VALUE OF EDUCATION

This is education week during which residents of Prince Knox Hotel last night, the winners Rupert will hear a great deal about the education of the young people. The local Teachers' Association is taking the carrots carved in the shape of lead locally in inviting attention to this important subject bowling pins with oranges for balls. Mild Weather of Past Week Results and is being supported by the churches, other organizations and prominent citizens.

Naturally, education is a much-discussed subject at all times. Many look upon it as dealing chiefly with what at in the form of a challenge cup peared from the Mount Oldfield ski one time were known as the basic subjects, reading, writ- suitably inscribed, Capt. Cicconne ing and arithmetic. As a matter of fact, reading and writ- voicing his appreciation of the gift ing are simply the tools by which we get an education and arithmetic is the basis of a mathematical education. The for this week. The Grotto is also day by the Sons of Norway Ski Club real education follows and should be continued through trophy.

Most education of the individual comes after he leaves school so it is very important that he be properly equipped! with the tools and given the proper inspiration while at school. If he gets that he is prepared to learn something about life.

Happily Prince Rupert is well equipped with a teaching staff and good buildings and it has been shown that Prince Rupert pupils hold their own well at the university or in any walk of life here or abroad.

The personality of the teacher is the great thing in edu cation. Methods change but personality is a living thing that no method can produce. Little children especially are particularly impressionable and, as they are in the hands of the teacher for several of their best hours each day, they can be inspired or depressed by the varying moods and Nordkap Whist manners of their teacher. Happy are they who have the power of laying a proper foundation in the young folk. They are the most valuable asset any community can have.

Veteran Still Takes Daily Bike Ride

At 63 Bob Falconer, former champion, Toronto, is still covering eight or nine miles a day on his bicycle. In the 1890's Bob forsook track and field sports for eyeling and the wheel has been his favorite mode of transportation ever since. Even after he broke his collarbone, his shoulderbone and tore a deep cut in his abdomen in a sevenman spill, Bob went back to competitive cycling. So it is not hard to explain that now-30 years later-he still enjoys pushing the pedals around on his 100-

LEAVE YOUR COLD Mustard Bath

Stop that cough or cold overnight by taking a steaming but mustard bath with 3 tablespoonsful of Colman's first mixed to a thin paste. You soon begin to perspire; your skin tingles ... that's the mustard doing its work ... a quick rub down and straight to bed to sweat the poisons out of your system. Mustard's the thing!

If more convenient, use a pail of water as bot as you can bear is with 1 tablespoonful of Colman's added, and wrap yourself up warm while you soak your feet. Keep warm afterwards. Mustard plasters on the chest or aching parts give quick relief. Simple, but good, and you have everything in the house for these old-fashioned but ever-effective remedies.

In a letter Mrs. M. A. L. praises the fine flavor of Pacific Milk. It is used in her home all the time, she writes; the family prefer it to any canned milk they have ever tried. Since Pacific was placed in vacuum cans more of the vitamins are retained, its purity is more thoroughly safeguarded and it is in consequence better milk.

The dance held on Friday night | at the parish hall of St. Peter's Church was as enjoyable an affair as it was successful.
