HEALTH OF NURSES IN HOSPITAL

Board Has Report From Medical Association—Heating Plant at Nurses' Home Discussed

There was some discussion at last night's meeting of the hospital board of a report recently made by the Prince Rupert Medical Association in regard to the health of the nursing staff and conditions at the hospital and nurses' home in regard to same.

The house committee, which has the matter in hand, asked for further time to consider the report before passing upon it. There were certain recommendations of a contentious nature, Frank Dibb, chairman of the house committee, stated, and it was felt advisable that the committee should have another meeting.

The committee reported that a survey had been made of the heating system at the Nurses' Home by C. H. Elkins who had reported that the boiler was sufficiently large to carry the required load and that there was adequate radiation with possibly more than necessary on the first floor. It might be advisable to have a test of the circulation. Such a test, the board thought, should be carried out by Mr. Elkins.

The necessity of regular firing to ensure efficient heating was discussed, this bringing up the question of the advisability of installing an automatic iron fireman for coal or an automatic oil burner.

LABORITES IN SESSION

Working Conditions Here to Be Investigated—Abolition of Camps Demanded

The Prince Rupert Trades & Labor Council was in regular monthly session Thursday night with President S. D. Macdonald in the chair. Various matters of interest to organized labor were taken up. There was a fairly good attendance.

A communication from Adam Bell, deputy minister of labor, announced that an inspector of minimum wages and hours of work was to be sent here to make a thorough check-up of the whole situation. A communication from Premier Pattullo promised a thorough investigation. Complaints were again received regarding the local reduction plant.

The annual donation of $5 was made to the Canadian Institute for the Blind.

Harold Winch M. L. A. had a letter before the council, comparing the social program of the C. C. F. with legislation put into effect by the Pattullo government. Actually very little social legislation in the interests of labor had been enacted by the government, Mr. Winch declared.

The council passed a resolution demanding the abolition of federal relief camps.

At last night's meeting of the hospital board, President S. D. Macdonald tendered to Miss Jean Harrison R.N., lady superintendent, the congratulations of the board at having been awarded a King's Silver Jubilee medal. Pleasure was also expressed at Miss Harrison's recovery from a recent illness.

Hospital Ticket Plan is Drawing Little Interest

The executive committee of the hospital board last night reported that petition forms for a system of hospital treatment tickets here by payment of regular monthly fees were meeting with little response. Little enthusiasm for such a project was being displayed, the general disposition appearing to be that it would be advisable to wait and see what legislation in regard to state health insurance the government might bring in next year. This view was shared by delegates to the Trades & Labor Council, President S. D. Macdonald stated.

Certain advertising will be done in the press next week drawing attention to the petitions.

IS CHOSEN MAY QUEEN

Emily Christopher to Reign Over Elks' Flag Day With June Gomez and Marie Schaffer As Maids of Honor

Miss Sally Christopher of Borden Street School has been chosen May Queen in connection with the annual Elks' Flag Day on May 24. Maids of honor will be Miss June Gomez of Booth Memorial School and Miss Marie Schaffer of Annunciation School. Flower girls will be little Misses Madeline Hougan, Pat Beasley, Helen Balagno and Fay Ingram.

Mrs. James Gillett and daughter, Miss Ruth Gillett, arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide last evening and proceeded aboard the steamer Prince John to their home at Massett.

State Administrations In Australia Returned To Power in Elections

Premier Stevens and United Australia Party Have Margin Slightly Cut in New South Wales While Smith and Laborites Hold Queensland

SYDNEY, Aust., May 11: (CP)—Returns early Sunday from Saturday's state elections in New South Wales and Queensland indicate the return of the governments in both instances. Premier Stevens, heading the United Australia party, has a slightly reduced majority over Labor in New South Wales while Premier Smith, in Queensland, heading the Labor Party, has a slightly increased standing.

Repairs to Fair Building Ordered

Foundations Must Be Made More Safe Before Fair Hall Can Be Used For Public Gatherings

City Engineer F. N. Good is issuing orders that repairs must be made to the foundation of the Fair Building before it can again be used as a public assembly place. Posts which support the building were recently inspected and found to be in bad shape.

Funeral Notice

The funeral of the late Peter Black will take place Monday afternoon at 2 from the First Presbyterian Church. The remains will arrive tonight from Montreal and will lie in state at the B. C. Undertakers until Monday noon.

Improvement Of Grounds at Home For Nurses Here

At the suggestion of G. P. Tinker, chairman of the grounds committee, the hospital board last night appropriated an amount of $75 to be used in improvement work on the grounds around the Nurses' Home. It is planned to clear brush on the east side of the home, fill in with soil and make a garden. There will also be improvements around the main entrance to the home.

Members of the board were in favor of the idea of making an appropriation each year for gradual extension of grounds improvements.

It was felt that little could be done on the main hospital grounds until they were fenced in.

Capt. W. P. Armour, head of the Armour Salvage Co., returned to the city on the Princess Adelaide last evening from a ten-day business trip to Vancouver.

Report Given On Convention

Miss Molly Delaney Speaker at High School Teachers' Meeting

The Northern High School Teachers' Association held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. G. E. Gulick on Borden Street.

Miss Molly Delaney, lately returned from a visit to Victoria, gave an account of the activities carried out at the Easter convention. Of special interest to her audience was her mention of the progress being made in the formation of an organization which will be of special service to secondary school teachers.

The serving of refreshments brought the evening to a pleasant close.

Is Up to Controllers Of Capital to Right Today's Economic Ills

Former Minister of Trade and Commerce Would Order Financial and Industrial Barons to Assume Task, Failing Which Government Should Take Control

TORONTO, May 11: (CP)—Canada today faces Fascism, controlled by a wealthy few, or Marxism, established by "destructive revolt" of the people, Hon. H. H. Stevens, former minister of trade and commerce, stated in an address to the Association of Accountants and Auditors last night. Mr. Stevens said that thirteen Canadian capitalists, one of whom controls $4,000,000,000 of industrial wealth and another of whom holds forty-two salaried jobs in different corporations, should be called into conference with officers of loan, insurance and trust companies. They should be peremptorily ordered to "shoulder the task of righting Canadian affairs."

"If they failed to assume that task within one month, I would say to them that the government would assume control that they (the controllers of capital) have now and do it."

It was time, said Mr. Stevens, that the governments stepped in and took some action and the federal government, as the leader, should head the provinces.

Jubilee Ward At Hospital Under Discussion Now

The hospital board last night authorized Managing Secretary H. V. Birch to co-operate with the King's Silver Jubilee committee in obtaining figures on the furnishing of a private ward in the Prince Rupert General Hospital from a portion of the fund cleared as a result of the Jubilee celebration this week. Some $150 will probably be available from the fund for this purpose. Appreciation was expressed by members of the board for the offer.

A delegation consisting of Jack Preece, F. A. MacCallum and D. G. Borland conferred yesterday afternoon with Miss Jean Harrison R.N., lady superintendent, and H. W. Birch, managing-secretary, in regard to the proposed Jubilee ward.

IMPROVING OF GROUNDS

Fine Work Being Done by City Police—New View Look-Out Is Being Put In

Sergeant G. H. Greenwood, chief of the city detachment of the provincial police, has laid out an extensive plan of improvements for the hillside alongside the City Hall overlooking Fulton Street. Upon completion of the work, the surroundings there will be greatly enhanced and another attractive look-out point for citizens and tourists will have been provided.

A branch is being put in from the main pathway leading up the side of the hill from Fulton Street to Agnew Place, the new trail to lead to the crest of the hill in front of G. W. Nickerson's residence. Here it is planned to put in a rustic bower with fence and seats.

Extensive ground improvement work including the putting in of new garden plots is also being undertaken.

Advised to Make Himself Scarce

Thomas (Red) Dunn, Alleged "Slicker," Falls Into Hands of Police and is Fined

Thomas D. S. Dunn, who hails from Wolseley, Sask., was in police court before Magistrate McClymont yesterday and, after being fined $10 and costs on a charge of vagrancy, was advised to keep going not only from the city but also from the province. Dunn, who has a lengthy criminal record for larceny and other offences, had, it is alleged, attempted to victimize local merchants by short changing them with the "fast" manipulation of $5 and $10 bills. It is a stunt which he is said to have carried out elsewhere and for which he was convicted in Grand Forks. He had previously operated with a partner, Dunn, nicknamed "Red" owing to the flaming color of his hair, is also said to have posed while here as a canvasser for magazine subscriptions. He left for the east on last night's train.

TOTEM CITY OF THE NORTH

It is the aim of Commissioner Alder to make Prince Rupert the totem city of the north and, as such, one of the great attractions to tourists visiting here. To attain this end, ten poles have been secured for the city by the cooperation of the Indian Department.

Indian Agent James Gillett of Massett has been active in helping to secure the poles, five of which have already arrived here and another five will be brought across from the Islands soon, the Canadian National Steamships providing free transportation. The poles are free gifts from the natives on the islands, the condition of gift being that each pole shall bear an engraved plate with the donor's name inscribed thereon.

It is planned to set up the poles in Acropolis Hill Park fronting on the Exhibition Building arranged in such a way that they may be part of the setting for a model Indian village at some future date. In the meantime a good deal of work must be done in renovating the poles and placing them in position, as some of them are in rather poor condition.

As Acropolis Hill is the only point from which visitors can view the city to advantage it is felt that it would be the best place for the poles. Plans are also laid for improving the grounds where the poles are to be erected, laying out paths and making the road more inviting for motor traffic. Possibly other poles may be secured later so that Prince Rupert may be the most important totem centre for the whole coast.

So many of the best totems have been taken away that it is difficult to secure any but those which are more or less dilapidated. However, those being brought here are large and strong and with proper care will last for many years. Where they lay on the islands they were of no value. As Prince Rupert is the central meeting point for natives in this north country, the poles will still be something exclusively theirs and visitors will be given opportunity of studying the native art of carving. Possibly other villages may like to have one or more of their poles added to the collection with a suitable plate telling where it comes from and the name of the donors.

Except for the sports ground, Acropolis Hill has never been developed as a park and yet it has the finest view of the city and harbor and can be made a very beautiful place. The placing of the totems there would be the first step toward making it something more than it is today.

The thanks of the community are due to Commissioner Alder, Rev. J. Gillett, the C. N. R. and the natives who will have all co-operated in the work so far. It should not be difficult to get the poles erected although there is yet a good deal to do before they are in place.

TALKS OF DICTATOR

Rev. John Linney Addresses Special Pentecostal Meeting

Last evening a special service was held in the Pentecostal Assembly and Rev. John Linney of Terrace spoke before a good attendance.

Mr. Linney took his text from John 5-43: "I am come in My Father's Name, and ye receive me not. If another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." Lord Ponsbury had discussed recently the possibility of a dictator for Great Britain and, although he stated there was no revolutionary movement ready to explode nor anyone capable or desirous of fostering it, the fact remained that dictators were a topic of the day.

The world has now eleven countries governed by dictators. Before any of these could grasp the reins of government, the country must be in such condition that it was unable to govern. A complete collapse of the present system was at hand. World conditions, in the opinion of all in a position to know, called for a man of super-power to take control and set the wheels of prosperity going and to restore order and peace in the world.

Mr. Linney then showed how the Gentile dominion began with Babylon and in the reign of Nebuchadnezzar was controlled by a political, religious dictator.

From time to time, world leaders had been looked upon as supernatural men—almost as gods. In the opinion of the speaker the world was ripe for a world dictator.

Mr. Linney then showed from Revelations, 18, (12-13th verses) the inventory of this coming man of power. Gold comes first, for gold is earthly power but that which is of the highest values comes last—the soul.

The evangelist drew a comparison between Christ and the coming dictator, as to whom should be custodian of men's souls. Christ put values in their right place. He put souls first and He gave His life upon the Cross of Calvary, bringing eternal life to all who had faith and believed. The coming world dictator failing to put values in their right place cannot hope to claim worship from the immortal souls of men. This the speaker claimed rightly belongs to Christ.

Junior Moose Hold Bridge and Dance

Affair Last Night Was Both Successful and Enjoyable

The bridge party and dance held last evening in the Moose Hall under the sponsorship of the Junior Moose Lodge proved to be very successful. Cards were enjoyed during the early part of the evening followed by dancing. Julius Welle's Orchestra supplied the music.

Prize winners at cards were: ladies' first, Mrs. H. Skattebol; second Mrs. R. Long; men's first, George Rudderham; second, Charles Graham. A special prize of a roast of pork donated by the Family Market was won by Mrs. P. Wingham who occupied the lucky chair.

"Mother"

I often think of songs my Mother sang to me,
I think I'd like to hear them once again,
She sang them, oh, so sweet
While I sat at her feet!
I seem to think, I hear that old refrain:

Jesus lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly.

I think of little joys with me she used to share,
We always ran to Mother with our care,
Those memories still cling
As gently she would sing
I'm sure we love to hear this old refrain:

When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Thank God for Mothers! Let this be our daily prayer,
While through this world we gladly sing along,
These memories remain,
As we sing them once again,
Praise God! We'll always love these old refrains.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

—W. VAUGHAN DAVIES.

Preparations for the annual graduation of nurses next week were well in hand.

Harry McDonald, purser of the steamer Princess Elaine on the Vancouver-Nanaimo run, arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide last evening from the south. He is here to relieve W. L. Coates, general agent for the Canadian Pacific, who is leaving next Tuesday afternoon on the Princess Norah for a vacation trip south during which he will attend the district convention of the Rotary Club at Bellingham.

Will meet at 8 o'clock

At 10:30 last night the fire department had a call to the residence of Phil Edgcombe in the Wallace Block where there was a chimney fire. No damage was done.

C. R. Allum of the local staff of the Bank of Montreal sailed last night on the Princess Adelaide for Vancouver enroute to his home at Enderby where he will spend a holiday.

The iron fireman of the hospital heating plant is being given a general overhaul and chimneys are to be given their annual sweeping. It was reported to the board at its meeting last night by the house committee.

Graduating Class Honored at Party

Festivities For Five New Nurses Commence With Delightful Dance in Nurses' Home

First function in connection with the graduation of nurses this year from the Prince Rupert General Hospital took place last night in the form of a delightful party at the Nurses' Home by the nursing staff in honor of the new graduates. Music for dancing was furnished by Charlie Balagno's Orchestra. Delicious refreshments were served. About forty young people were present.

The graduation exercises will take place next Wednesday night at First Presbyterian Church followed by a reception in the Oddfellows' Hall.

The graduates are Misses Winnifred M. Eby, Elizabeth E. Killer, Gunborg H. Pearson, Jane T. Potts and Ruth C. Wilkinson.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

Waterfront Business Back to Normal—Vancouver Yacht Due Here Tomorrow Enroute North—Ocean Falls Flying Boat Due Monday

Business on the local waterfront has been getting noticeably back to normal following the recent settlement of the halibut fishermen's strike. The past week has been a busy one not only for waterfront but some of the uptown stores in outfitting of the entire local fleet preparatory to its departure for the banks in the usual way with the fishermen on board. Everywhere satisfaction is being expressed at the ending of the tie-up and, even though fish prices may not be quite as high just now as they might be, hope is expressed that the ultimate results from the tie-up may not be so adversely extensive. Many local boats put out during the week on their first trips of the season.

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the season up to yesterday had reached a total of 1,339,300 pounds of which 693,100 pounds has been from Canadian vessels and 646,200 pounds from American. For the week landing totalled but 219,000 pounds including 101,200 pounds from Canadian boats and 118,000 pounds from American. There were a number of short catches this week owing to the westerly winds and rough weather which has been prevailing out side of late. Prices continued at a rather low level during the week running from 5c to 5.4c for Canadian fish and from 5c to 6.7c for American.

The fifty-foot Vancouver power yacht Camilla, with its owner George Ankle, and party on board is due in port tomorrow from the south enroute to Alaska and will be joined here by Frank Fitch, local immigration officer, who will make the trip north as a holiday Taku River and other points will be visited and it is expected the Camilla will spend about three weeks north of here.

Passengers going north aboard the steamer Princess Norah yesterday afternoon included W. D. Gordon, superintendent of the river division of the Yukon & White Pass Route, and many members of the crews of the Yukon River boats hours late. She sailed a couple of hours later on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The vessel had been in the Skeena River since last evening discharging freight at the canneries. Next week the company is putting the steamer Venture on the run from Vancouver to Rivers Inlet. This will relieve the Cardena of a number of calls and, from now on, she should arrive here on Friday afternoons or evenings as scheduled.

Armour Salvage Co.'s power tug Daly, which has been on a trip to Vancouver with a scowload of machinery and equipment salvaged from the B. C. Packers cold storage plant at Claxton, which was destroyed by fire last summer, is due back from the south within a couple of days. The Pachena made a short trip to Digby Island with a scowload of fifty tons of coal for the marine and wireless stations yesterday.

The only halibut boat in with a catch today is the Tramp, having 16,000 pounds. It is holding over until Monday.

Miss Hampton Is Winner Of Congoleum Rug

Miss Helen Hampton was the lucky winner of the Gold Seal Congoleum rug in the guessing contest conducted by MacKenzie Furniture. There were a large number of entries and H. F. Pullen and A. H. Sullivan were the judges. The number in the sealed envelope was 3084 and Miss Hampton chose 3102. The second nearest was 3035, guessed by J. A. Morrison.

Private settlement was reached in a police court case in which J. Pierre was charged by his wife with non-support.
