Shipping Interests To Omit Calls on Account Of Waterfront Trouble

One Steamer Already Diverted to San Pedro and Another May Follow Suit—Announcement Made By Assistant Secretary of Labor

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 15.—Owing to continued labor troubles on the San Francisco waterfront, shipping interests are proposing to drop the city of the Golden Gate as a port of call, it was stated yesterday by Edward F. McCready, assistant secretary of labor. The Panama Pacific Line has announced that its steamer California, leaving for New York, will sail on Sunday from San Pedro instead of San Francisco, passengers from San Francisco to be taken to San Pedro by rail. The steamer Virginia, now on the way from the Atlantic Coast to California, may also be diverted from San Francisco.

Two Bank Officials Are Shot As Three Bandits Hold Up Branch Bank of Commerce at Vancouver

Manager Thomas Winsby and Teller William Hobbs Victims—Gunmen Carry Off $1200 in Cash Today at Noon

VANCOUVER, Jan. 15. (CP)—Three armed bandits held up the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Powell Street and Victoria Drive at the noon hour today, shot Thomas Winsby, the manager, in the left arm and Will Hobbs, teller, in the neck, and escaped with a sum estimated at $1200. Hobbs is in a critical condition.

The gunmen escaped in a taxi which they commandeered after throwing the driver out in Stanley Park. Three customers were in the bank at the time of the entry of the bandits. One of the unwelcome visitors covered the customers, a second went into the manager's office and a third walked to the teller's cage. The manager and teller were not given much chance to comply with the demands of the bandits before being shot down.

NORTH HAS COLD SNAP

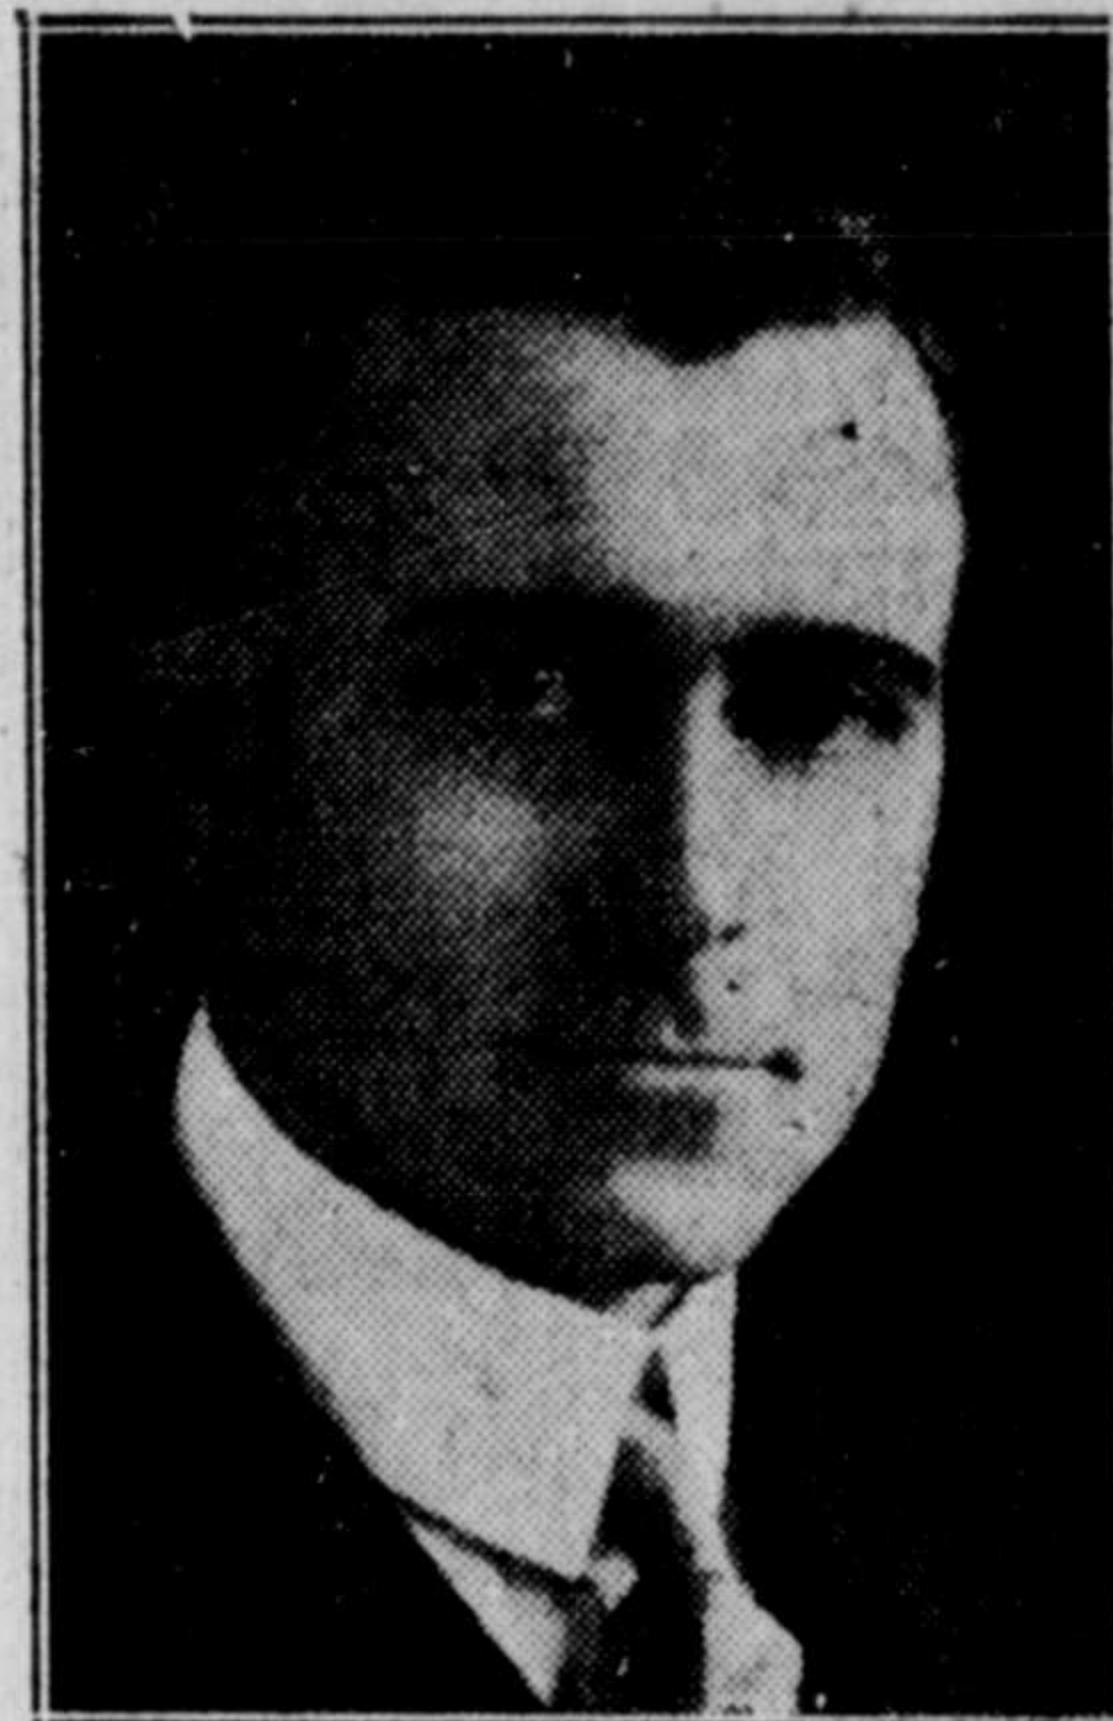

Sub-Zero Temperature Readings In Interior—Skating in Prince Rupert

The first real cold snap of the present winter in Prince Rupert district seems to have arrived with sub-zero temperature readings recorded in the interior and several degrees of frost at all coastal points. MANY DIE IN CRASH

Seventeen Perish When U. S. Air Liner Meets With Disaster In Arkansas

GOODWIN, Ark., Jan. 15.—Fourteen passengers and the crew of three perished early last evening when the American Air Line's luxury plane "Southerner" bound from Memphis, Tenn., to Little Rock, Ark., crashed deep in a dense swamp two miles from here. The big machine struck with such force that it was practically demolished and those on board are all believed to have been instantly killed.

Two hours after the plane was reported missing, it was discovered by searchers.

Jerry Marshall was pilot in charge, the other members of the crew being co-pilot and stewardess.

The death list is the largest ever recorded in an airplane disaster in the United States.

The remnants of the seventeen bodies were recovered today and removed to a funeral home where it is hoped identification will be made later.

TRADE OF CANADA UP

Exports in Many Lines Showed Increase With Gain in Imports Not So Marked

OTTAWA, Jan. 15. (CP)—The important gain in Canada's external trade was a feature of the economic betterment of the year, according to Hon. W. D. Euler, minister of trade and commerce. As wholesale prices remained fairly stable in the last two years, the gain in the volume of the trade corresponded rather closely with the increase in the value. The best available method of appraising the trend of Canadian trade is to compare the statistics for the first 10 months of 1935 with the level of the same period of the preceding year. The exports of Canadian produce were valued at $576,800,000 in the available period of 1935 against $526,900,000 in the same months of 1934. The gain of 9.5%, while by no means spectacular, must be considered satisfactory. Eight of the nine groups of the chief component material classification showed gains in this comparison. The exception was the group of crop products which showed a decline of 3%. The outward shipment of animal products was accelerated to the extent of 18%. The two classes of crop and animal products consisting of farm products and goods manufactured therefrom showed a gain of $7,860,000. Textile exports showed the largest percentage gain of 28.3%, but the absolute increase was unimportant.

The exports of wood and paper reached the relatively high total of $142,000,000, a gain of 8.2% over the same period of 1934. The iron and steel group increased 29.4% (Continued on page three)

Where Italian Warships Assemble

With Italy preparing for possible war in the Mediterranean, heavy concentration of Italian warships and aeroplanes in the Dodecanese Islands, off the Turkish coast, have been reliably reported in Rome. At the same time, it is reported that between 10,000 and 15,000 Italian naval officers and specialists are being mobilized. The naval and air concentrations in the Dodecanese Islands, shown in the map, place a powerful Italian striking force in a position that threatens the British fleet mobilized at Alexandria, Egypt, and gives Italy a war force close to the Suez Canal.

HIGH SCHOOL EXAMS

There are strong arguments for and against government examinations in schools. It is claimed that such examinations do not give a true picture of the knowledge of the pupils and that certain nervous students often fail because of mental strain.

When examinations are held some teachers become too anxious and work the pupils too hard whereas, if they are eliminated, there is too much of a tendency to slacken off and good results are not obtained.

In the High Schools following the recent ruling, it is presumed that examinations will be held by the school staff but that there will be no departmental exams that the results of the school examinations will be only a guide to the staff and not an infallible test.

ALICE ARM AGAIN

It is satisfactory to know that there is activity at Alice Arm once more. A mill has been installed there and it has already turned over and commenced grinding ore.

There is every probability that there will be activity on other properties at the Arm this coming season and it is possible that it may yet become an important mining centre.

REFUNDING IN SIGHT

It seems as if provincial refunding at lower interest rates is in sight following the decision to recommend the establishment of a national loan council and the laying down of a general scheme for federal guarantee of provincial loans. With federal backing a low rate of interest may be secured and the burden of the provinces will be lightened considerably.

The formulation of the plan was the direct result of the meeting of premiers in Ottawa which, in some quarters, was declared to have been a failure.

Man in the Moon

Good day! How do you like the snow and ice?

Superintendent Walton came to town today to see how we were behaving since the revival in business commenced. He found us waiting for something to turn up.

Never mind, Mr. Walton, we may get a pulp mill and if we don't we shall carry on and make a good town of Prince Rupert, possibly a big city. At any rate it's good to know the railway is behind us and the sea in front.

The editor says that since that little war in Ethiopia turned out to be a flop, he finds it difficult to find headlines for the front page each day.

Jake says that when he found there was frost and snow in Prince Rupert he went on a skate and found the ice very slippery around the neighborhood of the city garden on Fulton Street.

Jake says he thought a moratorium on police court cases would be declared since Magistrate McClymont was taken ill.

Now Skating Where Ice is Thicker

Sir Samuel Hoare will be able to devote more of his time to fancy skating on real thick ice now that he has resigned his post as British foreign secretary. On his last attempt at skating, Sir Samuel found the ice of Switzerland too hard, and injured his nose; he found the diplomatic ice too thin and crashed through to lose his office over the now notorious Hoare-Laval treaty for the partitioning of Ethiopia in Italy's favor.

SPORT CHAT

In more ways than one nature has been improved upon in preparation of the skating rink for the winter Olympics in Germany. There are many beautiful lakes in nearby valleys that would make almost ideal skating and hockey arenas, but officials wanted something that would be 100 percent suited to the purpose. They recalled that a sudden thaw in 1928 played havoc with preparations at St. Moritz—whose altitude is 3,300 feet higher than Garmisch-Partenkirchen's 2,100 feet—and in 1932 at Lake Placid. So they spurned the idyllic ice sheets nature placed there and built an artificial rink which will enable officials, spectators and competitors to disregard the weather, come what may during the 10 days of contests beginning February 6. They made it large enough to accommodate the crowds from 28 nations, especially at the closing ceremonies; they placed it in a conveniently central spot near the railroad station, and they added several modern trimmings.

The rink itself is 100 by 200 feet. Its main stand, 200 feet long, has 1,500 seats and faces south, so spectators may see both the events and the glorious Wetterstein and Zugspitze peaks before them. The three open sides will accommodate 8,000 standees. Light measuring nearly 90,000 candle power from 28 arcs will flood the rink at night. It will be so bright pictures may be taken without other illumination. Twelve miles of piping under the surface was necessary to insure uniform freezing.

For timing the hockey matches, two electric clocks will be used—one to register the 15-minute playing periods, and the other the elapsed time. When time out is called a red light will flash. Sirens will announce the beginning and end of play. Places for 300 newspapermen will be available in boxes above the main stand. The ice stadium also has its post office and press headquarters. Meanwhile, Garmisch-Partenkirchen is putting the last touches on general preparations. Its normal population of 15,000 is expected to be increased nearly 10 times during the games, although not all visitors will live there. Many will have to find beds in other Bavarian towns. Accommodations will be available for about 10,000 persons there. The greatest crowds are expected February 6, 9 and 16. Railroad officials expect, as a matter of course, to bring 56,000 persons daily from Munich and 15,000 from Innsbruck.

Making Thrill For Ski Jumps

Olympic Courses in Germany Give Scope For Smart Leaping

GARMISCH - PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Jan. 15: (CP)—Recent snowfalls have provided plenty of the necessary top for skiing and bobsleigh courses for the opening of the winter Olympics here Feb. 3. Officials have decided it will not be necessary to move the runs to higher altitudes.

The ski jump is perhaps the outstanding part of the Olympic scene here. Its tower is 142 feet high and it has a long, graceful incline enabling the contestant to gain great speed before he starts his leap. Then the skier sails nearly up to 300 feet through the air. The present record of 273 feet, set last February, is held by Raymond Soerensen of Norway.

FEWER PUBLIC HOUSES

Lake Manitoba Hunters' Choice

Poor Duck Season Unknown Since King George's Visit

POPLAR POINT, Man., Jan. 15: (CP)—Old huntsmen of Manitoba are convinced King George V knows a good hunting spot. Along the southern shore of Lake Manitoba, where the Duke of York elected to hunt ducks 34 years ago, every season is a good season, nimb-rods agree.

His Royal Highness, an expert hunter, was driven from Poplar Point to the hunting locale, 17 miles north of here, in a democrat drawn by a four-horse team. A platform was erected on the marshes and a special squad of Royal Northwest Mounted Police detailed to escort him to and from the lake.

A cordon was thrown around the shooting platform for a distance of half a mile to prevent anyone interfering with the hunt. A bag of 40 ducks before breakfast was considered a "fair" shoot by the royal party.

The duchess, now Queen Mary, at that time was more interested in activities of the farmer. She spent her time watching a threshing outfit in operation and endeared herself to all concerned by a keen desire to have explained to her each detail of operation. She, personally, filled a sack with freshly-threshed grain which, at her request, was placed aboard the special train for their return to England.

Unlike other ladies in her party, Her Royal Highness substituted an ordinary travelling suit for the famous "bustle" and train dress. Thousands of persons were on hand to greet the royal couple and the duchess wandered through the crowd, stopping here and there to chat with numerous admirers.

Her Royal Highness was photographed standing alongside the threshing outfit and each member of the crew was presented with a picture. The members of the outfit are now scattered across the country, some in cities, some tilling the soil, but with them always will be a picture of the harvest they will never forget.

TRADE OF CANADA UP

While non-ferrous metals moved to external markets to the amount of $95,546,000, an increase of 22.2%. The movement of non-metallic minerals to outside countries was 11.2% greater and chemicals and miscellaneous commodities showed gains of 14.4% and 5.1%, respectively.

Money Exports Down

During the first 10 months of 1935, the exports of coin and bullion were $84,850,000 against $91,735,000 in the same months of 1934. The indicated decline was 7.5%. The sum of the exports of Canadian and foreign produce and coin and bullion was more than $671,000,000 against $624,600,000. Imports of merchandise plus the small amount of bullion imported were $456,840,000 against $425,100,000. The excess of exports over imports, gold being added to both accounts, was $214,500,000 against $199,000,000. The gain in the so-called favorable balance of trade, including gold, was thus 7.5% over the same period of 1934.

While exports to the United Kingdom from Canada showed a gain of 7% in this comparison, the proportion to the whole export trade of the Dominion receded from 41.5% to 40.3%. Exports of Canadian produce of other Empire countries rose from $53,900,000 to $59,300,000, a gain of 11%.

Imports from the United Kingdom at $96,600,000 showed a gain of only 3.2% in this comparison. This value was 21% of the total imports from other Empire countries were $45,800,000, showing a gain of 30%.

The streets were very slippery in some parts of the city yesterday. At McBride and Third Avenue quite a little crowd gathered to watch the manner in which cars made the turning. Many of the cars swerved off the road and a few turned end for end.

Albert Farrow, steambot inspector, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning from Vancouver, being here to make an inspection of the steamer Prince Rupert which is now undergoing annual overhaul at the local dry dock.

Ole Phillipson of North Pacific Cannery, who has been spending the Christmas and New Year holiday season in Vancouver, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning on his way back to the Skeena River. Mrs. Phillipson and family are remaining in the south for a while longer.

W. H. Tobey, C. N. R. divisional superintendent, who has been on a brief trip to Vancouver on official business, returned to the city from the south on the Prince George this morning and will proceed on this evening's train to the interior as far as Jasper Park with a party of other officials who are on the coast from Winnipeg.

The streets were very slippery in some parts of the city yesterday. At McBride and Third Avenue quite a little crowd gathered to watch the manner in which cars made the turning. Many of the cars swerved off the road and a few turned end for end.

Lillian Jenkins was found guilty by S. D. Macdonald and G. H. Munro, justices of the peace, last night on a charge of being the keeper of a disorderly house and was fined $50, with option of sixty days' imprisonment. The fine was paid. The charge against Roy Fisher of being a frequenter was adjourned for eight days.

The regular monthly business luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyo Club was held today. Business included the making of arrangements for the installation of officers at a dinner gathering on Wednesday evening of next week by District Governor J. H. Waterman of Seattle. Past President W. H. Tobey presided over today's luncheon in the absence from the city of President S. J. Jabour who will be back next week.

T. H. Johnson, charter member and past president of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club, will give a farewell address to that organization at its regular weekly luncheon tomorrow. With Mrs. Johnson, he will be leaving for Vancouver on the Prince George tomorrow evening. Later in the spring they intend to pay a visit to England. Many farewell social affairs have been held recently in honor of Mrs. Johnson. Mr. Johnson is recovering from an attack of quinsy which has been bothering him the last few days.

London Council to Make New Effort to Clear Slum Area

While some work has been done toward the clearing of the slums of Britain, the claim is made by the London County Council that it is mostly talk and not much action. The council, composed largely of Labor representatives, is launching a new plan for London's metropolitan area. Above are actual scenes of slum clearance in London, showing a new street where children may play in safety and enjoy plenty of sunlight and fresh air. Left, a scene in a section of London's slum area showing intolerable conditions in which one-sixth of the population of Britain are forced to live.

CZECH STAR FEATURED

Francis Lederer Has Leading Role in "The Gay Deceiver" At Capitol Theatre

Francis Lederer, romantic Czech star, who is rapidly gaining in popularity, heads the cast in "The Gay Deceiver," a light-hearted inspired comedy, which is being featured on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this mid-week on a double bill with "This is the Life," starring nine-year old Jane Withers in a singing, dancing and dramatic role.

The gay deceivers of "The Gay Deceiver" are Lederer, a prince masquerading as the member of the staff of an ultra-luxurious hotel, and Frances Dee, who is having a fling on some money she has won and pretends to be an heiress. The pair meet and the principals are whirled through a hilarious series of comedy adventures to a joyous romantic climax. Alan Mowbray and Benita Hume are seen in the principal supporting roles.

"This is the Life" finds little Jane Withers singing, dancing and clowning as a child star who desires only to be a normal youngster. However, she is the virtual slave of unscrupulous guardians who are making a "meal ticket" of her. Featured with Jane is John McGuire, who scored a hit in a juvenile role in Will Rogers' "Steamboat Round the Bend." Others in the cast are Sidney Toler, Francis Ford and Sally Blane.

The Letter Box

THE SKEENA BOUNDARY

Editor, Daily News:

I see by your paper the fishermen held a meeting on the question of moving the boundary on the Skeena. The powers that be want to move it down to Point Lambert. Instead of moving it down they should move it up, and close the fishing down outside, as when salmon get into fresh water they don't leave it again. The gas-boats are going further out after sockeye every year, pretty soon the Skeena Sockeye will be over in Japan.

The independent fishermen wouldn't mind if the canneries were closed down for a few years, there are canneries on the river that had only two white fishermen out of 80 boats.

What we independent white fishermen want is the boundary left exactly where it stands today, for Spring Salmon and Cohoe fishing.

The canneries have been trying hard for years to get the white men off the river. Last year we had the best Cohoe fishing in years but out of about 400 boats there were only twenty-five white men, the only white fish buyer was sent below to get him out of the way.

After the Japs come traps. I see some of the fishermen are worrying who pinches them. I would just as soon be pinched by a politician as a patrolman put there by the canneries. I expect if the river closes down the government will send someone out to feed the seals.

A FISHERMAN,
Haysport, B. C.
