WELCOME THE VILLAGERS

Evidently the idea has become prevalent among the villages around Prince Rupert that the inhabitants are not very welcome in the city. This is, of course, all wrong. When it was reported that the villagers thought they were discriminated against by the police last year the Chamber of Commerce at once took action and made representations to Ottawa, urging a change of policy.

The Daily News goes into all the villages. Most of the Port Simpson and Port Essington people read this paper and all other villages have their quota of readers. Considering the population of these places we publish a great deal of news of their doings. We try to show appreciation and so do most of the people of the city. We suggest that there be a movement in the city to bring about a better understanding between the people of the villages and those of the city. Our interests are theirs and there is no reason why we should not all unite for the common good. We suggest this as one of the important movements for the present year. What is needed is a leader or a group of men who will make it their business to work for a better understanding.

THAT PUBLIC WORKS MONEY

So far Prince Rupert has been left out in the federal government schemes for public works throughout Canada. Various excuses have been given for this but no real reason. Now that a new allotment of funds has been provided, it seems reasonable to expect that Prince Rupert will be included. Jasper and Lake Louise are to be connected with a highway but Prince Rupert, with more tourists than either of them and with a very considerable shipping and fishing business, is still out in the woods. Two claims may well be advanced for this place. One is for the erection of a suitable federal building and the other for work on the transcontinental highway connecting Prince Rupert with the rest of Canada.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

Our new governor general is to be named Sir John Buchan, Baron of Tweedmuir, which of course is much more appropriate than plain Jack Buchan, the novelist. We have no objection to the British government giving anyone a title. That is their privilege. If they had made the governor a duke or even a prince we should not have complained. A little more cost in ink and newspaper space is all it would have cost us.

What we object to is the singling out of Canadians for any special recognition on the recommendation of someone who is usually rather poorly informed. The distribution of medals at the time of the jubilee caused a great deal of heart burning. The distribution of titles would be infinitely worse. Let the old world amuse itself in any way it wishes but, as for Canadians, plain "Mr. John" suits us very well. "Jack" is even better. We hope the next Canadian government will make it clear that during their time no such superficial distinguishing marks will be added to any Canadian on the advice of His Majesty's Canadian government.

around the garden. Turn the soil whenever possible and your garden is likely to be a success. The true gardener never lets a day pass without doing something, either indoors or out, to improve the appearance or fertility of his garden.

So many good spring gardens, fine displays of daffodils, tulips and other spring flowers have been seen this year that it is difficult to tell about them or to mention any as outstanding.

Among those who have done wonders in improving their lawns and gardens this year have been Dr. and Mrs. Mandy and Dave Bor-

The ancient port and centre of trade, travel and art was discussed from a number of viewpoints by Dr. Hankinson. Having pictured it chiefly by its peculiar marine nature and also as a centre of art, culture, travel and relics, the speaker said that he had been surprised to find that Venice was a point of such great trade, commercial and industrial importance. In fact, despite certain handicaps, it very well this year and most of appeared to be of equal importance the lilacs are in flower or will be to Genoa. Space in a daily newspaper possesses a power that is lacking in the lineage of other advertising media.

It is not only more economical . . . which is a matter of easy computation . . . it is not only more flexible, it is not only more timely and rapid, but also it is the advertiser's unfailing point of contact with the mass market and every spot market of the Dominion of Canada.

The Daily Newspaper possesses a power by means of which an advertiser, who knows how to use it, can reach and move to action all or any part of the Canadian consuming public.

In this North American continent there was spent during 1934 in the columns of the daily newspapers more than $500,000,000. The strongest of all supplementary media was used to the extent of $114,000,000. Why?

Because for prompt action on sales plans . . . for quick consumer influence at minimum cost . . . for willing co-operation from the retail trade, the daily newspaper is today, as it always has been, the outstanding and most economical basic advertising medium.

The data for this graph are based on figures

published by the Dominion Bureau

Sometimes you hear talk of large profits earned by the gasoline refiner. In 1934 Imperial Oil earned $3,023,400.12. This may seem to be a large sum but to earn that Imperial Oil had to make and market gasoline and other products amounting in value to $82,841,311.15. That is to say Imperial Oil's earnings were relatively no greater th anthose of a merchant who, selling $8,280 worth of goods in the course of a year, made a net profit of $300.
