VICTORIA DAY HOLIDAY

Tomorrow is Victoria Day and the Elks of the city have at The Hague. An ending of the decided to take advantage of the general holiday to put on their annual flag day instead of on June 3. The main congress failed, but out of it grew idea is to entertain the children and give them a lesson in patriotism. Sports and games will be a feature of the occasion.

There has been no time in history when lessons in pat- tember 14, 1889, at Halsted and riotism were more needed than they are today. They are Polk Streets, in the misst of Chineeded by those in high positions just as well as by the cago's squalid west side. Immimore lowly.

Patriotism is a desire to work for the good of the coun- of the west to seek work and freetry rather than for the benefit of the individual. Its sym- dom, floundered in the Halsted on Eighth & McBride on June 10th. bol in Canada is the Canadian ensign upon which the Union Jack is the most prominent feature. The patriotic desire should be to make this a country in which there shall be no poverty, no out of work group drawing relief, no grafters, but a country of intelligent, well-educated workers and voters.

The patriot is one who is not easily swayed by passing fads or by base appeals to passion. On the other hand he does not necessarily carry on as his forefathers did, if a better way can be found. In politics he is far above all parties although he may be a member of either if he considers it to be in the best interests of the country.

The true patriot is not hostile to other countries but is ready and anxious to work in harmony with every other nation to the end that the world may be improved and gradually brought to a realization that war is not only useless but ridiculous as well as horrible.

The Elks are to be congratulated on their efforts through the outward observance of patriotism to sow the seeds of a spiritual observance which would make Canada a real garden of Eden and her people among the happiest in the world.

OUR FLAG

A song on the lips of children! A flame in the eyes of man! A prayer in the hearts of women! It flies to the breeze again; The Flag of the British Empire, its colors of blood and flame, The waves of the mighty ocean, the honor of Britain's name!

How can we choose but love it? Our stay in the bitter years! While our heroes sleep in its shelter; 'Tis bought with their blood and * tears.

May its radiance stream through the ages, now flung to the winds of spring;

Dear symbol of Empire's Freedom! The banner of Britain's King. -WINIFRED O. BRASS.

TERRACE

Little Miss Norma Kenney, recently while playing near her home, vas suddenly attacked and bitten by a dog. The incident, fortunately, proved more terrifying than dangerous as she soon got over it and went to school as usual.

The Terrace and District Board of Trade, at the regular monthly meeting, listened to a paper delivered by H. Halliwell on the subject of "Douglas Credit." A general discussion followed and a resolution was drafted asking the provincial government to inquire into the feasibility of setting up some such plan for this province.

Markets Commissioner J. A. Grant addressed the members of the Farmers' Institute and their riends in the Legion Hall on Wednesday last on the subject of marketing. There was a fair crowd and the meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Grant.

A much larger and more enthusiastic crowd went to the Orange Hall to hear Rev. John Linney preach on the subject of the three most prominent people in Terrace. #### English Children Feel Benefits of Slum Clearance

These pictures will illustrate what is being done in England to clear away the slums. They show the re-housing work wherein new houses replace ramshackle tenements and cellars. In the picture at top a street in the slums of London is shown; children are forced to play in narrow streets where traffic is heavy and where sunlight permeates only for the briefest periods. Contrast this with the picture below, where a new street has risen from the dust of the old. Flowers, gardens, plenty of room and sunlight and air give children a chance to live normally. Such homes as these are being built at the rate of thousands per year in English cities. Through government subsidy they are available to even the lowest wage-earner.

The depressed price of farm products is a problem with which everyone is familiar, but on the 1913 basis farm product prices have never been as low as gasoline. Between 1913, and 1920 gasoline did not rise in price to nearly the same extent as farm products, yet since 1920 its price has almost continuously declined. The data for the above graphs are based on figures published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

A FAIR DEAL POLICY

In the fifty-four years of its existence, Imperial Oil Limited has always welcomed legislation in the interests of labor and the basic industries. It has never had a labor dispute. It has always paid fair wages. To the greatest extent possible it has provided continuous employment and it has given its workers increasing leisure so as to expand employment. It has sickness and death benefits and old age pensions because it believes that the worker and his dependents are entitled to such protection.

Imperial Oil has always tried to deal fairly with collateral industry and with its competitors. Its success in this connection is indicated by the fact that it has never had a major lawsuit. It has always recognized the principle that the only satisfactory business transaction is the one which affords a fair profit to all parties concerned. It has fulfilled all its undertakings. It has enforced no onerous claims on others.

Imperial Oil has always tried to deal fairly with the consumer. It has continuously improved the quality and steadily reduced the prices of its products. It has invested millions to make those products always available wherever they may be needed.

In 1934 Imperial Oil earned $3,023,400.12 from its Canadian manufacturing and marketing operations. This, you may say, is a lot of money, but to earn that amount Imperial Oil had to make and market goods to a value of $82,841,311.15. The storekeeper who in the course of a year sold $8,280 worth of goods and made a profit of $300 would not be regarded as enjoying an undue measure of prosperity. But his ratio of profit to the total volume of his business would be the same as Imperial Oil's.

It has been Imperial Oil's practice to "make wisely, measure truly, trade justly" for this it believes to be the secret of success.
