Royal Canadian Mounted Gets His Man

How the R.C.M.P. gets its man. Within two days after a $4,500 holdup in Winnipeg, the famous reaccoated force had tracked its men to the ground. Right is shown Ephraim Kort, one of the men implicated, while Left is shown Constable Smith with pistol poiseo ready for action at the hiding place of the bandits. The picture was taken just after a shot was fired in an upstairs room. The constable whipped out his revolver, ready for action. The shot, however, proved to be that of one of the two bandits who shot himself through the heart. His body was found lying across a bed, his pants pockets bulging with money.

Simple and effective, the Dean' iscourse was also edifying and inspiring. He read and spoke from the 11th. Chapter of Hebrews. He dovetailed two texts which he considered the most important in the Bible the one "For God So Loved the World that He Gave His Only Begotten Son" and the other "The Just Shall Live by Faith."

There was a difference between faith and belief. Dean Gibson declared. Everyone believed but not all had faith. The Dean spoke of the need of such faith as Abel had
