Great Britain Asks France For Definite Answer as To What She Would do if Mediterranean Fleet Were Attacked—Eden's Life Threatened

ZEILA, British Somaliland, Oct. 17: (CP)—Tribesmen reported today to the district commissioner here that the Seventeenth Camel Corps, guarding the Somaliland frontier, had suffered casualties during an Italian advance in the Ogaden Desert. Italian troops have been close to the border there following the occupation of Ethiopian territory and it is believed that, if such an incident actually occurred, the Italians unintentionally ran over the boundary or mistook the British Camel Corps for Ethiopian forces trying to get around their flank.

DINNER OF GYRO CLUB

Minstrel Show Party Honored At Founders' Day Gathering

Founders' Day was observed by the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at a special dinner meeting last night when occasion was taken to entertain the outside men who had participated and assisted in connection with the recent minstrel show. A program appropriate to the occasion was arranged and the attendance was large including a full turn-out of Gyro members as well as numerous guests. President S. J. Jabour and Past President W. H. Tobey shared duties in the chair.

The Founders' Day message was delivered by William Cruickshank who told something of the formation of the club in Cleveland in 1912, briefly tracing its development and expansion and touching on the aims and aspirations of the organization. G. A. Hunter and C. C. Mills, who, with William Cruickshank and C. P. Balagno are the last remaining charter members of the local club, also spoke.

Dr. R. G. Large sang acceptable vocal solos, accompanied by C. P. Balagno, who was accompanist for the evening, and also presented a report on the minstrel show, announcing that the highly satisfactory sum of $130 had been realized towards the objective of equipping a ward in the Prince Rupert General Hospital and thanking Conductor H. N. Brocklesby and all those who had assisted in any way in connection with the effort.

M. J. Dougherty entertained the gathering with interesting and clever card tricks.

C. V. Evitt, who was the interlocutor of the minstrel show, told amusing stories.

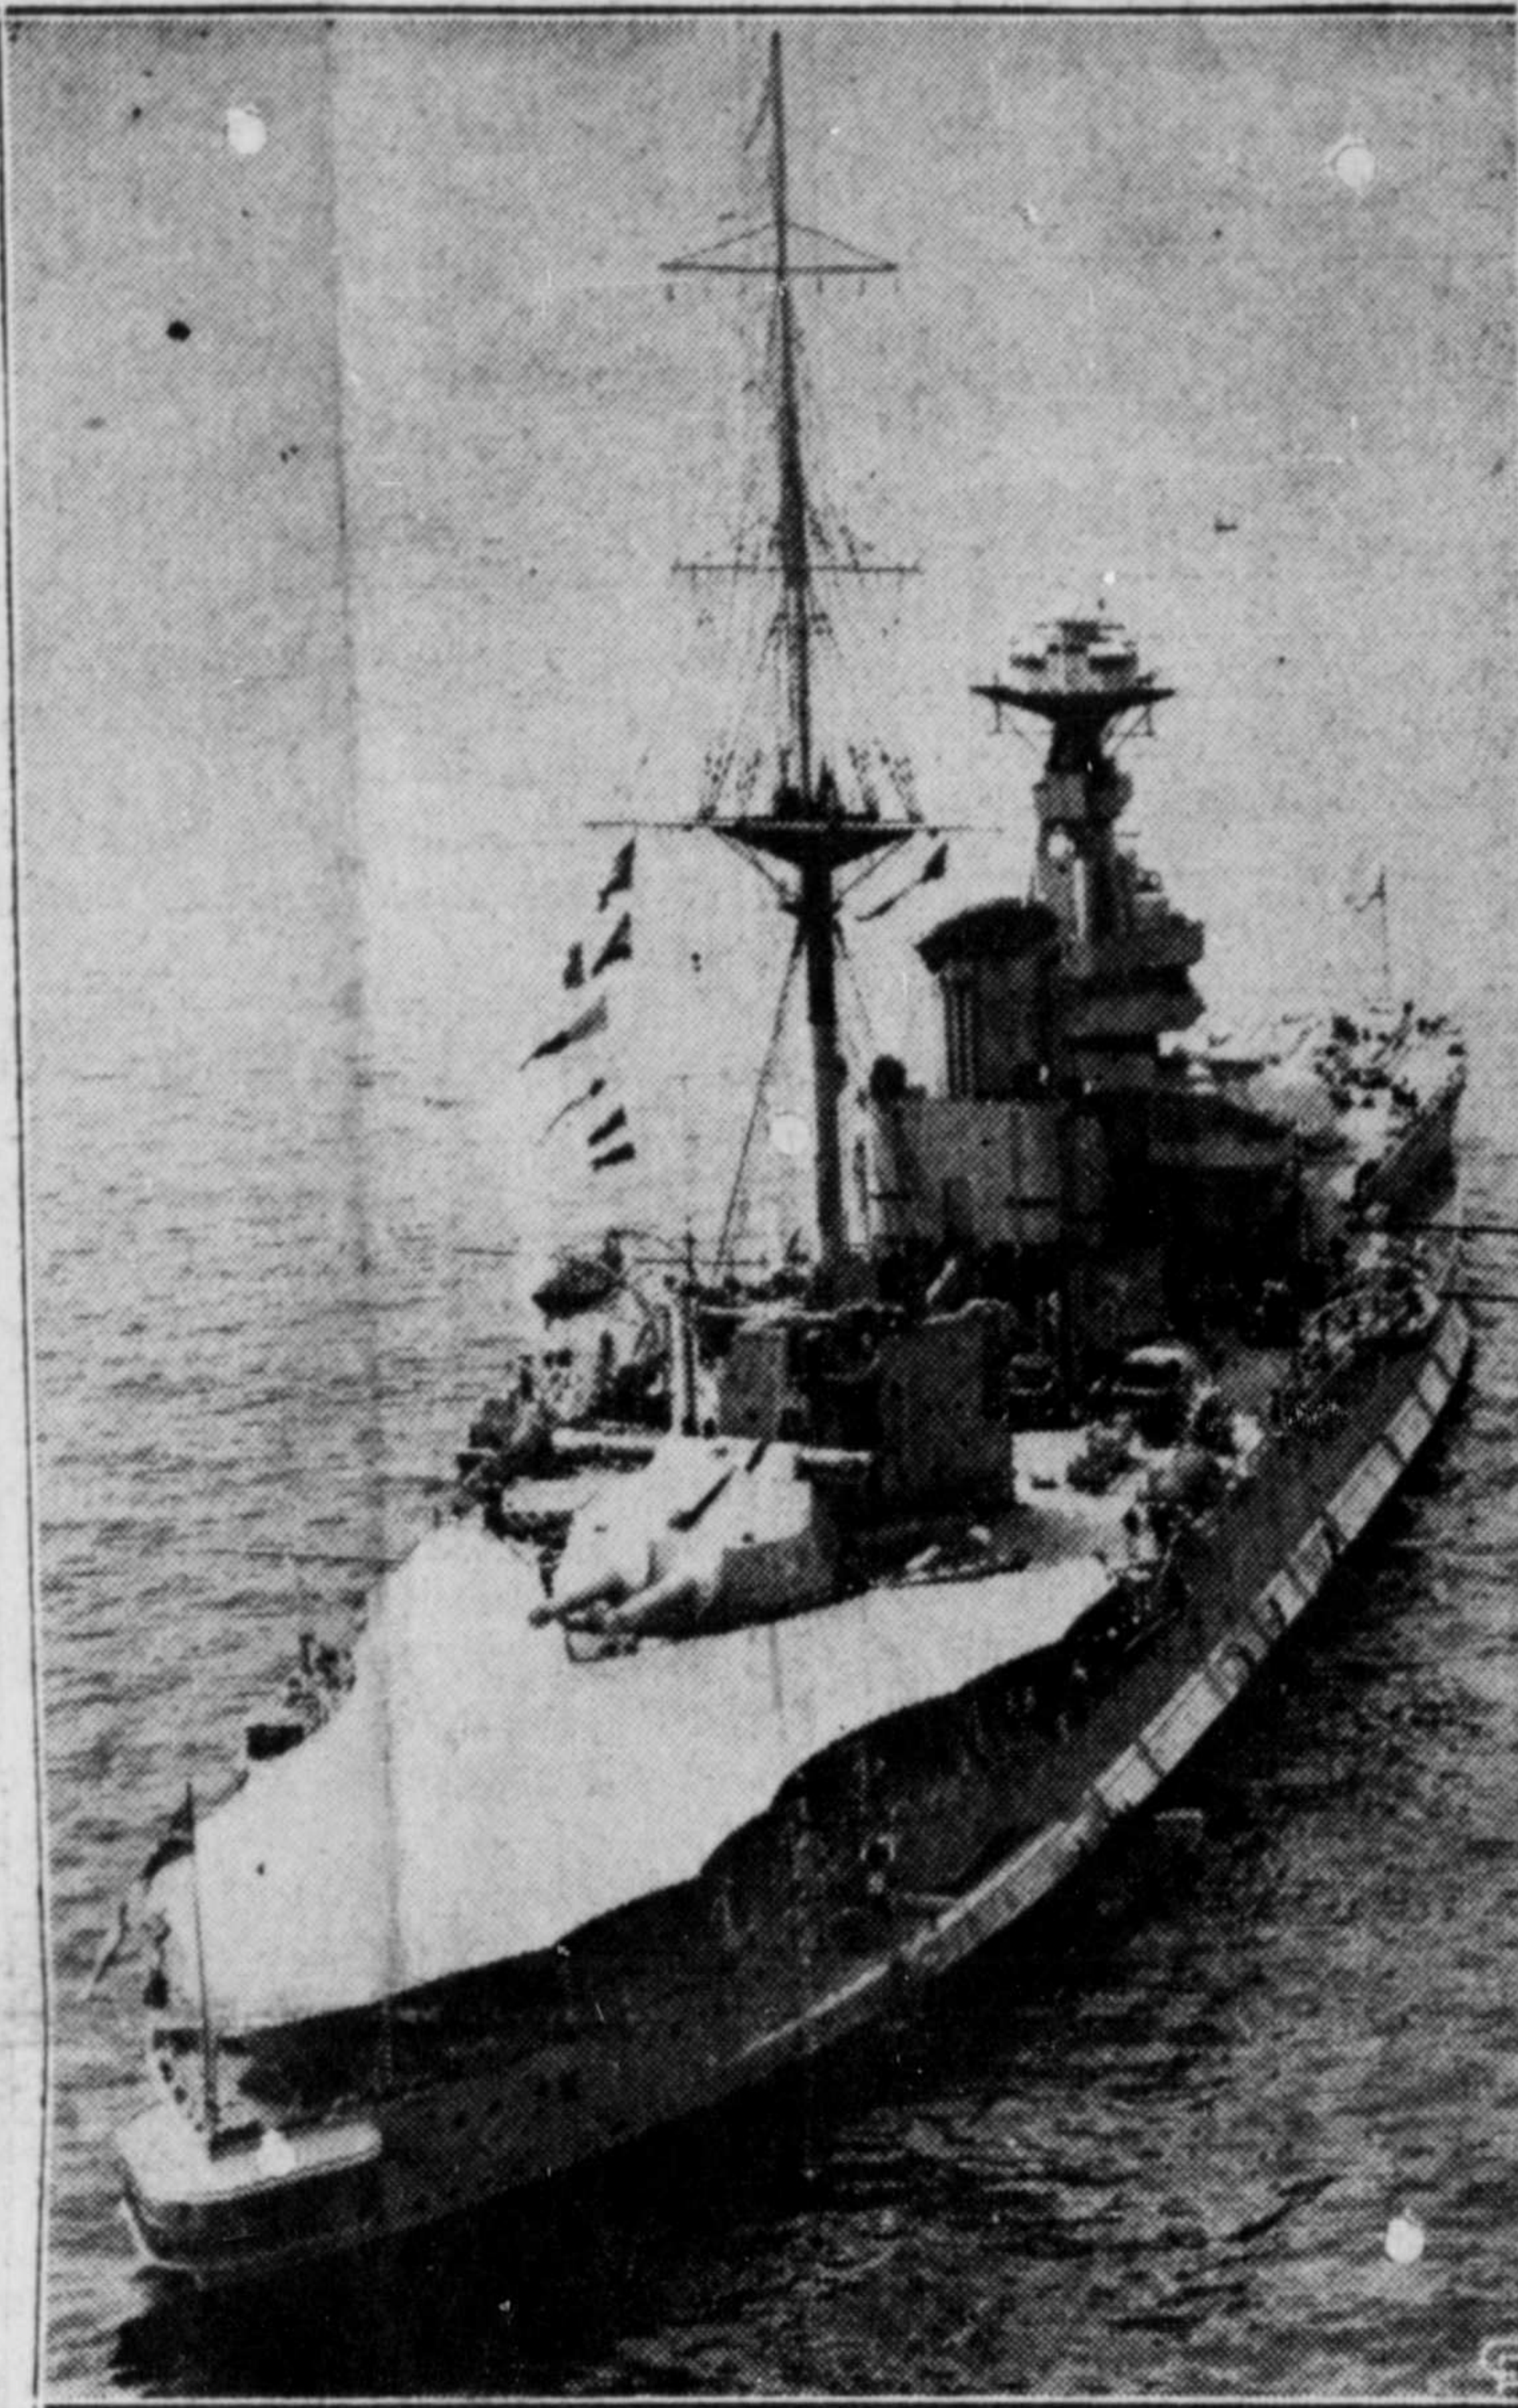

During the evening two presentations were made. To Norman L. Freeman, in view of his recent marriage, was presented a beautiful silver cake plate. D. G. Borland was presented with President Jabour's challenge attendance cup, having been awarded the handsome trophy for the period of six months after a drawing with William Cruickshank and Dr. R. G. Large with whom he had been tied.

Guests included C. V. Evitt, Reg Blake, Mike Budinich, Jack Cobb, Leonard Cripps, M. J. Dougherty, Lee Gordon, S. J. Hunter, Sam Joy, Lawrence Lambly, Richard Meadows, J. H. McClinton, J. A. Teng, A. J. Webber, J. S. Wilson, Peter Lakie, Dr. H. L. Alexander, S. C. Thomson, C. R. Allum, Thomas Kaye and B. R. Tupper.

Result of Hot Federal Election Contest in Vancouver Will Not be Known Until Next Week—Turgeon Wins in Cariboo

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17: (CP)—After a careful recheck of the polls in Vancouver-Burrard following Monday's federal election it was found today that Mayor G. G. McGeer, Liberal, and his C. C. F. opponent, Arnold Webster, were practically tied, Returning Officer Phipps reporting receipt of a number of absentee ballots which could not be counted before October 25, leaving the decision until that date when it is likely a recount will be made.

TURGEON CARRIES CARIBOO Election of J. G. Turgeon, Liberal, is conceded in Cariboo. With 25 polls still to be heard from, he has a majority of 369 over John McInnis, C. C. F.

BRITISH ELECTION

Expected to be Held Around Mid-November—Liberals Prepare—Snowden Critical

LONDON, Oct. 17: (CP)—Sir Herbert Samuel, Liberal leader, met former Liberal cabinet members and others prominent in the party to discuss the general election forecast for November, forecasts of the date varying from November 11 to 21.

Conservatives will lose two hundred seats in the coming general election through a "spurious appeal to patriotism which is a mean partizan act," Viscount Philip Snowden, former Chancellor of the Exchequer and one time prominent Liberal leader, told the National Liberal Club yesterday.

The country will face a whirlwind election campaign on the twin program of rearmament and social reform.

Dress Big Item In Co-ed Costs

But The Boys' Appetites In College Run Up Expenses Of Term

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 17: (CP)—It's clothes that make college girls' expenses heavier while eats bring up the cost to the men students, according to a recent survey by an insurance company.

Apparel costs, a "family economics" study among 362 University of Minnesota students disclosed, make "co-ed" expenses larger than the male students. The averages are $77.97 a month expense, against $59.75, exclusive of tuition fees. One suspicion about "co-ed" inclinations suffered a setback, however. She spends only 76 cents a month more in beauty shops than men do in barber shops. She spends just a fraction of the amount men do on tobacco.

The average fraternity man's expenses monthly are $96.90, compared with $47.21 for the non-fraternity man.

Many beautiful gifts were on display, testifying to the esteem in which the couple are held by many friends. The bride was born in Prince Rupert and has lived here all her life. The groom has been here for a number of years.

MRS. DAFOE IS SPEAKER

Youth Movement is Subject Of Discourse—Medal and Certificates Presented

In connection with the presentation of High School entrance certificates last evening at the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association monthly meeting at Booth Memorial School, an address of inspiration and challenge to the Grade Nine pupils of King Edward High School was given by Mrs. F. W. Dafoe.

A feature of post-war developments in various European countries was the youth movement, said Mrs. Dafoe. The youth had not been responsible for the war but were the victims of it. They set out to accomplish the impossible. Russian youth strove for education, food, clothing and places to live. They accomplished wonders. Their partial failure was the result of the omission of God from their program.

The German army had been defeated. Youth was not. They planned for physical fitness and cleanliness and were on the way to success until Hitler, with his nationalism and hate, ruined their hopes of success. A distorted vision in Italy spoiled a glorious youth movement. There was no place for the individual. China, Japan, India were all permeated with a youth movement. They needed guidance. Christianity would solve the problem.

In this land, with its unrecognized advantages, a youth movement would have splendid chances of success. Freedom was a privileged possession and to keep it there must be law and order.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was pretty in her wedding dress of white taffeta with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and white and pink carnations. The bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Miss Mary Comadina, who was charming in powder blue moire with hat to match, her bouquet also being of white chrysanthemums and white and pink carnations. The groomsmen were Percy Pierce, brother of the groom.

The service was choral and, during the signing of the register, "Ave Maria" was sung. Charles P. Balagno presided at the organ. Following the ceremony, some

ITALY SHOWN AS MENACE TO BRITAIN

An intimation that Premier Mussolini of Italy looks upon Britain as a decadent nation and has a definite policy of trying to build up an Italian Empire at the expense of the British in Africa is contained in a special copyright article published in a recent number of the Christian Science Monitor published at Boston. It commences by quoting an Associated Press despatch telling of the pasting of posters throughout Rome which said: "We find it simply monstrous that this nation (Great Britain) which dominates the world refuses us a strip in the poor land of Africa."

The article states that in the past British friendship was something which Italy valued but of late the attitude of Italy has changed until today the whole population of Italy has been made to feel by means of propaganda that Britain is its enemy. Persons outside of Italy, it says, cannot realize how great is the hostility toward Great Britain.

It seems that, according to this authority, both Britain and Italy have thought the other was bluffing. Britain did not believe that Italy meant war and Mussolini would not believe that Britain was prepared to implement the League of Nations sanctions possibly to the length of armed force.

The acknowledged plan of Italy was to subdue Ethiopia and then to raise an army of a million colored troops with which it could dominate Northern Africa and the Suez Canal and endanger Britain's route to India. This would strengthen Fascism and weaken Britain.

What Italy did not count on was the show of strength made by Britain in the Mediterranean. Before taking the present action Italy made a treaty with France which it was expected would keep that country out of the dispute. In fact, the Italians expect either direct or indirect support from France.

Having gone as far as she has Italy cannot now turn back. To do so would endanger the Fascist regime, for the Italians are an enthusiastic but somewhat changeable people. If the war should last and entail suffering and deprivation on the part of the people they might easily tire of the conflict.

In any event the present situation seems to be a decided menace to British interests and only the prompt action of Britain when she realized the danger has prevented a much more acute danger than that which faces the Empire of which Canada is a part.

British Columbia Motorist Runs Her Car Boasting 250,000 Mileage

MONTREAL, October 17: (CP) —From Mexico City to Montreal via the Pacific Coast, about 5,200 miles, in 24 days, in a 12-year-old car with some 250,000 miles to its credit is the trip recently completed by Mrs. Charles Weber of Vancouver. Mrs. Weber is now visiting relatives here.

Accompanied by her 14-year-old niece, Claire Pion of Montreal, who spent the winter with her in Mexico, Mrs. Weber travelled by way of California and the State of Washington into British Columbia. After stopping for a day at Mrs. Weber's home they took the American side once more as far as Detroit. There they crossed to Windsor, Ont., for the journey to Montreal.

Mrs. Weber has driven the same automobile five times across the continent and, about five years ago, drove it on a tour of European countries. She says it is still going strong.

Sweaters Provided For All Players In Junior League

At the business session of the Prince Rupert Parent Teachers' Association meeting last evening at Booth Memorial School, a recommendation of the executive that new sweaters be purchased for the King Edward High School, Booth Memorial and Borden Street Junior Football teams was adopted. W. W. O'Neill spoke of the debt that the children owed to the Parent-Teachers Association which for years had been making regular donations towards the supplying of sporting equipment. No assistance had been forthcoming from trustees or the city.

J. S. Wilson, president of the Junior Football Association, spoke strongly also on the great assistance received from this body which, with the Trades and Labor Council and the Dominion Day committee, supplied the only funds which enabled the league to carry on. The purchase of basketballs, softballs and footballs was possible through the association's cooperation.

Mrs. D. C. Stuart, who presided, welcomed the pupils and congratulated them on passing this milestone in their lives. She also asked for full support for the Bridge competition this Friday, the proceeds from which will be used for the purchase of books for the schools.

BASKETBALL OPENING

Opening of the league basketball season here has been postponed from tonight until next Monday evening. Lambie & Stone have entered a team in the Senior League in place of Canadian National Recreation Association.

Man in the Moon

Now that the election is past history, let us forget it and carry on.

Many candidates who attempted a riding this fall were just "riding for a fall."

"O Where, O Where Are My Followers All Gone?" is the popular song that Hon. H. H. Stevens is said to be singing today.

Listening to some of the candidates for office in the American cities reminds one of the Etanswell Election pictured so humorously by Charles Dickens about a hundred years ago. They also remind us of Prince Rupert in the early days of her history.

Evidently some political slogans do not work. Bob Riley, Reconstruction candidate in Ontario, had on one of his election posters: "God save the King" "And other speakers." He was beaten.

The Stevens party and the C. C. F. and the rest of the parties of protest were constantly telling the electors the people were tired of the old parties. It was a queer method they took of showing how really tired they were.

Headlines of a contemporary on Saturday said: "From all directions some reports foreshadowing great landslide for R. B. Bennett and government policies." It certainly was a slide but not the kind mentioned in the contemp.

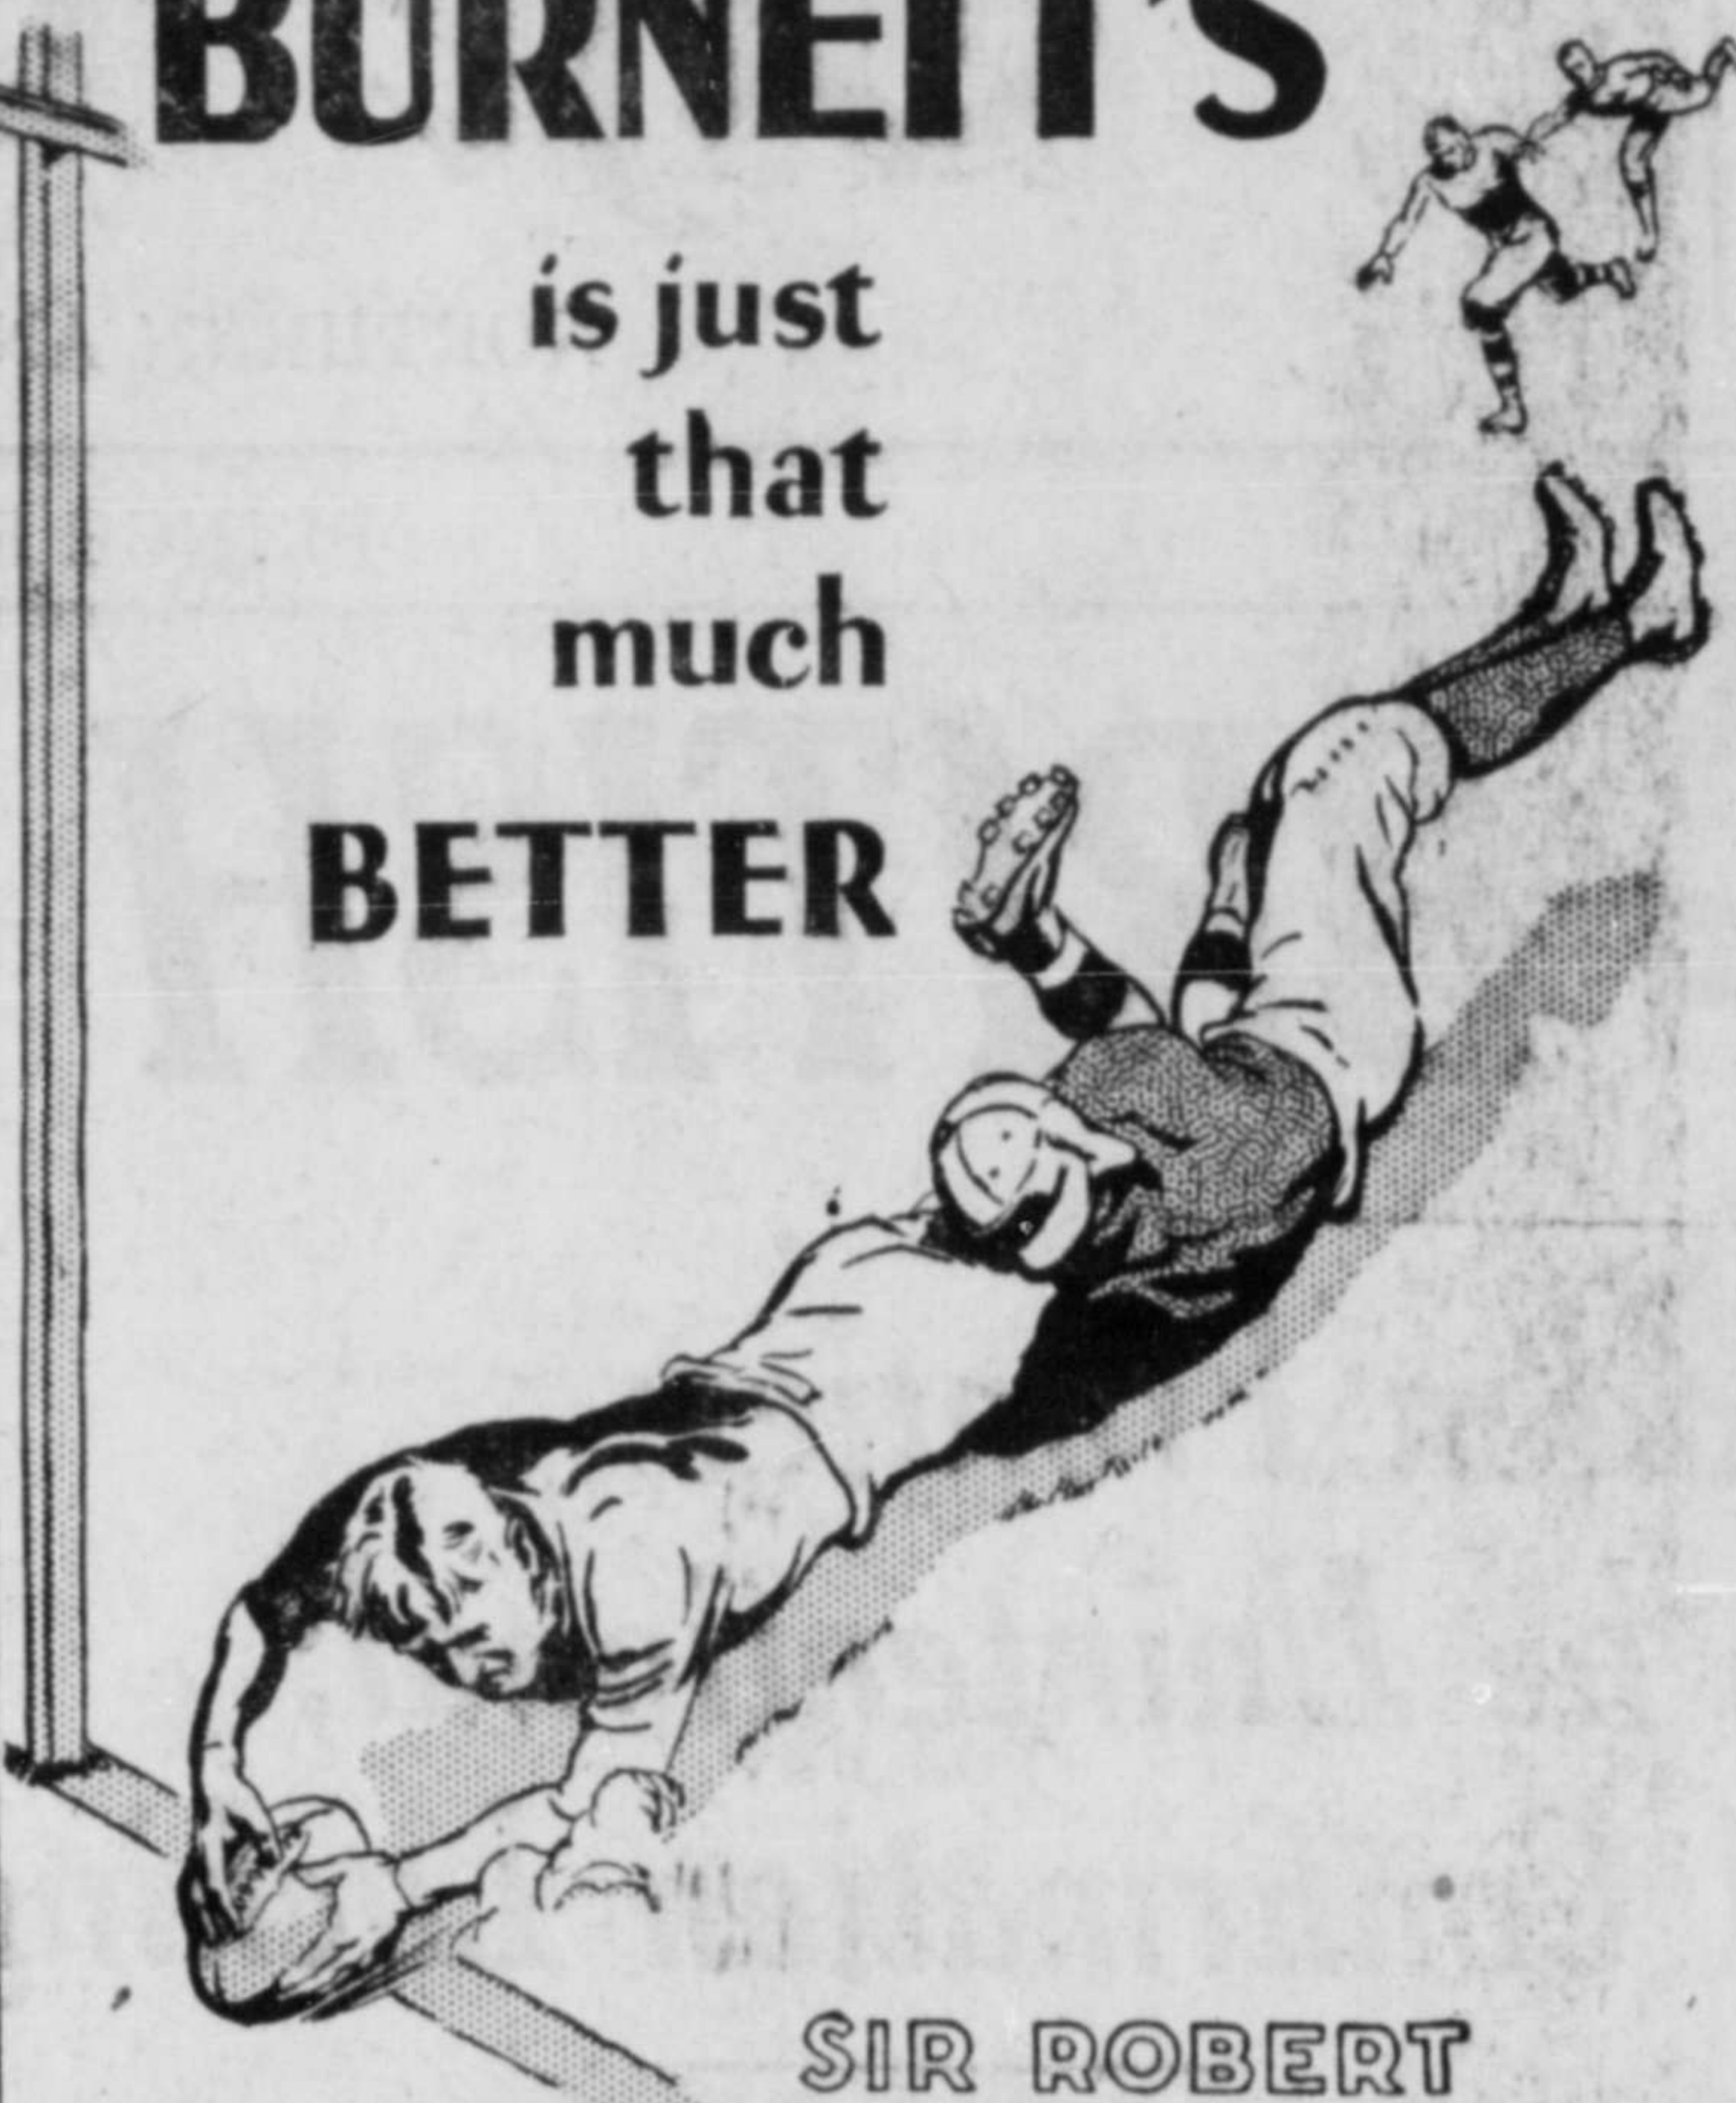

Now sing the National Anthem And let us sing it hearty, And let us all forget for good, Every destruction party.

Righteousness, justice, peace and a square deal for the other fellow were an inherent part of British ideals. Youths of today must recognize the necessity of preparing themselves for the future. True sportsmanship, playing fair with themselves, their bodies, minds and spirit and a high objective would help youth to "accomplish the impossible."

The presentation of the Governor-General's medal for the leading pupil in this district, which includes different inspectorates, was made to Alf Wikdal, formerly of Booth Memorial School. City Commissioner W. J. Alder congratulated the recipient on his success which could only have been achieved at considerable effort. He congratulated the other pupils who were there to receive their entrance certificates which he then presented. He paid a tribute to the splendid work of the teaching staffs.

Very enjoyable vocal selections by Mrs. A. J. Webber and Miss Lois Ludge and a splendidly rendered pianoforte duet by Mrs. A. L. Stamford and Mrs. E. J. Smith were features of the program. Miss M. A. Way and Mrs. E. J. Smith were accompanists.

Miss E. A. Mercer thanked the speakers and artists for their contributions to the program. Mrs. D. C. Stuart presided.

A. Darkes, stores inspector of the Canadian National Railways from Port Mann, after a brief visit here on official business, will sail on the Prince George tonight returning south.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Giske, Mrs. Inge Giske, Harry Hansen and Hans Busch left on last evening's train for New York where they will embark October 23 aboard the steamer Bergensfjord for Norway to spend the winter.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Frank Waterhouse freighter Northholm, which has been undergoing extensive hull repairs at the local dry dock following her stranding a few weeks ago in Grenville Channel, south of here, is expected to be taken off the pontoons by Saturday of this week. Early next week the vessel should be ready to resume service.

The volume of halibut landings at this port during the present week has been quite substantial considering the fact that all the fish is now coming from the remote banks of Area No. 3 and, further, that the weather has been none too favorable. There has been fish in every day since last Saturday except on Tuesday. Today the Northern (American) is in with 38,000 pounds but is holding over until tomorrow.

It is now expected that Capt. James Findlay will be assigned to permanent command of the steamer Catala, which was in port from 10:45 Tuesday morning to 1:30 in the afternoon southbound from Stewart and Anxoy to Vancouver. Like Capt. A. E. Dickson, who has been stricken with paralysis in Vancouver and who is hardly expected to be able to return to sea again, Capt. Findlay is a well known and highly esteemed veteran shipmaster of this coast.

Making her final call of the season at this port, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 2:30 this afternoon from Skagway and other Alaska points and will sail at 3:30 p.m. for Vancouver. The vessel has on board a good sized list of passengers including a large number of northerners going south for the winter. Taking up the run for the winter, the steamer Princess Norah will be here next Monday morning northbound.

Northland Transportation Co.'s motorship Northland, Capt. Len Williams, arrived in port at 9 o'clock Tuesday night from Ketchikan and, after discharging three cars of frozen and fresh fish for trans-shipment over Canadian National Railways, sailed for Seattle.

The movement of 1935 wheat from the northern prairies to the Alberta Wheat Pool's elevator is now in steady swing. Today some 200 cars were reported on the way here, seventy-two having already arrived. Each train from the East is now bringing in grain.

Joseph Wickett of the Canadian National Railways city ticket office on Tuesday night showed at a meeting of Oddfellows an interesting display of scenic pictures of scenes in London, along the south coast of England, big game hunting in the Canadian Rockies and scenes around Maligne Lake in Jasper Park. There were about thirty-five members of the lodge present and the display was much appreciated.

BAKING WHOLE FISH

Baking a fish whole takes a little more time than cooking fillets, and means a little bit more work, but the resultant dish is fish food in one of its tastiest forms. And, in reality, the dish is quite easily prepared, if the housewife follows these instructions, which are quoted from the booklet, Fish and How to Cook It, which was prepared by Mrs. Evelyne Spencer, late cookery specialist of the Dominion Department of Fisheries:

"Clean and scale the fish; cut off the fins with a pair of scissors. Leave on the head and tail. Rub the fish with salt inside. Stuff the belly cavity with any preferred stuffing, and sew it up. Secure the fish, if a long one, with a skewer in the shape of the letter 'S' or, if too large, in a semi-circle, tying it with a string from head to tail to hold it in shape. Brush the fish all over with oil from a pastry brush and place it on its belly in an oiled dripping pan. Put it in a very hot oven for the first 10 to 15 minutes until it has begun to brown, then reduce the heat and bake from 30 to 45 minutes, according to the thickness, allowing 10 minutes for each pound up to four pounds and then five minutes for each additional pound. Lift out, place on a hot platter, remove the string, and garnish in any preferred way. A potato ball or a sprig of parsley may be placed in the fish's mouth and the space within the semi-circle filled with potato balls in a cream sauce with minced parsley."

GOING IN FOR SEED

PRINCE GEORGE, Oct. 16.—The Prince George farmers have shipped the first carload of alskie seed raised in the district and there are at least two more to follow.

During the past several years government officials, representing the Dominion and provincial departments of agriculture, have consistently year after year recommended alskie seed production.

Clover grows like a weed but the settlers were not familiar with handling the crop for seed and were reluctant to give up the remunerative market for hay which existed during construction of highways and railroad. The lumber camps required a certain amount of this food and were willing to pay a good price. Conditions have changed. Railway and highway construction is completed, lumber camps have introduced machinery where horses were used previously and the remunerative market for hay gradually diminished.

Several farmers in the Prince George and Woodpecker districts were producing small quantities for local consumption but insufficient to be a factor on the open market. The condition has changed with this year's crop and settlers have demonstrated to their own satisfaction that they can produce the finest quality alskie seed in paying quantities and that they enjoy a ready market for their crop. The yield this year ranges from 200 to 500 pounds to the acre and total production in the district approximates ninety tons. William Rennie and Co. Ltd., Vancouver, purchased the entire output.

This cash crop is a boost for the farmers and will tend to make the Prince George area one of the safest districts in Canada in which to practice mixed farming.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pearcey, who were recently married in Vancouver, were passengers aboard the Prince George yesterday bound for Premier where they will take up residence, Mr. Pearcey being mine superintendent for the Premier Co.
