THE CITY SOLICITOR'S DEFENCE

In a letter which ranges from the pertinent to the impertinent the matter were gone into, I should the city solicitor has plunged into a defence of the G. T. P. agree- think it most likely that the nothing. The railway company would never ment, and denies the charge that certain property owners are to be company could be restrained from is not bound to do anything by build it. The City of Prince precluded from voting on Saturday.

This letter is printed in full in an adjacent column.

The city solicitor terms the article pointing out the flaw in the pieces of land adjoining property tell them, and if the railway state a minimum cost or give any assessment agreement "absolute nonsense." That the public may which has been sold has been paid company does not wish to grant other information about it. Fur- taken; for the company it wil development company acres to make a transfer of the property to the ther, there is no provision to the mean when needed, for would railway company.

Mr. Peters' assurances that all is well count for nothing if not petty hold-up tactics have ever buildings for which it would have fortified by clauses in the agreement. Mr. Peters is equally emphatic been practised than when the no use, thereby being out th that he can outrage Clause 75 of the Municipal Clauses Act by placing President of the Grand Trunk interest on the money, also the two objects of expenditure in one money bylaw, though other lawyers Pacific Railway Company wired expense of upkeep and loss by are willing to stake their legal reputations that the words of the Act (as I am informed) to the last deterioration. Truly it would be mean just what they say.

When Mr. Peters attempts to lecture the press for making state- tempting to float debentures in improvidence. Further, if the comments about the voters' list without verifying them, he comes to London, England, that he would pany is prepared to commence a point where he can be advised to attend to his own knitting. Every see to it that the disagreement in these buildings, etc., within three statement made in the News editorial was personally verified by the regard to the assessment between months, where are the plans, speciwriter of the article before writing. In every inscance the verification the railway company and the city ficarions, etc., and why cannot was made through a responsible City Hall official. And every City Hall official interviewed agreed that Mr. Peters was the gentleman responsible for the ruling that the voters' list had to be compiled from the assessment roll of December 1910 and not from the assessment roll of the court which opened on June 5th 1911.

The "author of this very peculiar proposition," is said to be Fred Peters. If a new ruling has been given out, it is only since the News investigated and exposed the matter.

The exposure was not made until four days before the election, If a new ruling has been made, it cannot affect those whose first warning of the loss of their vote came through the News. Take a typical case where the facts are indisputable. Under the ruling of the city solicitor a vote has been refused by the City Clerk and the City Assessor to a citizen named J. S. Cowper who is the registered onwer of Lot 36, Block 28, Section 6. The transfer has been registered and a declaration made at the City Hall. Yet the vote on that lot, which has been denied the registered owner, is given to Charles Winders of Portland, Oregon, an American citizen and non-resident who has not owned an inch of Prince Rupert property since October 1910.

The News challenges the city solicitor to dispute these The people of Prince Rupert can draw their own conclusion as to the reasons for refusing a vote to J. S. Cowper, and for awarding it instead to a man who is not a citizen of Prince Rupert, not a property owner of Prince Rupert, and not a British subject.

Instead of writing articles for the press, the city solicitor would be better employed in attending to his business, which is to see that the city is properly protected in its legal instruments, and in seeing to it that loyal citizens are not disfranchised and their votes given away to aliens. All of which brings us back to the question raised by this journal when Mr. Peters' services were advocated by Alderman Newton on the grounds of economy, and dealt with in an editorial entitled "Are cheap lawyers cheap?"

The city solicitor's action in regard to the bylaws is an added reason for voting them down.

FIT FOR EVERY FIGURE

A STYLE FOR EVERY TASTE

NEW FALL STYLES READY

LOOK at these illustrations and see how the 20th Century Brand tailors have studied the anatomy of every type of stature and have solved the problem of how to make clothes to fit every type. It's a wonderful achievement in fine tailoring and puts an end forever to the theory that if a man is not regularly proportioned he cannot be fitted by wholesale tailors. It guarantees a better fit than the little custom tailor can give you, and as for style it is a well-known and acknowleged fact that 20th Century Brand garments are the most stylish clothes made in Canada by tailors big or little.

LOOK at the three distinct types in stout men--the tall stout, the average height stout and the short stout. Nine out of ten stout men will come under one or other of these types. The tenth man may be very corpulent -- no matter, there is a perfect fit for him, too, from individual measurements.

Look at the tall thin type and see how cleverly the designer has fashioned a style to suit his particular type of stature. We like dressing the tall thin fellow--when properly dressed he is very stylish.

THE regularly proportioned man below average height will find in 20th Century Brand garments the ideal fit and style for him. The small man is usually a good dresser and insists on perfect fit. He is entitled to it and will absolutely get it in 20th Century Brand. The broad-shouldered, full-chested, erect athletic young man must have garments that will do justice to his manly proportions. at type Athletic X, designed specially for him. Note the broad shoulders, the full chest and the shapely lines of the garment.

BENCH TAILORED CLOTHES FOR MEN

THE regularly propotioned man of mature years insists on genteel styles without any extreme of cut or fashion. The well-proportioned young man likes manly, stylish clothes with a touch of youthful ness about them and so does the young man who is not blessed with a particularly athletic figure. In 20th Century Brand garments every man, old or young, big or small, stout or thin, can get clothes appropriately styled and perfect in fit.

New Fall styles are now being shown. Be sure to see them before you buy.

MR. PETERS' LETTER

Dear Sir,-Owing to the position that I occupy as City Solicitor Leonard Porter has been con-I deem that it would be improper for me to take any active part in nected with the fire department any election affecting Municipal matters, but in your paper of the since a long time previous to the 29th inst. there appears an article which in my opinion should be city's incorporation, when there answered by me as I personally drew the contract in question. The was only a volunteer brigade. He article is headed "Property Owner Points out Flaw in the Assessment has a thorough knowledge of the Agreement."The substance of the supposed flaw is that it would be whole fire protection system of the possible for the G. OUR Companies are noted for prompt and just Railway Company but also for the property now owned by the Town- It is certain that his exertions site Company. I have no hesitation in stating that as a matter of Law have saved many thousands of such a proposition, to put it mildly, is absolute nonsense, and any dollars worth of property for Prince one looking at the agreement which is set out full in the bylaw will Rupert citizens, and Chief Mcnotice that both the Railway Company and the Townsite Company Innis will most certainly miss him. are parties and by the very first recital in the agreement it is shown | Leonard Porter's frequent rethat there is a question with regard to the taxation of the lands belonging gret was that the fire department to the Railway Company, and there is also a recital showing that of Prince Rupert was kept in the Townsite Company owns certain properties. The part of the such a primitive stage by the agreement, namely Secs. Nos. 11 and 12 which relate to the fixing city council's sluggishness in this of the amount to be taxed clearly applies to the property mentioned direction. An energetic man himin the first recital, which is the property owned by the G. T. P. Railway slef, he chafed at the tardiness at the time the agreement was made. I have no hesitation is stating of the City Fathers, and used to in the clearest manner so that every rate payer can have a full under- work off his surplus energy with standing of the matter that it is perfectly clear that a transaction his fireman's axe upon the stubsuch as that suggested in your article of the 29th Aug. is a perfect born stumps on the muskeg near impossibility and even if the Townsite Company were to attempt the Fire Hall. Plain Facts of a Vancouver to Prince Rupert Power Boat Cruise told in plain terms for Possible Purchasers.

TWO Launches came into Prince Rupert Harbor the other Both were beautiful pleasure craft. Both had come from the south on long cruise. Both had fifty H. P. gasoline engines.

BUT one launch was towed by the other into harbor, and header straight for the Rupert Marine Repair Wharf. To Mr. H. Robinson the Rupert Marine Ironworks her owners told a sad story. Her engin -NOT A "STANDARD"-had given trouble the whole way from couver. Had it not been for the continual heip of the other launch disabled one could never have made the trip.
