HIGH COURT DISMISSES CELONA APPEAL

Reconstruction Party Leader's Family

Copyright, 1935, by National Press, Toronto.

Though in the limelight for many years, Hon. H. H. Stevens, leader of the new Reconstruction party, has never publicized his family. Mrs. Stevens and her two sons and three daughters were virtually unknown to Canadians. Today, because of the widespread interest aroused since Stevens assumed the leadership of a fourth major party, they could no longer remain in the background. The above layout, the first ever published, shows Top (left to right) Douglas Carlyle Stevens, 19, a student at Queen's University, Kingston, and Rev. Francis H. Stevens, 28, pastor of the Britannia Beach, B.C. United Church, and now leader of the Stevens Youth Movement. Centre, Hon. H. H. Stevens and Mrs. Stevens. Bottom, Mrs. James E. Lovick, 27, of Vancouver, whose husband is taking a leading organization part in that city, and Miss Patricia Ireen Stevens, 22, youngest daughter, who is now assisting at Ottawa party headquarters. A third daughter, Sylvia Mary, died some time ago.

THE POLITICAL CORNER

WHY SEND PANTER TO OTTAWA?

Mr. Woodsworth, leader of the C. C. F. party, says that he has no desire at this time to form a government and is not putting sufficient candidates in the field to control the House even if they were all elected.

In other words, he wishes to form a group in the House to criticize, harry, and pursue obstructionist tactics against whatever government may come into power.

This is precisely what the C. C. F. has been doing at Victoria in the Provincial Legislature, and with what results?

The young Mr. Winch answered the question when speaking here some time ago. He said, "We have not been able to accomplish anything yet to speak of in Victoria."

And this is precisely what is going to happen if Mr. Panther is sent to Ottawa.

He will not accomplish anything to speak of. And how could he be expected to?

If we elect an opponent of the government how can we hope for any favors for this constituency? Too long we have had a member sitting in the Opposition. It is time now to send a government supporter to Ottawa who can do something for this riding.

It is all right for idealists to say that we should not send members to Ottawa for what they can do for their constituency, but this idealism is a poor substitute for a decent chance to make an honest living which comes with increased prosperity.

THE THREE PARTIES

This is a time when people are considering how they may vote on the fourteenth. There are three candidates nominated for the one position. By voting Conservative, we vote for high and higher tariffs which benefit the east and tax the west. Conservatives stand for carrying on in the old way, making the rich richer and the poor poorer, if that could be possible. That is Conservatism no matter how it be camouflaged to make it appear more attractive to the worker.

Liberalism stands for changes which are in the interests of the consumer. It stands for lower tariffs, for making money the servant instead of the master of the people, for controlled inflation through the medium of a national bank and most Liberals believe in the Pattullo policy of using the national credit to finance necessary public works to provide work and wages for the unemployed.

The third party known as the Canadian Co-operative Commonwealth is a party that bases its platform on Marxian socialism and in this province none but socialists are accepted as candidates by the central council at Vancouver. The socialist platform provides for the taking over of all industries, land and banks and operating them co-operatively. It also provides for a dictatorship of the proletariat under which none but socialists have a say in the government of the country. In the only country under a proletarian dictatorship, the dictators rule with an iron hand, using secret police and spies in order to hunt down those who are opposed to their policy. The third party, popularly known as the C. C. F., has also a program of moderate reforms based largely on the Liberal policy but the leaders declare that these reforms are only steps toward the total elimination of private ownership of industries, banks and land. The difference between the C. C. F. and the Communists is that the former declare their intention of bringing about the change by constitutional means, if possible, whereas the Communists openly declare that force will have to be used and that nothing but an open rebellion can make the change. In other words they are declared rebels.

TERRACE

Last Thursday evening the local Canadian Legion held its regular monthly meeting. It was decided to celebrate Armistice Day in some suitable way and it was also decided to erect a flag pole at the soldier's plot in the burial ground.

After a week of cool showery weather, it has turned warm and sunny again. There was a remarkable display of Northern Lights last Friday night and some fresh snow has appeared high up in the mountains.

BETTING IS EVEN

World Series Between Chicago and Detroit, Opening Tomorrow, Expected to be Close

DETROIT, Oct. 1: (CP)—With betting, speaking generally, on fairly even terms, the World Series will get under way here tomorrow between Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers. Many are inclined to the belief that the series will go at least six and possibly seven games as the teams are conceded to be as well matched as any two that have gone into a World Series in years. Lynwood (School Boy) Rowe will pitch the opening game for Detroit and Lon Warnecke for Chicago.

SPORT CHAT

The expectation is that there will be three teams again in the Senior Basketball League here this winter—Moose, Canadian National Recreation Association and Grotto. In the Intermediate League there will be three or four teams while Ladies' and Junior Leagues will also be in operation with the prospect of probably three teams in each. The first practice will take place on Friday night of this week at the Moose Hall and there will be none after that until the election is over. Further league organization for the season will be proceeded with at a meeting of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association tonight.

Negotiations are reported under way for a bout in Detroit next June between Joe Louis, Detroit negro and conqueror of Max Baer, and Max Schmeling, the former world's heavy weight champion. Louis states that he will fight against any man who wants to meet him on suitable terms but he expresses the desire to have a title bout with James J. Braddock as soon as possible.

Having received $217,337 as his share of the proceeds of the big bout last week, Louis celebrated the occasion by buying his 19-year old Chicago stenographer bride an expensive car and twenty-one suits and dresses. The couple had a busy day shopping, Louis investing himself in six new suits. The Baer conquest marked Louis twenty-fifth victory, twenty-one by knockout. Joe said that he intended to buy a home in Chicago where he and his bride would make their permanent residence.

Max Baer, who received $150,000 from the fight, reiterates his determination to permanently retire from the ring. He states that he has enough money to last him for life and he plans to return to California to go in for cattle ranching. Baer's wife says she is glad he is through with the ring.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS

Activities of Non-Clergy Have Big Place in Eucharistic Program At Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 1: (CP)—Pilgrims to the seventh national Eucharistic Congress here at mid-night took the Holy Name pledge before 120 altars, erected especially for each Roman Catholic diocese under the United States flag. The altars occupy the city's spacious underground exhibition hall which adjoins the public auditorium, scene of congress activities during the meeting, and it was an impressive spectacle as the floodlights were extinguished, with each person holding a lighted candle. The ornate episcopal coat of arms of each diocese adorned its respective altar, of simple orthodox architecture. Visiting members of the clergy celebrated mass on the altar of their home see. Space was provided before each altar for the laity. The throng which is paying public homage to its Eucharistic Christ takes the resources of Cleveland. Catholics have thrown open their homes to the overflow crowd.

The congress emphasizes in sectional meetings the activities of the church's lay apostolate. Alfred E. Smith, Democratic nominee for President in 1928, and Joseph Scott, of Los Angeles, a Knight Commander of St. Gregory and who nominated Herbert Hoover for President at the Republican national convention of 1932, are the principal lay speakers.

Group Conferences
Sectional sessions are being conducted for university and college men and women, nurses, journalists, public service men (police-men, firemen and post office employees), social service workers, professional men, young women and parent-education groups. Priests and nuns also have sectional meetings.

For the first time in the history of the national congress a papal legate represents the Vatican. Pope Pius XI so designated Patrick Cardinal Hayes of New York. In addition, the Pope's personal secretary, Monsignor Diego Venini, represents the papal household and bears a special chalice as a gift from the Vatican. This chalice and another, once the property of St. Francis de Sales, is being used in solemn pontifical high masses at the congress.

Bishop Joseph Schrembs, of the Cleveland diocese, is president of the 1935 gathering and national director of Eucharistic congresses.

W. D. Smith, manager of the Northern B. C. Power Co. at Stewart, arrived in the city on the Catala this afternoon from the north on his annual vacation. He will proceed in a few days to Vancouver.

Restoration Of Israel Is Talk Subject

Speaker last evening at the regular meeting of the British-Israel Society was G. P. Tinker, who took as his subject the "Restoration of Israel." Where was Israel to be found, and when would she be restored? The speaker showed the migrations of the ten tribes to the Isles of the West where they would be found in the latter days—before the Millennium. For twenty-five hundred and twenty years Israel in the Isles had been bearing the penalties for breaking God's just and everlasting laws. The day was fast approaching, however, when all the glorious prophecies which have been made by so many of the prophets would show and is even now showing—that Great Britain was Israel and "shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days" (Hosea 3. 5.) President P. H. Linzey was in the chair.

STYLE SHOW DRAWS MANY

Display Under Auspices of Cambrai Chapter Proved Big Attraction To Capitol Last Night

The presentation last night under auspices of Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, of the fall fashion and style revue by Demers proved an attraction which filled all seating capacity in the Capitol Theatre, many, indeed, being unable to gain admission for the feature's first showing, making it necessary to repeat it later. It was a colorful show with twenty-one young lady models displaying the latest creations in coats, dresses, afternoon ensembles, evening gowns, sports attire, lounging apparel, evoked all manner of favorable comment. The parade started from a golden dais and stairs in the centre of the stage, the curtain being drawn as each model stepped daintly down to a purple-draped platform on the front of the stage to display the details of each costume. Jewels and accessories were provided for the occasion by Max Heilbroner.

Miss Maisie Macdonald acted as announcer in a novel manner. Accompanying music was played by Charlie Balagno's Orchestra which was concealed under the platform in the orchestra pit.

The mannequins were Mrs. T. N. LePage, Mrs. G. P. Tinker, Mrs. G. W. Laidler, Mrs. E. P. Jenner, Mrs. Hawthorne Dunn and Misses Audrey Wrathall, Vivian Wrathall, Creddie Morgan, Dorothy Ballinger, Elizabeth Wilson, Winnie McGreish, Laura Stephens, Cathie Irvine, Helen Stamp - Vincent, Violet Stamp-Vincent, Olive Munro, Maisie McDonald, Lucille Brooksbank, Polema Cameron, Molly Ellison, Eveyn Daiby and Mary Comadina.

The British picture "The Unfinished Symphony" proved an outstanding screen attraction. The story of the romantic life of Franz Schubert, famous composer, was accompanied with generous interpolations, both vocal and instrumental, from the works of this great master.

The entire program will be repeated tonight and it is to be anticipated that it will again draw large patronage.

American Legion Would Withdraw Red Recognition

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1.—Among resolutions passed at the annual convention of the American Legion here was one urging the federal government to withdraw diplomatic recognition of the Soviet Republic.

Other resolutions ask for the deportation of all alien agitators, a ten-year stoppage of immigration, a ban on entry to this country of all Fascists and Communists and the finger-printing of all unaturalized aliens.

Cleveland was chosen as the 1936 convention city.
