ADOLF HITLER

Who denounced Locarno and Versailles treaties today and sent German armies into Rhineland.

EYES ON GERMANY

Was Expected to Denounce Both Locarno Pact and Treaty Of Versailles Today

LONDON, March 7:—The eyes of Europe were riveted with anxiety today upon Berlin where Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler had called a special session of the Reich to receive an "important declaration" from the Nazi government. While the statement is reported to have been ready for three days, its contents had been guarded with secrecy. It had been reported, however, that both the Locarno Pact and the Treaty of Versailles would be denounced on the ground that Germany no longer considers itself bound by either treaty.

Armed Bandits Made Getaway In Stolen Car With Loot

Reichsfuehrer Shows Some Disposition Towards Reconciliation But Insists On Freedom For His Country—Castigates Franco-Russian Treaty.

BERLIN, March 7: (CP)—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, thundering to his brown-shirt Nazi Reichstag that the Locarno Pact was dead, sent German troops into the demilitarized Rhineland today and pronounced the fight for Germany's freedom finished. In swift thrusts, the Reichsfuehrer offered Europe a new western-demilitarized frontier on a co-operative basis, declared that he was ready to sign a non-aggression treaty and an air pact with his western neighbors and expressed willingness—if these things transpire—to return to the League of Nations.

Then Hitler dissolved the Reichstag and called for a plebiscite on March 29 to prove to the world that the German people were behind him. Hitler pleaded his friendship for France, detailed what he said were his constant efforts for a rapprochement with that country and castigated the new Franco-Russian mutual assistance pact as one which might lead to "unpredictable consequences" for Europe. This pact, he shouted with its danger to Europe of Bolshevik "chaos," freed Germany from Locarno.

Prior to addressing the Reichstag, Hitler told foreign diplomats of his intention to occupy the Rhineland in violation of both the Locarno Pact and the Treaty of Versailles.

Italo-Ethiopian Crisis Is Insignificant as Compared With Hitler's Action Today

GENEVA, March 7: (CP)—League of Nations circles declared today that Adolf Hitler's denunciation of the Locarno Treaty has precipitated a grave international crisis which makes the Italo-Ethiopian war insignificant in comparison.

League officials predicted an early extraordinary session of the council, possibly together with the assembly, in a great world peace conference called in an attempt to draft a substitute for the Versailles as well as the Locarno Treaty.

PLAN FOR SETTLING

Chamber of Commerce Again Endorses Voluntary Migration Project From Britain

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its regular monthly meeting last night adopted a report from the publicity committee, H. F. Pullen, chairman, recommending endorsement of the Voluntary Empire Migration movement. Brigadier General M. L. Hornby, the father of the scheme, will be so informed. The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has already endorsed the Hornby plan of land settlement but this second endorsement was recommended in order to bring it officially before the administrations at Ottawa and Victoria. It is from Ottawa that the first official move must come before the British government will act. As the provincial government controls the land of the province it must necessarily be closely associated with such a move.

The object of the plan is to apply to Canada a scheme of voluntary migration for settlement from the United Kingdom to the Dominions. At a conference in Newcastle, England, the British government was called upon to take action together with the Dominion governments to aid such a colonization scheme. The proposals of the conference were laid before the British government and received a sympathetic hearing.

Under the plan a number of foundation community settlements would be established in Canada on areas of proven land close to or in the midst of existing settlements. The land for these settlements would be purchased by committees in Britain and settlers would be placed on them as tenant farmers until such time as they had proved their adaptability and learned how to farm. Then they would be encouraged to acquire farms of their own and others would take their places in the foundation settlements. The aim would be to secure a continuous voluntary movement of British settlers devoted to agriculture.

The essence of the Hornby plan is that it provides the new immigrant with a home and a farm on a tenancy basis with agricultural training under expert supervision and with financial backing until such time as he has proved his fitness to farm on his own. Then and not till then it provides finances to help him make his own start. The scheme also provides that those who do not prove adapted to the work shall be returned to Britain at the expense of the committee that sent them to Canada.

GRITS BOLT TO TORIES

Murray and McPherson Join Pooley in Division At Victoria

VICTORIA, March 7: (CP)—Two Liberals voted with the Opposition Friday in the Legislature as the government was sustained 28 to 15 in division on a resolution that the House did not believe it advisable to call a special session in the autumn.

The division followed Premier Pattullo's announcement that he considered the motion one of lack of confidence. The Premier added that, if the members signed a round robin stating they wished the House to adjourn until fall without additional indemnities, he would be pleased. George Murray, Liberal member for Lillooet, seconded the Pooley motion and Dugald McPherson, Liberal member for Grand Forks - Greenwood, also voted with the Opposition.

Improvements At San Diego Harbor

WASHINGTON D. C., March 7:—An appropriation of $4,000,000 to the Navy Department for the making of extensive improvements at San Diego harbor was approved yesterday.

Enemy Over Addis Ababa

ADDIS ABABA, March 7:—The first enemy airplane appeared over Addis Ababa yesterday and thousands of the townspeople fled to the hills in virtual panic. It was a tri-motored observation plane which flew about over the city for some time at a high altitude but attempted no attack. Ethiopian anti-aircraft guns attempted to reach it but, apparently, without success. It is believed by many that the visit of the ship may be a forerunner of aerial attack on this capital city of Ethiopia.

ABERHART'S LATEST
We have tried not to criticize any of the Social Credit movements, hoping that possibly this might be the way out of the present financial impasse by which there are plenty of goods but no money with which to buy. We have held back when others have been prophesying disaster to the Aberhart scheme in Alberta. We have felt that, if it proved to be workable, the scheme should be adopted.

It now seems evident that the leader of the party did not know what he was talking about when he promised the electors of the province a dividend of $25 a month. This has now become clear because he is planning appointment of a commission to inquire into the feasibility of the scheme which he has been advocating and on which he was returned to power.

The proposed inquiry is an admission that the leader has no scheme and never had one. He seems to have been relying on Major Douglas, chief proponent of Social Credit, to work out a scheme for him, but the major could not risk his reputation on so futile an effort.

We are still hoping that Mr. Aberhart will put his ideals into practice in order to make a test. If there has to be a pioneer, why not Alberta? If the people there try it, we shall be in a better position to discuss it in future.

SAILING UNDER FALSE COLORS
There are still many people who profess to be Liberals in politics who should be supporting the Conservative party and there are a number of progressive men on the Conservative side who should be in the ranks of the Liberal party. To illustrate this:

Some years ago in one of the medium-sized cities of Canada there was an editor of a Liberal newspaper who was always opposing anything new. When motor cars were introduced he ridiculed them continuously and declared that they never could take the place of the old fashioned horse. And yet readers of this paper were informed recently that not a horse is left in Prince Rupert. All have been ousted by motor traffic. The car has triumphed over the horse.

The editor in question was supposed to be a Liberal but he was not. He was always looking backward, never forward.

So there are in Prince Rupert plenty of people who are opposed to all change. They are Conservatives in reality but at election time they line up with the Liberals and vote for policies which must mean change.

Girl Guides At Story Hour In Demonstration

The Story Hour was held this morning in the Elks' Hall with sixty-three children present. The program opened with a story by Miss Winnie Cameron.

A group of ten girl guides paid a visit and gave a demonstration of bandaging and signalling. They also sang campfire songs. Miss Noreen Gibson was in charge of the group and spoke for a few moments on the work of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides. The others taking part were Betty Wilkinson, Kay O'Neill, Helen Brown, Muriel Eby, Edna McLean, Joan Baker, Audrey Watkinson, Norah McCaffery and Betty Borland.

Mrs. C. W. Dawson told a story after which the hour was brought to a close with a song in unison. Miss V. Feero was pianist.

Next week the hour will be for children four to eight inclusive and will be in charge of Mrs. Neal Carter, Mrs. Nelson Allen and Mrs. G. P. Tinker.

Activity General in Preparation For Halibut Season—Princess Louise Coming Next Week—Reconditioning Cargo of Maid of Orleans

With the halibut fishing season opening on March 16, the early part of the month sees much stir from one end to the other of the Prince Rupert waterfront. Machine shops and boat repairing establishments are all humming getting the fleet in readiness for the year's work. After the quiet of the winter months, the activity on all hands is good to see. There does not appear to be a ripple of any kind to interfere with a prompt and orderly opening of the 1936 season. There is also a feeling of general confidence that this may be a better year from the financial standpoint than the last few have been. That, of course, is something that time alone will tell.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, which arrived in port at 2:15 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints, after the completion of this voyage, will cross over from Vancouver to Victoria to be withdrawn for annual overhaul. She will be off the run for two or three weeks and the Princess Louise will be placed on the run during her absence.

Perishable cargo aboard the American auxiliary schooner Maid of Orleans, which was brought here this week by the Armour Salvage Co. after having stranded on Sarah Island in the course of a voyage from Seattle to the Aleutian Islands, is now being reconditioned at the dock of the Armour Salvage Co. where the ship is tied up. No instructions had been received up to this afternoon of what disposal is to be made of the ship and her cargo.

According to figures compiled here from available statistics, no less than 14,955,400 pounds of fresh fish was landed at the port of Boston alone during the month of January. Cod and haddock, as is well known, are the principal varieties of fish landed at Boston. The figures remind one that Prince Rupert, with its sixteen or seventeen million pounds of halibut per year, is by no means the only fresh fish port of importance in the world. The great amount of fresh fish produced on the Atlantic may sometimes be lost sight of.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. J. E. Boden, on the last of several voyages on the route of the steamer Cardena, arrived in port at 2:30 this morning and sailed an hour or so later on her return to Vancouver. The Cardena will be back on her regular run next week.

Inaugurating the ten-day schedule to Alaska for the spring, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, is due in port tomorrow morning from the south on her way to Skagway and other northern points whence she is scheduled to call here southbound on Thursday afternoon.

With party of local badminton players on board for a series of games to be played today and tomorrow at the smelter town, Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Algie, Capt. Reg Green, sailed at 7 o'clock last evening for Ocean Falls. The party is due back on Monday afternoon. The party consists of Miss Frances Cross, Miss Bessie

SOCIAL FOR FISHERMEN

Delightful Farewell Affair Held Thursday Night by Sons of Norway Lodge

Following a regular lodge meeting Thursday night, a farewell social for halibut fishermen, prior to the opening of the season, was held in the Oddfellows' Hall by the Sons of Norway, the affair proving highly enjoyable to some 150 persons.

Sather, who was in the chair, piano solo by Peter Lien, vocal solo by Mrs. Anton Dybhavn, vocal solo by Ray Fossum, reading by Mrs. Hans Underdahl, vocal and instrumental trio by Ray Fossum, Miss Wick and Dave Hadland and violin solo by Dave Hadland.

Music for the dancing was by Dave Hadland's Orchestra and E. Greenstrand was master of ceremonies.

Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Will Ask Associated Boards to Back Up Request

The Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night on recommendation of the trade and commerce committee, decided to write to Olof Hanson, the federal member, asking him to use his influence to try to secure a grant to enable the railway company to provide a mail car four days weekly.

It was also decided to try to secure a four train weekly service all next winter on the expiry of the summer schedule and that the support of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia be asked with a view to securing the extra train per week.

Play at United Church Repeated

Large and Appreciative Audience—Presentation to Mrs. Manson

The play "I Will! I Won't!" under the auspices of the United Church Ladies' Aid, was repeated again last evening, there being a good crowd in attendance to witness another fine performance.

Following the play refreshments were served to those taking part and Mrs. J. Clavring, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid, presented Mrs. John Manson with a lovely sandwich serving set, in appreciation of the splendid work done by her in directing the play and making it the success it was.

Before the play and between acts splendid music was furnished by Miss Nellie Lawrence's juvenile orchestra under the leadership of Billy Hadden.

Ushers for the evening were Mrs. Elmer Thompson and Miss Dorothy Styles and curtain pullers were Billy Manson and Alf Larson.
