

RIVERS DRY UP AS HEAT WAVE SWEEPS WEST

With thermometers rising and little hope held for rain in the near future, farmers of Western Canada can do little but sit back and watch their crops burn to a crisp. In Western United States conditions are even worse, with drought and grasshoppers laying waste large areas. Even rivers are drying up, as the above picture shows. This was once a generous stream of water flowing through North Dakota. At top, cattle seek vainly for food in parched pastures. Little can be done for them, and they are left to die in the blazing sun. Central Press Canadian Photo.

Billion Dollar Loss to Crops Is Toll of Devastating Spell Of Hot Weather on Other Side

Death List Mounts to 3291 Now—Rains and Cooler Temperatures Bring Relief to Some Parts But Others Still Suffering Intensely

CHICAGO, Ill., July 15:—The losses by reason of crop destruction in the 1936 drought were conservatively figured Tuesday at more than $1,000,000,000 of which more than half was incurred by damage to growing grain in middle and northwest sections of the United States since July 1. The death toll is estimated today at 3291 including over 400 in Minneapolis and St. Paul, 500 around Detroit and over 125 in Chicago.

Pelting rain in three northwest states brought hope of general relief Tuesday from the lethal heat wave which gripped the United States for eleven days. Elsewhere in the country there were lighter showers and cool winds. The Dakotas and Nebraska had rain which appeared to be moving east while a cool wave was coming down from Michigan.

In parts of the midwest and Upper Mississippi, however, furnace-like heat continued. Indianapolis had 106 above yesterday; Madison, Wisconsin, 108; Springfield and Peoria, Illinois, 110 above, and Fort Wayne, 106. The thermometer dropped yesterday in Detroit, the hardest hit city, from 104 to 82.

Economic and political circles, however, turned to a more sober strain, declaring that Italy will operate on a virtually sanctioned basis for some time to come, carrying out Il Duce's resolution to make the country as self-sufficient as possible.

F. and L. Council Representatives Met With Premier Pattullo Last Night

A delegation from the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council consisting of S. D. Macdonald, president; Frank Derry, Ben Dalgarno and J. J. Gillis waited upon Premier T. D. Pattullo last evening and presented a memorandum concerning a number of matters in which labor is interested.

The delegation urged that an increase be given in the local relief allowance in view of the fact that no allowance was made here as was done in other places for rent, fuel, clothing and medical and dental services.

The principle of women, particularly the aged, being required to work out their relief was denounced.

Protest was also laid at certain industries hereabouts operating on wage scales lower than set by the Board of Industrial Relations.

The delegation expressed the belief that relief labor was being exploited here on park work while streets, sidewalks and school playgrounds were being neglected.

The Premier assured the delegation of early consideration to the various matters.

KAIEN ISLAND

A few years ago residents of Prince Rupert knew nothing of the island on which they lived. Most of them had never crossed it or been around it or climbed to the top of the mountain. Today they can drive around one side of it to Galloway Rapids and by following a trail can climb to the top of the mountain. The idea of climbing the mountain received a strong urge when a few Scandinavian residents conceived the idea of forming a ski club and built a club house well up the mountainside. Today many people climb the mountain and enjoy the wonderful view from the top.

Very soon we hope all the young people in the city will learn all about their little island home. Every child should know the flowers, the animals and insects that are found in different parts of Kaien Island and also should know something of the marine life. A good beginning has been made in some of the public school classes but this should be extended to include the high school.

Most school pupils should before they graduate know all there is to know about the island on which they live and examination papers should always include at least one question about Kaien Island, its size, structure, inhabitants, flora and fauna. It is much more important to know about Kaien Island than to learn about New Guinea.

SHORT CUTS

It would seem as if there are no short cuts to prosperity. It might even seem as if there were no better system than our own for distribution of goods and labor. Possibly that may be correct but it is a terrible slur on the human race to think that the present clumsy method is the best that can be evolved. It is a slur on the Almighty to suggest that he created a brain which was incapable of evolving something better than the present system under which we often have too much food and clothes and at the same time thousands of people are hungry and naked.

We think a system will yet be evolved under which there will be an opportunity for every man all the time to earn a livelihood in the sweat of his brow. No other system will be satisfactory. A short cut will be unnecessary in doing this. Our leaders should be able to plan it, even if some people are hurt a little in the process.

It is always a popular thing to attack capital and capitalists and blame them for all the ills of mankind. Capitalists have served a useful purpose and doubtless will continue to do the same in future. We cannot, however, in the very nature of things expect them to take a line of action which may tend to diminish their own profits and power. And yet we notice that many of the reforms of the world have been brought about by capitalists and it is yet possible that capitalists and not soap-box orators will be the ones who will change our system to make it more equitable and workable.

Policemen may be generally recognized as having flat feet, but swimmers have feet like ducks, said Dr. J. M. Webster, police surgeon in Sheffield, recently. The doctor did not mean it. He was annoyed because policemen are the brunt of nearly all boot jokes.

A blind girls foursome defeated a sighted crew in a mile race at the Women's Amateur Rowing Association regatta at Hamersmith recently. It was the first time a sightless boat won using sliding seats.

Snow is just an incidental to Victoria, New South Wales skiers. On snow-less days members carry skis, two ski-sticks or broom-handles, straw, paraffin wax, a rake and a tough hide. And results are just as good.

Five years ago K. J. Richardson could hardly walk. At the Midland Counties championship in Luton, Eng., he won the 100 yards title in 10.1 seconds. He defeated A. W. Green, champion for the past nine years.

TIGHT RACE CONTINUES

Four Teams Vying Hard For Second Place in American Baseball League

PHILADELPHIA, July 15: (CP)—Losing by a decisive margin to the Philadelphia Athletics at Shibe Park yesterday, the world champion Detroit Tigers fell back in their race for the American League pennant, leaving the idle New York Yankees with a nine game lead. The Washington Senators, playing at home, continued their winning ways with an easy victory over the lowly St. Louis Browns and are now within half a game of the second place Tigers. Cleveland Indians defeated the Red Sox at Boston and are now in exclusive possession of fourth place. The contest for runner-up position in the junior circuit is proving as interesting as ever.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs continued their narrow lead of three percentage points with another victory over the slipping New York Giants at Wrigley Field while the second place Cardinals, playing at St. Louis, downed the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Toronto Suburbs Default on Bonds

Refinancing Schemes Are Now Being Prepared

TORONTO, July 15: (CP)—Seven Toronto suburban municipalities in default on bond payments, are preparing refinancing schemes which, through fiscal agents, will be submitted to the bondholders' protective committees. The municipalities concerned are the town of Leaside, New Toronto and Mimico and the townships of Scarborough, North York and Etobicoke. The village of Long Branch is working on a joint plan with Etobicoke.

The plans, The Financial Post hears, have just recently been submitted and to date the bondholders' committees have not held meetings to deal with them. The proposal for Mimico, it is understood, has progressed farther than the others and has been approved in principle by the parties concerned.

Details of the New Toronto scheme leaked out when the proposed plan was voted down by the town council and a committee appointed to draw up an alternative plan. While the opposition of the council may delay the approval of the plan, its endorsement by the council is not necessary. Approval by bondholders and by the Ontario Municipal Board is all that is necessary to put the plan into effect.

The scheme as proposed by the fiscal agents, and which is opposed by the council on the grounds that it will be too great a burden on taxpayers in the future, provides for full payment of interest and maturity dates being extended for four years.

A handful of British policemen, steel helmeted and armed with batons and shields, charge, and, after a fierce battle, disperse a mob of howling Arabs, who stoned and clubbed them. Riots like the above directed principally at the influx of Jewish immigration, and urged on by Italian and German propaganda and agitators, attained a serious aspect and necessitated martial law.

To Make Jelly From Sea Weed

Prince Edward Island Sees Possibility of New Industry

CHARLOTTETOWN, July 15: (CP)—Prince Edward Island may shortly have a new industry which would make use of the practically unlimited supply of Irish moss, a form of sea growth which is to be found almost anywhere along the coast of the island province.

Inquiries about quantity and quality of the seaweed, known here as "Carrageen Moss" have been received from outside interests who would be interested in extraction of a jelly it yields, for commercial purposes.

Irish Moss jelly is similar to agar-agar made from Japanese seaweed and used in the manufacture of flavored jellies and blanc mange. The weed already is used for such purposes by islanders.

It is believed locally the proposed industry would have great possibilities in view of the almost inexhaustible supply of Irish Moss and the splendid European market for its jelly product.

are not enough boys available, the local branch of the Navy League of Canada has decided to hold a picnic at Tugwell Island on Sunday next for members of the Navy League, Sea Cadets and parents. Staff Sergeant G. H. Greenwood, chief of police, is in charge of arrangements for the outing.

The recent loss of the two Yukon & White Pass Route river steamers Klondyke and Casca is having the effect of diverting tourist business from Dawson and lower Yukon River points into the Atlin district which, as far as Atlin is concerned, is all to the good. Businesses at Atlin catering to tourists are having an unusually busy season, according to word received here.

SCENE IS LABRADOR

Robert Montgomery and Myrna Loy Top Cast in Unusual Comedy

Against a background of ice-bound Labrador, Robert Montgomery and Myrna Loy enact a funny comedy in the picture "Petticoat Fever," at the Capitol Theatre this mid-week. Adapted from the stage hit of the same name, the story concerns a wireless operator who is so lonely that he holds prisoner two fliers, a beautiful young girl and her male companion, whom he rescues from the Arctic night. Reginald Owen heads the featured cast, as the blustery Englishman whose bride-to-be is snatched away from under his very nose.

Topped by several of Hollywood's best known featured players, a well rounded cast appears in "Dancing Feet," an amusing musical romance which is also included in the double bill. Among the players are Ben Lyon, Joan Marsh, Eddie Nugent, Isabel Jewell, Purnell Pratt, Vince Barnett, Herbert Corthell, Harry Bradley, Nick Condos and the J. C. Edward orchestra.

WAKE-UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes these good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 2c.
