The Address

The address read: "We, the veterans of the Canadian National Railways and associated companies, desire to give expression to the goodwill which we bear to the railroad and its staff. As it enters upon its second century of service to the public, the Canadian National carries with it the sincere good wishes of the great army of veterans more than 6,000 men and women who have completed their years of active railroad service but whose hearts remain loyal to their railway. To our nation-wide transportation system and to the 80,000 men and women employees upon it we pledge loyal support, confident that the years ahead will bring to the enterprise full measure of success. Six thousand, two hundred and seventy names are inscribed on the accompanying roll of Canadian National veterans."

High tribute to the spirit which prompted the great army of veterans in making this striking demonstration of their affection for the road was voiced by E. P. ALL ARE SINNERS

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

There is a general tendency on the part of cities to consider themselves the only important part of the universe. It is said that New Yorkers are the most ignorant people in the world, because they know almost nothing of what lies a few miles beyond Broadway. So Vancouver, as reflected by its newspapers and the speeches of its public men seems to consider the rest of the country only in the light of how it can benefit that great and progressive city.

It is claimed that Prince Rupert also sins in the same manner. While objecting to the attitude of Vancouver shel forgets that smaller neighboring communities look to her for a lead and they find that Prince Rupert people and St. Louis papers consider everything in its relation to the prosper- Philadelphia ity of their city.

Evidently it is the attitude of every city. Undoubtedly JR. ELKS it is not the proper attitude but is fostered by the boards of trade and business people. The newspapers through their frequent and close affiliation with the business interests become imbued with similar fallacies.

What is needed is a broader outlook on the part of all with a proper appreciation of what each community is doing and the part it plays in the work of building up the Canadian nation.
