the Yukon having now commenced.

The extensive job of resurfacing the Alberta Wheat Pool's elevator, which has been in progress for several weeks, is nearing completion but it will probably be a couple of weeks before the Concrete Repairs Ltd. of Canada Ltd., which has the contract, will have finished the work. Progress depends to a large extent on weather conditions.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police cruiser Adversus is paying her first visit to this port. She arrived last night from Vancouver and is tied up at C. N. R. Wharf No. 1.

The coast freighter Salvor, Capt. Albert Georgeson, was in port last night discharging coal and general cargo. She proceeded from here to the Naas River to load canned salmon.

There are still three or four hundred gillnetters fishing on the Skeena River, according to George Frizzell, who is in port with his freighter Laura F. II. There is a good run of cohoes on and pinks.

CHEVALIER FILM HERE

Delightful Musical Entertainment In "Folies Bergere" At Capitol Theatre

Always popular with Prince Rupert moviegoers, Maurice Chevalier is here this mid-week in the feature picture "Folies Bergere" on the screen of the Capitol Theatre. The picture gives the clever Frenchman plenty of songs and a better opportunity than usual to show his real acting ability. He plays two roles for the plot is based on a mistaken identity theme. One of these is as a star comedian of the famous Parisian "Folies" which makes a logical excuse for introducing several revue scenes and song-and-dance numbers. These are clever and have catchy tunes, more especially "Au Revoir l'Amour," "Rhythm in the Rain" and "Singing a Happy Song." The picture ends with an amusing parodification of the famous Chevalier straw hat.

The comedy, of the typical French farce type, is handled with skill and charm. It is of a lighty "isque" type such as Chevalier is so apt at handling with his merry boyish, mischievousness. The picture is entirely dominated by Chevalier but Merle Oberon makes a very attractive foil.

Milton Gonzales returned to the city on the Prince George this morning from a 10-day trip to Vancouver on legal business.

are also being taken in the spring nets.

Highest price of the year for halibut was paid here today when the American schooner Estep received 11c and 7.8c for 24,000 Skeena River, according to George Frizzell, who is in port with his freighter Laura F. II. There is a in with black cod for the Canadian food run of cohoes on and pinks.

The Letter Box

PERTINENT QUESTIONS

Editor, Daily News:—

As we are on the eve of federal election we should study carefully the promises made by Premier Bennett in the 1930 federal election.

1.—He was going to have all the unemployed working inside of three months or quit. Did he do so? No!

When he took office there were 100,000 out of work. Two years later there were 800,000 idle. Today over a million out of work. Can you have faith in a government with such a record? No!

2.—He was going to pension off all men over 65 years of age. Did he do so? No!

3.—He was going to blast his way into the markets of the world. Did he do so? No!

Did he fulfil any of his promises? No! Is he going to fulfil any of his promises now if elected? I would say no. It is only a slip of the tongue or a scrap of paper.

You remember his radio broadcasting speeches and the promises he made to you one and all. Did he mean anything by them? No! Did he do anything to help the unemployed by starting a Dominion-wide public works? No! The Conservative party never did help the working class.

If you have studied past history you must admit that the Liberal party always fought for the right of the working class. They will do so again and more than ever before.

The Liberal party in Canada has as fine a working machine and brains as any party in the world today. They have the men and past experience to lead them. So you and your children will never regret voting for them.

I would ask the mothers of the unemployed what did Premier Bennett ever do to help them and their families during the last five years? He did give you a mere pittance to live on. He kept you and yours half starved, half naked, with no house rent. He, Mr. Bennett, figured you could live in the jungle like a lot more. Can you cast your vote for a return of Premier Bennett and his government or any of his supporters? No, never!

The Liberal party will be in power in Ottawa after October 15 so cast your ballot for them. CANADIAN.

BERWICK-ON-TWEED, Eng., Sept. 25: (CP)—James Scott, 60, an elder at Bankhill Church here fell dead while acting as usher at a service.
