Capitol Theatre Has Special Attractions-"Stage Struck" For Christmas

"Stage Struck," a gay and snappy musical comedy with an all star cast including such favorites as Dick Powell, Joan Blondell, Warren William and Frank McHugh, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre as the especially attractive feature for Christmas and Boxing Days on both of which there will be special afternoon matinees as well as the regular evening shows.

In "Stage Struck" Powell has the role of a dance director who is driven to distraction by his star, Joan Blondell, whom he cannot discharge because her money backs the show. She has gained notoriety and riches through many marriages and the shooting of her latest mate. William has the role of a cagy producer who resorts to psychology to control his temperamental star and angel. McHugh plays the part of a comic assistant to Powell.

The picture is filmed on a lavish scale and there are three spectacular chorus numbers as well as song hits such as "Fancy Meeting You," "In Your Own Quiet Way," "The Body Beautiful" and "The Income

A special advertisement today shows special features in the way of entertainment coming to the Capitol during the Christmas and New Year holidays.
