NEW PACT DISCUSSED

Hopes Held for Agreement On European Security Among Powerful Western Nations

GENEVA, Oct. 6: (CP)—It is believed here that France is now solidly behind Great Britain in efforts to insure peace in Europe by negotiating a new western security pact in place of Locarno. Premier Leon Blum of France conferred with Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff at the week-end and discussed points regarding Germany's position. There was not an agreement, it is stated, between Blum and Litvinoff but groundwork was laid, it is understood, for further negotiations which may lead to an agreement among the western European nations.

Hopes are held that a conference may be arranged to be held in London in the near future to negotiate a new pact in place of Locarno.

Imposes Capital Levy, Taxes Dividends and Profits, Prohibits Price Rise and Reduces Duties

ROME, Oct. 6: (CP)—In addition to the devaluation of the lira by forty-one percent, the Italian cabinet, at the instance of Premier Benito Mussolini, yesterday approved imposition of a capital levy on property owners, new taxes on stock dividends and company profits, prohibited price rises or increases in public service rates and decreed a sixty-five percent reduction in customs duties for grains and cereals.

The new value of the lira is set at ninety to the British pound sterling and nineteen to the United States dollar although the lira's gold content was registered at 92.46 to the pound. The action fixes the value of the lira at 5.2c as compared with 7.6c, the closing quotation on the New York foreign exchange market Saturday.

The devaluation will give the government and the Bank of Italy an estimated two billion lire increase in paper currency to add to estimated gold and foreign currency holdings of five billion lire.

Spanish Government Asserts That Its Forces Routed Rebels In Battles Yesterday

NOT EVACUATING

As Usual, Reports Conflict—General Duffy, With Irish Soldiers, to Help Rebels

MADRID, Oct. 6:—After a comparatively quiet week-end, hostilities were renewed with fresh vigor yesterday in Spain's civil war. The government claimed that loyalist troops had smashed a furious insurgent cavalry attack northwest of Madrid. The cavalry regiment, riding up with banners flying, was waited for by the loyalists and horses and men went down in heaps before a withering loyalist fire, the remaining rebels retreating as a disorderly mob of refugees. The government claimed military victories in other quarters and denied that evacuation of Madrid was being contemplated. Not even the children, it was said, had been sent away in preparation for a siege.

General Francisco Franco, Fascist commander-in-chief, is said to have 150,000 troops in readiness for his final drive on Madrid. Immediate attack is to be centred, according to the rebels, on an important railway junction near the city. Naval forces are also being concentrated at Cadiz. It is reported, for a naval attack upon Malaga. The rebels charge that the government has been shipping artillery and ammunition to the Mediterranean ports of Alicante and Valencia and that, despairing of being able to hold the capital, it has been removing the nation's gold reserve from Madrid to Barcelona.

One hundred persons were reported to have been killed in an explosion in a bomb factory in Madrid on Saturday. The blast shook the entire city to further add to the general nervousness of the situation. Thirty insurgent planes bombed the city yesterday.

UNABLE TO SETTLE IT

Negotiations on Frisco Waterfront Dispute Are Broken Off Completely

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6:—Negotiations for a settlement of the dispute between shipowners and marine workers have been broken off completely, it was announced last night. Agreement on a number of points had been reached but the question of procedure in hiring men has led to a deadlock, the unions continuing their unwillingness to arbitrate on this point.

Representatives of both employers and unions had intimated over the week-end that real progress has been made towards a settlement of the dispute which threatens a strike of marine workers and tie-up of shipping generally along the Pacific Coast. It was said that a settlement was nearer than it had been for some time, the dispute having resolved itself largely to that of the hiring system.

Edward F. McGready, assistant secretary of labor, after spending ten days here endeavoring to effect a settlement of the dispute, has left for Washington where, it was announced at the week-end by Admiral Henry D. Wylie, chairman of the new Federal Maritime Commission, that a conference was to be held of representatives of shipowners and union leaders with a view to reaching a permanent settlement of the dispute.

Giants Are Beaten By 13 to 5 Count; Finish Was Sensational Rout

Score by innings— R. H. E.
YANKEES 0 2 1 2 0 0 0 1 7—13 17 2
GIANTS 2 0 0 0 1 0 1 1 0—5 9 1

NEW YORK, Oct. 6: (CP)—The curtain rang down on the 1936 World Series today with the New York Yankees staging a sensational slugging slaughter in the ninth inning to clinch the world's championship by a score of 13 to 5. The game count was four to two. Up to the ninth it was a close and interesting game but the Giants blew up entirely in that stanza and Murderer's Row had no hesitation in turning the rout into a massacre.

The Giants opened the scoring with two runs in the first but the Yanks started their heavy hitting in the second when, with two down, Selkirk up and hit a three-bagger being scored by Powell's circuit clout. The Yanks went one up in the third and were never topped again. They added two more in the fourth, the Giants collecting one each in the fifth, seventh and eighth.

REGIONAL PEACE MOVEMENT

Possibly the United States has the right idea in moving toward peace by having all the nations of the two American continents join in a regional peace pact with Uncle Sam as the big brother extending a protective fist to guard all the younger brothers of the family. Let each continent make a regional peace pact and there will be little chance of an outbreak. Most of the wars have been started by close neighbors.

THE SPANISH SITUATION

Judging by press reports it would seem as though Spain would become another corporative state ruled by a dictator or a junta similar to a number of the adjoining nations. While the civil war is not over, the better armaments of the rebels put them in an advantageous position and they are bound to win if they keep up the present morale.

When victory is finally achieved we shall be able to judge what sort of people the Spanish leaders are. If there is wholesale slaughter, such as took place in Russia, it will be an indication that their civilization and religion are worth little to them. It must be remembered that they are the rebels and that those who are fighting for the continuation of a democracy are the loyalists. If there is any virtue in loyalty, the men who are defending their cherished institutions should receive at least the respect of the victors.

THE HAS-BEEN

In all communities that are on the frontier, away out beyond, there are always found a number of "wasters," men who seem to have no aim or object in life. They eke out a bare existence, usually regaling themselves with a bottle of cheap liquor or home brew and who eventually are buried by the city or the provincial government. Many of these men were at one time ambitious, keen, hopeful, but in each case something has happened which has dampened their ardour, clouded their prospects, and killed their hopefulness. Gradually they drifted to the outskirts of civilization and lingered along there until some day another of those funerals with few mourners was held and the sod was filled in to close the mortal life of one who was the victim of fate or circumstance. It is a sad ending to what might have been a useful and happy life had conditions been different.

ATHLETES REWARDED

German Remembers Olympic Victors With Homes, Honors and Holidays

BERLIN, Oct. 6: (CP)—German Olympic medal winners were showered with treasures ranging from kisses to houses and gardens. In the general jubilee over the showing of Herr Hitler's athletes, even Helen Mayer, the only female participant on the Nazi team, was not left out although the Los Angeles fencing champion failed to repeat, taking second place.

Der Fuehrer himself received her with the other German athletes at the chancellery and her home town gave her a warm hand. Mass promotions were handed out in the army, police force, schutzstaffel and Sturmabteilung. Enthusiasts in Baden proposed all winners from that section be made members of the Nazi party—although membership has been closed since 1933.

Hans Woelke, the beefy cop who put the shot so far he got a gold medal, was immediately promoted to a lieutenant in the police force. H. Gustman, who rowed and won in the pairs with coxswain at Grunau, likewise was given a lieutenantcy. Of the riders who rode off with about everything in the equestrian events, a major was jumped up to lieutenant-colonel, and two first lieutenants were promoted to cavalry captains.

The champion sculler, Gustav Schaefer, found a bright new job awaiting him when he returned home to Dresden, while Karl Hein, who didn't do so badly with the hammer, did even better in the esteem of the factory where he is employed. It presented him with a house and garden. Gisela Mauer-mayer, who won the women's discus event, was handed the title of "women's educational councillor." Many of her team-mates received extra vacations with free trips.

There was a sad note, however. The pluckiest man Germany had was Lieutenant Baron von Wangelheim, who insisted on finishing his equestrian event, although his collar bone was broken. His horse had thrown him going over a hurdle. But in order to save team honors for Germany he rode on with arm bandaged to his side scarcely able to guide his horse. He got only four weeks' vacation—just about enough for his arm to heal.

A wedding of considerable interest took place Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Iverson, Beach Place, when Miss Matilda Engen, foster-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wick, became the bride of Roy Garries, son of Mrs. Nina Garries of Bentley, Alberta.

The rooms had been decorated for the occasion with pink and white colors, featuring dahlias as flowers, and the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. C. Jensen, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, under an arch of roses.

The bride, who wore white satin with train and hat to match, carrying a bouquet of carnations, was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes Wick, as bridesmaid. The latter wore pink flowered taffeta.

Mrs. Stanley Johansen, the matron of honor, wore blue flowered chiffon. Stanley Johansen was groomsmen. John Iverson gave the bride in marriage.

The Wedding March was played by Mrs. L. C. Jensen.

Following the ceremony, the party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Underdahl, also decorated for the occasion, where a wedding breakfast was served. The toast to the bride was proposed by the groomsmen and responded to by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Garries will reside on Beach Place. The bride has resided here since childhood and is well known and popular. The groom recently arrived from the prairies.

Many gifts testified to the popularity of the couple.

Old Lady Tells Secret of Her Vigor

The writer of the following letter once suffered from rheumatism, headaches and depression. Then one day a vigorous old lady told her the secret of good health. And now that former sufferer writes to tell others how she obtained relief through Kruschen.

"Kruschen was recommended to me by an old lady of seventy-two who can dance the Highland Fling—thanks to Kruschen, which she has used for thirty years. She told me to take Kruschen Salts to try and relieve a dull heavy headache from which I suffered nearly every morning on waking. I was also troubled with rheumatism in both shoulders. Kruschen turned the trick. The headache disappeared and so did the rheumatism. I have continued taking Kruschen and intend to keep it up."

(Mrs.) F. B. W.

Kruschen is a combination of mineral salts which assist in stimulating your liver, kidneys and digestive tract to healthy, regular activity. They ensure internal cleanliness, and thus help to keep the blood-stream pure.

FEASTS FOR HEADSTONES

Native Customs Observed at Kincolith Village Both Before and After Death

Two headstone feasts have just been held at the Naas River native village of Kincolith. Such feasts are an honored custom among the natives and may be held prior to or after the deaths of those for whom the headstones are erected.

One of the recent Kincolith feasts was an ante-mortem affair, being held on Saturday by Charles Elliott, one of the aged chiefs of the village, who has had his own headstone erected in front of his home. On his death, it will be placed on his grave. Over three hundred natives attended Chief Elliott's feast including visitors from other Naas River villages and the Aiyansh band. Chief Elliott and several other chiefs made speeches.

The other headstone feast was held by Mrs. Eliza Burton on Saturday following the placing of a stone over the grave of her son, Celesta Burton, who passed away over a year ago. There were also some three hundred at this feast and a number of speeches were given. Music was provided by the Aiyansh Band.

Both headstone feasts were held in the Jubilee Hall.

TERRACE WEATHER

September Cooler and Dampier Than Last Year But Summer Was Best Yet

Terrace weather this September averaged two degrees cooler than in the same month last year while there was over one inch more rain this September. This does not mean, however, that Terrace has had a poor summer. Far from that, it has been about the best growing season that Terrace people can remember. Most of the crops were early and there was little difficulty in ripening such crops as tomatoes and corn. Indeed, it was the unusually warm days and nights which caused the disastrous flood in June.

The maximum temperature for September this year in Terrace was 80 above on September 2 and the minimum 27 on September 15, the average temperature for the month being 54. Last year in September the high temperature was 88 on September 2 and the minimum 34 on September 24, the mean being 58. This September's rainfall at Terrace was 4.58 as compared with 3.38 inches in September 1935.

EIGHTY AT MISSOURI

Fine Bunkhouse Nearing Completion—Increase in Pay Given Recently

There are about eighty men now working at the Big Missouri mine at Stewart, the most of them being at present engaged on work preparatory to mill construction. This is about all the men that can be effectively handled on the work now in hand.

In the mine itself only one machine is at present working, about forty being employed. All the miners are drilling for the pipe line.

The roof of the fine big bunkhouse, in the construction of which twelve carpenters are engaged, is now on and in about a month's time the bunkhouse will be completed. There are thirty-three rooms in this new bunkhouse, the dry of which will be erected outside as a separate building.

A raise in pay was given laborers at the Big Missouri on the occasion of the recent visit there of E. M. Stiles, superintendent of construction for the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., men working nine hours getting $3.50 clear over and above board and lodgings.

CALIFORNIA EARLY DAYS

"Sutter's Gold" at Capitol Theatre—Also "Love Before Breakfast"

"Sutter's Gold," a romance of the California gold rush days of '49, revealing the colorful story of General John Sutter, one of the most picturesque figures of that era, and "Love Before Breakfast," a fast moving comedy farce, comprise a first of the week double bill program on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

"Sutter's Gold," portrays dramatically the story of the building of California in the early days, the frenzied gold rush when man, forgetting all else, went gold mad and how man's love for family finally triumphs over ambition for riches and power. Edward Arnold, one of the screen's most accomplished character actors, has the leading role with a notable supporting cast including Binnie Barnes, Montagu Love, Robert Warwick, John Miljan, Lee Tracy, Katharine Alexander and Harry Carey.

"Love Before Breakfast" is found to be delightfully humorous, sometimes gay and bubbling, sometimes witty and biting but always modern, devil-may-care and entertaining. The situations are basically funny and there is rippling dialogue. Carole Lombard and Preston Foster head the cast which also includes Janet Beecher, Betty Lawford, Cesar Romera and Richard Carle.

Kincolith Has Large Wedding

Well Known Couple—Miss Rose Gurney and Chris Trimble—Are United

The Naas River village of Kincolith was enfeete last Thursday afternoon when the marriage took place of one of the community's best known and most popular couples—Miss Rose Gurney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gurney, and Chris Trimble, son of Mrs. Paul Allen. The wedding ceremony took place in Christ Church with Rev. Oliver Thorne, the resident missionary, officiating.

The bride, in full white silk wedding costume with veil and bouquet, had six bridesmaids with Mrs. Matthew Stewart as matron of honor. Herbert Burton was groomsman and there were six other attendants of the groom.

Following the marriage ceremony, there was a feast in the Jubilee Hall. Some three hundred were present including practically all the people of the village as well as visitors from other villages. There were many speeches with music and dancing. Both the Kincolith and Aiyansh bands were in attendance.
