MILLION DOLLAR FIRE IN VANCOUVER

Arena and Number Of Well Known Buildings Destroyed Early Today

Arena and Group of Neighboring Big Frame Structures Wiped Out in One of Largest Conflagrations Southern City Has Had in Years

VANCOUVER, Aug. 20: (CP)—One of the most disastrous fires Vancouver has had in years early today wiped out the Vancouver Arena, the Fenner & Hodd shipyards, R. Cliff Sangster's outboard motors plant, Marine Sales and Service Limited and two houses. The nearby Auditorium was also severely damaged. Several small boats on the waterfront near the Arena were destroyed. The damage is estimated at up to $1,000,000. Two firemen suffered minor injuries. The buildings destroyed were located on Georgia Street West near Stanley Park. The Arena for years has been the venue of major sporting events, mass meetings, etc. Its destruction will possibly mean no professional hockey here next winter. It will not be rebuilt. The conflagration among the big frame structures was very spectacular.

Seen and Heard Far Off

The fire, which broke out shortly after midnight, was the first four alarm blaze in the city for many years. It is believed to have started in the Fenner and Hood property which was unoccupied. Fanned by a light wind, the flames spread swiftly to the adjoining properties. Practically all the fire fighting equipment in the city was called to the scene. The flames lit up the sky and the sound of crashing timber and walls could be heard across the breadth of the city. Two men who entered the Arena before the fire spread were rescued by the police after being overcome by smoke. The Arena and the Auditorium were partially covered by insurance.

Seattle Paper Still Tied Up

Management of Post-Intelligencer Wants to Resume Publication Businessmen Pledge Support

SEATTLE, Aug. 20:—The Seattle Post-Intelligencer, tied up by a strike of Guild editors and news-men following the dismissal of two members of the staff, is now on the sixth day of suspension of publication. The publishing company is now demanding that the authorities take steps to permit employees who wish to work to proceed to their duties without interruption by picketers. Businessmen of the city, at a mass meeting, pledged support to the newspaper in its fight against the strike. There were 214 passengers aboard the steamer Princess Alice which arrived here at 3:30 yesterday afternoon from Alaska, sailing a couple of hours later for Vancouver. The large majority of the passengers were round trip tourists returning south. One person disembarked from the vessel at this port while three went south aboard her from here. No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local fish exchange this morning.

Counter-Revolutionaries Wrangled Among Themselves as to Who Would do Slaying

MOSCOW, Aug. 20: (CP)—Hardly had a session of open court at which sixteen accused Trotsky conspirators pleaded guilty to conspiring to seize power in Russia and kill Dictator Joseph Stalin and other heads of the Soviet State commenced yesterday than Gregory Zinovieff, former high Bolshevik leader, rose and declared: "I am fully guilty." The story of how the counter-revolutionaries, all of whom face a possible sentence of death before the firing squad, wrangled among themselves for the "honor" of shooting Stalin was told. Zinovieff claimed the honor for his group and won the argument but the reason that Stalin was not killed was Zinovieff's "general wishy-washiness," other witnesses stated. Prosecutors charged that the plot was directly organized by Leon Trotsky, former co-dictator with the late Nikolai Lenin, who is now living in Norway.

Announcement is made by the Tuberculosis Division of the Provincial Board of Health of the institution in Prince Rupert of a rural tuberculosis centre with Dr. R. G. Large in charge of the work. It will be operated for six months experimentally in order to prove the usefulness of the move. The general objects of the unit are outlined as follows:

- To stimulate the doctors of the area to report their cases of tuberculosis.
- To look after the odd far advanced case of tuberculosis who is too ill to move to a sanitarium.
- To stimulate anti-tuberculosis campaigns in the particular area.
- Pneumothorax apparatus for the local centre is now on order and, pending its arrival, temporary apparatus may be set up.
- In order to familiarize himself with the organization, system of recording, method of doing tuberculin work, etc., Dr. Large will be leaving next Monday afternoon on the steamer Prince George for Vancouver and will be away for a couple of weeks.

ARE DOING GOOD WORK

Gyros Have Expended More Than $600 on Supervised Playgrounds This Summer, Club Hears

During the present season the Prince Rupert Gyro Club has expended well over $600 on improvements to and supervised activities in its various playgrounds in the city. It was reported to the club at its regular monthly business luncheon yesterday by T. N. LePage, chairman of the playgrounds committee. This had been the major community service project of the club this year and the funds which it has been able to raise have been almost entirely going towards this work of which there have been many expressions of appreciation, particularly among the parents of the many children who have been benefitted. The public will have its opportunity of obtaining a very definite idea of what has been going on in the way of supervised recreation and athletic instruction when a mass display is held on Wednesday night of next week in the Exhibition Hall. At this time presentation will also be made to the juvenile teams of cups which have been won in various games such as basketball and softball. The Gyro Club has been assisted in connection with the putting up of these trophies by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Canadian National Recreation Association. Another matter dealt with at yesterday's Gyro luncheon was the instructing of its delegate, S. J. Jabour, to the district convention in Seattle next week. Mr. Jabour will be leaving for the south on the Prince Rupert next Monday afternoon.

Seventeen players, eight of whom lack previous experience on the fast pitches of Australia, will battle "down under" this winter in an attempt to regain world's cricket honors for England. Since England lost the mythical "Ashes" to the Aussies in the Old Country in 1934, English cricket selectors have been busy watching the country's younger players with a view to injecting new blood into the team to do the duty in the next series of tests. They realized that the main burden would have to be taken from veterans like Jack Hobbs, now retired, Herbert Sutcliffe and "Pat" Hendren, while R. E. S. Wyatt, popular skipper, has been passed over in favor of a younger man.

The captaincy has been given to G. O. B. Allen, 34-year-old Australian-born player, who leads Middlesex in the county championship competition. A fast bowler and hard hitter Allen is known as a resourceful leader and has played against the Aussies both in England and Australia. R. W. V. Robins, Middlesex, E. R. T. Holmes, Surrey, and Kenneth Farnes, Essex, complete the amateur representation on the touring side. Robins, an all-rounder, has played many fine games for his country, and Holmes, an old Oxonian, is known as a forceful batsman. He led the M. C. C. team that toured Australasia last winter. Farnes, lanky Worktop College schoolmaster, is a fast bowler and played against Australia on two occasions in 1934.

Four of the professionals selected have played stellar roles in many tests between the two countries but the others have yet to justify their selection. Walter Hammond, great Gloucestershire player, has frequently defied the cream of Australia's bowlers having seven centuries to his credit in international play. He is also a good medium-pace bowler and one of the finest slip fielders in England. Yorkshire supplies two famous pros, Maurice Leyland and Hedley Verity. Both are left-handers. Leyland is one of England's most reliable bats and Verity probably the best spin bowler in the country. They have given several good displays against the Aussies in recent years. George Duckworth, shrill-voiced Lancashire wicket-keeper, returns to the team in place of Leslie Ames of Kent who has not recovered from an operation early this year.

Ames superseded the Lancashire veteran as far back as 1928 largely because of his batting prowess. He was injured last year and has not played in county cricket since that time. Early this month he tried out for Hythe, in a club match, against Hampstead but found the strain too much. While not a batting star, Duckworth, 35 years old, is one of the most brilliant stumpers in England. A reserve wicket-keeper has yet to be chosen. William Voce, Nottinghamshire bowler, played against the Aussies in 1932-33, taking 15 wickets in four tests.

The newcomers, all professionals, are C. J. Barnett, Gloucestershire, A. E. Fagg, Kent, Joseph Hardstaff, Nottinghamshire, L. B. Fishlock, Surrey, James Sims, Middlesex and W. H. Copson and T. Worthington, Derbyshire. Sims and Copson earn their places for their bowling ability, the others being batsmen who have come to the front in the past two years and are now among the leaders in the batting averages.

Australia has a host of batsmen to call on in addition to tried and seasoned players like the famous Don Bradman, Stanley McCabe, W. A. Brown, A. G. Chipperfield, F.ingleton and Alan Kippax. Hitters who are claiming attention include L. J. Fallowfield and R. H. Robinson, New South Wales, and Don, Fallon and T. Allen, Queensland, while C. V. Grimmett, W. J. O'Reilly, T. Wall and L. O'B. Fleetwood-Smith are expected to bear the brunt of the Australian bowling a number of players have been developed in Sheffield Shield cricket who have established their right to challenge for places in the Australian eleven this winter. Best known are E. C. S. White and H. G. Chilvers, New South Wales, and R. Gregory, E. L. McCormick and T. Leather, Victoria. McCormick, a fast bowler, was one of the successes of Australia's tour of South Africa last winter. Leather also puts down fast deliveries while Chilvers and Gregory are slow bowlers.

Since tests between England and Australia were inaugurated in 1876, 134 matches have been played with the Aussies victorious 53 times England has won 52 and 29 have been drawn. The first test of the forthcoming tour is scheduled for Brisbane, December 4. Others will be played at Sydney, December 18, Melbourne, January 1, Adelaide, January 29 and Melbourne, February 26. All the matches will be played to a finish.

In every walk of life you'll find men and women who are handicapped by being below par physically. Often the trouble is common constipation—caused by lack of sufficient "bulk" in the diet.

Unfortunately, too many people treat constipation too lightly. They do not realize it is a menace to health until much harm has been done.

Thank goodness, there is a pleasant, easy and safe way to correct this type of constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a generous source of "bulk." Within the body, it absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this exercises and cleanses the intestinal walls. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN often.

Scientific tests have shown that ALL-BRAN is safe and effective. Also that its "bulk" is often more effective than the "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

Doesn't it seem reasonable that you should get this "bulk" in the meals you eat? Isn't it better to regulate yourself by a natural food rather than by unnatural drugs?

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN corrects only common constipation, makes no claim to be a "cure-all." It is guaranteed by the Kellogg Company. Enjoy this natural laxative food regularly for regularity. Either as a cereal or cooked into tempting recipes.

Sold by all grocers. Served at restaurants and hotels. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity

BIG SALE OF MEN'S WEAR

Lambie and Stone Celebrate Third Anniversary by Putting Over Monster Event

Lambie & Stone, the now well known clothing firm, is celebrating its third anniversary by putting on an anniversary sale that will make it better known than ever before. Last year at this time it put on a sale that caused quite a sensation but this year's big event will be better than ever appreciated by those who have the cash to take advantage of it. The firm does not put on sales very often but when they do they say they believe in making it attractive. They have to clear out their stock to make room for the new fall goods due directly.

Asked as to why it was they were able to do such a big business with the young men of the city, they said it was because they aimed to get the very latest in styles and in quality and to make it possible for the young men of Prince Rupert to dress just as well as if they bought their clothes in one of the big cities and at the same prices or perhaps a little less. They considered they were leading the way in this. That was why they did such a large part of the business of the city.

The sale they are now putting on is the unsold portion of this high class stock and is in no sense bargain stock. The person with money or with enough money to put down a deposit, can now secure or hold until pay day stylish clothes of the best kind. If they visit New York or Toronto they can wear these clothes knowing they will be as well dressed as any person on the street.

Bill Lambie and Bill Stone are both young men who know what to buy and their customers know that they know. They are expecting this to be the biggest sale yet. Special attention is drawn to the advertisement appearing in this issue.
