ELECTIONS EXPENSIVE

Costs Millions to Land Leader in White House. Figures Show

Big Increase

Major Parties in Present American Campaign Talk of $5,000,000

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24: (CP)—It takes more than catchy ballyhoo and a compelling discussion of the issues to put a man in the White House. It takes dollars, too—millions of them.

While the total spent by Democrats and Republicans this year may amount to less than that of the 1928 boom days, it still will make the expenditures of an earlier year seem like "pin money."

Only $100,000 was spent in 1890 to elect Abraham Lincoln, and $125,000 to re-elect him in 1864. The Democrats reported expenditure of $1,520,658 to re-elect President Roosevelt in financial statements filed with the House of Representatives clerk last month, as required by law. They reported $372,000 left in the campaign chest.

The Republican statement showed $2,544,919 spent on behalf of Governor Landon, with about $500,000 left. The minor parties reported aggregate expenditure of $43,520. Chieftains of both major parties expect substantial increases in expenditures between now and the closing of the campaign.

Prior to the Civil War, the largest campaign fund collected was $5,000 for James Buchanan. The radio and high-pressure methods of "selling" a candidate make necessary far greater sums today.

The all-time record for a presidential campaign was attained in 1928 when the two major parties expended a total expenditure of $11,598,000. Of this amount, the Republicans spent $6,256,000 to elect Herbert Hoover and the Democrats $5,342,000 in behalf of Alfred E. Smith.

Depression Bore Down

The depression bore down heavily on the parties in 1932. The total spent was less than $5,000,000—of which $2,670,652 went for Hoover and $1,708,597 for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

It required only $150,000 to send General Grant to the White House for the first time and $250,000 to keep him there for a second term. It was not until 1884 that presidential campaign funds entered the million-dollar class. Grover Cleveland's first campaign cost $1,400,000 and that of his opponent, James G. Blaine, $1,300,000.

Thereafter more than $1,000,000 was expended each presidential year for the winning candidate. Minor groups usually have to get along on a shoestring. The Union party listed expenditure of $23,853; the Socialists, $12,082; the Prohibitionists, $7,585.

Of the independent political organizations in the field this year, Father Coughlin's Union for Social Justice reported spending $473,380; the American Liberty League (anti-New Deal), $404,297; Good Neighbor League (pro-New Deal), $30,400; Southern Committee to Uphold the Constitution, $4,970, and National Jefferson Democrats, $2,736.

Some of Pacific Coast Shipping Companies Accept Demands Of Union; Looks Like Settlement

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24:—Making the first definite sign of an important break of the long standing dispute which has been threatening a general strike and tie-up in Pacific Coast shipping, it was announced last night that twenty-seven of the eighty steamship companies had agreed to accept the demands of the International Longshoremen's Association in regard to wages and working conditions.

The companies willing to come to terms wish to do so with the unions separately and there is some question if this will be acceptable to the International Longshoremen's Association.

The surrender of eleven companies to the union demands came suddenly yesterday after several days of deadlock during which, despite numerous conferences in which the Federal Maritime Commission and Edward F. McGready, assistant secretary of labor, took a leading part, little progress was apparently being made although hopes were still being held for a settlement of the dispute without a strike or interruption of shipping.

At first all shipping companies had offered extension for a year of the present agreement but the unions had demanded six provisions which the ship-owners rejected. Yesterday the eleven companies accepted these provisions with sixteen more companies later falling in line.

Strike balloting was already in progress and, until yesterday, it appeared that the outcome of the tense situation would rest on its Wednesday had been set as the deadline for the truce extension. Now hopes are that there will be an early and complete settlement of the whole dispute.

In New York, Joseph Ryan, president of the International Longshoremen's Association, announced that an agreement had been signed definitely settling the marine workers' dispute with employers on the Atlantic Coast.

ROAD PAVING GOES AHEAD

Nova Scotia Making Progress In Highway Development

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 24: (CP)—A total of 404 miles of paved highway had been laid in Nova Scotia by the end of this summer. R. W. McCollough, Chief Engineer of the Department of Highways told a Halifax service club. Another 305 miles of grading had been completed and will be paved in 1937 he said.

By the end of next year 703 miles of paving will have been laid and the whole of the present program will be completed in 1938. Mr. McCollough said Nova Scotia's first permanent highway paving was laid last year, although experimental work had been done previously. The province has 1,601 miles of trunk highways, 3,170 of county highways and 10,052 of local roads.

PRESIDENT WELCOMED

Roosevelt Has Triumphant Tour In New England—Greeted By Hundreds of Thousands

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 24:—No new taxes are contemplated if he is returned to office because recovery is already here, President Franklin D. Roosevelt told a Worcester audience during his tour of New England this week. The chief executive promised an early balancing of the budget.

If the benefits of democracy are to be extended, they must of necessity be met by taxes, President Roosevelt declared. There was a small group of interests which opposed the extension of these benefits because they did not wish to pay their share. It was these interests which were leading the opposition to his re-election. Taxes must be imposed, according to the ability to pay, asserted the President.

President Roosevelt was given a great reception throughout his tour of New England. He was greeted in Boston by a crowd of 150,000, the greatest turnout in the city since the Armistice. Providence, Rhode Island, also gave Roosevelt an enthusiastic welcome.

Between Hartford and Stamford, Conn., it is estimated some 300,000 turned out to greet and hear the President. Splendid receptions were given at all points where his special train stopped.

Portuguese Charged With Sinking Spanish Ship—Russia Renews Blockade Demand

MADRID, Oct. 24:—With the insurgent forces continuing to close in on the Spanish capital, it was reported last night that the government had agreed to the evacuation of women and children from Madrid under foreign protection. There is now no denial of the fact that the capture of Madrid by the Fascist rebels is a virtual certainty unless there are new and unexpected developments almost at once.

Shaken by machine gun strafing of insurgent planes, citizens of the war-girt capital anxiously scanned the skies today for a threatened mass air raid.

In an attempt to bolster waning courage, workers, with picks and shovels, paraded the streets today, the leaders calling: "All stand together. We choose death before slavery."

Whispers running through the crowds that "The Moors are coming" heightened fears that the fierce, swarthy Moroccan legionnaires would pillage the capital.

SPANISH SOVIET REPUBLIC?

BERLIN, Oct. 24:—It was charged here last night that the tottering leftist government of Spain was planning to set up a Soviet Republic in Catalonia with Barcelona as the seat of government.

PORTUGAL CHARGED

LONDON, Oct. 24: (CP)—Spain charged Portugal today with the death of forty Spanish sailors during a naval engagement. It was alleged that the Portuguese sent the motorship Ciudad de Macao, with her hull and funnels painted similar to those of a German vessel, into African waters and that, on October 14, she fired without warning at short range four shells at the motorship Fernando Po, flying the Spanish flag, setting fire to the vessel and sinking her. The captain and crew of the Fernando Po were drowned.

Russia today renewed her demand for a blockade of Portuguese ports to prevent the shipment of munitions to Spanish insurgents. At the same time Moscow intimated it is prepared to render immediate technical, if not military support, to the government of Spain.

They Forget History

It is enough to make a cat laugh to note the sort of criticism of Mr. Mackenzie King's speech in Geneva at the recent gathering of the League of Nations Assembly, observes the Victoria Times. All he said, boiled down to a few words, was that the Canadian Parliament reserved the right to say whether or not this country would embark upon a foreign war in which Canada was not in the least responsible.

Of course, it will be remembered that a former Prime Minister of Canada, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighan, in his famous Hamilton speech in 1925, insisted that before Canada entered another war he would demand a referendum of the Canadian people. But those newspapers that do not like Mr. Mackenzie King have a convenient knack of forgetting historical facts. But certain historical facts also have a knack of butting in at the wrong time—the wrong time for those who would much prefer to ignore them.

Retail Trade Booming

At the eighth Boston conference of distributors, Professor Paul H. Nystro, Professor of Marketing at Columbia University, forecasted that the next three months will see the best retail trade since the boom years. This is good news and should encourage our merchants to double their energy and make hay while the sun shines, by doubling their advertising space. At the same time, it is also a good occasion to find an odd job or two for those on relief. By helping persons out of work with work we help ourselves.

RUGGER IN MARITIMES

Football Coaches in Seaside Provinces Hope to Overcome Cape Breton Squad

HALIFAX, Oct. 24.—Old Country rugby holds sway in Maritime sportdom this month as colleges and clubs attempt to whip teams into shape to defeat Caledonia, the Cape Breton mining town squad that has kept Maritime and Eastern Canadian rugby titles to itself for most of the last ten years.

This year, it is argued, the other teams have a better chance than they ever had since John McCarthy waltzed Caledonia into one of the wiftest and most powerful machines ever seen in these parts.

Most of the old original Caledonians have gone, but the ones that remain are leading a gang of youngsters towards the approaching provincial and interprovincial laydowns. So far, the team has remained undefeated in the Colliery league, although it has not been winning its games by as big margins as was once the case.

In Nova Scotia's other big league, the Halifax city loop, Wanderers appear headed for the championship in a triangle fight with Dalhousie and Acadia Universities.

Rugby strength in New Brunswick appears centred in the Mount Allison University squad, maritime intercollegiate champions last year. There are other highly rated teams, however, in Fredericton and Saint John.

The game played in the Maritime Provinces is seen regularly in few other parts of North America except British Columbia. With 15 players to a side, the rules are those of the Rugby Football Association in England.

The Maritime titleholders usually play off with a Montreal team for the Eastern Canadian championship, but most of the players on the Quebec side hail originally from the seaside provinces.

Ancient Colony Gets School Car

Wheeled Room Brings Education To Children in Outlying District

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 24: (CP)—Newfoundland's first railway school car, through which it is hoped primary education may be brought the children of families far removed from regular schools throughout the country, is being groomed for a heavy schedule this winter.

The coach was presented the Department of Education by the Anglo-Newfoundland Developing Company; the Newfoundland Railway Company agreed to haul it free of charge; the Department of Education placed a travelling instructor on board, and the stage was set for a new experiment in Newfoundland.

The school of wheels has been constructed in much the same style as two similar cars placed in operation in Northern Ontario 10 years ago. The Canadian cars ply over a 150-mile beat, stopping four to ten days at settlements. A complete round of five or six settlements is made once a month.

Children are provided with constructive work to do in the intervals between visits of the car.

Love Triangle Ends in Death

Three Die When Rejected Suitor Kills Lovers, Then Shoots Self

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Oct. 24: (CP)—Tragic deaths of James Aird, 38, Gabriel Plassido, 40, and Myra Bhagwansingh, beautiful 29-year old East Indian girl, in what police claim was the ending of a love triangle, have shocked all Trinidad.

The gruesome discovery of three mutilated bodies was made by neighbors attracted to Aird's home by the sound of gunshots. In the courtyard of the Aird home, Myra Bhagwansingh was found writhing from fatal injuries, her arm broken and her face torn to shreds from a point-blank charge of shot. Near her lay the almost unrecognizable body of Plassido, a new 16-bore shotgun placed between his knees, and Aird was found dead inside the house, shot in the back of the head.

Neighbors said Myra and Plassido had been sweethearts for years but lately she had left him to go with Aird.

Much American Fish in During Past Week—Margalice Has Minor Mishap—Log Steamer Due Tomorrow

American landings of halibut at the port of Prince Rupert during the week ending yesterday were the heaviest for any single week this season, totalling 589,000 pounds. The vessels landing catches included many of the larger schooners, several of which were making their first calls of the season at the port. The reason for the large American vessels putting in at Prince Rupert at this time instead of going on to Seattle as is their custom was in order that they might make another full trip to the fishing grounds before the closing of fishing on November 3. The week's landings brought the season's total of American fish up to 5,509,500 pounds as compared with 5,727,300 pounds at a similar date last year. The week's Canadian landings amounted to 127,500 pounds, making the season's total 5,594,100 pounds as against last year's 4,983,350 pounds at a corresponding date. The grand total of halibut landings at Prince Rupert for the 1936 season up to and including yesterday was 11,103,600 pounds in comparison with 10,710,650 pounds last year at a similar date. Despite the heavy landings, prices held up quite well during the week. The top price of the week for Canadian fish was 9c and 6.5c which the Capella received for 6,000 pounds and the low 7.5c and 6c which the Oslo was paid for 17,000 pounds. For American fish the high price of the week was 9c and 6.5c which the Explorer and Oceanic received for catches of 22,000 and 18,500 pounds respectively while the low was 7.8c and 6c which the North and Brisk were paid for catches of 38,000 and 36,000 pounds respectively.

The Canadian halibut boat Margalice, Capt. Jack Christiansen, has been receiving repairs at Prince Rupert for damage sustained in a stranding while on a fishing trip. The incident was not a serious one. Russell M. Smith, for upwards of ten years agent for the Union Steamship Co. at Prince Rupert and previous to that for many years a regular caller to the port as purser on vessels of the company's north coast fleet, bade good-bye to this port last night when he sailed aboard the Cardena for Vancouver to assume a new post there as general city agent for the company. He was accompanied by Mrs. Smith. Their departure is regretted and their numerous friends join in wishing them best of luck and good health in the future coupled with the hope that they may be able to come back frequently to renew their friendships and acquaintances in the north.

Log Ship Coming

Coming here to take on 500,000 feet of cottonwood timber from up the Skeena River, the British steamer Dunelmia is expected to arrive in Prince Rupert tomorrow. She is coming here from Nanaimo. She is coming here via the outside of the Queen Charlottes from Nanaimo which port she left Thursday morning, and this is to be her final call on this coast before proceeding to the Orient. She goes to Shanghai from here although the timber which is to be loaded here is destined for Hong Kong. This will be the last shipment of cottonwood to be made from here this season although some aspen may be sent forward during the winter. The market for cottonwood is good and it is quite possible more will be exported from Prince Rupert next year.

Finishing Contract Work

John R. Currie & Sons have completed the contract of installing a breakwater at the fishermen's floats east of the dry dock. The Armour Salvage Co. is expecting to be finished next week with the dredging contract inside the floats between them and the railway grade.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local Fish Exchange this morning.

Dr. E. Pugsley of the department of bio-chemistry at McGill University will arrive on tonight's train from Montreal to join the staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station as assistant bio-chemist. He has been appointed temporarily to the staff of the station pending decision of O. F. Denstedt as to his returning to Prince Rupert. Mr. Denstedt will be continuing his post-graduate studies at McGill University for at least another year.

CONJURES RAIN FOR TOBACCO

One Plug for Light Fall, Five Plugs For Downpours is Indian's Price

MONTREAL LAKE, Sask., Oct. 24: (CP)—Magician and medicine man, old "Frederick," native of Montreal Lake Indian reserve, may be the answer to the North Central American farmer's prayer. He will guarantee rain in copious quantities in exchange for a plug of tobacco.

Better known as Wee-ee-Go, or Musqua, Frederick has been making the elements do his bidding for some time, according to local records. For proof of his success he points to a never failing source of the nicotine leaf.

For a plug of tobacco the 80-year old Indian will work up a moderate shower. For five plugs he will conjure up a soaking downpour. Unlike Charles M. Hatfield, Alberta rainmaker, who induced rain to fall near Medicine Hat in 1921, Frederick has never disclosed his methods to those outside the "trade."

When forest fires raged in this area, 60 miles north of Prince Albert, last June, T. Jepson, of the Saskatchewan natural resources department, arrived here in an airplane piloted by Nick Carter. There was a clear sky and rain was sorely needed. Frederick, it is related, came through.

Gets Results

The aged rainmaker received his tobacco and within 24 hours rain fell. All but one of a number of deeply-rooted muskeg fires were effectively put out. Frederick lamented the fact that one plug had to be divided with three other agents in his "business."

Exploits of the white-haired native have recalled other similar occurrences. At Loon Lake, 135 miles west of here, last May, Cree Indians beat their tom-toms and called upon their pagan gods for rain to end bush fires threatening their homes. Rain fell at nightfall relieving the danger to both Indians and white settlers.

Hatfield, southern Alberta's rainmaker, received $5,500 for his efforts in bringing rain for crops in the foothills province 15 years ago. He employed chemicals to break up clouds drifting over the province. John Lawson Greenham, Halifax chemist, last year disclosed a proposal to attack clouds by airplane for the benefit of drought-suffering areas.

Greenham's theory was that since rainfall is formed around a nuclei-minute particle of dust it would be possible to create conditions similar to those that exist when rain falls by spraying into the clouds artificial nuclei in fine, dry and cold powder form. He believed it would be possible to produce 500 tons of water at a cost of between $20 and $50.

LONDON, Oct. 24: (CP)—Lord Moynihan, celebrated surgeon who died Sept. 7, left $1,625,000. He bequeathed $5,000 to Leeds University.

Many Mentioned As Candidates For Mayoralty

VANCOUVER, Oct. 24:—At least a dozen names are being prominently mentioned as candidates for mayor of Vancouver at the civic election to take place early in December. C. E. Thompson, who was campaign manager for Mayor G. G. McGeer two years ago and who was prominently identified with the Jubilee Celebration this year, is among those whose names are heard. So far, Former Mayor Louis D. Taylor is the only candidate to have formally filled nomination papers. The present expectation is that Mayor McGeer will not be seeking re-election.
