Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, the half way mark as far as the voting period is concerned, a total of 945 votes had been cast in Prince Rupert. In the 1930 election the total city vote was 2712. It appears that this will be very closely approached if not exceeded as voting speeds up this afternoon.

The polls will close at 6 p.m. and; it is expected the city count will have been completed within an hour's time.

LAST MINUTE VOTERS

There are always a few people who put off their voting scherk also played a strong game until the last minute and there are some who do not vote but Parsons was very reliable and at all. If any such should happen to read this, may we suggest it is the duty of every person to vote and that, in doing so, the future of Prince Rupert be the chief concern. but the chance was lost. Judge Do not vote for a chimera. This is a turning point in the himself missed a good opening. P. history of Prince Rupert.

CAMPAIGN ENDED

It is a great relief to everyone to feel that the election campaign is ended and that there is nothing to do now but count the votes. We shall now have time to consider such trivial matters as the Ethiopian question, the pulp mil situation and how to pay the grocer's bill. These have for the past few days been overshadowed but they refuse to down. That is particularly true of the grocer's bill. In stead of downing it seems to go up. Perhaps with the election past history we shall all have time to consider how and when we can all pay our debts or escape from under.

WATCHING ALBERTA

Eyes will now be turned to Alberta where Major Douglas, in collaboration with Prime Minister Aberhart, is preparing a social credit program for the province. It is announced that it may take many months to complete this plan and that it may not be ready in time for the February session of the House, so it would seem as if it would Leod, A. MAKES CORRECTION

Editor, Daily News:--Will you please allow me to correct a gross mis-statement of facts Clark's as published in your rival paper of October 12 in which it is stated that Letter Hanson's promise of a smoke house and freezing plant at Skidegate has not been taken seriously.

Mr. Hanson never made such a promise, and in all our travels together, I never heard Mr. Hanson make any promises in order to get votes. I will now state the facts. About four months ago a petition was signed by a large number of the fishermen asking Mr. Hanson to lay before the government the need of their help the same as the fishermen on the Atlantic Coast were getting, namely, a small icemaking plant with cold storage facilities so that they could have ice and bait in order that they could make a living. Mr. Hanson's an-I swer to that was that, whether he was elected or not, it was a legitimate request and he certainly would place it before the government. Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
