Reichsfuehrer Tells Simon That Germany Must Have Strength to Protect Europe From Bolshevism

British and German Statesmen Have Been in Conference For Many Hours and Will Resume Discussions Tomorrow—Great Reception in Berlin

BERLIN, March 25: (CP)—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, in intimate consultation with Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, behind closed doors today, was reported to have insisted that Germany needs an adequate army and navy to defend Western Europe from the invasion of Bolshevism. Hitler was said to have claimed that Nazi Germany had so far saved Europe from Bolshevism.

The discussions lasted for eight hours and will be resumed tomorrow.

Twelve cheering thousands cordially greeted Sir John Simon and Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal, on their arrival at the Berlin air field late yesterday from England by airplane.

The British ministers had a two-hour conference following arrival yesterday with Reichsfuehrer Hitler. No announcement was made following that meeting apart from the general statement that there were grounds for hope of preservation of European peace.

TAKING HERRING IN BRITISH COLUMBIA WATERS

The herring catch in British Columbia this year has been very large, especially in Barclay Sound, Vancouver Island. Photo shows a herring boat and scow in Barclay Sound where fishermen are reported hauling in 200 tons of the fish with each cast of the net. Thousands of sea-gulls hover around awaiting an easy meal. The scene is one that is being duplicated almost every day in Prince Rupert Harbor.

HOUSE IS PROROGUED

Victoria Session Ended Saturday Afternoon—Would Facilitate Alaska Highway

VICTORIA, March 25: (CP)—The Legislature prorogued Saturday afternoon following a busy final week during which there were morning, afternoon and evening sittings and during which time the most important business of the session was transacted.

One of the last resolutions to be passed was one stating that the Assembly "will be glad to facilitate the construction of an Alaska Highway through British Columbia if and when other governments and representatives concerned advance proposals for the same."

COAST HAS BIG STORM

Four Persons Lose Lives When Car Plunges Off Highway Near Seattle Sunday

Dust in East

SEATTLE, March 25: (CP)—Three unidentified women and Thomas Orian, driver, were drowned yesterday when a sedan plunged off the highway into the Alsea River in one of the worst storms to sweep the coast since last fall. A fifty mile gale raged over the Oregon and Washington coast while inland heavy snows were reported. Some sections of Central Oregon were piled high with drifting dust. Spokane experienced dust, then sleet and driving snow.

In some sections of Colorado farming and grazing land has been destroyed for one hundred years through heavy soil drifting and agricultural experts are predicting the most complete crop failure in the history of the western plains region.

Damage which cannot be estimated has been done to motorcars and farm machinery through the penetration of dust and grit into engines.

SIX PERSONS TRAPPED AND BURNED TO DEATH IN CHICAGO ROADHOUSE

CHICAGO, March 25: (CP)—Six persons were burned to death and scores injured by flames which trapped them early yesterday in a roadhouse near suburban Morton Grove.

CRY "DOWN WITH KING"

Great Demonstration Against Unemployment Act Staged in Glasgow Yesterday

GLASGOW, March 25: (CP)—Seventy thousand persons, many of them women and children, shouting "Down With the King," marched to Glasgow Green yesterday, waving red banners and flags in the largest demonstration against the Unemployment Act this city has ever seen.

BURNS LAKE HOME BURNS

Residence of Patrick James Campbell Destroyed With Loss Of $4000

Divisional headquarters of the provincial police here have been advised of the complete destruction by fire on March 17 of the residence of Patrick James Carroll at Burns Lake. House was valued at $3000 and contents at $1000. There was partial insurance. A defective stovepipe is believed to have been the cause of the fire.

BONUS BILL IS DOOMED

May Not Get Past Senate and President Has Announced He Will Veto

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 25:—A real fight is expected in the Senate this week over the $2,000,000,000 soldiers' bonus inflationary measure which passed the House of Representatives late last week. Should it pass the Senate, which seems to be extremely doubtful, it will be vetoed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt who has already announced his intention of exercising this prerogative should the measure reach him. Some senators were predicting at the week-end that the bonus bill would pass the upper house. Others were equally confident that it would not.

In any case, there is little possibility of the measure being permanently written into law. The House might override the presidential veto but it is regarded as certain that the necessary two-thirds strength to pass the bill after veto could not be mustered in the Senate.

Railway Publicist Long in Service

Walter Thompson Has Been Engaged in This Work For 21 Years

MONTREAL, March 25:—The Montreal Daily Star Saturday carried the following story: "Walter S. Thompson, director of publicity for the Canadian National Railways, attained his majority today—he has been 21 years in publicity work and not just 21 years of age. He is being congratulated on all hands. He first engaged in newspaper work in England, then in Australasia, then in Canada. In 1914 he became chief of the press bureau of the Grand Trunk Railway and on the reorganization was made director of publicity of Canadian National Railways which position he still holds. Eight years with the Grand Trunk and 13 years with the Canadian National makes up 21 years of faithful service."

Clergyman Admits Nudism Practice

Rev. F. D. Krueger of Denver Set Back $50—Others Fight Against Conviction

DENVER, Col., March 25:—Rev. F. D. Krueger, a local clergyman, pleaded guilty at the week-end to a charge of practising nudism, threw himself on the mercy of the court and was fined $50. A score of other persons, similarly charged, are fighting conviction.

Local Vessel Owners Deter Decision Upon Commencing Fishing

Outcome of Bargaining Between Seattle Fleet and Fish Buyers Being Awaited—Word in Regard To This Expected Wednesday

Prince Rupert halibut vessel owners, at a meeting on Sunday, decided to await the outcome of further minimum price negotiations at a reduced scale opened by the Seattle fleet with the fish buyers at the Puget Sound port before making a decision as to when they shall start the 1935 season's fishing operations. Word as to the result of the Seattle negotiations is expected to be received here by Wednesday of this week.

Capt. George Fritz, president of the Canadian Halibut Vessel Owners' Association, presided over yesterday's meeting at which there was a large attendance of boat owners.

John R. Mitchell left last week for West Vancouver where he will spend a couple of weeks with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mitchell.

AERIAL TRAIN IS NEW RUSSIAN EXPERIMENT

MOSCOW, March 25:—An experimental flight is about to be essayed from Moscow to a Siberian city, 3000 miles distant, with an "air train" consisting of a long spring of gliders towed by a powerful airplane. The gliders would be so coupled that they could be dropped off at intervals. Each would have an individual pilot for the purpose of landing.

OWNERS TO STAY FIRM

Insisting That Boat's Share Be Taken From Halibut Liver Proceeds

While no official announcement to this effect was made following their meeting yesterday, it is understood that the Prince Rupert halibut boat owners decided to fall in line with the Seattle and Vancouver owners in insisting on boats being given a one-fifth share, the same as is given for halibut, of the proceeds of livers for which there is nearly a two hundred percent increase in price this year.

This is the answer of the boat owners to the ultimatum of the fishermen that they will not go out on an arrangement whereby the boats are to share the proceeds of livers.

It is reported that if the fishermen persist in this demand, the boat owners will take steps to operate their boats either with crews imported from Vancouver or by the owners themselves doubling up and manning the fleet.

HOCKEY IS THRILLING

Over Half an Hour of Overtime Required For Boston to Win Over Toronto

BOSTON, March 25: (CP)—Boston Bruins drew opening blood in the National Hockey League first place play-offs Saturday night by defeating Toronto Maple Leafs here in a thrilling overtime battle which required thirty-three minutes and twenty-six seconds beyond the regulation time before the first and only goal was scored. Clapper finally netting the puck on a pass from Shore.

In the second place play-offs Chicago Black Hawks and Montreal Maroons played to a scoreless draw while in the third place play-offs New York Rangers won two to one over Montreal Canadiens.

THE FAMOUS BRIDGE

The building of a bridge across the Fraser River is not a very important matter, even though it involves the expenditure of several million dollars. Most people agree that the bridge is badly needed but opposition to it has been fanned, not so much by politicians as by others who are opposed to the Pattullo policy and who fear what may happen rather than what is happening. Its importance has been exaggerated and made a political question and this has been done by clever men representing financial interests that have no politics themselves and very little principle. They were not interested in the bridge but they are interested in handicapping the future work of British Columbia's premier.

THE ALASKA HIGHWAY

W. J. Asselstine, member of the Legislature for Atlin, and George Murray, member for Lillooet, last week attended a conference with the Alaska committee of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce in connection with the campaign in favor of the Alaska Highway. They were assured that the American government was proceeding at once with construction of its end of the work and at the conclusion of the conference a joint statement was issued in which the advantages of construction of the road such as the provision of employment was stressed.

It was also said that it would open up the golden empire of the north to prospectors, homesteaders, investors, big game hunters, fishermen and tourists. It would cause a great forward movement in mining and would open up fertile valleys to settlement. It would be part of the motor highway starting at Buenos Aires in the Argentine and ending within the Arctic Circle. It is suggested that it might be taken up by the government of Canada as a national project.

Earl Batt Gives Balagno Close Billiard Run

The second game in the city individual billiard championship tournament between C. P. Balagno, present champion, and Earl Batt opened last night and proved a very interesting match with Balagno finishing 27 points ahead in the first block of 500. The actual score being Balagno, 507, and Batt, 480. For the first hundred, scores were fairly even with Balagno having the advantage. The second hundred gave Balagno a big lead and at the recess at 250, he was almost a clear hundred to the good. From then on Batt had better "leaves" and in the last hundred outscored his more experienced opponent and at one time seemed likely to catch him. Balagno was missing easy shots but came through at the finish with a 17 break to win the first block.

Batt had the highest breaks of the game, scoring a 42, a 40, a 26 and a 22. Balagno's best breaks were 23, 22 and 20.

There was a capacity house and, with another close block in prospect tonight, an equally big turnout is assured.

SPORT CHAT

The world's heavyweight championship situation became further complicated as a result of the decisive victory by the veteran Jim Braddock over Art Lasky in a 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden in New York on Friday night. Lasky entered the ring a three to one favorite but Braddock, who was believed to have passed his prime years ago, making a comeback, pummeled him all over the ring with rights and lefts and won by a heavy margin of points. Lasky was badly outboxed and out-slugged.

GARDEN NOTEBOOK

Many gardeners have been a little worried over the continuous bad weather but there is nothing to cause uneasiness. A late spring is always better than a season when growth begins too soon and, during the past week, the gardens have all been covered with a nice blanket of snow that protects the plants.

timer of Prince Rupert who has been gardening in Prince Rupert for many years, who has won prizes at the shows at various times and who knows the conditions here well, propose to give extracts from this diary from time to time for the help and encouragement of those who are now making efforts to beautify their homes with flowers.

The Dirt Gardener says that George Philpot was the first to make an attempt at gardening in Prince Rupert. He made a garden for Mr. Bacon, the engineer in charge here in 1906-07, at the foot of Centre Street where he had a lawn and flower border. That was nearly thirty years ago. Since then much has been done in the way of improving the appearance of the city.

The Dirt Gardener says he has found that the old double daffodils does well, with hardly any attention and need never be dug up except when too thick. Other daffodils that have succeeded well are Emperor, Madame de Grasse, Phasant's Eye, Poeticus, Sir Watkin, Van Wavereno, Grant and Bura Conspicuous. If these names are not spell right it is because the writing of the Dirt Gardener is not always perfectly clear to one who is not familiar with the names.—H. F. P.

The Letter Box

THE BASKING SHARK

Editor, Daily News.—

Myself and the staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station were given the opportunity of seeing a preview of the picture "Man of Aran" at the Capitol Theatre.

After seeing this picture and particularly those scenes showing the capture and cutting up of the basking shark on the beach of the Aran Islands, I believe that all will be more than ever convinced that Prince Rupert's recent monster was, in reality, a fish of the same species.

It might be specially noted that curved gill rakers such as were found on the Henry Island carcass are to be plainly seen behind the mouth of the basking shark in the picture.

When growth begins now there should be a very rapid development.

Horace Duhamel is getting his glads ready for planting at the first opportunity after the first of the month. Some people think it a little early and say about the middle of April is the best time.

A week ago I visited W. H. Sherman's garden to see how the polyanthus had stood the frost. In one bed a row all along one side had been killed while on the other side the plants were doing well. So in other parts of the garden, some plants were gone and others survived. The auriculas all look well and he has a nice collection of these plants of various colors.

FORGOTTEN CITY

● If newspapers were to stop, this city would practically be forgotten. You would quickly realize how much we all depend upon our daily publication. If daily newspapers throughout Canada were stopped, communities would be upset and disorganized—ordinary trade paralyzed—the populace panicky and easily misled.

The universal communication maintained by the Daily Newspapers nourishes and stimulates our social, business and economic structures in countless ways—and is necessary to their healthy functioning. Daily Newspapers have established and have sustained spot markets everywhere—that all may contact the public and cultivate its goodwill.

Has Inverted Stomach

Smiling Alyce McHenry of Omaha, started something. Her "upside-down" stomach has brought to light numerous cases of the same thing. Here for instance, is Florence Babcock, 11, of Belleville, Ontario, whose heart and stomach are somewhere up in her left chest. Florence weighs only 40 pounds and is being given blood transfusions to strengthen her for an operation. She is shown in Belleville hospital with her nurse.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

With a fair sized list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 6:30 last evening from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. for Anyox. Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

Namu cannery down the coast is another salmon packing plant in this district at which preparations are about to be commenced for the 1935 canning season. W. Gordon, foreman, A. Hamilton, accountant, and other members of the advance crew came north from Vancouver on the present trip of the Catala.

Although the house is by no means full, movement of grain from the prairies to the Alberta Wheat Pool's local elevator is beginning to slow up somewhat. Three carloads of wheat which arrived at the middle of last week are being unloaded today. The British steamer Jersey City is reported chartered to load a full cargo of grain either here or at Vancouver early next month for the United Kingdom or Continent. The date set for arrival of the Jersey City is April 8. She belongs to the Reardon-Smith Line, was built in 1920, is registered at Bideford, England, and is a vessel of 6322 tons gross.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Hughes, is due in port at 3:30 this afternoon from Skagway, and other northern points and will sail an hour later for Vancouver.

Armour Salvage Co.'s power tug Daly returned to port Saturday after having delivered a tow of logs from Newcombe Harbor, Pitt Island, to the Georgetown mill.

SEA EPIC IS FILMED

"Man of Aran" Spectacular And Unusual—Battle With Basking Shark One of Features

With the thrilling capture of a huge basking shark, which fish are used principally for the extraction of liver oil for lighting purposes, as a feature which will prove of exceptional local interest, "Man of Aran," presented on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week, and seen in preview last night, is an entirely unusual type of picture. There are also some wonderful sea scenes of that rugged group of islands far out at sea off Galway Bay on the west coast of Ireland. Other episodes in the life of the people who eke out their simple if exciting existence in that remote corner depict the attempts at agriculture on the island which has no native soil but on which ground is salvaged from the rocky crevices and also made by pounding of rock into powder and by the use of seaweed, the making and patching of crude boats in which the angry and usually stormy seas are dared and fishing adventures.

"Man of Aran" has no recognized actors, the cast having been recruited from native islanders, no plot, no sex appeal and no love story. It is entirely a depiction of the struggle of puny man against a vast and cruel welter of nature's forces. A crashing finale shows nothing but stone and sea crashing against each other. The picture contains occasional snatches of dialogue in rich Irish brogue and there is native Irish music but the real accompaniment of the theme is the wail of the wind and the symphonic surge of the sea. "Man of Aran" is the principal feature of a double bill program, the other end of which is "Evergreen," starring the popular English entertainer, Jessie Matthews, who does some fine dancing and singing in a spectacular story.
