SEVERAL REVISIONS ON CITY BUILDING VALUES ALLOWED

Heart Broken After Fiances Lose Lives, Two Sisters Suicide

Leaped 1500 Feet From Paris-Bound Plane Near Upminster, England—Were Daughters of United States Consul General Coert Dubois at Naples

UPMINSTER, England, Feb. 21: (CP)—Two beautiful sisters, Elizabeth Dubois, aged 23, and Jane Dubois, 20, daughters of Coert Dubois, United States consul general at Naples, plunged 1500 feet to death from an airplane near here today. Friends said they had started on their last flight, heart-broken over the recent deaths of their prospective husbands, two Royal Air Force officers, who were killed a few days ago in the crash of a Singapore-bound plane near Messina, Italy. They fell while Paris-bound on a passenger plane in which they had reserved all eight seats. Horrified witnesses said they plummeted to the ground "clashed hand in hand in a last embrace."

Two sealed letters were found in the plane after the pilot had discovered the "absence" of the girls some time after they had fallen. One letter was addressed to their father and the other to their mother. The contents were not disclosed.

ROSE SHOW SUGGESTED

Matter Will be Decided at Dinner Meeting of Horticultural Society in Near Future

Other Activities

Executive Will Make Number of Recommendations to Gathering of Flower Growers

At a meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert Horticultural Society held last night, it was decided to make the annual general meeting of the association a dinner meeting at a date to be arranged within the next two weeks. It will be open to all who are interested in gardening. Tickets will be limited to one hundred. A suitable program will be arranged by the officers of the society.

It will be recommended to the general meeting that the second annual rose show be held this year along somewhat similar lines to last year and that steps be taken to hold an exhibition of spring flowers next year.

It will also be recommended that prizes be given this year for the best spring garden. Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Mandy, who were present at the meeting promised to donate the first prize, the second to be provided by the society unless donated by some individual.

No definite recommendation will be made in regard to giving prizes for the best gardens in the city as it was understood the Junior Chamber of Commerce had some similar scheme in view. The opinion of the executive seemed to be that there should be several classes such as rock gardens, gardens on single city lots, on more than one lot and possibly the most unique garden. A report on this will be prepared.

Secretary C. V. Evitt read the financial statement which was a very satisfactory one. It will be submitted to the general meeting.

The executive will recommend to the society that it take no part in the importation of roses this year but that it co-operate with those who are taking up the matter commercially. A report from Phil Edgumbe stated that he was meeting with great success in his canvass of the city and that he hoped to import a good many more than the thousand trees already on order. The meeting was strongly in favor of supporting Mr. Edgumbe in his excellent work.

LUNCHEON IS GIVEN

A. E. Warren, General Manager of Railway and B. T. Chappell, Guests of Chamber

"I should like to see more use made of the harbor of Prince Rupert but I do not see what we can do about it," said A. E. Warren, general manager of the Western Region of the Canadian National Railways, at a luncheon given in his honor by the executive of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. "It is a splendid harbor but the business of the railway is to carry goods, not to route them."

"We have just completed a survey of the whole line between here and Red Pass Junction," continued Mr. Warren, "and we are turning the report over to the industrial department to see what they can do about it."

Mr. Warren emphasized that the interests of the railway were the interests of the citizens of Prince Rupert. He was glad to say there was an excellent feeling existing between them. The railway had already paid its taxes and he would like to see more business coming this way. The railway was very much interested in making this end of the railway pay. He thanked the Chamber of Commerce for the excellent reception it had given himself and Mr. Chappell. He said he was not a talker and made no promises except that he would do anything reasonable to help improve conditions.

Mr. Chappell

British Steamer Frumenton Gets Away With Full Cargo for U. K. or Continent

With the largest cargo of grain ever loaded out of this port, the British freighter Frumenton sailed early this afternoon with a full cargo for the United Kingdom or Continent. Good time had been made in loading the vessel which had been in port since noon Sunday.

New wheat continues to move steadily into the elevator from the prairies, the policy being to keep the house full with more grain arriving to take the place of that which is moved out.

There was no word up to today of any further boats coming here at this time to load grain.

Railway Company Given Cut of Seven and Half Percent in Assessment

Changes in Valuations of Improvements in Various Sections are Granted Including Canadian National Buildings, Old Westholme Theatre and Masonic Temple

Allowing reductions on land valuations in only two cases—a seven and one-half percent cut on property of the Canadian National Railways not alienated but including all property under Plan 1566 abutting on Second Avenue and a reduction from $2385 to $1500 in parcel No. 30, Section Seven, for the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association—but making revisions in a number of the assessments on improvements including buildings of the Canadian National Railways, the old Westholme Theatre building and the Masonic Temple, City Commissioner W. J. Alder this morning rendered his decisions at the civic court of revision which was thereupon declared closed.

The City Commissioner pointed out that the assessor at the start had given a ten percent reduction all around on land this year. Also, for the first time in the history of the city, there had been a proper appraisal of buildings by competent builders as a result of which he believed there was now a pretty fair valuation.

The reductions allowed, all on buildings with the exception of the Canadian National Railways and the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association's acreage, were as follows: Canadian National Railways, Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Co., land 7½% reduction; Canadian National Railways, buildings reduced from $648,135 to $633,460. S. J. Jabour, Lot 23, Block 9, Section 1, $1800 to $1500. Chas. Vess Estate, 9, 15, 7, $750 to $500; 10, 15, 7, $900 to $750. A. H. Hale, 1, 1, 1, $1800 to $1500. E. E. CO-OPERATION IS THEME

Co-operation between the railway company and the city of Prince Rupert was the theme at the informal little luncheon yesterday given by the executive of the Chamber of Commerce to A. E. Warren and B. T. Chappell, high officials of the railway company. All speakers agreed that in order to bring best results there must be a spirit of helpfulness on both sides. The fortunes of the city and the railway company are closely linked one with the other. If one is successful it follows that the other must be. Support of the railway by citizens is just as necessary as is an effort to accommodate the public by the railway company.

A NEW ERA

Railways no longer have a monopoly of the carrying business and for that reason alone it becomes necessary that they shall take every means of catering to the public. The advent of the motor car and truck has played havoc with railway business in some areas. The airplanes will in the near future be also a big factor in transportation. To meet this competition will undoubtedly be the aim of the railways and to correlate it should be the duty of the statesman. We cannot afford to lose our railways but we also want our motor cars and our airplanes. This is the era of change which necessitates in all lines of business adaptation to rapidly changing conditions. The organization that is not ready to adapt itself is very quickly eliminated from the picture.

RECIPROCITY AGAIN

Once more we are told that we are about to have a reciprocity arrangement with the United States. We were told so over twenty years ago but at that time the people who are now arranging this pact got out with a Union Jack in both hands and waved the flags with such effect that the Canadian people took fright and turned down the proposal as well as the government that advocated it. It was the last fight of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier and though it was a losing fight at that time victory seems likely to come now by the conversion of his political enemies to his policy.

TO DEVELOP A NATION'S RESOURCES

In 1842, following the union of Upper and Lower Canada, when the Bank opened a branch at Toronto to succeed the agency there, and established offices in nine other cities of Upper Canada, the Honourable Peter McGill, then president of the Bank, explained why the directors had entered upon a policy of establishing branches or agencies in the then western province:

"The Legislature having conferred on the Bank important privileges, and authorized the creation and employment of a large capital, the Board, instead of concentrating it all in the large cities, felt it to be their duty gradually to extend throughout the province the benefits derivable from the use of it by the establishment of branches and agencies at such points and in such localities as appeared to them best calculated to encourage and assist the agriculture and commerce of the country, to develop its resources, and to promote the increase of its exportable productions.

Even before the union of Upper and Lower Canada, the Bank sought constantly to encourage those factors in trade which would contribute effectively to the up-building of the country—a purpose which is as strong today as ever.

How a Pale, Run-down Girl Became Positively PRETTY

In a Canadian city a certain girl consulted an authority who examined her, weighed her and tested a sample of her blood. The test showed the haemoglobin in her blood to be only 10% instead of the normal 40% to 50% for a woman. Her weight was 100 pounds. With her blood testing 10% haemoglobin, it was only natural for this young woman to be pale and colorless, and lacking in pep and energy, because haemoglobin is not only the coloring material in the blood, it is also the precious element which carries the vitalizing, energizing oxygen from the lungs to every organ and tissue of the body.

What Her Advisor Told Her To Do

The authority instructed the girl to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills (called pink because they have a pink sugar coating) three times a day for a month and return for another blood test. He knew the formula for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and recognized their value and safety.

A month later this patient's blood had been so greatly enriched that the haemoglobin had increased 70%. Her weight had increased to 100 1/2 pounds—a nine-pound gain. In the words of her advisor, "She had a lot more pep, her face had rounded out and she was positively pretty". Her complexion had the glow caused by rich, red, healthy blood. She was revitalized and strengthened with new stores of vigor and energy, and appeared just as fresh and attractive as the girl whose photo is shown above.

Try This Beauty and Health Treatment Yourself

If your face is thin and haggard, your complexion pale, sallow and old-looking, your body underweight, your digestion poor, your nerves bad, your blood thin, your energy below par, take the tried and proven blood builder, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It's a genuine complexion beautifier and a builder of health and vigor. Your druggist has it—50¢ a package. 344 is in the BRAND you buy?

The popularity of bran as a cereal to promote regular habits has brought forth all kinds of bran products. Some of these contain only a small quantity of bran. Naturally, many purchasers have been disappointed by certain of these products.

It's the actual amount of bran in a cereal that counts. Most individuals require an all-bran product for effective results. Bran furnishes the "bulk" needed to correct common constipation. Within the body, this "bulk" absorbs moisture and forms a soft mass. Gently, this clears out the intestinal wastes.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the most popular product of its kind in the world. It is used regularly, with success, by millions of people. It is all bran just as the name implies—with nothing added except the flavor of Malt, Sugar and Salt.

Whenever you purchase bran, read the wording on the package. Make sure by getting Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—in the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers.
