GOVT. ARCHITECT ADMIRES CITY

After Visit of Inspection to Digby Island Quarantine Station Which is Very Satisfactory Mr. W. Henderson Looks Over City Buildings.

In the afternoon yesterday Mr. William Henderson, the Dominion Government architect from Victoria, paid a visit to the Digby Island Quarantine Hospital, now within sight of completion. Mr. Henderson was well pleased with the progress of the work. He was accompanied by Messrs. P. Anderson and A. McKinnon, the contractors, and paid a visit also to the Marine Station, though not in any official capacity. Mr. Henderson has never been in Prince Rupert before, and is very interested, indeed, in the city and its progress. He went over the town in the evening and had a look at some of the buildings in course of erection, and some of the principal public buildings which he considered remarkably fine considering the extreme youth of Prince Rupert as a city.

Whether you recorded your name as an elector last year or not, it is necessary this year to make application again either at the city hall or through a notary public before you can vote at the municipal election. This applies to house-holders and license-holders who are entitled to votes if they apply before the end of this month.

Tomorrow morning the C. P. R. S.S. Princess May comes south from Skagway. A large number of passengers in the general exodus from Dawson for the winter may be expected to pass south.

"INVITE FINANCIERS HERE TO REALIZE CITY'S CHANCES"

Leading English Journalist After Six Months Tour of the Dominion for "Canada-Illustrated" Declares Prince Rupert One of the Most Promising Cities he has Ever Seen---Gives Useful Suggestions

"It would be in the interests of Prince Rupert if a well thought out scheme were set in motion for inviting financial men of good standing to visit the city from the old country. This is a plan which is being carried out successfully in other places, and it should prove particularly valuable to Prince Rupert."

Mr. J. R. Cogger, travelling editor of "Canada-Illustrated" the high class magazine which lays itself out entirely to describe and help develop the Dominion, expressed the idea at the end of a special interview granted the Daily News last night.

Finances Important

Arriving by the Prince Rupert yesterday forenoon Mr. Cogger began straightaway to investigate the conditions of Prince Rupert beginning with the City Hall. He was particularly interested in the financial standing of the city and made close inquiry of the City Clerk on the subject, while awaiting the Mayor. Realising the magnitude of the undertakings in hand and ahead of the city he was glad to find Prince Rupert's financial standing so sound. "In many other cities I have visited," said Mr. Cogger, "this is unfortunately not the case." Mr. Cogger is on an exhaustive tour of the principal centres of the Dominion, and has already been six months in Canada sending special articles regularly back to the London offices of his paper.

Struck by Progress

"On tour round the city this morning I was struck by the signs of rapid progress made in buildings, streets, etc., to be seen on every hand. The stupendous blasting operations carried on in the midst of the city are really wonderful evidence that the citizens are determined to make the site of Prince Rupert as fine as that of any city in the world."

"Whilst in Nova Scotia I visited Sidney, C. B., which has during the past ten years progressed from an obscure fishing village into a first class commercial city, but conditions there are not nearly as advantageous as you have here. The natural surroundings of Prince Rupert are in my judgment absolutely unrivalled anywhere in the world, and the scenic attractions seen for the club house overlooking the harbor form a beautiful panorama."

"Health Excellent"

"The health conditions of the city according to the Medical Health Officer were ever better, and the absence of illness or any serious cases of infectious disease speaks eloquently as to the suitability of Prince Rupert for a great and prosperous city."

It was unfortunate that Mr. Cogger's visit here came just at the close of the long beautiful summer just ended, but Mr. Cogger contrasted the rainfall figures here with those of other cities very favorably indeed. Drawing the parallel between Prince Rupert and other great ports of the world, he pointed out how very unfavorable were conditions for some of the greatest cities such as Moscow, St. Petersburg, and Amsterdam as compared with those of Prince Rupert, yet these cities built on marsh worse than any muskeg we know are now amongst the wealthiest and most prosperous in the world.

Rupert's Rise Certain

"Unquestionably Prince Rupert will loom very large indeed upon the world's commercial horizon"

H.M.C.S. RAINBOW PAYS A VISIT TO PRINCE RUPERT

Her Crew Sent a Wireless Message in Advance Wanting to Know the Latest Election and War News—Will Get a Warm Welcome

H. M. C. S. Rainbow has arrived at last. Citizens of Prince Rupert can see her by going down to the waterfront.

The men on the Rainbow will be glad to get into touch with the world again. Their first request when their vessel got into communication with the wireless stations early this morning was for news of the elections and of the war.

The Daily News prepared a tabloid statement of the world's events and the wireless flashed it across Hecate Straits to satisfy the craving for news of the Canadian tars.

The Rainbow's inquiry was "the first intimation that the cruiser was on her way to Prince Rupert. She will get a warm welcome from the citizens who have long wished to see Canada's famous cruiser."

This afternoon the C. P. R. S.S. Princess Royal will arrive from the south with passengers, freight and mail. The Royal proceeds north to Skagway and may catch the last boat into Dawson for the season.

The G. T. P. S.S. Henriette left for the Naas to ship a cargo of salmon today.

the members and sixty thousand red ballots to adherents.

The Ladies' Aid of the Prince Rupert Methodist Church will hold their annual banquet on Thanksgiving evening.

During the last year the Boot and Shoe Workers' International Union has paid in sick, disability, and death benefits a total of $89,297.23.

PULP AND PAPER TO ENTER FREE

Until August 1912 New Brunswick Paper Will Enjoy Reciprocity With the United States.

(Special to the Daily News)
Washington, Oct. 5.—Practically all the wood pulp and print paper produced in New Brunswick until August 1, 1912, will enter the United States free of duty. This is made possible by a revised ruling made today by Acting Secretary of Treasury Curtis under the only operative clause of the Canadian reciprocity agreement. The surveyor general of the customs of New Brunswick advised the treasury department that the new law of that province restricting the exportation of wood pulp and print paper did not apply to lands operated under licenses issued or renewed prior to October 1, on which date the act becomes effective. The lands are used under long term leases governed by yearly licenses, and August 1 is the date for renewing these licenses. Consequently until that time there will be no American import tax on pulp wood or print paper originating from these lands.

RUPERT'S "FIRST TRAIN" GOES ROUND THE WORLD

Interesting Photograph Arranged by Daily News Man Reappears Now in Canada, Illustrated—Has Had World-Wide Publication

In the issue of "Canada Illustrated" for September 1911, there are reproduced pictures of the first railway ticket issued for an east bound train from Prince Rupert, and pictures of the train starting from the wharf depot. The illustrations are given under the head of Railway Notes for the month, and the progress of the G. T. P. is described.

Pictures of Prince Rupert's first G. T. P. train east, over the first hundred miles of completed track from Rupert have now been reproduced over almost the whole civilized world. In every case the picture of the first railway ticket has been seized upon by editors of newspapers and magazines as particularly interesting. The ticket is a real curio as proved by the fact that Arthur Little who purchased it was offered twenty dollars for it within a few minutes after he obtained it.

The fact that the idea of having it photographed by Mr. Davidson, of the Peerless Studio, originated with Mr. Fred James then of the Daily News staff who gave the pictures of the first train their start on their round the world tour through the press, shows the value to a city of live newspapermen.

PITTSBURG GROCERS START TO FIGHT THE SUGAR TRUST

They Will Educate the People as to Who Benefits by the Tariff on Foodstuffs—Will Try to Arouse Whole Country

(Special to the Daily News)
Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—Grocers in this city have begun a campaign against the sugar trust. They aim to make it a country-wide agitation against the increase in the price not only of sugar but coffee as well. Every paper bag and every wrapper in which sugar is sent to the household bears this inscription:

"The tariff on sugar benefits nobody but the sugar trust. Where it not for the tariff this package would cost you 2 cents a pound less. Urge your congressman to vote for the removal of the tariff on sugar. If he doesn't do it, don't return him to congress. It is not our fault."

Pittsburg grocers declare that within another year they will have the poor people informed regarding the price of foodstuffs and that blame will be put upon those responsible.

The stopping of the Johnson-Wells fight in London, England, is regarded as a test case which has a wide bearing on the future of pugilism in England and the greatest interest was aroused at the outcome.

One of the new models, known as the hip confiner, which extends from two to three inches above the waistline, will probably become popular. It is already familiar to the athletic girl and gives perfect freedom of motion.

"One thing that is overlooked a great deal," states the thin and tactful Cornelius McGillicuddy, manager of the champion Athletics, apropos of the general discussion about things baseball.

Strictly speaking Jimmy Clabby, the Milwaukee exponent of the fistic cult, who expects to be hailed as the undisputed welterweight champion within the immediate future, knows very little concerning the effects of a knock-out punch, although he has administered the sleeping potion on many occasions.

Sneezing is one of the greatest perils that confront aviators, declares Harry Atwood, the American aviator. "On my flight over Cleveland, Ohio," says Mr. Atwood, "a small insect flew into my nose. I felt the sneezing convulsion coming on and fought against it. Realizing that a sneeze was inevitable, I braced myself so that I would not lose possession of my senses even for an instant. It was the first time I ever had to sneeze while in the air, and it immediately dawned on me that more than one aviator probably owed his death to a sneeze—the spasmodic jerking of the head, the brief loss of sense direction, and, probably a jerk of a lever which made recovery of balance impossible. Believe me, I never again want to sneeze while flying. It is one of the most serious perils of aviation."

Supply of the Hair Market In parts of France and Northern Italy the volume of hair collected is from combings, says Good House-keeping. The dealers carry on their business all the year round in stalls in the streets, and the women flock to them with the accumulated family combings for the week.
