M'GEER IS INSISTENT

Proposes That Vancouver Council Pass Resolution Arbitrarily Cutting Interest Rate

Bradshaw Report

Remedies Suggested Would Throw Burden on Provincial Government and People of City

VANCOUVER, March 11. (CP)—A resolution instructing Vancouver's bankers to refuse to pay more than three percent interest on bond coupons presented for payment after March 31 is being advocated before the city council today by Mayor G. G. McGeer.

Scoring remedies proposed by Thomas Bradshaw, Toronto expert, in his report on the city's financial affairs, Mayor McGeer proposes to cut bond interest by direct action. "It is better to go into receivership now than after the situation gets worse," says the mayor in urging an immediate showdown.

In his report, Mr. Bradshaw made no recommendation for reduction of the interest rate on Vancouver's bonded debt. He claimed that the city's interest rate was comparable with many British and Canadian municipalities.

The Bradshaw report indicated that, although the situation presented some grave problems, they were by no means insurmountable. The chief fault was that Vancouver had not made the same effort as other Canadian municipalities to collect its revenues.

The report contained a tentative budget plan for the city with the recommendation that the provincial government contribute $800,000, licence fees be increased, a ten percent tax be imposed on rents, the school budget be reduced by $250,000, water rates be increased and Sea Island airport, which cost the city almost $600,000 and was being operated at a loss, be abandoned.

Masonic Party Had Good Time At Ocean Falls

A local Masonic party consisting of W. D. Vance, T. H. Johnson, G. A. Woodland, F. A. MacCallum, Alex McRae, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McAfee, W. E. Drake, S. C. Thomson, C. H. Orme, Donald Crerar and son, Alistair, J. J. Little, Joseph Naylor and George Fraser returned to the city on the Princess Norah yesterday afternoon from Ocean Falls. The trip was a very enjoyable one, the principal feature of the visit to the paper town being a banquet on Saturday night. The visitors made an inspection of the paper plant, were entertained socially in the afternoon and in the evening after the banquet there was a dance on the Princess Norah.

A communication from the inspector of factories advised the hospital board Friday night of certain alterations which would have to be made to the passenger elevator in the hospital before January 31, 1937, under the regulations governing such conveyances. The matter was referred to the house committee for consideration. A letter from the Fidelity Insurance Co. reported that an inspection had been made of the elevator by J. A. Hinton who found it to be in good working order.

HAMBURG, Germany, March 11.—Max Schmeling, former champion, took an important step in his come-back campaign for the crown now worn by Max Baer as a result of a technical knock-out victory over Steve Hamas of Philadelphia in the ninth round of a scheduled ten-round bout here yesterday. He had been down three times for the count of nine in the sixth. There were 25,000 fight fans in attendance, coming from all parts of Western Europe. The last time they met in Philadelphia Schmeling lost a decision to Hamas.

The locals were playing at a disadvantage, having suffered considerably from mal-de-mer during the trip. Nor were they used to such an exceptionally large playing floor as that at Metlakatla. Scores for Prince Rupert in the second Metlakatla game were: Jack Campbell, 12; Bobby Allistone, 4; Carl Smith, 3; Herbie Morgan, 4; Jack Lindsay, 3; Ham Antonelli, 1. BRITAIN'S NAVAL PROGRAM

Great Britain is to re-enter the picture as an effective world naval power. For years she held back in the hope that other nations would follow her example and reduce expenditures on armaments. The decision seems to have been arrived at after it was clearly shown that the example she was trying to set had no effect whatever on competing nations.

The new policy of Great Britain will tend to improve industrial conditions there. The expenditure of large sums of money on building and rebuilding war vessels will take up much of the unemployment slack and districts that have been suffering from lack of work will again become prosperous.

With more vessels in commission, more sailors will be required to man them. Men who have been on relief will be given employment in dozens of lines dependent on or subordinate to shipbuilding trades and naval upkeep. While it will mean an increased burden on the taxpayer, the building of the ships will not mean as great an increased expense as might be thought because there will be a good saving in unemployment relief as the men are set to work.

ENGLISH ENDORSE HORNBY SCHEME

Word received from Brigadier General Hornby is to the effect that Lord and Lady Rodney have made a very successful tour of the north of England in connection with the proposed land settlement scheme in Canada. Meeting of influential personages in various centres addressed by Lord Rodney plan an active campaign to bring pressure on the British government to start a migration movement to Canada in connection with the Hornby settlement scheme. Newcastle seems to be moving in this matter as well as Shrewsbury and other centres. A migration committee is being formed at Newcastle with the idea of creating a settlement of Newcastle people in some favorable section of Canada.

VERY SATISFACTORY

Very satisfactory word was received from Olof Hanson M.P. at Ottawa at the week-end to the effect that the minister of trade and commerce has arranged for trans-Pacific steamships to call here for cargo, making eight calls in all to pick up hemlock logs for the Orient. The intimation that the vessels might also call to deliver cargo inbound, is also along the line of what Prince Rupert has been asking. It really seems as if the people at Ottawa were beginning to recognize that Prince Rupert exists as a port and we are sure Prince Rupert people will appreciate it.

Life Insurance "Reserves" are Savings Held in Trust

FOR the benefit of policyholders, Life Insurance acts virtually in the capacity of custodian of trust funds. These funds, which represent the accumulated savings of approximately 3,500,000 Canadian policyholders, are known as "Reserves". The maintenance of these Reserves is a condition fundamental to the fulfillment of policy contracts.

Life Insurance Reserves differ from those of other financial institutions. They are by law compulsory. They are mathematically calculated to provide, from the premiums paid, a fund which, when carried forward at interest and supplemented by future premiums, will ensure the carrying out of the companies' obligations.

You, together with other policyholders, own all these Reserves. This money is YOURS. Your share may be large or small, depending on the amount of Life Insurance you own, the type of policies and the length of time they have been in force.

From the premiums which you pay into Life Insurance, therefore, fixed sums must be reserved for your future needs. Each year that you continue to invest savings in Life Insurance, you increase your individual Reserve and build financial security for yourself and dependants.

Because there are millions of Canadian policyholders like yourself, you can realize that the Reserves held in trust by Life Insurance Companies are necessarily very large. They total more than $1,500,000,000. Investment and safe-keeping of these funds are serious responsibilities.

These responsibilities fall upon the various Life Insurance Companies operating in Canada. It is their duty to set aside Reserves according to strict Government regulations, and to make investments which will adequately protect all policyholders.

Life Insurance Companies have discharged these obligations in a manner which justifies the confidence of every policyholder. They have established their Reserves on the strong basis required by the Government, and they have made certain that such funds are kept intact and are always available to fulfill the obligations to each policyholder.

BRITISH COLUMBIA GIVES BETTER MILK

British Columbia has something in its soil and climate that produces better milk. We mean exactly that. Pacific has a gain in the very fact that it originates here. There are other reasons that add specifically to the quality of Pacific, but the virtues that British Columbia itself give to this good milk form a quality fact of first importance.

DON'T TAKE CHANCES with these GRIPPE COLDS!

GRIPPE is around and it is not safe to neglect even a "slight" cold. Once it reaches the Grippe stage it is much harder to get rid of... and quickly spreads throughout the family.

Check even little colds before they develop. Take a Colman's Mustard bath and sweat out the poisons quickly! That's the way to ward off Grippe.

TELLS EXPERIENCE BEFORE A NOTARY

Mrs. Albert Aubry, 1605 Montreuil St., Montreal, relates in a sworn statement how Fruit-A-Tives bettered her health. She now enjoys life after years of poor health and, so you may be sure of its truth, Mrs. Aubry tells of her experience in a statement made under oath. She says, "I was troubled for years with dizzy headaches. My bowels did not function regularly. I had no appetite. I had no sleep. It was difficult for me to do my work. I tried a great many laxatives, but found most of them too violent. Finally, I started taking Fruit-A-Tives. In a very short time my health became greatly improved. I now enjoy life much more than before I learned about Fruit-A-Tives."

Copy of Mrs. Aubry's complete sworn statement will be sent on request. Write Fruit-A-Tives Limited, Ottawa, Canada. FRUIT-A-TIVES—25c and 50c EVERYWHERE

Peace and Comfort

Tobacco is universally conceded to be one of Nature's finest gifts to mankind. It is a gift that man cherishes dearly, because of the comfort, the solace, it brings to him. It induces and disseminates a rare sense of peacefulness. It is in truth the very essence of peace.

Indian tradition associates its earliest uses with the promotion of peace. When the Great Spirit had to be propitiated, tobacco was the favoured form of peace-offering. When warring tribes came together to settle their differences, the pipe was the pledge of fidelity, and the seal of treaties.

And down through the intervening years, it has been around this note of peace, of soothing tranquility, that its virtues have had their highest meed of praise.

T. C. Haliburton (Sam Slick), in his "Clockmaker" sketches, eulogized tobacco in these terms: "The moment a man takes to a pipe he becomes a philosopher; it's the poor man's friend; it calms the mind, soothes the temper, and makes a man patient under trouble. It has made more good men, good husbands, kind masters, indulgent fathers, and honest fellers than any other blessed thing in this universal world."

The pardonable exaggerations of a devotee? Not at all! Underlying every one of these claims of tobacco's beneficence, there is a solid foundation of scientific fact.

Ask your physician, and he will tell you that tobacco does soothe tensed nerves, does relax tensed muscles, and that in so doing it does minister to your physical comfort and to your peace of mind.

As purveyor to the public at large of tobacco in all its forms—cigars, cigarettes, pipe tobacco—this Company finds cause for much gratification in the thought that every day it is contributing to the comfort, the contentment, and the happiness of millions of Canadians.

As Charles Kingsley so aptly remarks in his novel Westward Ho!, tobacco is "... a lone man's companion, a bachelor's friend, a hungry man's food, a sad man's cordial, a wakeful man's sleep, and a chilly man's fire."

Olof Hanson M.P.

Olof Hanson is another of the old timers who has made good in a big way, both in his private business and in public life. Born in Sweden, he became naturalized in Edmonton in 1909 and came to Prince Rupert as a contractor on railway construction. Later he became prominently identified with the timbering and fishing industries. The citizens of the district paid tribute to his worth and abilities by electing him Member of the Canadian House of Commons for Skeena by a large majority in 1930.

A Great Soldier

COL. C. W. PECK

Colorful personality, brave soldier and, withal, intensely popular, Col. C. W. Peck, B.C., D.E.O., is numbered among the most distinguished of Prince Rupert's pioneer citizens. In 1903, Col. Peck, with his partner, the late Capt. D. M. Moore, built Cassiar gannery on the Skeena River and four years later went into the sawmilling business at Georgetown. In 1908 he moved his headquarters into the city. Leading one of the first contingents of volunteers for overseas from Prince Rupert in 1914, he soon distinguished himself as a military leader in France. As commanding officer of the Sixteenth Canadian Scottish Regiment, he was awarded the coveted Victoria Cross and the Distinguished Service Order. While overseas, he was elected Member of the House of Commons for Skeena. Moving from Prince Rupert to Sidney, Vancouver Island, after the War, he sat for some time in the Legislature. Later he was a member of the Board of Pensions Commissioners but now lives in retirement in Sidney.

CONCERT IS ACCEPTABLE

Large Crowd Gathers at Capitol Theatre at Affair in Celebration of Civic Anniversary

Good Program

Boys' Band Benefits Substantially As Result of Effort of Junior Chamber

The concert presented under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the incorporation of the city of Prince Rupert and dedicated in honor of Prince Rupert's pioneers drew an appreciative audience of some five hundred or so persons to the Capitol Theatre yesterday afternoon. An excellent program of instrumental and vocal music was presented with City Commissioner W. J. Alder the principal speaker. Proceeds of some $100 are being turned over to the funds of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band.

The proceedings were opened with brief and appropriate remarks by T. N. LePage, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, who referred to the good work of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band under Bandmaster Robert Greenfield and thanked the band, the Junior Symphony Orchestra and artists contributing to the program as well as the management of the Capitol Theatre for its co-operation. Mr. LePage then introduced P. W. Anderson as chairman.

Mr. Anderson referred appreciatively to the gracious gesture of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in dedicating the concert to the pioneers and then called upon City Commissioner W. J. Alder for an address.

Commissioner's Address

Mr. Alder paid tribute to the public spirit of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and referred to the important place the Chamber was taking in civic affairs.

Looking back to 1910, Mr. Alder recalled the limited and crude steamship service at that time, how there had been no industrial development with no railway service, no dry dock, no cold storage plants, no oil tanks, no government wharf, no biological station, no railway station or yards, no ocean dock, no lumber assembly dock, no elevator while the city had no permanent streets or sidewalks and no proper sewerage or electric light systems. When the port and city of that time was compared with today, the great development that had been made could be better realized. The people of those days, armed with nothing but faith, had undertaken a great task in city building. They were not aware of the possibilities of fishing, timber and mineral industries such as now existed. Declaring that Prince Rupert was bound to become a great commercial and business centre, Mr. Alder predicted greater development in the next ten years than there had been in the last twenty-five. Today Oriental trade for the port was looming.

"Doc" Orme's First Stand

An interesting picture of pioneer days. It shows "Doc" Orme, pioneer druggist and his first stand, a tent on Centre Street, in August 1911. He was 23 years of age at that time. Popular personality and one whose services have always been in great demand, Cyril H. Orme has served in practically every public office in Prince Rupert—as mayor, alderman, school trustee, president of the board of trade, etc. Withal, he is one of the city's most successful business men.

Dr. W. T. Kergin is back in Prince Rupert from a trip to Vancouver where he made arrangements for the sale of stock to finance development work on the Blue Point mine at Stewart.

The Northern Steamship Co. has entered the steamship service business between Prince Rupert and Vancouver with the steamers Petriana and Cetriana. The latter is a passenger vessel.

The fishing steamer Weiding Brothers is in Seattle with a catch of 165,000 pounds of halibut taken on the Queen Charlotte Island banks. When the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is completed fish caught in the vicinity of the Queen Charlotte Islands will be shipped east from Prince Rupert.

Under the auspices of the local Catholic Church a grand concert will be staged on St. Patrick's Day. The executive in connection with the concert consists of the following: president D. W. Morrissey; secretary, Thomas Trotter; treasurer, Father E. M. Bunoz; J. McNulty, Frank McKinnon and Gillis Couture.

The Prince Rupert Club is trying to secure the hill at the corner of Fifth Street and Second Avenue for a clubhouse site.

Dr. W. T. Kergin is the doyen of pioneer physicians and surgeons of Prince Rupert. He came to Port Simpson in 1905 as a missionary doctor and in 1908 moved to Prince Rupert. Since then he has ministered to the medical and surgical needs of the community ably and well, building up an enviable reputation in his profession. Away back in the early days he served a term as M.P.P. for Skeena in Victoria.

Dong Sing, clerk at the Prince Rupert Hotel, is among the real old timers here. He claims the distinction of having rung the first church bell in Prince Rupert. That was in 1907 when the late Bishop F. H. DuVernet came over from Metlakatla to conduct the first church service ever held on this townsite. The service took place in the G. T. P. dining room where Sing was mess boy.

Pioneer of City

PREMIER T. D. PATTULLO

One of Prince Rupert's pioneers who has gone far in affairs of state and public responsibility is Thomas Dufferin Pattullo, Prime Minister of British Columbia. He came here in 1908 from the Yukon, served on the first city council, was mayor in 1913 and was elected Member of the Legislature in 1916. He was called into the cabinet of the late Premier H. C. Brewster when he formed his ministry in 1916, continued as minister of lands through the long regime of the late Premier John Oliver and later Premier J. D. McLean, was chosen leader of the Opposition in 1928 and became Premier when the Liberal party was returned to power in 1933. Mr. Pattullo, now 62, is still a comparatively young man and many of his friends and admirers believe that the future may hold even greater responsibilities and honors for him.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Stewart, pioneers of this city, have been in residence for the winter at San Diego, Cal. Mr. Stewart has taken quite a fancy to golfing, it is reported.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

With a large list of 129 passengers including quite a number of Yukoners returning north after spending the winter outside, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Hughes, arrived in port at 2:15 yesterday afternoon and sailed an hour later for Skagway and other Alaska points. The vessel is scheduled to call southbound on Thursday afternoon. Nineteen persons disembarked from the Princess Norah here, a dozen going north aboard her.

First cannery crew of the 1935 season to arrive on the Skeena River, C. Aves, manager of North Pacific cannery, with other members of the staff arrived in the Skeena Slough last evening on the steamer Catala from Vancouver. They will be engaged in making cans and getting the plant in readiness for the season's activities which will commence late in June with the opening of sockeye fishing.

Spick and span following annual overhaul which has been in progress during the past three weeks, the popular coastal liner Catala, with Capt. James Findlay in command, arrived in port at 7:40 last evening from the south and sailed at 9 p.m. for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The vessel brought north a good sized list of passengers including the crew of North Pacific cannery with which she put into the Skeena slough last evening before arriving here.

A local fish house has been advised by its representatives in Chicago that it now appears it will be early in April before the frozen halibut market has moved sufficiently to offer any encouragement for the advent of fresh fish. It is understood here that Chicago dealers have reached an agreement not to touch fresh fish this year until frozen stocks are cleaned up or at least nearly exhausted.

After having closed during a visit of two or three days to the port with Canadian halibut boat owners and fishermen to take their halibut livers this season at 40¢ per pound delivered in port, Harry A. Johnson of Seattle left Prince Rupert last Friday night on his return to Seattle. Previously, Mr. Johnson's price had been accepted by the American fleet. Mr. Johnson's representative at Prince Rupert will be arriving shortly to make arrangements for the handling of livers at the port.

Vessels of the Juneau, Ketchikan, Petersburg halibut fleets, according to word received here, have no intention of going out to the grounds this season until there is an improvement in the frozen fish situation and some assurance of stable price conditions. In deciding on this course, they have fallen in line with the Seattle and Prince Rupert fleets.

Capt. Jud Thurber arrived in port Thursday night with his halibut boat Vera Beatrice after having spent the winter in Vancouver. Accompanying Capt. Thurber north was Guy Campbell of the Joe Baker who also spent the winter in Vancouver. Capt. Thurber attended recent conferences in Seattle of the halibut vessel owners and fishermen representatives with fish buyers but believes there is little hope of a minimum price agreement being reached. The Vera Beatrice will prepare for the fishing season here.

A pilot outfit belonging to an Alaska salmon canning concern put into the harbor yesterday for shelter from the storm outside. It was bound from Seattle to Alaska.

FIERY AND COLORFUL

"Bordertown," Starring Paul Muni, Bette Davis and Margaret Lindsay, Rugged Drama

A blazing picture of real life, touching the rough, raw edges but, withal, picturesque and colorful, "Bordertown," said to be a startling picture in its emotional intensity, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as the feature film at the first of this week. The picture stars Paul Muni in a role of dramatic ruggedness as a foreign youth who is torn by conflicting emotions in a desperate battle to win success and love against insurmountable odds. Stung by injustices done his people, he decides that only the rich get the things worth while in life and goes to a border resort town where he acquires both riches and power as the proprietor of a night club and gambling resort, wild and lawless, frequented by persons of every caste—rogues, outlaws, adventurers, millionaires, society women and others. The surging, torrid love of the youth for a society beauty brings about a tragic climax which is both gripping and unusual. Bette Davis and Margaret Lindsay share feminine honors, the former as a fiery adventuress in love with Muni and the latter as the society woman seeking thrills without getting singed.

They will remain in that area until next fall.

Chicken Dinner Is Sequel to Bowling Match Last Friday

Paul Armour, F. Biggin, Grant Overdale and Max Asemissen were hosts to Jimmy Clecone, Dido Gurlich, Eddie Smith and Bill Schriber at a chicken dinner last night in the Knox Hotel as a sequel to a bowling contest on Friday night. There were two ten pin matches and one of five pins, the Clecone team winning with a total margin of 48 points.

Simple Rules Prevent WEARINESS

Do you know that there is a simple, natural way to stay on the high road of good health and to end those days of weariness that body and brain seem sluggish and heavy? There is. And it is just (very) right, plus being sure that you are not unconsciously suffering from incomplete elimination of body waste. Eat moderately. Sleep sufficiently. Get lots of fresh air, exercise and recreation. Don't worry. And make sure of complete elimination by taking a refreshing, pleasant-tasting glass of Andrew's Liver Salt once or twice each week. Do not make the mistake of supposing that just because your habits are regular your system is functioning perfectly. It is because your eliminative organs are not functioning fully that you go through days of weariness or suffer indigestion and headache. The weekly or two-weekly bracing glass of Andrew's Liver Salt will help Nature to sustain complete elimination, and thus give you a mental appetite, and sustain you in vigorous health. Prevention is better than cure. Begin now to observe these simple, inexpensive Andrew's Rules for Health. Get Andrew's Liver Salt from your druggist. In 30c and 50c New, large bottles, 75c.
