New Jewish City in Palestine

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

There are today very close to half a million Jews in Palestine. It is claimed by the Arabs, who outnumber them considerably, that the Jews buy the land from the Arabs and sit down and get the money back. The new book "No Place Like Home" by Beverley Nichols describes in an interesting manner the largest Jewish city in Nelson Allen and Japanese Palestine, "Tel Aviv." It had, when the book was publish- teams played to a 16-all draw last student squad shared in their ed a few months ago, a population of over 100,000 people, night in the City Table Tennis ninety-nine percent of whom were Jews. Telling of his arrival in the city, Mr. Nichols says: "You turn a corner and are at the entrance to a long, noisy street. At first you cannot see it very clearly, because it is always half hidden in dust. This dust comes from the FOR RENT-Four-room countless new houses which are being built in every direction. And out of the dust comes a din of knocking and rivetting and hammering. But as soon as you get more acclimatized to this bedlam, you notice that the main street looks strangely like that of a prosperous town in the middle west of America. You motor down it, very slowly, WANTED-Leather Baby carriage. because the traffic is phenomenal and the pavements are so crowded that the people overflow on to the roads. Where are the Arabs? By virtue of his decisive victory on points over Len Harvey of England in London last night, John Henry Lewis, Phoenix, Arizona, negro, retained his world's light heavyweight championship. Lewis weighed 1731/2 pounds and Harvey 172 pounds. The latter had challlenged the former.

> Hamilton, Ont .: "From the time I was a small boy until the age of thirty-two, I was never free from a hacking cough night and day. Doctors told me I was suffering from chronic bronchitis-that there was no permanent relief. One day I saw an advertisement for Buckley's Mixture. The word bronchitis arrested my attention. I purchased a bottle. It gave me relief. I bought two more and my cough left me completely. That happened six years ago, and the cough has never returned."

Easy method. of Baking

BAKING IS NO LONGER HARD WORK FOR ME," says MRS. G. RILEY, Calgary, Alta.

"I use Quaker Flour and the Quaker Easy Method of Baking and I not only save half the work and trouble, but I get much better results in half the time."

A ND no wonder Mrs. Riley is so completely satisfied with Quaker Flour and the Quaker Easy Method of Baking. Just imagine . . . no kneading ... no sponge to set overnight . . . no expensive and exasperating failures.

Start using the Quaker Method with Quaker Flour today. Quaker Flour is not just ordinary flour it is made by Quaker's own particular method of milling - and is the best all-purpose flour money can buy.

Send for FREE Booklet describing the Quaker Easy Method of bread baking.

It's a losing proposition trying to beat the Weather Man at his own game. Remember-you can kid yourself that no harm is done by waiting until your gears are stiff from "frozen" grease ... or your oil takes several minutes to flow freely . . . or your radiator spurts forth those tell-tale streams of steam-but kidding yourself certainly
