Italy's Fleet Outnumbered, Not Outclassed

Total number of ships possessed by Britain is greater than Italy's fleet, but British forces are scattered, and in event of clash Italy would have almost same fighting power in Mediterranean as Britain, observers say, considering that Italy has more available submarines and lighter craft and would be working nearer to bases. Here's Italian Mediterranean fleet in majestic array.

King George late yesterday met the foreign secretary and the secretary for war in a special conference.

Funds voted to provide work for the unemployed were being used for political purposes to confer favors on the government's friends, Mr. King charged. The money was being spent by millions on the eve of the election and contracts were being let without tender.

THE POLITICAL CORNER

THE C. C. F. AND THE ASIATIC

Speaking to the Toronto Branch of the League of Nations Society of Canada on January 12th, 1935, J. S. Woodsworth, leader of the C. C. F. Party described his recent trip to Japan and China and launched an attack on those who had refused the vote to Orientals in British Columbia. He also protested against the disfranchisement of Doukhobors in British Columbia and said it was an outrage.

He said, "We talk of rights of minorities but we have to take our share in upholding those rights. The Orientals are allowed to vote in certain parts of Canada though not in British Columbia," and concluded, "I wish some people would set out on a campaign to sweep away these anomalous conditions."

It is just too bad about these Doukhobors and Asiatics but British Columbia would be well rid of all of them. The Taxpayer in this province is kept busy paying for new schools to replace those burned down in Doukhobor communities and the Asiatic in the southern part of the province is rapidly driving the white man out of the farming and fishing industries. It would be a fine "kettle of fish" giving them the franchise so that they could control public offices as well.

This problem of the Asiatics is becoming so acute in this province that something must soon be done about it.

It is idle to talk about equal rights to the Asiatic and the brotherhood of man; the Asiatic simply does not fit in to the white scheme of things; and our C. C. F. friends to the contrary notwithstanding, "East is still East and West is still West, and never the twain shall meet," and those who dispute this truth would be the last persons to give the hands of their daughters in marriage to the Asiatic.

The Liberals are opposed to giving the vote to the Oriental.

GOOD MEET AT ENDAKO

Olof Hanson Gets Favorable Reception at Interior Railway Town

ENDAKO, Oct. 3:—Olof Hanson, Liberal candidate for re-election as Member of Parliament for Skeena, addressed a large and successful meeting here Tuesday night and was accorded a warm reception. Politically, the outlook appears to be very favorable for the Liberal cause in these parts.

Wheat Prices Up On All Markets

War Scare Causes Bids to Soar Several Cents During Day

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3: (CP)—Wheat was quoted at 92¾¢ on the local exchange yesterday. In view of the war scare, wheat prices were up on all markets, Winnipeg closing at 95¾¢, up 3¢; Chicago, $1.07¼, up 5¢, and Liverpool, $1.04¼, up ¼¢. The local price today was 96¢.

Winnipeg Falls Back

WINNIPEG, October 3, (CP):—After advancing to highest levels since July 18, 1933, wheat prices fell back today before an avalanche of profit-taking to close with only net gains of 1¢ to ¾¢. May sold as high as $1.02¼. War scare was responsible for United Kingdom purchases.

TORY CASE PRESENTED

Dr. Alfred Thompson Principal Speaker at Conservative Meeting Last Night

Quiet Gathering

Complete Decorum Observed By Audience of About 125—Issues Discussed

A friendly and engaging discussion of national issues in the present federal election campaign was presented by Dr. Alfred Thompson of Vancouver, former Member of Parliament for the Yukon, who was the principal speaker at a public meeting in the Moose Hall last night in support of the candidature of Cyril H. Orme, Conservative standard bearer in the campaign. Dr. Thompson was assisted by James T. Harvey, local barrister, who dealt largely with railway matters and replied to comments in regard to the Prince Rupert line made recently at Terrace and Smithers by Capt. Ian Mackenzie of Vancouver. W. R. Love acted as chairman of the meeting which was marked by complete decorum; there being neither interruptions or questions. The attendance totalled possibly 125 and the tone of the gathering was interpreted by some as indicating that the Conservatives will have a good deal of vigorous campaigning to do between now and election day if they are to have much hope of success in Skeena riding on October 14. Miss M. A. Way presided at the piano to accompany "O Canada" at the opening and "God Save the King" at the close. The meeting was over by 9:30 p.m.

In opening, Dr. Thompson told briefly of a delightful trip he had just made through the interior in company with Mr. Orme. It was a splendid country with fine people. What it needed was a larger market in Prince Rupert which would probably come with the pulp mill. A better train service was also needed and the speaker suggested that a daily diesel electric train service might be established between Prince Rupert and the Bulkley Valley. Speaking of political prospects, Dr. Thompson declared that Mr. Orme was finding strength in unexpected quarters and that, when the votes in the interior were counted, there would be some surprises in store for the opponents of the Conservatives.

Dr. Thompson then proceeded to give his views as to the merits of the C. C. F. and the Liberals. British Columbia he described as the "centre and citadel" of C. C. F. strength. He would be surprised if this party won many seats outside of this province. Likewise, he would be surprised if it did not win

HIS TALK DELIGHTS

Gyros Hear Refreshing Discourse By Dr. Alfred Thompson Who Tells of Some Great Men He Has Met

In delightfully informal and reminiscent vein, Dr. Alfred Thompson of Vancouver, speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday afternoon, painted a series of graphic word pictures and told a number of intimate anecdotes of prominent personages with whom he came in contact during his career in public life. Dr. Thompson, who was for ten years Member of Parliament for the Yukon, spoke on the subject "Public Men Whom I Have Known." His talk was couched to large extent in humorous vein, yet very informative, in regard to the personalities of those whom she chose to describe and it was one of the most entertaining and appreciated addresses to which the Gyros have listened in some time. The applause which Dr. Thompson was accorded at the close testified to that.

First, Dr. Thompson described contacts with four Governors General of Canada—Earl Grey, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Jonnaught and Lord Byng. He told of a state dinner at Rideau Hall during the regime of Earl Grey, the personal characteristics of whom, as well as the Duke of Devonshire and the Duke of Connaught, he sketched intimately.

The great orator and philosopher, Lord Balfour; Viscount James Brien, one time British ambassador to United States, and the late President Theodore Roosevelt were also referred to. An interview with the brusque and direct President Roosevelt at the White House proved of particular interest.

Four Prime Ministers

Dr. Thompson then delighted his listeners with brief impressions of four Canadian Prime Ministers—Sir Charles Tupper, Father of Confederation and "greatest Roman of them all," who had lived to see Canada achieve some of the greatness which in the early days he had predicted for it; the debonaire Sir Mackenzie Bowell; the orator and leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, most charming man he had ever met and one who was admired and respected by all, and Sir Robert Borden, great thinker and executive.

J. H. McLeod, collector of customs, who has been spending a vacation visiting in Vancouver and on Vancouver Island, returned to the city on the Prince George yesterday afternoon.

STOLE THE THUNDER

Yesterday the war situation in Africa stole the thunder from all other movements. Usually great interest is taken here in the world series baseball but yesterday it fell flat. At the political meeting last night little more than one hundred persons were present, not necessarily because it was a Conservative meeting but because people preferred to stay at home and listen to the war news on the radio.

Evidently the war has started in earnest and for some time to come it will be the great feature of interest. It was noticed that yesterday practically everything important that was heard on the radio had already been published in this paper.

TIME FOR TALK ENDED

The time for talk in connection with the war in Ethiopia has ended and now it is a matter of action and results. Evidently Mussolini is determined to show that they have ability to kill people and thus advance the cause of civilization.

It is probable that there never was a conflict in the history of the world that was preceded by so long a preliminary discussion. Ethiopia is not at all a model country. Slavery exists there to a certain extent and for years past many of these slaves have been escaping into adjoining British territory, where they were, of course, set free. This social condition of Ethiopia has been one of the great arguments used by Italy in favor of the campaign which has now commenced. It was also said that occasionally Ethiopian bandits raided Italian territory much as did the Chinese bandits in Manchuria.

The chief objection to allowing Italy a free hand in Ethiopia is the danger that this may be considered a precedent. The small nations of the world would be in fear and trembling if Italy was allowed to wipe out one of their number. Also British interests in Africa are paramount as about half of the continent is under the protection of the British Empire or part of it.

At any rate in Prince Rupert the sympathy of practically the whole population seems to be with the Ethiopians in this struggle which has just commenced.

The Letter Box

THESE COMPARISONS ARE ODIUS

Editor, Daily News:

Women are all interested in retail prices, in knowing how far they can go with the money at their disposal. If the tariff seriously affects the prices of things needed in the home, that certainly is something in which the women are interested.

The effect of the tariff upon retail prices was demonstrated very clearly by Mrs. Charles H. Thorburn, of Ottawa, in a recent address in Toronto. Displayed on a table, she had fifty articles purchased in Canada on one end of the table, and fifty articles of the same kind and exactly the same brand, purchased in the United States, on the other end of the table. There was a remarkable difference in prices, including the following:

	Bought in U.S.	Bought in Can.
6 Boxes matches	$ .21	$ .50
Coffee	.21	.42
Soap	.05	.08
Radio tube	.59	1.10
Aspirin tablets	.43	.98
Toothpaste	.29	.39
Razor blades	.37	.50

With these and other examples of the higher cost in Canada of things required for the home, Mrs. Thorburn showed that the Canadian housewife's dollar was shrunk 25 percent as a result of the tariff and surtaxes upon imports.

The complete disregard for the consumer which the present government has always shown is well exemplified in the above comparison of retail prices. The prices are higher in Canada because of the tariff, the arbitrary valuations for customs purposes and other surtaxes.

This concrete demonstration of the effect of the government's policy upon the home is something for the housewives to ponder seriously.

Do the women wish to see prices reduced so they can purchase the things they need for the home at something like the same rate at which the same articles or commodities can be purchased in the United States? If they do, they will support the Liberal party.

LIBERAL

ANOTHER BARK

Editor, Daily News:

If you would take time to read the C. C. F. Manifesto you would learn that the C. C. F. party does not advocate a dictatorship of the proletariat though in some respects such a dictatorship would be preferable to the present dictatorship of the moneyed class now backing the Liberal party.

I note that the Political Corner still harps about returning a candidate to support the government. If it is so essential for this constituency to have a member on the government side of the house, why did not the local Liberals advise Mr. Hanson to resign and allow a Conservative member to represent Skeena in the last parliament? Will the Liberal Committee please answer? It seems that the Liberals do not practice what they advocate—"Work and Wages" as usual.

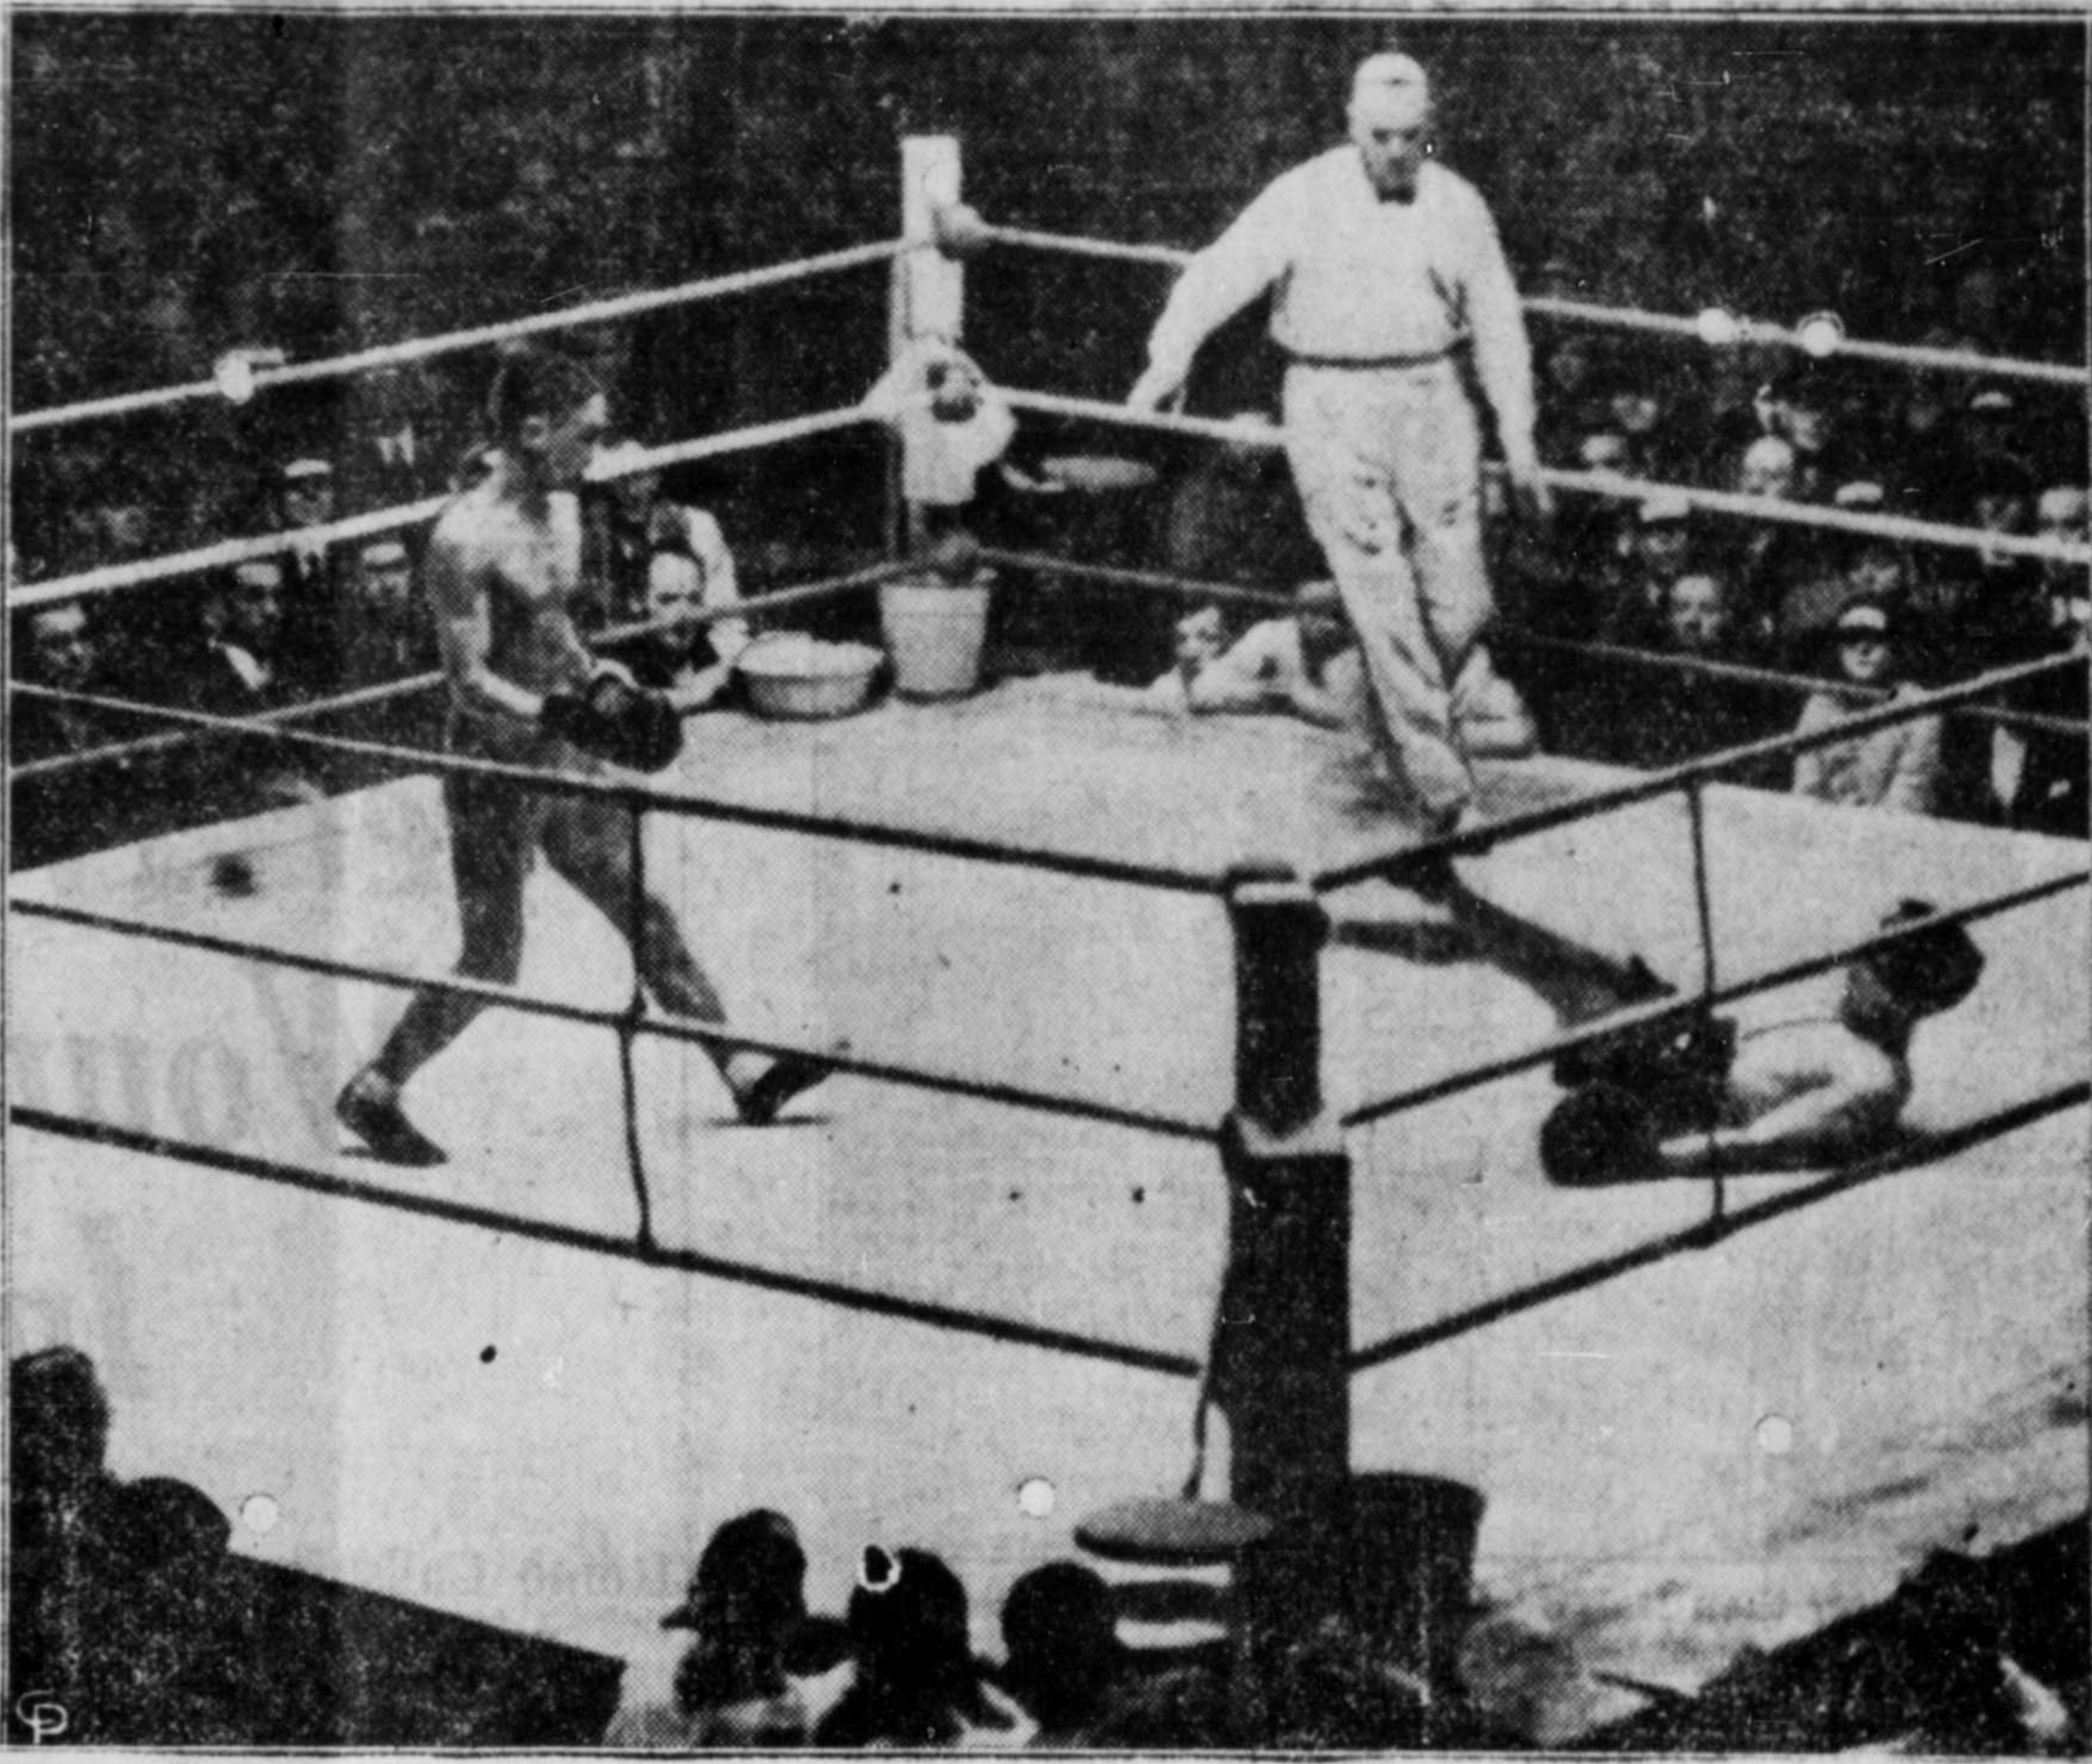

As for prospectors, I have known a good many and have yet to find one who received a square deal under our present system. Many in this constituency have had the experience of being "frozen out" by big companies and some have to spend their last days in a home for old men. Under the C. C. F. policy, prospectors will be partners in the mining industry and not pawns of the profit hungry manipulators.

With regard to Liberal remarks about idealism—it seems that the local Liberal Committee is devoid of idealism for, to date, the writer of the corner has done nothing but bark at opponents. Why not put some liberality into local Liberalism and be liberal to others.

C. D. CLARKE.

GLASGOW BATTLER WINS RECOGNITION AS FLYWEIGHT KING

Gordie Wallace Given Hard Fight By Genovese But Champ's Hitting Too Vicious

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3: (CP)—Gordon Wallace, 146½ pounds, retained his Canadian welterweight title last night by defeating Frankie Genovese of Toronto, 142½ pounds, in twelve rounds.

The Easterner gave Wallace the hardest fight he has had since he won the title but failed to equal the vicious punching of the champion which, in the final round, had the challenger on the verge of a knock-out.

There were no knock-downs.

Officers' Dance Postponed Owing To Ship's Delay

Owing to the failure, on account of fog, of H.M.C.S. Skeena to arrive in port, it was necessary to postpone the dance which was to have been tendered at the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve headquarters here last night by officers of the local wardroom mess to officers of the Canadian destroyer. The dance will be held tonight.

The crowd which did assemble last night enjoyed dancing from 9 p.m. until about midnight when refreshments were served. Music was by Charlie Balagno and Sergeant G. H. Greenwood acted as master of ceremonies.

DETROIT EVENS UP

Defeated Chicago 8 to 3 Today In Second Game of World Series; Bridges Pitched Well

DETROIT, Oct. 3: (CP)—Detroit Tigers climbed right back into the World Series today, hammering three Chicago pitchers savagely to win the second game behind fine hurling of Tommy Bridges 8 to 3. Each team has now won one game and the scene shifts tomorrow to Chicago for the next three games.

Hank Greenberg's first inning home run, scoring Gehring ahead of him, capped the climax of a four-run assault against the veteran Charlie Root and drove him to the showers.

Roy Henshaw, little southpaw who followed, fared little better and a three-run barrage in the fourth sent him from the box.

Fabian Kowalik, brought up from the Buffalo Internationals this year, took over hurling duties then. The fighting Tigers rapped Kowalik for a run in the seventh.

The Cubs collected one of their runs in the fifth and the others in the seventh.

The slender Bridges held the rampaging Cubs of yesterday in complete control all the way, allowing one hit in the first four innings and a total of six for the whole route while his teammates were pounding Chicago's hurling staff for nine safeties.

A meeting of the Prince Rupert Player's Guild, which was to have been held last evening, was postponed on account of other events being on and will take place next week.

TORY CASE PRESENTED

some in British Columbia. The C. C. F. believed in socialism on a grand scale including the abolition of capitalism and the socialization of all organizations and movements. There were many brands of socialism—Russian communism, which stood for the abolition of class; Hitler socialism in Germany, standing for magnification of race and encouraging capitalism; Italian socialism, which was to be seen today in arms under a dictator and which also did not abolish capitalism; the Alberta socialism, entirely of economic nature, and C. C. F. socialism, which offered a new heaven and a new earth and would control the entire social, political and economic life. First, it would destroy the instrument which had been used to build up this country. The Conservative idea, as opposed to this, was, not to destroy but to adjust, adapt and build, to make capitalism a servant and not a master. In time, socialism might be practicable but the speaker believed that there must first be developed an attitude against selfishness, greed and avarice.

The Same Old Tricks
As for Liberalism, everyone knew what it stood for, declared the speaker. It was to be seen today practising the same old tricks of fifty years ago—one doctrine for the east and another for the west. Capt. Ian Mackenzie preached inflation but it was noticeable that Mr. Mackenzie King did not adopt it. The Liberal party offered free trade to the farmers of the prairies and protection to the manufacturers in the east. The speaker described as "bunk" Mr. King's description of Mr. Bennett as tyrant and dictator. Dr. Thompson vigorously defended the Empire trade treaties by which Mr. King had said he would not be bound. These treaties had brought $100,000,000 in new trade to Canada. The Bennett dumping duties had been of great value to the producers of Canada in protecting them from the unwarranted dumping of American produce. Mr. Bennett's firm handling of the tariff dispute with Japan had resulted in the Japanese now being anxious to negotiate and he predicted a new and more favorable agreement for Canada would be the outcome.

The Conservative party realized that agriculture was still the greatest basic industry of Canada and wheat was the most important single commodity for export. Premier Bennett's action in fixing the Canadian wheat price at 87½¢ had been both timely and effective. With crops failing in the Argentine, United States and Europe, the Canadian wheat price was now well over 90¢ and would probably reach $1.

The Conservatives hoped to negotiate with United States a reprocuity treaty which would be mutually profitable. If the duty on fish could be removed, the benefit of equalized prices would be of great importance to Prince Rupert. The Conservative tariff policy had helped the interior farmers to get a higher price for their timely seed, asserted J. T. Thompson.

Four Great Problems

Dr. Thompson saw four great problems facing Canada today. Having already reduced the number of unemployed from 750,000 to 500,000, the Bennett government had enacted a scheme of unemployment insurance and it planned to take those of over sixty years of age off the payrolls of industry and give them an adequate allowance for their declining years.

In regard to public debts, which were now too high owing to unbridled borrowing but which there was no intention to repudiate, the Conservative party intended to set up a loan council to pass on all government borrowings—federal, provincial and municipal—and to assist in floating loans by federal machinery at lower rates than the provinces and municipalities were able to get independently.

To assist in solving the railway problem, the Conservatives planned to get expert advice by which it was hoped to reach a solution of rapidly changing conditions in transportation affairs involving new forms of competition to railways.

As for foreign trade, the Conservative plan was that the nations should get together and solve their problems on fair grounds by the lowering of tariff walls. Individual tariff lowering, as advocated by the Liberals, was useless.

"We on this northern half of the North American continent," declared Dr. Thompson in closing, have a great country and a great people. Our past has been great and our future is unlimited. We still have our great system and institutions and financial soundness. I ask you to give Bennett and the Conservatives the chance to continue their constructive policies."

J. T. Harvey

After paying personal tribute to Mr. Orme, whom he said A. M. Manson had described at Smithers as "the whitest man I know," Mr. Harvey proceeded to answer statements made by Capt. Ian Mackenzie at Terrace and Smithers in regard to railway matters. To talk of sabotage of the Prince Rupert-Red Pass line of the Canadian National Railway was utter nonsense. What the Conservatives had adopted and proposed to continue was a policy of economy and elimination of waste in regard to railways. The Liberals had loaded the Canadian National with a burden of debt, three-quarters of which had been spent not on the railways but on politics with a pork barrel rolled from Halifax to Vancouver. There had been unnecessary hotel and other projects, enormous and unwarranted salaries, construction of steamers at a cost of millions of dollars which were seen today rotting at their docks and useless competition with the C. P. R. The people only laughed at such a scare as had been raised by Capt. Mackenzie that the local line of railway might be abandoned if Bennett were returned to power.

Regarding the $60,000,000 guarantee to the Canadian Pacific, Mr. Harvey claimed this had been a prudent move. To have allowed the C. P. R. to default would have been a disaster of the first magnitude. The guarantee had been well secured and, as a matter of fact, $12,000,000 had already been repaid. The guarantee had been made necessary through the C. P. R. facing financial difficulties owing to C. N. R. "cut throat" policies.

The speaker pointed to the numerous assurances that had been made of the Bennett government being opposed to amalgamation of the railways.

Mr. Harvey defended the wisdom of retaining Section 98, a "proper and reasonable" provision which, in essence, had always been the law of Canada and England or any other well-governed country. The pith of Section 98 was the describing as an offence under the Criminal Code of advocacy of the overthrow of the government or industrial institutions by use of force, violence or injury to person or property. Without such laws there could be no free speech or association. In Russia such a provision would be considered mild indeed.

The Marketing Act was of much interest and benefit to the halibut industry of Prince Rupert. If the compulsory feature was removed, as advocated by the Liberals, it would be ineffective. The local board was actually elected by the industry concerned and the act could not be enforced without a ninety percent petition.

Concluding, Mr. Harvey pointed out that there were only two parties which had a chance of getting into power, none of the others having sufficient candidates. The main issue was which one to put into power—the Liberal or the Conservative. The issue in a word was: "Onward with Bennett or backward with King."
