Employees of the Canadian National Railways in this district feel that, in line with what is being done at such points as Halifax, Charlottetown, Moncton, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Vancouver and Ottawa, a memorial plaque in honor of the late Sir Henry Thornton, former president of the line, should be erected at the depot in Prince Rupert and representations have been made to the committee in charge with that end in view. The memorial which is being erected at the other points takes the form of a solid bronze plaque 22 inches wide by 32 inches high surmounted with a full face view of the late Sir Henry. There is a suitable text.

Pattullo Coming Soon After His Trip to Ottawa

A message received today from Premier T. D. Pattullo expresses regret that the Premier, who is leaving for Ottawa by airplane today, is unable to go east via Prince Rupert. Mr. Pattullo states, however, that he is planning to come to Prince Rupert soon after his return from the present trip east.

Mrs. Peter Lakie sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for Victoria, having been called there on account of the illness of her father.

Physical Director Tells Of Various Youth Movements In Different Countries of World

Ian Eisenhardt Says Dr. Weir's Idea is to Give Everybody Chance For Abundant Life—Speaks Before Local Rotary Club

"Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir's idea in establishing the physical education centres is to give everybody a chance for an abundant life," declared Ian Eisenhardt, director of the physical education movement in British Columbia, in addressing the Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday, Walter Blackstock presiding. Mr. Eisenhardt spoke of the excellent work done by Paul Kozoolin during the ten weeks he had been in Prince Rupert and of the value of the work to the city. He urged the Rotary Club members to attend the display on Saturday and to take an interest in a movement that was of such great value to the young people and the city generally.

In his address Mr. Eisenhardt spoke of the universal impulse to play and how the intelligent direction of the impulse could become of such great value.

Giving Youth Attention

"Seldom has the youth been given as much attention as today," he said. "Wherever one goes, one hears about youth movements, young people's associations, young hikers' clubs, recreational youth centres, youth hostels, etc. and, besides the organizations already mentioned, we can add Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Wanderfogel (wandering birds), Cubs and many more.

"Before I deal with problems here in Canada and discuss with you our Provincial Recreation Centres in British Columbia, let us look around in the world and find out more about what is behind the various youth movements and then go back to Canada and see if in spite of no accent on the word 'movement' we are not doing just as well as in most other countries.

"It is to Germany we must travel to get first hand information on youth movements. The first real movement of the modern world was started as far back as the spring of 1811 and was called 'Deutsche Turnverein'.

The founder was Friedrich Ludwig Jahn. Jahn was born in 1778 and, as a young university student, he fought against Napoleon at Jena. The defeat was too much for him and, together with many other German patriots, he conspired against Napoleon. F. L. Jahn founded the German turn with the objective in view of training the Germans physically and making them strong enough to avenge defeats suffered in the past. After the peace of Paris in 1814 Jahn was made director of physical education in Prussia and immediately the whole spirit is changed. His work from then on is to create harmony in the human evolution, and establish the right mental and physical balance in life.

"The young people loved Jahn. At the turn-squares, they brought their lunches, but only water was permitted to be drunk. 'Virtuous, clean and always ready' was a turner's motto. Although there have been times when the interest in the 'turnverein' has been very small, it is, however, a world movement, because everywhere you see Germans you will also see turnvereins. In the year 1914 there were 1,400,000 members in the mother turn in Germany. "When Denmark in 1864 lost Schleswig-Holstein to Germany there was a strong movement to gain within what was lost without." The greatest movement was the establishment of the 'People's Folk-High Schools.' The founder was F. S. Gruntwig, who was born in the year 1783. Gruntwig created a new sort of education, an education not for learning but for life, and not for childhood's uses, but for the uses of the adult world. Although the first school started in 1851 it was not until after the war in 1864 that the movement grew and at the present time there are over sixty of such schools in Denmark. Denmark's tremendous development in all phases of civilization—economic, social, political and moral—should be credited primarily to these schools.

How Schools Are Run "There are two sessions at these schools. The winter one for six months and the summer one for three. Generally the girls go during the summer and the boys during the winter. In connection with these schools there are thousands of gymnastic clubs in the various cities to which ex-students belong and the membership at certain periods has reached the enormous figure of over 200,000—almost 75 percent of the youth between the ages of 18 and 25.

"Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland have 'turns' and gymnastic clubs. It must not be neglected to state that the governments, in all these countries back these activities to a great extent. "Czecho-Slovakia has a wonderful organization, the 'Sokol-movement.' A 'sokol' is a hawk in the slav language. The first club was started in 1862 in Prague. The aims and objects of the movement were to train the growing generation, create a mentally and physically strong nation. Liberty, equality and fraternity are the key words.

The displays staged by the Sokol-Societies are world famed and tourists come from all over the world to witness mass displays of tens of thousands of men and women, boys and girls. "It is interesting to note, that in England there is no so-called 'movement' of any kind. The English people long ago acquired that freedom which allows the individual to do what he likes. But, as the foundation for 'sportsmanship and fair play' is inculcated in the English children both by parents and schoolmasters, we find that the nation in general is the nation where most people participate in sports.

"Englishmen look upon sports as a part of character as well as a physical developing factor in civilization. When Kipling wrote 'the flannelled fools at the wicket,' the muddled oafs at the goals," he was too much of an interpreter of all things English to mean that quite as it stands. His writing is the incarnation in words of ever youthful England. Like other wise men, he is in-

Abyssinia Turns Down Italian Peace Terms on Basis Of Victor and Vanquished; Deliberate Bombing Of Red Cross Units Is Charged by Britain

ADDIS ABABA, April 17: (CP)—Several persons were wounded when Italian fighting planes swooped upon the capital of Ethiopia today and blasted the grounds of the Imperial Palace with repeated machine gun fire.

Meanwhile in Geneva Ethiopia turned down "modified" Italian terms for peace providing for negotiations between the two countries on the basis of victor and vanquished but allowing a League of Nations observer at the conference.

The League committee of thirteen today decided that attempts to effect a conciliation in the Italo-Ethiopian war had failed.

England accused Italy of deliberately bombing her Red Cross units in Africa.

VANCOUVER MAN TALKS

Labor Unity is Theme of Address By R. R. Webster

R. R. Webster of Vancouver addressed a good sized audience in the C. C. F. Hall on Thursday evening on the subject of "Problems of Unity." Ex-alderman Oscar Larsen, president of the Unemployed Association, was chairman. Mr. Webster, a clear and forceful speaker, said there were three chief obstacles to labor unity—chauvinism, sectarianism and opportunism. These narrowing tendencies the speaker deplored. Without breadth of vision and a willingness to sink individual prejudices for the common good labor unity was impossible. The forces of reaction could not be successfully overcome and the danger of a fascist dictatorship was imminent. The solution of the Communist Party for the problems of labor was a united front with socialist, fraternal and cultural organizations of liberal tendency and thought. Mr. Webster was well received and answered questions and criticism. A collection was taken up to defray expenses.

THE PHYSICAL CLASSES

It is good news to hear that the physical classes which have been carried on this spring are to be continued in the fall. They have been taken advantage of by Prince Rupert people to a much greater extent than could have been expected. It is to be hoped that in the autumn the classes will be carried on with as much enthusiasm and advantage as has been the case this season.

CELEBRATES CENTENARY

In the city of Sherbrooke, Que., a local fire insurance company is celebrating its one-hundredth anniversary and has issued a souvenir booklet giving a sketch of the history of the city and the company. The original stock subscription list is shown to have been in pounds, shillings and pence, the dollar not having then been adopted as a basis of currency.

HIGHWAYS ARE NEXT

It will be a difficult matter to persuade any company or government to construct a western rail outlet to the Peace River country as long as railways are not paying better than they are today. Much as we should all like to see Prince Rupert connected with that area, we might as well recognize the situation that faces us. That does not mean that our cause is hopeless. It simply means that we must wait until there is a change for the better and railways are again paying dividends or try to persuade the federal government that the construction of the line would be a good way of putting the unemployed to work in an occupation that will eventually be an asset to the nation.

LOCALS IN HOOP WINS

Terrace Basketballers Take It On The Chin Again

Another capacity house was in attendance at the Armory last night to watch the Terrace High School girls and boys hoopsters take two defeats from the locals. The first game, in which the visiting girls lost 25 to 22, was one of the best seen on a local floor for some time. Twice during the encounter the visitors held a lead of one point only to have the locals wipe it out a few moments later. In all twenty-five personal fouls were dished out by referee Johnny Comadina, 15 of which were earned by the High School quintette. Welch and Kenney together bagged eighteen of their team's twenty-two points and were easily the standouts of the losing team. For the local High School E. Davis, Blain and McLeod were very effective.

Terrace—Kenny (9), Michiel (2), McLaren (2), Welch (9), Dover, Taft, Glass, Doney, Total, 22.

Prince Rupert—Wilson, T. Davis (2), Ellison, Mussallem (2), McLeod (5), Blain (8), Llewellyn (2), E. Davis (6); Total, 25.

Boys' Game

The boys' game was an indifferent affair in which the Terrace players were obviously no match for the local High School sharpshooters. Fulton grabbed the honors for the locals with twenty of his team's forty-two points and played a sparkling game. McConnell was high scorer for Terrace with seven points. Twenty-one personal fouls were meted out by the referee, 15 of which went to the locals.

Following the games a very enjoyable dance was staged in honor of the visitors. Charles Balagno provided the music with Alan Davies a genial master of ceremonies. About 250 were in attendance.

Terrace—McLeod (1), Attree (2), Seaton (2), Eadie (1), Nash (1), McConnell (7); Total, 15.
Prince Rupert—Munro (3), Davies (3), McMeekin, Hirano (4), Campbell (2), Naylor (1), Fulton (20), O'Neill (4); Total, 42.

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR TELLS OF VARIOUS YOUTH MOVEMENTS OF DIFFERENT COUNTRIES.

censed sometimes that his countrymen play too much.
"The modern youth movements in Germany, Italy, Austria and I suppose in Russia are in the hands of adults who know exactly where they are going.

The Fisher Movement
What is left of the movement? Walter Carl Fisher, a twenty year old law student of Steglitz, Germany, started in the year 1900? In those days he established what we call the "Wandervogel." The movement grew and grew and did much towards uniting the many states of Germany. But, when the war was over in 1919, politics entered the movement. National organization was commenced and leaders were elected to the Reichstag. Then on July 9, 1922 the new German Jugendflug. Act was framed (Child Welfare Law). It included in its phraseology the words "care of youth movement also." Just these few words and today we find the national and state governmental bureaus financing and promoting, in various ways, the whole conglomerate movement.

"And thus, Fisher's dreams of a few hikers roaming from town to town have been exceeded beyond expectations. Within a few years, 1922-36, these groups of wandering youths have become national organizations and over 5 million members between the ages of 15 and 25 have been enrolled.
"What I want to point out is that gradually the leadership has been taken out of the hands of the youths and today most of the organizations are adult made and conducted by adults in a very old-fashioned way. This has led to a most unique situation as we now hear about revolts of youth against the 'youth movement.'

"I am not so conversant with conditions in Italy as it is over 8 years since I was there but from what I receive of information it is very much the same as in Germany. Russia would be interesting to visit, but I feel certain that one would be disappointed in the youth movement there also, and find that the Soviet was capitalizing on ideas which more progressive countries would not stoop to.

"Of all these systems we have discussed here which one would be the right one for Canada and more specifically for British Columbia? It is a hard question to answer. My opinion, however, is that it is a government responsibility to look after the welfare of its young people and provide for them those activities which will form good habits, which will teach them fair-play and build up good citizens—to organize and promote health centres. In the Provincial Recreation Centres in British Columbia, you will find some of the spirit of the Danish Folk High-Schools, although purely dealing with the physical aspects of life. The centres are not going to run the youth, no. The youths enrolled are supposed to learn to organize themselves, learn to act on their own initiative. The work is to provide the inspiration, give advice, assist in organizing, and last but not least, provide the necessary finances."

Girl Cop Smiles On Car Spooners

New Woman Constable in Ohio Makes Her Beat Real Lover's Lane

CHARDON, Ohio, April 17: (CP)—Ohio's only woman constable has little use for her "old manie" fellow officers who prey on young couples taking advantage of secluded roads on moonlight nights. "Most constables forget the mystic influence of the moon and balmy evenings," says Miss Pauline Hunt, aged 24.
"They seek to force their officiousness on couples who are often want to park, wrapped in the spell of love, on the secluded highways. But not me. Of course, if I thought their car was endangering traffic, I might pleasantly tell them to move the car to a less dangerous spot; give them a smile and then depart," she said. "Some of these old constables forget they were ever young."

Miss Hunt won her badge without campaigning. Her name was mentioned at a township caucus, she consented to act, and that was that.

MAE WEST FILM HERE

"Klondike Annie" is Lusty Tale of Gold-Rush days

Mae West's latest picture, "Klondike Annie," comes to the Capitol Theatre this week-end.
"Klondike Annie" is a breezy story of San Francisco's Barbary Coast and the fabulous Alaskan Gold Rush, with the blonde star swinging through a series of amusing and exciting situations with the same skeptical twinkle in her eye and the traditional drawl on her lips.

Mae is a gay and ornamental gal of the '90's, and Victor McLaglen is her principal foil. McLaglen is cast as commander of a steamship to which Mae flees after her escape from a gambling house on the Barbary Coast where she has been held a prisoner. In the battle that makes her escape possible, a man is killed, so Mae heads for the remotest spot possible — Alaska, where the Gold Rush is roaring on at full tilt. McLaglen becomes enamoured of his fair passenger.

Another passenger on the boat is a girl missionary, who rapidly wins Mae's respect and friendship. When the girl dies at sea, Mae is grief-stricken. As the steamer nears Alaska, operatives board it in search of Miss West, who is wanted for the San Francisco murder. Mae disguises herself in the missionary's clothes, and carries off the impersonation successfully. But when the ship docks at Nome, she discovers that she must continue the pose. The complications that ensue bring the film to an exciting and amusing climax.
