The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, with President C. V. Evitt in the chair, heard some correspondence in connection with the new low rate on autos between Prince Rupert and interior points It was shown that it would be ampracticable for owners of cars to pad them themselves so a dollar service charge was being made.

At the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce meeting last night President C. V. Evitt extended the I thanks of the Chamber to the Canadian Legion for carrying out so well the Jubilee celebration arrangements and also the employment service committee for so suc cessfuly carrying out its work. The ed for its services.
