Vatican Expects Death Momentarily-Heart is Beginning To Waver

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 30: (CP)-Pope Pius is reported to have spent a virtually sleepless night although he is declared to have improved somewhat today. Despite the slight improvement, concern continues to felt throughout the Vatican where it is feared the end may momentarily. The Pontiff's heart action was reported to be wavering last night as he conto suffer from numerous complications of old age.

Already there is discussion as to the successor to Pius XI. The name of Cardinal Hayes of the United States is mentioned but his selection is unlikely unless there should be a deadlock among the Cardinals who outnumber all others 37 to 29. An Italian is the more likely choice.

Italian Premier Advises German Chancellor To Withdraw as Gracefully and Soon as Possible; Reichsfuehrer Calls Lieutenants Into Confab.

BERLIN, Dec. 30: (CP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler has been advised by Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy to withdraw as gracefully as possible from the Spanish civil war as soon as he can do so, informed quarters said today. Mussolini is represented as having decided to wash his hands of the Spanish insurgent leader, General Francisco Franco, and the insurgent cause and to have suggested that Hitler follow suit.

Hitler cut short a holiday today and returned to Berlin to call a conference of his key lieutenants.

ANOTHER ASSAULT EXPECTED

MADRID, Dec. 30:-All bars and cafes in Madrid have been ordered closed at 9 o'clock tomorrow night and there will be no opportunity for the customary colorful New Year's Eve celebrations even should some people have felt like them. The order has been issued in fear of another insurgent air attack. There was fierce fighting again on the outskirts of the city yesterday with heavy casualties on both sides. The loyalist forces are holding their own and are heartened by reported increasing revulsion of feeling against the insurgents among outside nations. Indeed, in some quarters hopes are now expressed that there will be an early end to the civil war.
